and

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Viſcounts' Bench.

Lord Viſc. Harberton introduced.

The Right Honorable Arthur Lord Harberton, being by Letters Patents dated the fifth Day of July in the thirty-firſt Year of King George III. created Viſcount Harberton, of Carbery in the County of Kildare, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Lord Viſcount Ranelagh and the Lord Viſcount Pery, alſo in their Robes; the Yeoman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the ſaid Letters Patents preceding: His Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table; his Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Viſcounts' Bench.

Earl of Meath takes his Seat.

This Day William Earl of Meath ſat firſt in Parliament, after the Death of his Father Anthony Earl of Meath, his Lordſhip having firſt at the Table, taken the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo taken and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

The Hon. Juſtice Hewitt takes the Oaths.

The Honorable Joſeph Hewitt, fourth Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of King's Bench, delivered his Writ in the accuſtomed manner, and came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

The Houſe being informed that Ulſter King of Arms attended;

He was called in, and delivered at the Bar,

A Return from the Office of Arms; alſo, a correct Liſt of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Peereſſes of Ireland. Return from Office of Arms.

And then he withdrew.

And the Titles thereof being read by the Clerk;

Ordered, that the ſaid Return and Liſt do lie on the Table.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed:

And his Excellency John Earl of Weſtmorland, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Marquis of Waterford carrying the Cap of Maintenance, and the Earl of Milltown the Sword of State; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats. Lord Lieutenant preſent.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and then ſtanding on the right Hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Yeoman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint the Commons that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in this Houſe. Commons ſent for:

And the Commons being come, they with their Speaker were conducted to the Bar with the uſual Ceremonies. they enter.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I HAVE it in Command from his Majeſty to acquaint you, that ſince the Cloſe of the laſt Seſſion, Preliminaries of Peace have been ſigned between Ruſſia and the Porte, and thoſe Powers are now engaged in Negotiation for a Definitive Treaty, which his Majeſty truſts will complete the Reſtoration of Tranquillity amongſt the different Powers of Europe. Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

His Majeſty, convinced of the Intereſt you take in whatever concerns his domeſtic Happineſs, commands me to acquaint you of the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York with the Princeſs Royal of Pruſſia.

Gentlemen

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered the proper Officers to lay before you the National Accounts; and I truſt you will make ſuch Proviſions as are neceſſary for the Exigencies of the State, and the honorable Support of his Majeſty's Government.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The conſtant Attention you have ſhewn to the Intereſts of Ireland, makes it unneceſſary to recommend to you a Continuance of that wiſe Syſtem of Policy, from which your Country has received ſuch ineſtimable Advantages in the Increaſe of her Trade, her Credit, and Manufactures. It is equally unneceſſary for me particularly to point out the Encouragement of your Agriculture, and Attention to your Linen Manufacture. The Proteſtant Charter Schools, and other charitable Inſtitutions, will receive your accuſtomed Conſideration.

You may be aſſured of my zealous Co-operation to forward every Meaſure that may contribute to the Public Welfare. I ſhall pay unremitting Attention to the due Execution of the Law, and the Maintenance of good Order and Government, ſo eſſential to the Continuance of that Freedom, Proſperity and Happineſs which Ireland enjoys under his Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, and under our excellent Conſtitution.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table;

Speech to be printed.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

A Reſolution being propoſed, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, requeſting Leave to approach his Majeſty with the moſt affectionate Duty, and the moſt zealous Attachment to his Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

To acknowledge with ſincere Thanks, his Majeſty's Goodneſs in the Communication made from the Throne, that ſince the Cloſe of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, Preliminaries of Peace have been ſigned between Ruſſia and the Porte, and that we rejoice in the Hope that the Definitive Treaty, in the Negotiation of which thoſe Powers are engaged, will complete the Reſtoration of Tranquillity amongſt the different Powers of Europe.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that the Intereſt and Happineſs of his People are involved in that of his Majeſty; and that we learn with heartfelt Joy, the Addition to his Majeſty's domeſtic Felicity, and to the Luſtre of his Crown, by the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York with the Princeſs Royal of Pruſſia.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we are happy in the Reflection, that the conſtant Attention which the Parliament of Ireland has ſhewn to the Intereſts of the Country, hath been attended with that Succeſs which they expected, in the very great Increaſe of her Trade, Credit, Agriculture and Manufactures; and that we will ſteadily purſue every Syſtem of Policy, which may ſecure and improve thoſe ineſtimable Advantages.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we will not omit our accuſtomed Conſideration of the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and other charitable Inſtitutions.

To entreat his Majeſty to accept our ſincere Thanks for continuing the Earl of Weſtmorland in the Government of this Country. That the Honor and Integrity of that Nobleman, are ſure Pledges to us of his beſt Exertions to forward every Meaſure that may contribute to the Public Welfare. And that upon his Firmneſs we rely for the due Execution of the Law, and the Maintenance of good Order and Government, ſo eſſential to the Enjoyment of that Freedom, Proſperity and Happineſs, which this Nation derives under our excellent Conſtitution, and under his Majeſty's auſpicious Reign.

And the laſt Paragraph being objected to; and the Queſtion being put, that the Houſe do agree to the ſaid Reſolution; laſt Paragraph objected to.

The Houſe divided; and the Lord Viſcount Allen reported, that the Contents below the Bar were twenty-nine; and the Not-contents in the Houſe were Three.

It was reſolved in the Affirmative. agreed to.

DISSENTIENT.

BECAUSE that, altho' we moſt heartily join in every Expreſſion of Reſpect and loyal Duty to our gracious Sovereign, and eſpecially in conveying to his Majeſty our moſt ſincere Congratulations on the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York with the Princeſs Royal of Pruſſia, an auſpicious Event, which not only contributes to increaſe his Majeſty's domeſtic Happineſs, but that of all his People; We cannot conſiſt- Proteſt.

ently with our Conſcience or Principles, join in thanking a Sovereign, whom it is in the higheſt Degree criminal to deceive, for having continued in the Government of Ireland, a Viceroy under whoſe Adminiſtration Meaſures, in our Opinion inimical to the Public Welfare, have been ſupported with Succeſs, and every Meaſure beneficial to this Kingdom, has been uniformly and pertinaciouſly oppoſed and defeated.

LEINSTER.
ARRAN.
CHARLEMONT.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the moſt affectionate Duty and the moſt zealous Attachment to your royal Perſon, Family and Government.

The Intereſt and Happineſs of your People is involved in that of your Majeſty. We learn with heartfelt Joy the Addition to your Majeſty's domeſtic Felicity, and to the Luſtre of your Crown, by the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York with the Princeſs Royal of Pruſſia.

We acknowledge with ſincere Thanks, your Majeſty's Goodneſs in the Communication made from the Throne, that ſince the Cloſe of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, Preliminaries of Peace have been ſigned between Ruſſia and the Porte; and we rejoice in the Hope that the Reſtoration of the Tranquillity of Europe may be completed by the Negociation for a Definitive Treaty between thoſe Powers.

We will not omit our accuſtomed Conſideration of the Proteſtant Charter-Schools, and other charitable Inſtitutions.

We intreat your Majeſty to accept our ſincereſt Thanks for continuing the Earl of Weſtmorland in the Government of this Country. The manly Honor and Integrity of that Nobleman are ſure Pledges to us of the Exertion of his Abilities in forwarding every Meaſure that may contribute to the public Welfare. And upon the Firmneſs of his Spirit, we rely for the due Execution of the Law and the Maintenance of good Order and Government, ſo eſſential to the Enjoyment of that Freedom, Proſperity and Happineſs which this Nation derives under our excellent Conſtitution, and under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order that the ſame may be laid before his Majeſty.

The Lord De Montalt reported from the Lords Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe as follows, viz.

To his Excellency

JOHN Earl of WESTMORLAND,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, requeſt your Excellency to accept our ſincere Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

We look forward with cordial Satisfaction, to the Reſtoration of Tranquillity amongſt the different Powers of Europe, and hope the Definitive Treaty between Ruſſia and the Porte will complete that deſirable Object.

We receive with the higheſt Satisfaction, the Communication which your Excellency has been pleaſed to make to us by his Majeſty's Command, of the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York with the Princeſs Royal of Pruſſia. We moſt heartily congratulate your Excellency upon an Event which adds to the Happineſs of his Majeſty's grateful Subjects, in proportion to the Pleaſure it gives their beloved Sovereign.

The great Increaſe of the Credit, Trade, Manufactures and Agriculture of this Country, are Sources of the higheſt Satisfaction to us. We ſhall carefully follow the Policy by which the Wiſdom of Parliament hath matured the Progreſs of theſe ineſtimable Advantages.

We ſhall not fail to conſider the State of the Proteſtant Charter Schools and other charitable Inſtitutions with our accuſtomed Attention.

We return your Excellency our warmeſt Thanks for your Aſſurances of Co-operation in every Meaſure that may contribute to the Public Welfare.

We gratefully acknowledge his Majeſty's Goodneſs in continuing to us a Chief Governor, whoſe ſteady Uprightneſs inſures to us the due Execution of the Law, and the Maintenance of good Order and Government. Theſe are the firm and eſſential Supports of that Freedom, Proſperity and Happineſs which we enjoy under his Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, and under our excellent Conſtitution.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that in Obedience to their Lordſhips' Order he had waited on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know what time he would pleaſe to appoint to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency; and that his Excellency was pleaſed to appoint To-morrow at half an Hour paſt three o'Clock, at the Caſtle.

After hearing Counsel this Day, to argue the Errors assigned upon the Writ of Error brought into this House on the seventh Day of February last, wherein John Page, John Page, junior, Samuel Page, junior, and others are Plaintiffs, and the King at the Relation of William Eustace, is Defendant, in order to reverse a Judgment given in the Court of King's Bench for the said Defendant; and after due Consideration had of what was offered in this Cause:

Judgment.

IT is considered, and also ordered and adjudged, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the said Judgment of the Court of King's Bench be, and the same is hereby affirmed, and that the Record be remitted; and it is hereby further ordered and adjudged, that the Plaintiffs in Error do pay or cause to be paid to the Defendant in Error the Sum of One Hundred Pounds for his Costs in this House.

The Tenor of which Judgment, to be affixed to the Transcript to be remitted, is as follows:

On which Day, before the same Court of Parliament at Dublin, came as well the said John Page, John Page, junior, Samuel Page, junior, John Richardson, Thomas Murphy, John Maxwell, Henry Maxwell, Robert Maxwell, Ralph Trueman, Archibald Wright, Michael Clarke, Joseph Greene, Joseph Shekleton, Henry Hale, Robert Kelly, Thomas Johnston, John Murphy, otherwise called James Murphy, John Mc.Call, Jeremiah Vickers, Gerald Byrne, John Forster, William Ogle, and Henry Ogle, as the Coroner and Attorney of our Lord the King, at the Relation of the said William Eustace, in their proper Persons; but because the said Court of Parliament aforesaid, now here, are not yet advised to give their Judgment of and upon the Premises, a Day therefore is given as well to the said John Page, John Page, junior, Samuel Page, junior, John Richardson, Thomas Murphy, John Maxwell, Henry Maxwell, Robert Maxwell, Ralph Trueman, Archibald Wright, Michael Clarke, Joseph Greene, Joseph Shekleton, Henry Hale, Robert Kelly, Thomas Johnston, John Murphy, otherwise called James Murphy, John Mc.Call, Jeremiah Vickers, Gerald Byrne, John Forster, William Ogle, and the Coroner and Attorney of our said Lord the King, before the said Court of Parliament, until Wednesday the seventh Day of March next ensuing, wheresoever, &c. to hear their Judgment thereon, on which Day, before the same Court of Parliament at Dublin, came as well the said John Page, John Page, junior, Samuel Page, junior, John Richardson, Thomas Murphy, John Maxwell, Henry Maxwell, Robert Maxwell, Ralph Trueman, Archibald Wright, Michael Clarke, Joseph Greene, Joseph Shekleton, Henry Hale, Robert Kelly, Thomas Johnston, John Murphy, otherwise called James Murphy, John Mc.Call, Jeremiah Vickers, Gerald Byrne, John Forster, William Ogle, and Henry Ogle, as the Coroner and Attorney of our said Lord the King, at the Relation of the said William Eustace, in their proper Persons, whereupon all and singular the Premises having been by the said Court of Parliament, now here, more fully understood, and as well the Record and Proceedings aforesaid, and the Judgment thereupon given in the Court of King's Bench at Dublin, as the said Causes and Matters above assigned for Error, by the said John Page, John Page, junior, Samuel Page, junior, John Richardson, Thomas Murphy, John Maxwell, Henry Maxwell, Robert Maxwell, Ralph Trueman, Archibald Wright, Michael Clarke, Joseph Greene, Joseph Shekleton, Henry Hale, Robert Kelly, Thomas Johnston, John

John Murphy, otherwiſe called James Murphy, John Mc.Call, Jeremiah Vickers, Gerald Byrne, John Foſter, William Ogle, and Henry Ogle, being diligently examined and inſpected, and mature Deliberation being thereon had, it appears to the Court of Parliament aforeſaid, now here, that there is not any Error in the Record and Proceedings aforeſaid, in giving the Judgment aforeſaid in the Court of King's Bench at Dublin, and that the ſaid Judgment ſo given as aforeſaid is in no wiſe vicious or defective.

Therefore it is conſidered by the Court of Parliament aforeſaid, that the Judgment aforeſaid given in the ſaid Court of King's Bench at Dublin, be in all Things affirmed, and in full Force and Effect, as if no ſuch Writ of Error had been brought into this Houſe. And it is further conſidered by the ſame Court of Parliament aforeſaid, now here, that the ſaid William Euſtace do recover againſt the ſaid John Page, John Page, junior, Samuel Page, junior, John Richardſon, Thomas Murphy, John Maxwell, Henry Maxwell, Robert Maxwell, Ralph Trueman, Archibald Wright, Michael Clarke, Joſeph Greene, Joſeph Shekleton, Henry Hale, Robert Kelly, Thomas Johnſton, John Murphy, otherwiſe called James Murphy, John Mc.Call, Jeremiah Vickers, Gerald Byrne, John Forſter, William Ogle, and Henry Ogle, One Hundred Pounds to the ſaid William Euſtace, with his Aſſent, by the ſame Court of Parliament aforeſaid, according to the Form of the Statute in ſuch Caſe made and provided, adjudged for his Damages, Coſts and Charges, which he ſuſtained by Reaſon of the Delay of the Execution of the Judgment aforeſaid, under Pretence of proſecuting the ſaid Writ of Error; and thereupon the aforeſaid Record, and all the Proceedings aforeſaid, had in the ſaid Court of Parliament, are ſent back to the ſaid Court of our ſaid Lord the King, before the King himſelf, whereſoever he ſhall be in Ireland, to the End that Execution may be done thereupon.

The Houſe was reſumed:

Ordered, that the Grand Committee for Privileges do meet again on this Day three Weeks, on the Claim of Robert Dillon, Eſquire, to the Earldom of Roſcommon.

Mr Dillon's Petition,

Upon reading the Petition of Robert Dillon, Eſquire, ſetting forth, that the Petitioner did on or about the thirteenth Day of February laſt preſent his humble Petition to their Lordſhips, ſtating thereby his Title to the Earldom of Roſcommon in this Kingdom, and praying their Lordſhips might poſtpone the Hearing of this Claim, to enable the Petitioner to procure the Attendance of a material Witneſs.

That the Matter of the Petitioner's Petition and Claim was ordered by their Lordſhips to be heard on the fifth Day of March inſtant. That Andrew Hearne of Hearne's-Brook in the County of Galway, Eſquire, had made two Affidavits in ſupport of the Petitioner's Claim, which were laid before the Prime Serjeant, Attorney General, and Solicitor General of this Kingdom, to whom the Petitioner's Claim had been referred by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, in purſuance of his Majeſty's Directions for that Purpoſe. That the ſaid Andrew Hearne is, and has been for two or three Years paſt, in ſuch a State of Health as to render it impoſſible for him, as the Petitioner believes, to travel to Dublin. That the Petitioner's Counſel did, previous to the ſaid Day on which the Petitioner's Claim was firſt appointed to be heard, adviſe the Petitioner, that the Evidence of the ſaid Andrew Hearne would be exceedingly material in ſupport of the Petitioner's Claim. That the Petitioner did by the Advice of his Counſel, apply to their Lordſhips to poſtpone the Hearing of the Petitioner's Claim for three Weeks, in order that the Petitioner might if poſſible procure the Attendance of the ſaid Andrew Hearne, which their Lordſhips were pleaſed accordingly to do. That the Petitioner does verily believe, that it is not poſſible by any human Means to convey the ſaid Andrew Hearne in his preſent State of ill Health to Dublin, and the Petitioner does alſo believe, there is no Probability of the ſaid Andrew Hearne ever ſo far recovering his Health, as to be able to perform ſuch a Journey. That the Petitioner is adviſed, that the Evidence of the ſaid Andrew Hearne is ſo material to every Part of the Petitioner's Caſe, that he cannot with Safety proceed on his Claim without it; and that the ſaid Andrew Hearne is, as the Petitioner verily believes, a Gentleman of undoubted Honour, Integrity and Veracity. That the ſaid Andrew Hearne is, as the Petitioner believes, allied by Marriage to the Petitioner's Family, and was intimately and well acquainted with James the eighth Earl of Roſcommon, and with other Perſons of the ſame Family. That the ſaid Andrew Hearne is now of an advanced Age; that the Affidavits of the ſaid Andrew Hearne were made before a Maſter Extraordinary of the Court of Chancery, but not in any Cauſe, there not exiſting any Cauſe in which the Petitioner would examine him. That the Petitioner is adviſed, that if the ſaid Andrew Hearne ſhould die before he has given his Evidence in ſome other Manner, that it would be very doubtful whether the Petitioner would be permitted to uſe the ſaid Affidavits as Evidence in ſupport of his Claim. That the Petitioner thus circumſtanced, humbly requeſted their Lordſhips to enable the Petitioner to examine the ſaid Andrew Hearne in ſuch Manner as that he could uſe his Evidence before their Lordſhips, either by ordering that he ſhould be examined upon Interrogatories before a Maſter Extraordinary of the Court of Chancery, or ſuch other Perſon as their Lordſhips ſhould pleaſe to appoint; due Notice being firſt given to his Majeſty's Attorney General, that he may, if he thinks fit, croſs-examine him, or in ſuch other Manner as to their Lordſhips ſhould ſeem agreeable to Juſtice:

And alſo,

Upon reading the Affidavit of the Petitioner, that the Contents of the ſaid Petition are true;

It is ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do iſſue a Commiſſion under the Great Seal, directed to four Commiſſioners, two to be named by the Petitioner Robert Dillon, and two by his Majeſty's Attorney General, to examine Andrew Hearne upon Interrogatories, to be prepared by the ſaid Robert Dillon and the Attorney General, touching the Claim of the ſaid Robert Dillon to the Earldom of Roſcommon, ſuch Commiſſion to be returnable on Thurſday the twenty-ninth of March Inſtant; and that the Attorney General have Notice of ſpeeding ſaid Commiſſion. and Order thereon.

Ordered, that Theobald Dillon, Eſquire, do attend the Grand Committee for Privileges, on Friday the thirtieth of March Inſtant, on the Claim of Robert Dillon, Eſquire, to the Earldom of Roſcommon. Witneſs to attend.

Report from Committee appointed to enquire into the ſtate of the Roads from Dublin through Maryborough, &c.

The Lord Viſcount Ranelagh from the Lords Committees appointed to enquire into the State of the Roads leading from the City of Dublin through the Towns of Maryborough, Borris-in-Oſſory, Roſcrea and Tomivarah to the City of Limerick; and alſo into the State of the Road leading from the Town of Nenagh in the County of Tipperary to O'Brien's Bridge in the County of Clare; to examine the Accounts of the ſaid Roads reſpectively, of the Sums received from the Tolls or otherwiſe, and of the Application of the ſame; to inſpect the Entries of the Proceedings of the Truſtees of the ſaid Roads reſpectively, and to enquire whether they have purſued the Directions of the ſeveral Acts relative to the ſame, made the following Report, viz.

My Lords,

THE Committee appointed to enquire into the State of the Roads leading from the City of Dublin through the Towns of Maryborough, Borris-in-Oſſory, Roſcrea and Tomivarah to the City of Limerick; and alſo into the State of the Road leading from the Town of Nenagh in the County of Tipperary to O'Brien's Bridge in the County of Clare; to examine the Accounts of the ſaid Roads reſpectively, of the Sums received from the Tolls or otherwiſe, and of the Application of the ſame; to inſpect the Entries of the Proceedings of the Truſtees of the ſaid Roads reſpectively; and to enquire whether they have purſued the Directions of the ſeveral Acts relative to the ſame, have examined into the Matters to them referred, and have directed me to report as follows:

Your Committee find, that the Road from the Turnpike next O'Brien's Bridge to Birdhill, is almoſt all of it in very bad Condition, and in ſome Places there were Holes ſo deep as to endanger Carriages; but it is ſuppoſed they are now filled up at the Expenſe of the Company of Contractors for the Mail Coaches. Your Committee find, that the Road from Birdhill to Carrigatohir was repaired laſt Year, but is much cut up, being ſo narrow in almoſt all Parts, as not to admit more than one Carriage.

Your Committee find, that the Road from Carrigatohir to the Turnpike near Nenagh is very bad: It did not appear to your Committee that any effectual Steps had been taken by the Truſtees of the ſaid Road to compel the Contractors for Repairs to execute their Contracts, though Money was advanced to them from Time to Time to enable them to do it. Your Committee find, that two of the Contracts have been reſcinded by the Truſtees, and the third would have been alſo reſcinded, if one of the Truſtees had not promiſed that the Work ſhould be done, which however has not been done, except in part. Your Committee find, that four hundred and fifty Pounds has been raiſed by Subſcription and paid to the ſaid Truſtees; that there is a Debt of about two hundred and nineteen Pounds upon the ſaid Road, and that the Tolls were let for the laſt Year by public Cant for two hundred Pounds.

Your Commitee have examined the Books of the Entries of the Proceedings of the ſaid Truſtees, and find that they have not purſued the Directions of the Statute of the 13th and 14th G. 3. Ch. 26.

Your Committee proceeded next to enquire into the preſent State of the Road between Maryborough and Tomivarah, and find, that the Road from Tomivarah to Monigall is tolerably good, but through the Village of Monigall it was ſo bad, that the Company of Contractors for the Mail Coaches were obliged to repair it; that from thence to Dunkerrin the Road is uncommonly good; that from thence to Roſcrea it is very bad, and in Holes, particularly acroſs the Bog Part, which the ſaid Company have ordered to be filled up; that the Street of Roſcrea is very bad to the Top of the Town; that the Half Mile next to Roſcrea has been repaired; that from thence to Mountrath is pretty good; that the Street through Mountrath is rough and bad, and the Road from thence to Caſtletown bad; that the Hill at Caſtletown is bad, and dangerous, particularly in the Night; that from thence to Maryborough is rough, and in Parts bad, particularly going down the Hill to Maryborough.

Your Committee find, that by the Statute of 17th and 18th G. 3. Ch. 40, the Tolls of the ſaid Road were doubled, and that by the ſaid Statute it was enacted, that the whole of the Money ariſing from the Tolls of the ſaid Road, after deducting the Expenſes therein mentioned, ſhould be applied to put all the ſaid Road into effectual and complete Repair, and from Time to Time to keep the ſame in ſuch Repair, and that no Part thereof ſhould be applied to any other Purpoſe, until it ſhall have been proved upon Oath, to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Truſtees or any fifteen or more of them, by the Teſtimony of three credible Witneſſes at the leaſt, which Teſtimony was thereby required to be reduced into Writing and ſigned by them reſpectively, and lodged with the Clerk, that the ſaid Road is in good and complete Order and Condition, and until the ſaid Truſtees or any fifteen or more of them ſhall have reſolved, that the ſaid Road is in good complete Order and Condition, and ſhall have entered ſuch Reſolution in their Books, and ſigned the ſame with their reſpective Hands; and it is alſo provided by the ſaid Act, that as often as any Part of the ſaid Road ſhall become out of Repair, no part of the ſaid Tolls ſhall be paid to the ſaid Creditors until the ſame ſhall be effectually repaired, and ſuch

Repairs

Repairs proved in the Manner before mentioned; and it is thereby required, that the Treaſurer of the ſaid Tolls under the Penalties therein mentioned, ſhall on the firſt Day of every Aſſizes return to the Clerk of the Crown on Oath, a particular Account of his Receipts and Payments, in order to be laid before the Grand Jury.

Your Committee find, that Thomas Morris, deceaſed, was appointed Treaſurer of the ſaid Road on the eighth of September one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight. Your Committee have inſpected the Book in which the Proceedings of the ſaid Truſtees are entered, and find an Entry therein of the firſt of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, by which it appears, that the Repairs of the Road from Tomivarah to Borris-in-Oſſory were ſet to Thomas Gardiner, Inn-keeper, during the Continuance of the ſaid Act, at one hundred and forty Pounds for the firſt Year, and eighty Pounds a Year for every Year after, the ſaid Road to be put in good complete Order and Condition within three Years from the firſt of May following; and by the ſaid Entry it appears, that the Repairs of the Road from Borris-in-Oſſory to Maryborough, were ſet to the ſaid Thomas Gardiner for the like Term, and to be executed within the ſame Time as the other Part of the ſaid Road, at one hundred and ninety Pounds for the firſt Year, and one hundred and twenty Pounds for every Year after. It appeared to your Committee from the Examination of the ſaid Thomas Gardiner, that he had ſix Partners in the ſaid Contract, of whom the ſaid Thomas Morris the Treaſurer was one. He ſaid he farmed the Tolls of the Gates at the Time of the Agreement in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, and that his Partners farmed the Tolls turn about.

Your Committee find, that no Deed was executed or Security given, at the Time of the ſaid Agreement, or 'till the nineteenth of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four, when a Deed was executed for the Purpoſe between the ſaid Truſtee and the ſaid Thomas Gardiner, one Part of which the ſaid Thomas Gardiner produced to your Committee.

Your Committee find an Entry in the ſaid Book dated the nineteenth of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four, the very Day on which the ſaid Deed bears Date, in which it is ſtated, that the three Perſons therein mentioned ſwore that the whole of the ſaid Road was in good, complete Order and Condition, and the Names of the ſaid Perſons are put to the ſaid Entry, as atteſting the Truth of the ſame. Your Committee obſerve, that two of the ſaid three Perſons appear to be Markſmen.

Your Committee find by the ſaid Entry, that the ſaid Truſtees thereupon reſolved, that the ſaid Road is in good and complete Order and Condition, and to the ſaid Reſolution there are the Names of ſixteen Truſtees ſubſcribed, of whom ſeveral appear to be Creditors of the ſaid Road. It appeared to your Committee from the Evidence of Thomas Gardiner, that he himſelf procured one of the ſaid three Perſons to ſwear to the Condition of the ſaid Road, Thomas Morris the Treaſurer procured another, and William Lyſter another Partner, procured the third; and the ſaid Gardiner acknowledged, that the Road was not at that Time in complete Order; he likewiſe ſaid that the ſaid three Perſons had been employed in repairing Part of the ſaid Road. Your Committee obſerve, that the ſaid Meeting of the nineteenth of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four, is entered in the ſaid Book to be by Order and Appointment of the Clerk, and not by any Adjournment. Your Committee have ſtrong Reaſon to believe, that the ſaid Proceedings on the nineteenth of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four, were a Contrivance to divert the Tolls from the Repairs of the Roads into the Pockets of ſome of the Creditors. Accordingly your Committee find an Entry in the ſaid Book, dated firſt of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four, directing the Treaſurer to pay ſix per Cent. Intereſt, to ſuch Creditors whoſe Claims were allowed.

It appeared to your Committee, from the Examination of William Meagher, Eſquire, Attorney and Law Agent to the ſaid Truſtees, that the ſaid Thomas Gardiner and Thomas Morris, the Treaſurer, kept Shops, and paid the under Repairers of the Road with Goods and Spirits, as he believed, and put the Tolls in their Pockets, without any Order of the Truſtees for the Purpoſe. The Deed of Contract with the ſaid Gardiner, his Bond for Performance of the ſame, and alſo his Bond as Security for the Conduct of the Treaſurer, were put out of the Way. It appeared to your Committee, from an Entry in the ſaid Book, dated the twelfth of October one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty four, that the Road from Borris was at that Time much out of Repair. It appeared to your Committee from ſeveral Entries in the ſaid Book, dated the firſt of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one, that ſeveral Parts of the ſaid Road were out of Repair, and that the ſaid Truſtees ordered the Contract with the ſaid Gardiner to be reſcinded. It appeared by another Entry dated the twenty-ſeventh of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one, that the Reverend Thomas Leſtrange proved upon Oath, that he had lately viewed the ſaid Road, and that the ſame, or the greater Part thereof was very much out of Repair, and ſome Parts thereof dangerouſly ſo. An Order was then made to prevent the ſaid Gardiner from receiving any more Money on the ſaid Contract, and that James-Stephens Brownlow, Eſquire, and the ſaid William Meagher ſhould put the ſaid Road in Repair, and ſhould apply the Money ſo withheld from the ſaid Gardiner for that Purpoſe. It did not appear to your Committee, that the ſaid Road was ever put in a proper State of Repair.

Your Committee find, that on the firſt of October one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-eight, the ſaid Truſtees made an Order on the Treaſurer to ſettle his Account with Charles White and James-Stephens Brownlow, and that the Particulars of ſuch Account ſhould be fairly entered in the ſaid Book; but your Committee cannot find any ſuch Account entered in the ſaid Books.

Your Committee find, that the ſaid Treaſurer never made any Return of his Receipts and Payments to any Clerk of the Crown, purſuant to the Directions of the ſaid Act.

Your Committee find, that on the thirtieth Day of October one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-ſeven, the Tolls from Maryborough to Borris were ſet to James-Stephens Brownlow for two Years from the firſt of November following, at two hundred and twenty-ſix Pounds a Year, and the Tolls from Borris to Tomivarah to ſaid James-Stephens Brownlow, for the like Term, at two hundred and forty Pounds a Year: Your Committee examined the ſaid James-Stephens Brownlow, and he informed your Committee, that he was elected a Truſtee of the ſaid Road, and that he was likewiſe a Creditor upon the ſame for five hundred and twenty-five Pounds principal Money, and that he alſo farmed the Tolls for two Years; he ſaid that the ſaid Truſtees ordered him and William Meagher in the laſt Summer to repair the whole of the ſaid Road, that they could get no good of Gardiner, who refuſed to give up the Contract or Repair the Road, that he never received any of the Tolls but as Farmer thereof, and that he did not keep any Account of the Money he received from the Treaſurer; that the only Account he could give was contained in two Papers, which he delivered to your Committee, and are hereunto annexed. Your Committee find, that on the thirtieth of October one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-nine, the Tolls of the Road from Maryborough to Borris were ſet to the ſaid William Meagher for two Years, from the firſt of November following, at two hundred and eighteen Pounds a Year. Your Committee examined the ſaid William Meagher, and he informed your Committee, that he was elected a Truſtee of the ſaid Road, that he is likewiſe a Creditor upon the ſaid Road, that he was employed by the ſaid Truſtees as their Law Agent, and to prepare a Deed of Contract between them and the ſaid Gardiner; that ſuch Contract was executed by Gardiner, and alſo a Bond for Performance of the ſame, which were left with the Treaſurer, but are not to be found; he ſaid, he expended upon the Repairs of the Road laſt Year about four hundred Pounds, and believe he had not received more, except what he applied to the Intereſt of the Money due to himſelf.

Upon the whole, it appeared to your Committee, that moſt of the Truſtees under the ſaid Act neglected their Duty, and that ſome of them acted contrary to it.

Your Committee find, that the Road from Maryborough to Monaſtereven is in general good, but ſome Parts are very bad, which Lord Portarlington has ordered to be repaired; that Part of that Road was much widened and repaired the laſt Year; that the Bridges going into Monaſtereven are bad and dangerous, the Company of Contractors for Mail Coaches have filled up the Holes; that from thence to Naas the ſaid Company have ſuperintended the Repairs of the Road, and advanced ſeven hundred and two Pounds ten Shillings and Nine-pence for that Purpoſe; that they have widened it very much from eleven to forty-five Feet, notwithſtanding which ſome Part of it is very bad, and ſome Part not in good Repair; that the Road from Naas to Dublin is in very good Order, but that ſome of the Bridges want to be widened. Your Committee find, that the Truſtees of the ſaid Road have not purſued the Directions of the Statute of the 13th and 14th G. 3. Ch. 26.

Patrick Dillon, Eſq'rs. Petition,

Upon reading the Petition of Patrick Dillon, Eſquire, ſetting forth, that Robert Dillon, Eſquire, has lately preſented a Petition to his Majeſty, ſtating his Claim to the Dignity and Title of Earl of Roſcommon, and therein ſtated that upon the Death of James the 8th Earl of Roſcommon without Iſſue Male, Robert Dillon the Great Grandſon of Lucas Dillon (ſecond Son of James the firſt Earl) became entitled to the ſaid Dignity, and that he died unmarried and without Iſſue, and that upon his Deceaſe John Dillon his Brother became entitled to the ſaid Dignity; that the ſaid John died without Iſſue Male, and that thereupon the Male Iſſue of Lucas the ſecond Son of James the firſt Earl became extinct, and that the ſaid Robert the Petitioner claimed the ſaid Dignity as Great Grandſon of Patrick the ſeventh Son of James firſt Earl of Roſcommon: That his Majeſty having been graciouſly pleaſed to refer the ſaid Petition to their Lordſhips, their Lordſhips have proceeded to examine into the ſame.

And moſt humbly ſtating to their Lordſhips, that the Male Iſſue of Lucas Dillon did not become extinct upon the Deceaſe of John the Brother of Robert and Great Grandſon of Lucas, for that the ſaid John left Iſſue Male the Petitioner his only Son, and that the Petitioner is Great Great Grandſon of ſaid Lucas, (ſecond Son of James firſt Earl of Roſcommon,) and that upon the Deceaſe of his Father the ſaid John, the ſaid Dignity deſcended to the Petitioner his Son and Heir at Law. That Petitioner's Father died in 1782, when the Petitioner was of the Age of eleven Years, and had very lately attained his Age of twenty-one Years, and became acquainted with his Right to ſaid Dignity within the laſt two Months and not ſooner, and had ſince been ſeeking ſuch Proofs as were neceſſary to aſcertain the ſame. That Petitioner is a Proteſtant of the Church of Ireland, as by Law eſtabliſhed, and means immediately humbly to petition his Majeſty to iſſue his Writ of Summons to call Petitioner to Parliament. And praying their Lordſhips will be pleaſed to defer coming to any final Determination on the matter of the Petition ſo referred to their Lordſhips, until the Petitioner ſhall have an Opportunity of laying Proofs of his Right to ſaid Dignity before their Lordſhips, or to make ſuch other Order for the Petitioner's Relief, as to their Lordſhips ſhould ſeem moſt expedient and proper.

To this Bill the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, in theſe Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THE Diſpatch you have given to the national Buſineſs, enables me to cloſe the Seſſion and to relieve you from further Attendance in Parliament.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

His Majeſty commands me to thank you for the Supplies you have voted for the public Service; you may depend upon their faithful Application to the Purpoſes for which they were granted.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I have his Majeſty's Commands to expreſs his Approbation of the Wiſdom that has guided your Proceedings during the preſent Seſſion, eſpecially in the liberal Indulgences you have afforded to your Roman Catholic Brethren, by eſtabliſhing the Legality of Intermarriage, by admitting them to the Profeſſion of the Law and the Benefits of Education, and by removing all Reſtrictions upon their Induſtry in Trade and Manufactures.

Your Knowledge of the true Intereſts of your Country is plainly marked in the Meaſure you have adopted for carrying into Effect a reciprocal Preference in the Corn Trade with Great-Britain, a Syſtem beneficial to both Countries, and peculiarly advantageous to the Agriculture of Ireland, that Source of your Wealth and Proſperity. The further Steps you have taken to check the immoderate Uſe of ſpirituous Liquors, and your wiſe Regulations for the charitable Inſtitutions, prove your Attention to the Intereſts of the lower Orders of the People.

I ſhall firmly rely on your cordial Co-operation for the Support of public Order, and the enforcing Obedience to the Laws, by which alone the Fruits of National Induſtry can be ſecured; and when you reflect upon the flouriſhing Reſources, the encreaſing Wealth and unexampled Proſperity of the Country, you will not fail to impreſs upon the Minds of the People, that the maintenance of our free and happy Conſtitution will enſure the Continuance of theſe invaluable Bleſſings.

After which the Lord Chancellor by his Excellency's Command ſaid,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Parliament prorogued.

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Monday the eighteenth of June next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Monday the eighteenth of June next.

they enter.

And the Commons being come, they with their Speaker were conducted to the Bar with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I HAVE his Majeſty's Commands to meet you in Parliament, and to expreſs his Satisfaction in reſorting to your Counſels in the preſent Situation of Affairs.

His Majeſty feels the utmoſt Concern that various Attempts ſhould have been made to excite a Spirit of Diſcontent and Diſturbance, and that Appearances ſhould have manifeſted themſelves in any Part of this Kingdom, of a Deſign to effect by Violence an Alteration in the Conſtitution.

It is an additional Ground of Uneaſineſs to his Majeſty, that Views of Conqueſt and Dominion ſhould have incited France to interfere with the Government of other Countries, and to adopt Meaſures with regard to his Majeſty's Allies the States General, neither conformable to the Law of Nations nor the poſitive Stipulations of exiſting Treaties; eſpecially when both his Majeſty and the States General had obſerved the ſtricteſt Neutrality with regard to the Affairs of France.

Under theſe Circumſtances I have ordered, by his Majeſty's Commands, an Augmentation of the Forces upon this Eſtabliſhment.

By the Advice of the Privy Council, Meaſures have been taken to prevent the Exportation of Corn, Proviſions and naval Stores, Arms and Ammunition. The Circumſtances which rendered theſe Meaſures neceſſary, will, I truſt, juſtify any temporary Infringement of the Laws, and will induce you to give them a parliamentary Sanction.

It will afford his Majeſty the greateſt Satisfaction, if by a temperate and firm Conduct the Bleſſings of Peace can be continued; but he feels aſſured of your zealous Concurrence in his Determination to provide for the Security and Intereſts of his Dominions, and to fulfil thoſe poſitive Engagements to which he is equally bound by the Honor of his Crown, and the general Intereſts of the Empire.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered the national Accounts to be laid before you, and I have no Doubt of your Readineſs to grant ſuch Supplies for the public Service, as the Honor and Security of his Majeſty's Crown and Government, and the Exigencies of the Times may require.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Agriculture, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture, the Proteſtant Charter-Schools, and other public Inſtitutions, which have ſo repeatedly been the Objects of your Care, will, I doubt not, engage your accuſtomed Regard and Liberality.

I am to recommend to you in his Majeſty's Name, to adopt ſuch Meaſures as may be moſt adviſeable for the Maintenance of internal Tranquillity, and for this Purpoſe to render more effectual the Law for eſtabliſhing a Militia in this Kingdom.

His Majeſty has the fulleſt Confidence that you will on all Occaſions, ſhew your firm Determination to enforce due Obedience to the Laws, and to maintain the Authority of Government, in which you may depend upon his Majeſty's cordial Co-operation and Support: And I have it in particular Command from his Majeſty to recommend it to you, to apply yourſelves to the Conſideration of ſuch Meaſures as may be moſt likely to ſtrengthen and cement a general Union of Sentiment among all Claſſes and Deſcriptions of his Majeſty's Subjects in ſupport of the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution. With this View, his Majeſty truſts that the Situation of his Majeſty's Catholic Subjects will engage your ſerious Attention, and in the Conſideration of this Subject he relies on the Wiſdom and Liberality of his Parliament.

I am truly ſenſible of the repeated Teſtimonies which I have received of your Approbation, and I will endeavour to merit a Continuance of your good Opinion, by ſtre-

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

His

Lord Lieutenant preſent.

His Excellency John Earl of Weſtmorland, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Marquis of Waterford carrying the Cap of Maintenance, and the Earl of Weſtmeath the Sword of State; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and then ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint the Commons that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in this Houſe.

they enter.

And the Commons being come, they with their Speaker were conducted to the Bar with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I HAVE his Majeſty's Commands to meet you in Parliament, and to expreſs his Satisfaction in reſorting to your Counſels in the preſent Situation of Affairs.

His Majeſty feels the utmoſt Concern that various Attempts ſhould have been made to excite a Spirit of Diſcontent and Diſturbance, and that Appearances ſhould have manifeſted themſelves in any Part of this Kingdom, of a Deſign to effect by Violence an Alteration in the Conſtitution.

It is an additional Ground of Uneaſineſs to his Majeſty, that Views of Conqueſt and Dominion ſhould have incited France to interfere with the Government of other Countries, and to adopt Meaſures with regard to his Majeſty's Allies the States General, neither conformable to the Law of Nations nor the poſitive Stipulations of exiſting Treaties; eſpecially when both his Majeſty and the States General had obſerved the ſtricteſt Neutrality with regard to the Affairs of France.

Under theſe Circumſtances I have ordered, by his Majeſty's Commands, an Augmentation of the Forces upon this Eſtabliſhment.

By the Advice of the Privy Council, Meaſures have been taken to prevent the Exportation of Corn, Proviſions and naval Stores, Arms and Ammunition. The Circumſtances which rendered theſe Meaſures neceſſary, will, I truſt, juſtify any temporary Infringement of the Laws, and will induce you to give them a parliamentary Sanction.

It will afford his Majeſty the greateſt Satisfaction, if by a temperate and firm Conduct the Bleſſings of Peace can be continued; but he feels aſſured of your zealous Concurrence in his Determination to provide for the Security and Intereſts of his Dominions, and to fulfil thoſe poſitive Engagements to which he is equally bound by the Honor of his Crown, and the general Intereſts of the Empire.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered the national Accounts to be laid before you, and I have no Doubt of your Readineſs to grant ſuch Supplies for the public Service, as the Honor and Security of his Majeſty's Crown and Government, and the Exigencies of the Times may require.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Agriculture, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture, the Proteſtant Charter-Schools, and other public Inſtitutions, which have ſo repeatedly been the Objects of your Care, will, I doubt not, engage your accuſtomed Regard and Liberality.

I am to recommend to you in his Majeſty's Name, to adopt ſuch Meaſures as may be moſt adviſeable for the Maintenance of internal Tranquillity, and for this Purpoſe to render more effectual the Law for eſtabliſhing a Militia in this Kingdom.

His Majeſty has the fulleſt Confidence that you will on all Occaſions, ſhew your firm Determination to enforce due Obedience to the Laws, and to maintain the Authority of Government, in which you may depend upon his Majeſty's cordial Co-operation and Support: And I have it in particular Command from his Majeſty to recommend it to you, to apply yourſelves to the Conſideration of ſuch Meaſures as may be moſt likely to ſtrengthen and cement a general Union of Sentiment among all Claſſes and Deſcriptions of his Majeſty's Subjects in ſupport of the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution. With this View, his Majeſty truſts that the Situation of his Majeſty's Catholic Subjects will engage your ſerious Attention, and in the Conſideration of this Subject he relies on the Wiſdom and Liberality of his Parliament.

I am truly ſenſible of the repeated Teſtimonies which I have received of your Approbation, and I will endeavour to merit a Continuance of your good Opinion, by ſtrenuouſly exerting the Power with which I am entruſted for the Maintenance of our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, as the beſt Security for the Liberty of the Subject, and the Proſperity of Ireland.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered, and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table;

Speech to be printed.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, requeſting Leave to approach his Majeſty with the warmeſt and moſt unfeigned Expreſſions of our unalterable Attachment to his Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that when we conſider the increaſing Proſperity of this Kingdom, under the Protection of his Majeſty's benevolent Reign, we feel the utmoſt Indignation that various Attempts ſhould have been made to diffuſe a Spirit of Diſcontent and excite lawleſs and deſperate Commotions, and that Appearances ſhould have manifeſted themſelves in any Part of this Kingdom to effect by Violence an Alteration in the Conſtitution.

To expreſs the juſt Senſe we entertain of the Wiſdom which has directed his Majeſty to obſerve a ſtrict Neutrality with reſpect to the Affairs of France, and that we muſt therefore participate in the juſt Uneaſineſs his Majeſty feels from her Interference in the Government of other Countries, and from the Meaſures which ſhe has adopted towards his Majeſty's Allies the States General, which are neither conformable to the Law of Nations nor the poſitive Stipulations of exiſting Treaties.

To return his Majeſty our ſincere Thanks for that Attention to the Security of his People, which has induced his Majeſty, under the preſent Circumſtances, to order an Augmentation of the Forces upon this Eſtabliſhment.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we ſhall be happy if by a temperate and firm Conduct the Bleſſings of Peace can be continued, and that his Majeſty may reſt aſſured of our zealous Concurrence to provide for the Security and Intereſts of his Dominions, and to fulfil thoſe poſitive Engagements to which his Majeſty is equally bound by the Honor of his Crown and the general Intereſts of the Empire. That we do not doubt the Neceſſity and Wiſdom of thoſe Meaſures which by the Advice of the Privy Council have been taken to prevent the Exportation of Corn, Proviſions and naval Stores, Arms and Ammunition, and that a juſt Attention to the Safety of the State, which called for a temporary Infringement of the Laws, will induce us to give thoſe Meaſures a parliamentary Sanction. That we will not omit our accuſtomed Regard to the Agriculture, the Manufactures, and eſpecially the Linen Manufacture of this Kingdom, as well as to the Proteſtant Charter Schools and other public Inſtitutions, which have repeatedly been the Objects of our Care.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we ſhall not fail to attend to his Majeſty's Recommendation in adopting ſuch Meaſures as may be moſt adviſeable for the Maintenance of internal Tranquillity, and that for this Purpoſe we will make a Reviſion of the Law for eſtabliſhing a Militia in this Kingdom.

That we truſt by the moſt decided Conduct, fully to juſtify that Confidence which his Majeſty is pleaſed to repoſe in us. That we will on all Occaſions ſhew our firm Determination to enforce due Obedience to the Laws, and to maintain the Authority of Government, in which we do entirely rely upon his Majeſty's gracious Promiſe of his cordial Co-operation and Support.

To expreſs our Senſe of his Majeſty's Confidence in our Wiſdom and Liberality, and that in purſuance of his Majeſty's Recommendation, we will direct our Attention to ſuch Meaſures as may be moſt likely to ſtrengthen and cement a general Union of Sentiment among all Claſſes and Deſcriptions of his Majeſty's Subjects in ſupport of the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution, and that we will proceed to obey his Majeſty's Commands in giving the fulleſt Conſideration to the Situation of our Brethren of the Roman Catholic Perſuaſion.

To return his Majeſty our ſincere Thanks for continuing the Earl of Weſtmorland in the Government of this Kingdom, whoſe faithful Exertions we are convinced will be directed to promote the general Intereſts and Proſperity of Ireland, and to maintain our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State.

To

To acknowledge with lively Gratitude the Bleſſings we enjoy under his Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, and to aſſure his Majeſty, that it ſhall be our anxious Endeavour to merit that paternal Regard which his Majeſty has uniformly maintained for the Happineſs of his People, by Returns of the moſt ardent Loyalty and affectionate Duty.

Ordered, that the Earl of Weſtmeath, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning at ten o'Clock, in the Committee Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency John Earl of Weſtmorland, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, to return him our Thanks for his moſt excellent Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament. Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſcount Dillon, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning at eleven o'Clock, in the Committee Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the warmeſt and moſt unfeigned Expreſſions of our unalterable Attachment to your Majeſty's royal Perſon, Family and Government. Addreſs to the King.

When we conſider the increaſing Proſperity of this Kingdom, under the Protection of your Majeſty's benevolent Reign, we feel the utmoſt Indignation that various Attempts ſhould have been made to diffuſe a Spirit of Diſcontent and excite lawleſs and deſperate Commotions, and that Appearances ſhould have manifeſted themſelves in any Part of the Kingdom to effect by Violence an Alteration in the Conſtitution.

We entertain a juſt Senſe of the Wiſdom which has directed your Majeſty to obſerve a ſtrict Neutrality with reſpect to the Affairs of France, and we muſt therefore participate in the juſt Uneaſineſs your Majeſty feels from her Interference in the Government of other Countries, and the Meaſures which ſhe has adopted towards your Majeſty's Allies the States General, which are neither conformable to the Law of Nations, nor the positive Stipulations of existing Treaties.

States

We return your Majesty our sincere Thanks for that Attention to the Security of your People, which has induced your Majesty under the present Circumstances to order an Augmentation to the Forces upon this Establishment.

We shall be happy, if by a temperate and firm Conduct the Blessings of Peace can be continued, and your Majesty may rest assured of our zealous Concurrence to provide for the Security and Interests of your Dominions, and to fulfil those positive Engagements to which your Majesty is equally bound by the Honor of your Crown, and the general Interests of the Empire.

We do not doubt the Necessity and Wisdom of those Measures, which by the Advice of the Privy Council have been taken to prevent the Exportation of Corn, Provisions and naval Stores, Arms and Ammunition. A just Attention to the Safety of the State, which called for a temporary Infringement of the Laws, will induce us to give those Measures a parliamentary Sanction.

We will not omit our accustomed Regard to the Agriculture, the Manufactures, and especially the Linen Manufacture of this Kingdom, as well as to the Protestant Charter Schools and other public Institutions, which have repeatedly been the Objects of our Care.

We shall not fail to attend to your Majesty's Recommendation, in adopting such Measures as may be most advisable for the Maintenance of internal Tranquillity; and for this Purpose we will make a Revision of the Law for establishing a Militia in this Kingdom.

We trust by the most decided Conduct, fully to justify that Confidence which your Majesty is pleased to repose in us, that we will on all Occasions shew our firm Determination to enforce due Obedience to the Laws and to maintain the Authority of Government, in which we do entirely rely upon your Majesty's gracious Promise of your cordial Co-operation and Support.

We are sensible of your Majesty's Confidence in our Wisdom and Liberality, and in pursuance of your Majesty's Recommendation we will direct our Attention to such Measures as may be most likely to strengthen and cement a general Union of Sentiment among all Classes and Descriptions of your Majesty's Subjects, in support of the established Constitution; and we will proceed to give the fullest Consideration to the Situation of our Brethren of the Roman Catholic Persuasion.

We return your Majesty our sincere Thanks for continuing the Earl of Westmorland in the Government of this Kingdom, whose faithful Exertions we are convinced will be directed to promote the general Interests and Prosperity of Ireland, and to maintain our excellent Constitution in Church and State.

We cannot forget to acknowledge with lively Gratitude the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, and it shall be our anxious Endeavour to merit that paternal Regard which your Majesty has uniformly manifested for the Happiness of your People, by Returns of the most ardent Loyalty and affectionate Duty.

Resolved, that the said Address be presented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole House, in order that the same may be laid before his Majesty.

The Lord Viscount Dillon reported from the Lords Committees appointed to prepare an Address to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, pursuant to the Resolution of this House of Yesterday; that they had prepared an Address accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the same was again read, and also read Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the House, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency

JOHN EARL of WESTMORLAND,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

Address to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, beg leave to offer your Excellency our sincere Thanks for your most excellent Speech from the Throne.

We feel the utmost Concern and Indignation, that the Happiness and Tranquillity of this Kingdom should be interrupted by various Attempts to excite a Spirit of Discontent and Disturbance, and that Appearances should have manifested themselves to effect by Violence an Alteration in the Constitution.

We lament that Views of Conquest and Dominion should have incited France to interfere with the Government of other Countries, and to adopt Measures with Regard to his Majesty's Allies the States General, neither conformable to the Law of Nations, nor the positive Stipulations of existing Treaties.

Under theſe Circumſtances we highly approve of your Exellency, by his Majeſty's Command, having ordered an Augmentation of the Army upon this Eſtabliſhment.

We alſo approve of the Meaſures which by the Advice of the Privy Council have been taken to prevent the Exportation of Corn, Proviſions and naval Stores, Arms and Ammunition, and we ſhall chearfully apply ourſelves to give them a parliamentary Sanction.

We are thoroughly perſuaded of the Satisfaction it will afford to his Majeſty, if by a temperate and firm Conduct the Bleſſings of Peace can be continued; But we entreat your Excellency to aſſure his Majeſty of our zealous Concurrence in his Determination to provide for the Security and Intereſts of his Dominions, and to fulfil thoſe poſitive Engagements to which he is equally bound by the Honor of his Crown and the general Intereſts of the Empire.

We will direct our Attention to the Encouragement of the Agriculture, the Manufactures, and eſpecially the Linen Manufacture of this Kingdom; and we will not fail in our accuſtomed Care of the Proteſtant Charter Schools and other public Inſtitutions.

We will adopt ſuch Meaſures as may be moſt adviſeable for the Maintenance of Internal Tranquillity, and for this Purpoſe we will uſe our beſt Endeavours to render the Laws effectual for eſtabliſhing a Militia in this Kingdom.

We feel with Pride the Confidence which his Majeſty is pleaſed to repoſe in us, and will on all Occaſions ſhew our firm Determination to enforce due Obedience to the Laws, and to maintain the Authority of Government, in which we are aſſured of his Majeſty's cordial Co-operation and Support: Your Excellency's Recommendation by his Majeſty's Command, will induce us ſedulouſly to apply ourſelves to the Conſideration of ſuch Meaſures as may be moſt likely to ſtrengthen and cement a general Union of Sentiment among all Claſſes and Deſcriptions of his Majeſty's Subjects, in ſupport of the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution. We are thankful to his Majeſty for the Confidence he repoſes in our Wiſdom and Liberality, we will apply our ſerious Attention to the Situation of his Majeſty's Roman Catholic Subjects, and his Majeſty may rely, that we ſhall give a full Conſideration to this important Buſineſs.

We are thoroughly ſenſible of his Majeſty's Goodneſs in continuing the Adminiſtration of your Excellency, upon whoſe Integrity and Honor we have the greateſt Reliance, and we have an entire Confidence in your Excellency's ſincere Exertions for the Preſervation of our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that the Judges, according to Order, had prepared a Report of what Laws have lately expired or are near expiring, which he preſented to the Houſe, and the ſame was read by the Clerk at the Table as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Judges' Report on Temporary Laws, IN Obedience to your Lordſhips' Order of the 11th Day of this Inſtant January, whereby the Judges were directed to enquire what Laws have lately expired or are near expiring; the Judges upon Enquiry find, 17th Geo. 2. Ch. 11. Sect. 1. That a Clauſe in an Act paſſed in the 17th Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intitled, An Act for the Amendment of the Law in Relation to Forgery and the Salvage of Goods ſtranded, which Clauſe relating to Forgery was by an Act paſſed in the ſeventeenth and eighteenth Years of his preſent Majeſty continued unto the twenty-fifth day of March 1790, and from thence to the end of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, expired at the end of the Seſſion of Parliament in July 1790. Ch. 36.

And that an Act paſſed in the twenty-fifth Year of his late Majeſty King George the Second, intitled, An Act for the more effectual Execution of Orders of the Courts of Juſtice, for giving and quieting Poſſeſſions, and alſo for the more effectual bringing to Juſtice ſuch Perſons as ſhall inliſt his Majeſty's Subjects to ſerve as Soldiers in foreign Service without Licence.

Which ſaid Act was by an Act made in the ſeventeenth and eighteenth Years of his preſent Majeſty, continued down to the 24th Day of June 1790, and from thence to the end of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and has expired.

Ch. 26. And that an Act paſſed in the third Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for confirming Titles, and for quieting the Poſſeſſions of Proteſtants, and for giving time for Converts from Popery to perform the Requiſites of Conformity preſcribed by the Laws againſt Popery; and by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts, the time by a Clauſe in the ſaid laſt mentioned Act limited for performing the legal Requiſites of Conformity was from time to time enlarged, and finally by an Act paſſed in the nineteenth and twentieth Years of his preſent Majeſty the ſaid Clauſe for limiting the time for performing the ſaid legal Requiſites of Conformity was further enlarged and extended to the twenty-fourth day of June 1791, and to the end of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ſo that the time ſo limited has expired.

Ch. 4. Sect. 2.

Ch. 31. And that an Act paſſed in the twenty-fifth Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act to take away the Challenge to the Array of Panels of Jurors for want of a Knight on Trials in which a Peer or Lord of Parliament is a Party, which ſaid Act expired at the end of the Seſſion of Parliament in the Year 1791.

And that an Act paſſed in the twenty-ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act to explain and amend an Act paſſed in the eleventh and twelfth Years of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for badging ſuch Poor as ſhall be found unable to ſupport themſelves by Labour, and otherwiſe providing for them, and for reſtraining ſuch as ſhall be found able to ſupport themſelves by Labour or Induſtry from begging; which ſaid Act was made to continue in force for four Years and no longer, and has expired.

And alſo, that an Act paſſed in the fifth Year of his late Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for repairing the Road leading from the Town of Newcaſtle in the County of Limerick and from thence to the City of Cork, which ſaid Act was continued and amended by an Act paſſed in the twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, and the ſaid laſt mentioned Act of the twenty-eighth Year of his preſent Majeſty was by an Act paſſed in the thirtieth Year of his preſent Majeſty continued for three Years, and to the end of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ſo that the ſame will expire at the end of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

Ch. 47. Sect. 30.

And by an Act paſſed in the thirty-firſt Year of his late Majeſty, intitled, An Act for the better ſupplying the City of Dublin with Coals, and for the better Encouragement of the Collieries of this Kingdom, which ſaid Act was by an Act made in the eleventh and twelfth Years of his preſent Majeſty continued down to the twenty-fourth day of June 1792, and to the end of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and will expire at the end of this Seſſion of Parliament. Ch. 14. Ch. 19. Sect. 11.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

Ordered, that the ſaid Report do lie on the Table. to lie on the Table.

Motion to diſpenſe with Standing Order.

The Houſe being moved, that their Lordſhips' Standing Order, requiring fourteen Days Notice to be given of the Meeting of Committees on private Bills, may be ſo far diſpenſed with, as that the Committee to whom the Bill, intitled, An Act for confirming and eſtabliſhing certain Articles of Agreement made between the Truſtees named and appointed by the laſt Will and Teſtament of Richard Morgan, late of Newcaſtle in the County of Dublin, Eſquire, deceaſed, and John Godley of the City of Dublin, Eſquire, the Nephew and Heir at Law of the ſaid Richard Morgan, concerning the real and perſonal Eſtates, whereof the ſaid Richard Morgan, died ſeized and poſſeſſed, and for other Purpoſes, ſtands committed, may meet on an earlier Day than is appointed.

Ordered, that the ſaid Motion be taken into Conſideration on Wedneſday next, and the Lords to be ſummoned.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant had been attended by both Houſes of Parliament with their humble Addreſs to his Excellency; and his Excellency was pleaſed to give this Anſwer:

"My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

"I RETURN you my ſincere Thanks for "this Addreſs, and am happy that the Pro-
"clamation has met with the decided Appro"bation of Parliament.

"You may be aſſured of my taking every "Means in my Power, to prevent the ill
"Conſequences of any Attempts that may "be made to ſubvert the Conſtitution."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

Ordered, that the Addreſs of both Houſes of Parliament to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of the 1ſt Inſtant, and his Excellency's Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

Witneſſes ſworn.

Committee for Privileges to meet.

Ordered, that the Grand Committee for Privileges do meet again on Wednesday next, on the Claim of Robert Dillon, Esquire, to the Earldom of Roscommon.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the House, that he had received a Message from his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, which his Excellency directed him to lay before their Lordships, which he read, and the same was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table as follows, viz.

WESTMORLAND.

Message from Lord Lieutenant.

I HAVE his Majesty's Commands to acquaint the House of Lords, that the Assembly now exercising the Powers of Government in France, have, without previous Notice, directed Acts of Hostility to be committed against the Persons and Property of his Majesty's Subjects, in Breach of the Law of Nations, and of the most positive Stipulations of Treaty, and have since, on the most groundless Pretences, actually declared War against his Majesty and the United Provinces:—Under the Circumstances of this wanton and unprovoked Aggression, his Majesty has taken the necessary Steps to maintain the Honor of his Crown, and to vindicate the Rights of his People; and his Majesty relies with Confidence on the firm and effectual Support of the House of Lords, and on the zealous Exertions of a brave and loyal People, in prosecuting a just and necessary War, and in endeavouring, under the Blessing of Providence, to oppose an effectual Barrier to the further Progress of a System, which strikes at the Security and Peace of all independent Nations, and is pursued in open Defiance of every Principle of Moderation, good Faith, Humanity and Justice.

In a Cause of such general Concern, his Majesty has every Reason to hope for the cordial Co-operation of those Powers, who are united with his Majesty by the Ties of Alliance, or who feel an Interest in preventing the Extension of Anarchy and Confusion, and contributing to the Security and Tranquillity of Europe.

W.

Resolution for Address to the King.

Resolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, nemine dissentiente, that an humble Address be presented to his Majesty, requesting Leave to return his Majesty our cordial Thanks, for his Majesty's most gracious Message signified to this House by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant.

To

To assure his Majesty, that we learn with just Indignation, that the Assembly now exercising the Powers of Government in France, have, without previous Notice, directed Acts of Hostility to be committed against the Persons and Properties of his Majesty's Subjects, in Breach of the Law of Nations, and of the most positive Stipulations of Treaty, and have since, on the most groundless Pretences, actually declared War against his Majesty and the United Provinces.

That under Circumstances of such wanton and unprovoked Aggression, we could not doubt, that his Majesty's dignified Spirit would maintain the Honor of his Crown, and vindicate the Rights of his People. And to assure his Majesty that he may with entire Confidence rely upon the firm and effectual Support of this House, and on the zealous Exertions of a brave and loyal People, in prosecuting so just and necessary a War; That the Happiness we enjoy under his Majesty's Reign, and the Freedom secured to us by our inestimable Constitution, will be sure Pledges of our zealous Concurrence with his Majesty, in endeavouring, under the Blessing of Providence, to oppose an effectual Barrier to the further Progress of a System, which strikes at the Peace of all independent Nations, and is pursued in open Defiance of every Principle of Moderation, good Faith, Humanity and Justice.

That in a Cause of such general Concern, we feel the highest Satisfaction in the Communication his Majesty has been pleased to make to us, that his Majesty has every Reason to hope for the cordial Co-operation of those Powers who are united with his Majesty by the Ties of Alliance, or who feel an Interest in preventing the Extension of Anarchy and Confusion, and contributing to the Security and Tranquillity of Europe.

And that his Majesty's Arms may be crowned with Success in the Maintenance of Religion, Justice and Humanity, and in the Protection of our Properties and Privileges, is the earnest Prayer of his Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects.

Ordered, that the Earl of Glandore and all the Lords present shall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Address pursuant to the foregoing Resolution; and all Lords who shall please to come to the said Committee are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordships, or any five of them, to meet on Monday Morning next, at Eleven o'Clock, in the Committee Chamber near the House of Peers, adjourn as they please, and report.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Earl of Glandore reported from the Lords Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe as follows, viz.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Majeſty our cordial Thanks for your Majeſty's moſt gracious Meſſage ſignified to this Houſe by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant.

We learn with juſt Indignation, that the Aſſembly now exerciſing the Powers of Government in France, have, without previous Notice, directed Acts of Hoſtility to be committed againſt the Perſons and Properties of your Majeſty's Subjects, in Breach of the Law of Nations, and of the moſt poſitive Stipulations of Treaty; and have ſince, on the moſt groundleſs Pretences, actually declared War againſt your Majeſty and the United Provinces.

Under Circumſtances of ſuch wanton and unprovoked Aggreſſion, we could not doubt, that your Majeſty's dignified Spirit would maintain the Honor of your Crown, and vindicate the Rights of your People; And your Majeſty may with entire Confidence rely upon the firm and effectual Support of this Houſe, and on the zealous Exertions of a brave and loyal People, in proſecuting ſo juſt and neceſſary a War. The Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's Reign, and the Freedom ſecured to us by our ineſtimable Conſtitution, will be ſure Pledges of our zealous Concurrence with your Majeſty, in endeavouring, under the Bleſſing of Providence, to oppoſe an effectual Barrier to the further Progreſs of a Syſtem, which ſtrikes at the Peace of all independent Nations, and is purſued in open Defiance of every Principle of Moderation, good Faith, Humanity and Juſtice.

In

In a Cauſe of ſuch general Concern, we feel the higheſt Satisfaction in the Communication your Majeſty has been pleaſed to make to us, that your Majeſty has every Reaſon to hope for the cordial Co-operation of thoſe Powers who are united with your Majeſty by the Ties of Alliance, or who feel an Intereſt in preventing the Extenſion of Anarchy and Confuſion, and contributing to the Security and Tranquillity of Europe.

That your Majeſty's Arms may be crowned with Succeſs in the Maintenance of Religion, Juſtice and Humanity, and in the Protection of our Properties and Privileges, is the earneſt Prayer of your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects.

to be preſented. Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order that the ſame may be laid before his Majeſty.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Hon. Simon Butler and O. Bond,

The Houſe being informed, that the Honorable Simon Butler and Oliver Bond were attending;

They were called in, and a printed Paper dated 24th February, 1793, intitled, "United Iriſhmen of Dublin, Hon. Simon Butler Chairman, Oliver Bond Secretary," being ſhewn to them, they admitted it was printed and publiſhed by their Authority and Conſent.

They were directed to be taken from the Bar.

The ſaid Paper was then read at the Table.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that the Paper dated 24th February, 1793, intitled, "United Iriſhmen of Dublin, Hon. Simon Butler Chairman Oliver Bond Secretary," is a falſe, ſcandalous and ſeditious Libel, and an high Breach of the Privileges of this Houſe, tending to diſturb the publick Peace, and to queſtion the undoubted Authority of this High Court of Parliament.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that the Hon. Simon Butler and Oliver Bond, having admitted that the ſaid Paper was printed and publiſhed by their Authority, be committed to the Cuſtody of the Uſher of the Black-Rod.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that the Hon. Simon Butler and Oliver Bond be committed to the Gaol of Newgate for ſix Months, and that they do each pay a Fine to the King of five hundred Pounds for the ſaid Contempt and Breach of the Privileges of this Houſe, and that the ſaid Simon Butler and Oliver Bond be impriſoned till the ſaid Fines be paid reſpectively.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Gentleman Uſher of the Black-Rod attending

ing this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Bodies of the Hon. Simon Butler and Oliver Bond, and deliver them to the Keeper of his Majeſty's Gaol of Newgate, and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant in that behalf.

To the Honorable Henry Fane, Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

and ſent to Newgate.

Whereas it hath been this Day ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Hon. Simon Butler and Oliver Bond ſhould be committed Priſoners to the Gaol of Newgate for ſix Months, and that they do each pay a Fine of five hundred Pounds to the King, for a groſs Contempt and an high Breach of the Privileges of this Houſe, and that the ſaid Simon Butler and Oliver Bond be impriſoned until the ſaid Fines be paid reſpectively: You are therefore to receive the Bodies of the ſaid Simon Butler and Oliver Bond, and keep them in ſafe Cuſtody for the ſpace of ſix Months, and until they and each of them do pay the ſaid Fines of five hundred Pounds reſpectively to his Majeſty, for the ſaid Contempt and Breach of Privilege; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant in that behalf.

To the Keeper of his Majeſty's Gaol of Newgate.

The Uſher of the Black-Rod having informed the Houſe, that a Duplicate of the ſaid Libel had been poſted on the Door of this Houſe during this Debate;

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant to iſſue a Proclamation relative to a Libel.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to deſire that he will be pleaſed to iſſue a Proclamation, offering a Reward of one hundred Pounds for diſcovering and apprehending the Perſon guilty of poſting a printed Paper, dated 24th Day of February 1793, intitled, "United Iriſhmen of Dublin, the Hon. Simon Butler Chairman, Oliver Bond Secretary," on the Door of this Houſe, during the ſitting of this Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Reſolution.

Exemplification of definitive Sentence of Divorce produced.

Bryan Stapleton, Agent to Mathias Finucane, Eſquire, according to Order attended at the Bar, and produced an Exemplification of the definitive Sentence of Divorce in the Spiritual Court, mentioned in the ſaid Mathias Finucane's Petition to this Houſe; which being read, Leave to bring in a Bill.

Ld. Viſcount Belmore's Divorce Bill,

The Order of the Day being read for the ſecond reading of the Bill, intitled, An Act to diſſolve the Marriage of Armar-Lowry Lord Viſcount Belmore, with Henrietta Lady Viſcounteſs Belmore his now Wife, and to enable him to marry again; and for hearing Counſel for and againſt the ſame;

Counſel were accordingly called in;

And Mr. Burſton, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Jameſon, appearing as Counſel for the Bill; Mr. Duquery and Mr. Frankland appearing on behalf of Lady Viſcounteſs Belmore;

John Magloan was called, in order to prove Service of Order, who being ſworn, acquainted the Houſe, that he ſerved Lady Viſcounteſs Belmore perſonally with the Order of the Houſe for the ſecond reading of the Bill, on the twenty-fifth Day of February laſt, at Gloſter-Place, Edgeware-Road, London, and at the ſame time delivered to her a true Copy of the Bill.

He was directed to withdraw.

read ſecond time.

Then the ſaid Bill was read a ſecond time;

And Counſel were heard in ſupport of the Bill, and to make out the Allegations thereof; and in order to prove the Marriage,

The Lord Biſhop of Killaloe being called on, declared upon his Honour, that he married Armar-Lowry Corry, Eſquire, now Lord Viſcount Belmore, to the Right Honorable Lady Henrietta Hobart, now Lady Viſcounteſs Belmore, ſome time in Spring 1780.

John Young was called in, and being ſworn, proved an atteſted Copy of a Judgment obtained by Lord Viſcount Belmore againſt William Kerr, Eſquire, commonly called Earl of Ancram, in the Court of King's Bench, Weſtminſter.

He was directed to withdraw.

Charles King was called in, and being ſworn, proved a Settlement made on the Marriage of Armar-Lowry Corry, Eſquire, now Lord Viſcount Belmore, with the Right Honorable Lady Henrietta Hobart, now Lady Viſcounteſs Belmore, alſo a Deed of Separation between them; and alſo that a Female Child was the only Iſſue of the ſaid Marriage.

He was directed to withdraw.

François Le Duc was called in, and being ſworn, ſays, that ſome time in 1781, Lady Viſcounteſs Belmore being then in Paris, hired him as her Footman; that he continued to live in her Service till the ſecond of April laſt, and that during the whole of that time, Lord Viſcount Belmore did not live or cohabit with her, the ſaid Lady Viſcounteſs Belmore; that in Summer 1790, William Kerr, commonly called Lord Ancram, became very intimate with Lady Belmore, and that he believes an adulterous Intercourſe was then, and ſtill is carried on between them; that ſince that time the ſaid Lord Ancram and Lady Belmore have occaſionally travelled together, and reſided at different Places as Man and Wife, particularly at La Rocherie in France, where they reſided for ſix Weeks in Winter 1791, went by the Names of Lord and Lady Ancram, paſſed for Man and Wife, and conſtantly ſlept in the ſame Bed; that they afterwards went to Scotland, and that in the Month of February laſt he accompanied them from Edinburgh to London, that they then aſſumed the Names of Mr. and Mrs. Anderſon, and that they have ever ſince lived and cohabited together as Man and Wife, and lain in the ſame Bed; that when he left Lady Viſcounteſs Belmore's Service, on the ſecond of April laſt, ſhe was big with Child; that he believes ſhe was delivered of a Male Child on the 15th or 16th of April, and that he ſaw her and the Child about a Week after; that during eleven Months next before the 12th of May 1792, Lady Belmore had not been in Ireland, nor had, as he verily believes, any Intercourſe or Connection whatever with Lord Belmore; that he ſaw the ſaid Lord Ancram and Lady Belmore laſt Monday week, and that they then lived together as Man and Wife.

He was directed to withdraw.

Jane Huré was called in, and being ſworn, acquainted the Houſe, that about the eighth of December one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one, ſhe went to live as a Servant at La Rocherie near Calais, with an Engliſh Gentleman and Lady, who were called Lord and Lady Ancram, and paſſed for Man and Wife; that they always ſlept in the ſame Bed, and that ſhe frequently ſaw them in Bed together.

She was directed to withdraw.

François Le Duc being again called in, proved that the Gentleman and Lady who lived at La Rocherie, in December one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one, under the Names of Lord and Lady Ancram, were Lord Ancram and Lady Belmore.

He was directed to withdraw.

John Poole was called in, and being ſworn, ſays, he has lived with Lord Viſcount Belmore above nine Years, and that for the laſt ſix Years he has been conſtantly attending on him; that the ſaid Lord Belmore hath never ſince the fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one, been out of this Kingdom, nor had any Intercourſe or Connexion with Lady Viſcounteſs Belmore his Wife; and that he verily believes the ſaid Lady Belmore has not been in this Kingdom at any time ſince the ſaid fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one.

He was directed to withdraw.

The Evidence being finiſhed, the Counſel were directed to withdraw.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Houſe be put into a Committee on the ſaid Bill To-morrow.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant had received his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe of the eighteenth of February laſt, which his Excellency directed him to lay before their Lordſhips, which he read, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

" GEORGE R.

King's Anſwer. " HIS Majeſty returns his Thanks to the " Houſe of Lords for their dutiful and loyal " Addreſs.

" It is with peculiar Pleaſure, his Majeſty " receives the Aſſurances of the Houſe of " Lords, of their firm and effectual Support " in the juſt and neceſſary War in which his " Majeſty is engaged, for the Purpoſe of re- " pelling an unprovoked Aggreſſion, and of " providing for the moſt important Intereſts " of his Dominions, as well as for the gene- " ral Security.

" G. R."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

Ordered, that the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Majeſty of the eighteenth of February laſt, and his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer thereunto, be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Thanks for Anſwer.

Reſolved, that the humble Thanks of this Houſe be preſented to his Majeſty, for his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe of the eighteenth of February laſt.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Reſolution, and deſire his Excellency will pleaſe to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

The Lord Chancellor from the Lords Committees appointed to enquire into the Cauſes of the Diſorders and Diſturbances which prevail in ſeveral Parts of this Kingdom, to endeavour deavour to diſcover the Promoters of them, to prevent their Extenſion, and to report the Reſult of their Enquiries to the Houſe, made the following Report, viz.

My Lords,

Report from Secret Committee.

THE Committee appointed to inquire into the Cauſes of the Diſorders and Diſturbances which prevail in ſeveral Parts of this Kingdom, to endeavour to diſcover the Promoters of them, to prevent their Extenſion and to report the Reſult of their Enquiries to the Houſe, have examined into the Matters to them referred as far as the Time would permit, but apprehending that Delay may be attended with Danger in the preſent Circumſtances of the Times, they think it their Duty to lay before the Houſe immediately ſuch Information as they conceive to be material for the preſent, which is as follows:

The People at this Time called Defenders, are very different from thoſe who originally aſſumed that Appellation, and are all, as far as the Committee could diſcover, of the Roman Catholic Perſuaſion; in general poor ignorant labouring Men, ſworn to Secrecy, and impreſſed with an Opinion that they are aſſiſting the Catholic Cauſe; in other Reſpects they do not appear to have any diſtinct particular Object in View, but they talk of being relieved from Hearth-Money Tithes, County Ceſſes, and of lowering their Rents. They firſt appeared in the County of Louth, in conſiderable Bodies in April laſt, ſeveral of them were armed, they aſſembled moſtly in the Night and forced into the Houſes of Proteſtants, and took from them their Arms. The Diſorders ſoon ſpread through the Counties of Meath, Cavan, Monaghan and other Parts adjacent; at firſt they took nothing but Arms, but afterwards they plundered the Houſes of every Thing they could find. Their Meaſures appear to have been concerted and conducted with the utmoſt Secrecy and a Degree of Regularity and Syſtem not uſual in People in ſuch mean Condition, and as if directed by Men of a ſuperior Rank. Sums of Money to a conſiderable Amount, have been levied and ſtill continue to be levied upon the Roman Catholics in all Parts of the Kingdom, by Subſcriptions and Collections at their Chapels and elſewhere; ſome of which Levies have been made, and ſtill continue to be made under the Authority of a printed circular Letter which has been ſent into all Parts of the Kingdom; a Copy of which Letter we think it our Duty to inſert herein.

" Sir,

" By an Order of the Sub-committee, dated the fifteenth of January, I had the honor to forward you a Plan for a general Subſcription, which had for its Object the raiſing a Fund for defraying the heavy and growing Expences incurred by the General Committee, in conducting the Affairs of the Catholics of Ireland; as ſeveral Miſtakes have occurred in the Tranſmiſſion of theſe Letters, owing to my Ignorance of the Addreſs of many of the Delegates, I am directed to inform you, that ſuch a Plan is now in forwardneſs throughout the Kingdom. A Meaſure ſo ſtrongly enforced by Neceſſity, and ſo conſonant to Juſtice, cannot fail to attract your very ſerious Attention, the Committee having the moſt perfect Reliance on your Zeal, are therefore confident that you will uſe your beſt Exertions to carry this neceſſary Buſineſs into full Effect.

" Dublin, February 5th, 1793.

Secretary of the Sub-Committee.

" P. S. It is hoped that you will acknowledge the Receipt of this Letter, ſtating at the ſame Time whatever Progreſs has been made in your Diſtrict."

Several ſeditious and inflamatory Papers publiſhed in Dublin, and diſperſed through the Country, ſeem to have countenanced and encouraged the Defenders in their Proceedings, and it appears that Letters were written by a Member of the Committee of the Roman Catholics at Dublin, previous to the laſt Summer Aſſizes, to a Perſon reſident at Dundalk, in one of which the ſaid Perſon in the Name of the ſaid Roman Catholic Committee, directed Enquiries to be made, touching the Offences of which the Defenders then in Confinement were accuſed, which Enquiries will be beſt explained, by inſerting the ſaid Letter in the Words following.

" Dublin, 9th Auguſt, 1792.

" Dear Sir,

" I received this Day your Favour of the 8th Inſtant, encloſing the different Papers reſpecting the Buſineſs I wrote you. It is with much regret that I am obliged to reply, that from the want of Information on the Subject Matter of the Indictments, no preciſe Opinion can be formed whether the alledged Offence is or is not bailable; the Committee are conſequently in the Dark as to the Meaſures that ſhould be adopted, nor can your Exertions accelerate (as it ſeems) that Period until the Aſſizes, when you will be able to obtain Office Copies of the Examinations. Mr. Nugent's Brother left Town this Day truly diſconſolate, in not being able to effect ſomething towards the Liberation of his Kinſman, he however did his beſt in the Affair.

" I am, dear Sir,

" your obedient Servant,

" John Sweetman."

" P. S. If any new Occurrence ſhould happen, be good enough to inform me of it."

And

And it does appear that the ſaid Perſon to whom the ſaid Letter was addreſſed at Dundalk, did employ at a conſiderable Expence, an Agent and Counſel to act for ſeveral Perſons who were accuſed of being Defenders, and were indicted for Offences committed by them in the County of Louth, one of which Offenders appears to be particularly named in the above Letter. But the Committee think it their Duty to ſtate, that nothing appeared before them which could lead them to believe that the Body of the Roman Catholics in this Kingdom were concerned in promoting or countenancing ſuch Diſturbances, or that they were privy to this Application of any Part of the Money which had been levied upon them, however ſuſpicious the Conduct of ill-diſpoſed Individuals of their Perſuaſion, reſident in Dublin may have been. If all the Magiſtrates in the diſturbed Counties had followed the ſpirited Example of the few, who, much to their Honour, exerted themſelves with Vigour and Courage to ſupport the Laws, the Committee are perſuaded that theſe Diſturbances might have been ſuppreſſed; but inſtead of doing ſo, much the greater Part of them remained inactive. The Committee are of Opinion that the beſt Means of reſtoring permanent Tranquillity in the diſturbed Counties, would be to procure a ſufficient Number of active, reſolute and ſteady Magiſtrates therein, who would exert themſelves to maintain the public Peace, and to cut off from theſe deluded People, all Hope or Expectation of Support or Defence ariſing from a common Fund to be levied upon Perſons of their Communion.

An unuſual Ferment has for ſome Months paſt diſturbed ſeveral Parts of the North, particularly the Town of Belfaſt and the County of Antrim; it is kept up and encouraged by ſeditious Papers and Pamphlets of the moſt dangerous Tendency, printed at very cheap and inconſiderable Rates in Dublin and Belfaſt, which iſſue almoſt daily from certain Societies of Men or Clubs in both thoſe Places, calling themſelves Committees under various Deſcriptions, and carrying on a conſtant Correſpondence with each other. Theſe Publications are circulated amongſt the People with the utmoſt Induſtry, and appear to be calculated to defame the Government and Parliament, and to render the People diſſatisfied with their Condition and with the Laws. The Conduct of the French is ſhamefully extolled, and recommended to the public View as an Example for Imitation; Hopes and Expectations have been held up of their Aſſiſtance by a Deſcent upon this Kingdom, and Prayers have been offered up at Belfaſt from the Pulpit, for the Succeſs of their Arms, in the Preſence of military Aſſociations which have been newly levied and arrayed in that Town. A Body of Men aſſociated themſelves in Dublin under the Title of the Firſt National Battalion, their Uniform is copied from the French, green turned up with white, white Waiſtcoat and ſtriped Trowſers, gilt Buttons impreſſed with a Harp and Letters importing "Firſt National Battalion," no Crown but a Device over the Harp of a Cap of Liberty upon a Pike; two pattern Coats were left at two Shops in Dublin. Several Bodies of Men have been collected in different Parts of the North, armed and diſciplined under Officers choſen by themſelves, and compoſed moſtly of the loweſt Claſſes of the People. Theſe Bodies are daily encreaſing in Numbers and Force; they have exerted their beſt Endeavours to procure military Men of Experience to act as their Officers; ſome of them having expreſsly ſtated that there were Men enough to be had, but that Officers were what they wanted. Stands of Arms and Gunpowder to a very large Amount, much above the common Conſumption, have been ſent within theſe few Months paſt to Belfaſt and Newry, and Orders given for a much greater Quantity, which it appears could be wanted only for military Operations. At Belfaſt, Bodies of Men in Arms are drilled and exerciſed for ſeveral Hours almoſt every Night by Candle-light, and Attempts have been made to ſeduce the Soldiery, which, much to the Honour of the King's Forces, have proved ineffectual. The declared Object of theſe military Bodies is to procure a Reform of Parliament, but the obvious Intention of moſt of them appears to be to overawe the Parliament and the Government, and to dictate to both. The Committee forbear mentioning the Names of ſeveral Perſons, leſt it ſhould in any Manner affect any criminal Proſecution, or involve the perſonal Safety of any Man who has come forward to give them Information. The Reſult of their Inquiries is, that in their Opinion it is incompatible with the public Safety and Tranquillity of this Kingdom, to permit Bodies of Men in Arms to aſſemble when they pleaſe, without any legal Authority: And that the Exiſtence of a ſelf-created repreſentative Body of any Deſcription of the King's Subjects, taking upon itſelf the Government of them, and levying Taxes or Subſcriptions, to be applied at the Diſcretion of ſuch repreſentative Body, or of Perſons deputed by them, is alſo incompatible with the public Safety and Tranquillity.

Proteſt againſt it.

DISSENTIENT.

1. BECAUSE we are clearly of Opinion, that the Laws, as they now ſtand, are amply ſufficient to curb Licentiouſneſs of every ſort, and to prevent or puniſh all ſuch Crimes as may be injurious to the State or ſubverſive of public Tranquillity.

2. Becauſe, even though it were true that any Evil exiſted, ſuch as might ſeem to require a new Law to counteract its Effects, we conceive that Laws made on particular Emergencies, and enacted on the Spur of the Occaſion, are at all Times dangerous to conſtitutional Liberty, inaſmuch as they are uſually framed in haſte, and perhaps, under the Influence of Paſſion, or of arbitrary Principle, and are apt therefore to entail upon the State a real and permanent Evil, inſtead of the evaneſcent and temporary Inconvenience they aſſume to obviate.

3. Becauſe that, as this Bill aſſumes to itſelf the Stile and Character of a declaratory, as well as of an enacting Law, we cannot enough teſtify our Diſapprobation of the dangerous Practice of grounding a Declaration of Law upon the Foundation of old and obſolete Statutes, enacted in arbitrary Times, fallen into Diſuſe from the encreaſing Wiſdom and Spirit of the Age, yet ſuffered to lye unrepealed, and eſteemed by all ſound and conſtitutional Lawyers, the Lumber and Diſgrace of the Statute Books.

4. Becauſe we conceive it to be not only improper but highly indecent, that a Law of ſuch delicate Importance ſhould be brought forward at a Seaſon, when from various Cauſes, the Houſe is ſo ill attended and deprived of many of its wiſeſt and beſt Members.

We therefore ſolemnly proteſt againſt the committal of this Bill, at the ſame Time declaring our utter Diſapprobation of all ſuch Meetings or Conventions as it purpoſes to prevent, and firmly truſting that our Fellow Citizens, warned and inſtructed by the ſad Experience of neighbouring Countries, will cautiouſly abſtain from every Proceeding, which can in any Degree tend to public Diſorder.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THE Wiſdom and Firmneſs that have diſtinguiſhed your Conduct during the preſent Seſſion, and the Attention you have afforded to the many important Objects of your Deliberations, demand my ſincere Acknowledgments, and enable me to relieve you from further Attendance in Parliament.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have his Majeſty's Commands to thank you for the liberal Supplies you have voted for the public Service, and for the honorable Support of his Majeſty's Government. You may rely upon their faithful Application.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Wiſdom and Liberality with which you attended to his Majeſty's Recommendation in favour of his Roman Catholic Subjects, are highly pleaſing to the King. You muſt be fully ſenſible of his Majeſty's gracious Condeſcenſion in committing to your Judgment the Application of the hereditary Revenue: And I am ordered by his Majeſty to ſignify his Approbation of the Proviſions which have been made for the Support of his Civil Government, and the Honor and Dignity of his Crown; and to expreſs his Confidence, that your liberal Conceſſions to the Roman Catholics, and the Meaſures for the Regulation of the public Expenditure, and for the Limitation of Offices and Penſions, to which his Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to conſent, with a View to the Advantage of the Public, will cement a general Union of Sentiment among all Claſſes of his Majeſty's Subjects in ſupport of the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution.

His Majeſty has ſeen with real Satisfaction, that friendly Diſpoſition which has been manifeſted by the Parliaments of Great Britain and Ireland, for ſtrengthening the Connexions of the two Kingdoms by mutual Acts of Conceſſion. I am authoriſed to acquaint you, that an Act has paſſed the Britiſh Parliament, to permit Goods of Aſia, Africa, or America legally imported into Ireland, to be imported from thence into Great Britain. This is a ſignal Proof of her Attention to your Intereſts; whilſt the Confirmation of the Charter of the Eaſt India Company by the Parliament of Ireland diſplays on your Part a cordial Zeal for the Support of Great Britain, and a judicious Conſideration of the great and eſſential Intereſts of the Empire.

I am to make my Acknowledgments for the many ſalutary Laws you have enacted to ſtrengthen the executive Government, which will materially tend to defeat the Deſigns of the Enemies to the Freedom and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

The Apprehenſions of Embarraſſment which for a Time hung over commercial Tranſactions, were to me a Subject of the utmoſt Anxiety; and I am to return you my Thanks for ſanctioning thoſe Meaſures which I took in ſupport of Credit, and which I truſt have had the happieſt Effect, in preventing the ill Conſequences of ſuch Apprehenſions.

The Spirit of Diſcontent which prevailed amongſt the lower Claſſes of the People at the beginning of the Seſſion, has ſince burſt into Acts of Riot and Inſurrection; and I have been under the painful Neceſſity of employing his Majeſty's Forces, whoſe Steadineſs and good Conduct have on all Occaſions been manifeſted, and by whoſe Exertions the civil Magiſtrates have been enabled in a great Meaſure to reſtore the general Tranquillity.

Under all the Circumſtances of the Country, I thought it proper to call forth a very conſiderable Portion of the Militia of this Kingdom. I am to expreſs his Majeſty's Approbation of a Meaſure, which affords a preſent material Aſſiſtance, and lays the Foundation of a permament conſtitutional Force, that has been found by Experience in Great Britain of great Reſource in public Emergencies.

His Majeſty feels with the greateſt Concern the Expenſe brought upon his People by domeſtic Diſturbances, added to the Conſequences of a Foreign War, into which we have been forced by the wanton and unprovoked Aggreſſion of France; but you will reflect that you are contending for the Preſervation of your Property, and for the Security of your happy Conſtitution.

The Succeſſes with which it hath pleaſed the Divine Providence to bleſs the Arms of his Majeſty and his Allies, afford the beſt Proſpect of a happy Iſſue to this important Conteſt; and it is his Majeſty's earneſt Hope, that a Continuance of vigorous Exertions will finally obtain a ſecure and laſting Peace.

I have

I have entire Confidence, that in your reſpective Counties you will exert your utmoſt Influence in maintaining the public Tranquillity and in carrying the Law into full Execution. You may be aſſured, that I ſhall on all Occaſions take the moſt ſpeedy and effectual Meaſures, in the Exerciſe of thoſe Powers with which I am inveſted, for the Repreſſion of Outrage and Tumult, and the Protection of his Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects.

After which the Speaker, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid,

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And Lord Lieutenant present.

His Excellency John Earl of Weſtmorland, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Marquis of Clanricarde carrying the Cap of Maintenance, and the Marquis of Waterford the Sword of State, two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and then ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Yeoman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint the Commons, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in this Houſe.

they enter.

And the Commons being come, they with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I HAVE his Majeſty's Commands to meet you in Parliament.

You muſt have felt with the higheſt Satisfaction, that by the Succeſs of his Majeſty's Arms and thoſe of his Allies, the Hopes of France in their unprovoked Declaration of War, to impair the Stability, or ſhake the Conſtitution of Great Britain and Ireland, have been utterly diſappointed.

The Forces of his Majeſty and his Allies, are in Poſſeſſion of many important Fortreſſes which belonged to the French, and many of their oppreſſive and unjuſt Conqueſts have been wreſted from them; and, whilſt the Trade of the Empire has been generally protected, the Reſources which our Enemies derived from their wealthy Settlements and extenſive Commerce have been almoſt entirely cut off.

I have the Satisfaction to acquaint you, that the Spirit of Inſurrection which was for ſome Time prevalent among the lower Orders of the People, is in general ſuppreſſed. No Exertions ſhall be wanting on my Part to bring them to a due Senſe of Order and Subordination, and to prevent and puniſh the Machinations of thoſe who may aim to ſeduce them from their accuſtomed Loyalty, into Acts of Sedition and Outrage.

The Law for rendering a Militia in this Kingdom effectual, has been carried ſucceſsfully into Execution. I am happy to find that the People are at length fully reconciled to this Inſtitution, which has already been attended by the moſt beneficial Conſequences in producing internal Tranquillity, and contributing to the general Strength of the Empire.

I am commanded to acquaint you, that his Majeſty has appointed a Commiſſion under the Great Seal, to execute the Office of Lord High Treaſurer of this Kingdom, in order that the Payment of the Civil Liſt granted to his Majeſty, and a regular Appropriation of the Revenue to diſtinct Services, may be carried into Execution in a Manner as conformable to the Practice of Great Britain as the relative Situation of this Kingdom will permit.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered the National Accounts to be laid before you, as well as Eſtimates for the Service of the enſuing Year. It is painful to me to obſerve that the Exigencies of the Times will require a larger Supply and additional Reſources. But when you conſider that this is a War of abſolute Neceſſity, and that you are contending for your Liberty, Property and Religion, I doubt not, that you will chearfully contribute to ſupport the Honor of his Majeſty's Crown, and the eſſential Intereſts of the Kingdom.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Agriculture, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture of Ireland, the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and various other Inſtitutions of public Utility, have ſo conſtantly received the Benefit of your Care and Liberality, that I need not, particularly, at this Time inculcate their Importance.

His Majeſty has the fulleſt Reliance upon the Loyalty and Attachment of his People of Ireland. You are now by the unjuſt Aggreſſion of France involved in a Conteſt for your Religion, for your Conſtitution, and for the Preſervation of every Principle which upholds ſocial Order, or gives Security to your Perſons or Properties. In ſuch a Cauſe his Majeſty has no Doubt of being cordially ſupported by the Efforts of all his Subjects in reſiſting the deſperate Deſigns of Men, who are endeavouring to erect their own Power and Dominion on the Ruins of Law and Order, and to involve every Government of Europe in a general Scene of Confuſion and Anarchy.

His Majeſty's Object is Peace, and he will exert himſelf in Conjunction with his Allies whenever an Occaſion ſhall preſent itſelf, for obtaining this deſirable End, without ſurrendering the Honor of his Crown, or ſacrificing the preſent or future Security of his People and of the reſt of Europe.

You may depend upon my faithful Repreſentations of your Services to his Majeſty; and I will zealouſly co-operate with your Exertions for the Welfare and Proſperity of Ireland.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table;

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof. Speech to be printed.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to expreſs the moſt faithful and affectionate Attachment to his Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government. Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

To repreſent, that the preſent miſerable State of France forms an inſtructive Contraſt to the Security and Freedom which we enjoy under our happy Conſtitution. That the Lenity and equal Juſtice of our Laws, and the Mildneſs of his Majeſty's auſpicious Government, cannot fail to unite the People of Ireland in the moſt effectual Meaſures for the Maintenance of thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we ſincerely rejoice that the Spirit of Inſurrection which was for ſome Time prevalent among the lower Order of the People, is in general ſuppreſſed, and that we truſt, that by the Continuance of that Wiſdom and Firmneſs which has been ſhewn by his Majeſty's Government, they will be preſerved in a due Senſe of Order, and that the Machinations of thoſe who may attempt to ſeduce them from their accuſtomed Loyalty, will be defeated and puniſhed.

That we are happy to find that the Eſtabliſhment of an effective Militia in this Kingdom has been carried ſucceſsfully into Execution, and that the beneficial Conſequences of that conſtitutional Force are already manifeſted.

To return his Majeſty our ſincere Thanks for the Appointment of Commiſſioners to execute the Office of his Majeſty's Treaſurer of the Exchequer in this Kingdom, in order that that the Payment of the Civil Liſt granted to his Majeſty, and a regular Appropriation of the Revenue to diſtinct Services, may be carried into Execution, in a Manner as conformable to the Practice of Great Britain as the relative Situation of this Kingdom will permit.

To aſſure his Majeſty that we ſhall continue our Attention and Encouragement to the Agriculture and Manufactures of Ireland, and particularly to the Linen Manufacture, and that we ſhall give our accuſtomed Protection to the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and other Inſtitutions of publick Utility.

To offer our Congratulations to his Majeſty, that by his Majeſty's Exertions the Trade of the Empire has been protected, and the Reſources which the Enemy derived from their wealthy Colonies and extenſive Trade have been cut off, that ſeveral of their unjuſt Conqueſts have been recovered, and that many of their Fortreſſes are poſſeſſed by the Forces of his Majeſty and his Allies, whilſt the Attempts of France to weaken the Security of our happy Conſtitution have entirely failed.

To aſſure his Majeſty that he may confidently rely upon our firm Attachment and Loyalty, and that we are ſtrenuouſly determined to reſiſt with our Lives and Fortunes, the Efforts of our Enemies, in their deſperate Endeavours to ſubvert every Principle of ſocial Order, and to ſpread Confuſion and Anarchy through every Government in Europe.

That when Peace can be obtained without ſurrendering the Honor of his Majeſty's Crown, or ſacrificing the preſent and future Security of his Majeſty's People and of the reſt of Europe, we are ſatisfied of his Majeſty's Determination to exert himſelf in Conjunction with his Allies to attain that deſirable Object.

To offer our ſincere Thanks to his Majeſty for continuing the Earl of Weſtmorland in the Government of this Kingdom. That the Benefits which we have experienced under his Adminiſtration are Evidences of the faithful Repreſentations made by him to his Majeſty, and will animate our Zeal in co-operating with his Exertions under his Majeſty's Auſpices, for the Proſperity of Ireland.

Ordered, that the Marquis of Downſhire, and all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning at ten o'Clock, in the Committee Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, Nemine Diſſentiente, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency John Earl of Weſtmorland, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, to return him our Thanks for his moſt excellent Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament. Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant

And then he was directed to withdraw.

And the Title thereof being read by the Clerk;

Ordered, that the ſaid Account do lie on the Table.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Marquis of Downſhire reported from the Lords' Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe as follows, viz.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the moſt faithful and affectionate Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

The preſent miſerable State of France forms an inſtructive Contraſt to the Security and Freedom which we enjoy under our happy Conſtitution. The Lenity and equal Juſtice of our Laws, and the Mildneſs of your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, cannot fail to unite the People of Ireland in the moſt effectual Meaſures for the Maintenance of thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings.

We ſincerely rejoice that the Spirit of Inſurrection which was for ſome Time prevalent among ſome of the lower Orders of the People, is in general ſuppreſſed. And we truſt that by the Continuance of that Wiſdom and Firmneſs which has been ſhewn by your Majeſty's Government, they will be preſerved in a due Senſe of Order, and that the Machinations of thoſe, who may attempt to ſeduce them from their accuſtomed Loyalty, will be defeated and puniſhed.

We are happy to find that the Eſtabliſhment of an effective Militia in this Kingdom has been carried ſucceſsfully into Execution. The beneficial Conſequences of that conſtitutional Force are already manifeſted.

We return your Majeſty our ſincere Thanks for the Appointment of Commiſſioners to execute the Office of your Majeſty's Treaſurer of the Exchequer in this Kingdom, in order that the Payment of the Civil Liſt granted to your Majeſty, and a regular Appropriation of the Revenue to diſtinct Services, may be carried into Execution in a Manner as conformable to the Practice of Great Britain, as the relative Situation of this Kingdom will permit.

We ſhall continue our Attention and Encouragement to the Agriculture and Manufactures of Ireland, and particularly to the Linen Manufacture, and we ſhall give our accuſtomed Protection to the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and other Inſtitutions of publick Utility.

We humbly offer our Congratulations to your Majeſty, that by your Majeſty's Exertions the Trade of the Empire has been protected, and the Reſources which the Enemy derived from their wealthy Colonies and extenſive Trade have been cut off, that ſeveral of their unjuſt Conqueſts have been recovered, and that many of their Fortreſſes are poſſeſſed by the Forces of your Majeſty and your Allies; whilſt the Attempts of France to weaken the Security of our happy Conſtitution have entirely failed.

Your Majeſty may confidently rely upon our firm Attachment and Loyalty, and we are determined ſtrenuouſly to reſiſt with our Lives and Fortunes, the Efforts of our Enemies, in their deſperate Endeavours to ſubvert every Principle of ſocial Order, and to ſpread Confuſion and Anarchy through every Government in Europe.

When Peace can be obtained without ſurrendering the Honor of your Majeſty's Crown, or ſacrificing the preſent and future Security of your People and of the reſt of Europe, we are ſatisfied of your Majeſty's Determination to exert yourſelf in Conjunction with your Allies to attain that deſirable Object.

We offer our ſincere Thanks to your Majeſty for continuing the Earl of Weſtmorland in the Government of this Kingdom. The Benefits which we have experienced under his Adminiſtration are Evidences of the faithful Repreſentations made by him to your Majeſty, and will animate our Zeal in co-operating with his Exertions under your Majeſty's Auſpices for the Proſperity of Ireland.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order that the ſame may be laid before his Majeſty.

Lord O'Neill reported from the Lords Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe as follows, viz.

To his Excellency

JOHN EARL of WESTMORLAND,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our ſincere Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne. Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

We learn with the higheſt Satisfaction, that by the Succeſs of his Majeſty's Arms and thoſe of his Allies, the Hopes of France in their unprovoked Declaration of War, to impair the Stability or ſhake the Conſtitution of Great Britain and Ireland, have been utterly diſappointed.

We receive with Pleaſure the Communication which your Excellency is pleaſed to make us, that the Forces of his Majeſty and his Allies are in Poſſeſſion of many important Fortreſſes which belonged to the French, and that many of their oppreſſive and unjuſt Conqueſts have been wreſted from them; and that, whilſt the Trade of the Empire has been generally protected, the Reſources which they derived from their wealthy Settlements and extenſive Commerce have been almoſt entirely cut off.

In obſerving that the Spirit of Inſurrection which was for ſome Time prevalent among ſome of the lower Orders of the People, is in general ſuppreſſed, we are called upon to thank the Activity of your Excellency's Adminiſtration, and we are fully confident, that no Exertion will be wanting on your Part to bring them to a due Senſe of Order and Subordination, and to prevent and puniſh the Machinations of thoſe, who may aim to ſeduce them from their accuſtomed Loyalty, into Acts of Sedition and Outrage.

The Militia Law having been carried ſucceſsfully into Execution, we already experience its ſalutary Effects in the Eſtabliſhment of internal Tranquillity, and of an additional Force for the Support of the Empire.

We humbly thank your Excellency for acquainting us, that his Majeſty has appointed Commiſſioners to execute the Office of Treaſurer of his Majeſty's Exchequer in this Kingdom, in order that the Payment of the Civil Liſt granted to his Majeſty, and a Regular Appropriation of the Revenues to diſtinct Services, may be carried into Execution in a Manner as conformable to the Practice of Great Britain as the relative Situation of this Kingdom will permit.

This

This Meaſure, combined with thoſe Acts which paſſed in the laſt Seſſion for regulating Places and Penſions, and ſettling the Revenue of the Crown, will ever diſtinguiſh your Excellency's Adminiſtration.

We return your Excellency our ſincere Thanks, for reminding us of the Attention due to the Agriculture, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture of Ireland. Theſe, with the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and other Inſtitutions of publick Utility, ſhall receive our accuſtomed Attention.

We ſhall be happy whenever his Majeſty ſhall be enabled to conclude an honorable Peace, without ſurrendering the Rights of his Crown, or ſacrificing the preſent or future Security of his People, and of the reſt of Europe. But your Excellency has ſet before us in a true Light the Nature of the Conteſt in which we are involved, by the unjuſt Aggreſſion of France. Our Object is no leſs than the Preſervation of our Religion, our Conſtitution, and of every Principle which upholds ſocial Order, or gives Security to our Perſons and Properties. His Majeſty may place the fulleſt Reliance upon the Loyalty and Attachment of his People of Ireland, that they will cordially ſupport his Majeſty in reſiſting the deſperate Deſigns of Men, who are endeavouring to erect their own Power and Dominion on the Ruins of Law and Order, and to involve every Government of Europe in a general Scene of Anarchy and Confuſion.

We are confident of the faithful Repreſentations which your Excellency has made of us to his Majeſty; and to our zealous Co-operation with your Excellency in promoting the Welfare of Ireland, we ſhall add our earneſt Endeavours to contribute to the Eaſe and Honor of your Excellency's Adminiſtration.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know what Time he will pleaſe to appoint to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that, in Obedience to their Lordſhip's Order, he had waited on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know what Time he would pleaſe to appoint to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency, and that his Excellency was pleaſed to appoint To-morrow at four o'Clock, at the Caſtle.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that the Judges according to Order had prepared a Report of what Laws have lately expired or are near expiring, which he preſented to the Houſe, and the ſame was read by the Clerk at the Table as follows, viz.

My Lords,

In obedience to your Lordſhips' Order of the eleventh of January laſt, whereby the Judges were directed to enquire and report what Laws have lately expired or are near expiring, the Judges upon ſuch Enquiry find, Judges' Report on Temporary Laws.

That a Clauſe in an Act paſſed in the ſeventeenth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for the Amendment of the Law in Relation to Forgery and the Salvage of Goods ſtranded, which Clauſe relating to Forgery, was by an Act paſſed in the ſeventeenth and eighteenth Years of his preſent Majeſty, continued unto the twenty-fifth of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety, and from thence to the end of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, expired at the end of the Seſſion of Parliament, of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one. 17th Geo. 2. Ch. 11th. Sect. 1. Ch. 36th.

And that an Act paſſed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for the more effectual Execution of Orders of the Courts of Juſtice for giving and quieting Poſſeſſions, and alſo for the more effectual bringing to Juſtice ſuch Perſons as ſhall enliſt his Majeſty's Subjects to ſerve as Soldiers in Foreign Service without Licenſe; which Act was by an Act made in the ſeventeenth and eighteenth Years of his preſent Majeſty, continued to the twenty-fourth of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety, and from thence to the end of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, expired with the Seſſion of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one. Ch. 12th.

And that an Act paſſed in the third Year of his preſent Majeſty, whereby the Time within which Converts from Popery were to perform the legal Requiſites of Conformity was limited, and that ſuch Time was from Time to Time enlarged by ſeveral ſucceſſive Acts of Parliament, and was finally by an Act paſſed in the nineteenth and twentieth Years of his preſent Majeſty, enlarged and extended to the twenty-fourth of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one, and to the end of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ſo that the Time ſo limited has now expired. Ch. 26th. Ch. 14th. Sect. 2.

And that an Act of Parliament paſſed in the twenty-fifth Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act to take away the Challenge Ch. 31ſt.

to the Array of Panels of Jurors for want of a Knight on Trials in which a Peer or Lord of Parliament is a Party, expired at the end of the Seſſion of Parliament, of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one.

Ch. 44th. And that an Act paſſed in the twenty-ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to explain and amend an Act paſſed in the eleventh and twelfth Years of his ſaid Majeſty, intitled, An Act for badging ſuch Poor as ſhall be found unable to ſupport themſelves by Labour, and otherwiſe providing for them; and for reſtraining ſuch as ſhall be found able to ſupport themſelves by Labour or Induſtry from begging, was made to continue in force for four Years and no longer, and has of courſe expired.

Ch. 14th. And that an Act paſſed in the thirty-firſt Year of his late Majeſty King George II. intitled, An Act for the better ſupplying the City of Dublin with Coals, and for the better Encouragement of the Collieries of this Kingdom; was by an Act made in the thirty-third Year of his preſent Majeſty, continued to the twenty-fourth of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-four, and to the end of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, at the end of which Seſſion it will expire.

Ch. 17th. And that an Act paſſed in the firſt Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, and for other Purpoſes Sections 16, and 17. therein mentioned; two Sections of which Act, that is to ſay, the ſixteenth and ſeventeenth Sections were by an Act paſſed in the 17th & 18th Geo. 3. Ch. 36th. Sect. 4. ſeventeenth and eighteenth Years of his ſaid Majeſty, continued to the twenty-fourth of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety, and to the end of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and expired with the Seſſion of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one.

Ch. 20th. Sect. 10. And that an Act paſſed in the ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for continuing, reviving and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, and other Purpoſes therein mentioned, the tenth Section of which laſt mentioned Act was by an Ch. 36th. Sect. 5. Act paſſed in the ſeventeenth and eighteenth Years of his ſaid Majeſty's Reign continued to the twenty-fourth of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety, and to the end of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and expired with the Seſſion of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

Referred to Committee. Ordered, that the Conſideration of the foregoing Report ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to a ſelect Committee, and that the Lord Viſcount Ranelagh and all the Lords preſent be the ſaid Committee, and that all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee are to have Voices therein, and two of the Judges to aſſiſt.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet To-morrow Morning at eleven o'Clock, in the Committee Chamber near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Motion for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant. The Houſe was moved to reſolve, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that he will be pleaſed to order the Counties not as yet embodied, forthwith to raiſe their Complement of Militia, and that the defective Regiments do complete their Number with all convenient Speed.

A Debate ariſing thereupon, and the Queſtion being put;

It paſſed in the Negative. diſagreed to;

DISSENTIENT.

Proteſt. 1. BECAUSE with the moſt earneſt Deſire at this momentous Criſis of ſtrengthening the executive Power, and always a zealous Supporter of ſuch an Adminiſtration as the preſent, which makes the mutual Benefit of the Sifter Realms the Rule of its Conduct, it ought to be the Wiſh of every loyal Subject and Patriot, that the Speech from the Throne and its Echo in the Addreſs of this Houſe, ſhould be conſiſtent with the real Fact.

2. Becauſe as the Militia is on all Hands agreed to be the Strength of the Nation, and as an Act paſſed laſt Seſſion for raiſing ſixteen thouſand Militia, diſtinguiſhing the Quota each County ſhould raiſe; it appears inconſiſtent with thoſe Parts of ſaid Speech and Addreſs, which announce to the People that ſaid Militia Act hath been effectually and ſucceſsfully carried into Execution, (when little more than three-fifths of the Militia is raiſed, the laſt Returns being but nine thouſand nine hundred and forty-nine effective Men out of ſixteen thouſand, from which Number great Deductions are to be made for Deſertion, Diſcharges and Deaths, and but two hundred and forty-nine Recruits which have not yet joined the reſpective Regiments, and probably will be inſufficient to ſupply thoſe Defalcations) to make ſuch an Avowal.

3. Becauſe two of the Counties are not yet embodied, who ought to their Ability to adminiſter to the conſtitutional Force of the Nation, and though the Law is not mandatory on his Excellency, but optional, what Counties he may think proper to embody, yet it conveys a Stigma of Diſloyalty or Incapacity on the two Counties which have not been called forth, from which they ought to be reſcued, unleſs thoſe Objections apply to them.

4. Becauſe under the Circumſtances of Royal as well as Parliamentary Sanction, and the confeſſed Utility of a Militia, and at a Time when an Invaſion is threatened by the common Enemy of Chriſtianity, it appears unaccountable upon what Principle the Motion for addreſſing his Excellency to call forth thoſe Counties not yet embodied, and for compleating the Militia to its full Quota, hath been negatived.

ALDBOROUGH.

Mutiny Bill. A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Cooke and others, with a Bill, intitled, An Act for puniſhing Mutiny and Deſertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters within this Kingdom; to which they deſire the Concurrence of this Houſe.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Lord Bandon introduced.

Francis Bernard, Eſquire, being by Letters Patents, dated the twenty-ſixth Day of November, in the thirty-fourth Year of King George III. created Baron Bandon, of Bandon Bridge in the County of Cork, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Lord Donoughmore and the Lord Liſmore, alſo in their Robes; the Yeoman Uſher of the Black-Rod, and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying his Lordſhip's Letters Patents preceding; his Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Woolſack, who gave them to the Deputy Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: his Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the lower End of the Barons' Bench.

Addreſs for Statutes at large to be printed.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to deſire his Excellency will be pleaſed to give Directions that the Statutes at large of this Kingdom, paſſed in the Years one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-three, and one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-four, be reſpectively printed and publiſhed under the Inſpection of the Lord Chancellor and the Judges, and as an Encouragement to the Printer, a Copy thereof be delivered to the proper Officer for each Member of both Houſes of Parliament.

Petitions of William Billing,

A Petition of William Billing, of the City of Dublin, was preſented and read, ſetting forth, that the Petitioner in or about the Month of November, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one, took certain Ground from Mr. Ottiwell, in the Neighbourhood of the New Cuſtom-Houſe, and that when Petitioner took ſaid Ground he did not entertain a Doubt, but that the intended Improvements would have been carried on, which induced Petitioner to take ſaid Ground.

That from the Stop put to the Improvements and opening the Avenues, which Petitioner believes was principally owing to their Lordſhips' Inveſtigation and Report laſt Year, the Petitioner cannot ſet ſaid Ground or raiſe Money (if he required it) to build thereon, the Public being of Opinion that the Avenues will not be opened, and therefore Petitioner's Ground is of little Value.

That Petitioner for the Reaſons aforeſaid, has been very much injured in his Property by taking ſaid Ground, which would not have been the Caſe had the Avenues been opened and the Improvements likely to proceed, as Petitioner would then have ſet his Ground at a conſiderable Profit; and therefore praying, that their Lordſhips' Inveſtigation may be ſpeedily determined, that the Public may entertain but one Opinion of what is to be done, with regard to opening the intended Approaches that were held out to the Public, and on the Faith of which, Petitioner with many others have riſked their Property.

John Glynn.

Alſo a Petition of John Glynn, of the City of Dublin, Builder, was preſented and read, ſetting forth, that the Petitioner took from Mr. Ottiwell, certain Grounds in the Line of Sackville-ſtreet, on which Ground he has laid out a conſiderable Sum of Money.

That Petitioner was induced to take ſaid Grounds, believing that the New Bridge and Avenues adjacent would be immediately opened.

That the Petitioner has had ſome Advantages from Mr. Ottiwell, with regard to getting longer Time than Mr. Ottiwell himſelf is allowed for building, and in many other reſpects has received great Encouragement; however, notwithſtanding all that Accommodation, and Petitioner having expended a conſiderable Sum, and ſuppoſing that he ſhould be able to raiſe Money by Mortgage, which is the Practice with moſt Builders to enable them to go on, Petitioner had no Doubt of finding Means, but to his great Diſappointment and Loſs, he can neither raiſe Money, nor can he even let any of his Buildings, for that the Public are induced from an Enquiry and Reſolutions of the Houſe of Lords, in the laſt Seſſion, to believe that his Title under Mr. Ottiwell is not good, and conſequently will not treat with him; as an Inſtance, Petitioner can prove that a certain Perſon, who had actually agreed to give him one hundred Pounds per Annum, and four hundred Pounds Fine for one of his Houſes, has retracted, and gave him for reaſon that he would not venture on ſuch precarious Title, ſo that as an Individual, Petitioner is likely to be ruined by the Meaſure taken laſt Seſſion of Parliament, and by Opinions ſtated in Debate reſpecting Mr. Ottiwell's Title; and therefore praying their Lordſhips to decide as ſoon as may be, that the Public may have but one Opinion, and that the Petitioner may be relieved from his Apprehenſions with regard to his Property, which he has unfortunately embarked in an Undertaking from a Belief he had of the new Improvements going on, but which are now put a Stop to, and conſequently muſt be the Loſs of a great Property of Petitioner, and in like Manner involve many others.

Thomas Darcy,

Alſo a Petition of Thomas Darcy, of the City of Dublin, Merchant, was preſented and read, ſetting forth, that in the Month of May, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-two, Petitioner took Leaſes of ſeveral Lots of Ground in Sackville-ſtreet and Beresford-Place, for building, from Henry Ottiwell, Eſquire, on which Petitioner hath expended many thouſand Pounds in erecting Houſes thereon; having completely finiſhed ſix Houſes in Sackville-ſtreet, and nearly finiſhed ſeven in Beresford-Place, and Abbey-ſtreet.

That Petitioner with humble Deference, begs leave to repreſent to their Lordſhips, that he has been much retarded in building ſaid Houſes, by their Lordſhips having called in Queſtion the Title of ſaid Ottiwell, which has greatly injured Petitioner's Property, as he was thereby prevented ſetting any of ſaid Houſes, or raiſing Money by Sale or Mortgage, from an Idea having been conceived by the Public that his Title and that of ſaid Ottiwell to ſaid Grounds was precarious and inſecure, and his Credit as a Merchant has been alſo much injured, all in conſequence of an Inveſtigation by a Committee of their Lordſhips, and the Report made by ſaid Committee.

That ſaid Inveſtigation and Report prevented his ſetting ſaid Houſes at a conſiderable Profit-Rent, and cauſed a Gentleman of Property joined with Petitioner in ſaid Undertaking to relinquiſh his Partnerſhip therein, and who is gone to the Eaſt-Indies. That Petitioner thus injured in his Credit and Property finds himſelf engaged alone in an heavy Undertaking, which he fears will involve himſelf and Family in ruin; and therefore praying their Lordſhips will be pleaſed to bring their preſent Inveſtigation to as ſpeedy a Concluſion, as to their Lordſhips ſhall ſeem meet; and the Petitioner is confident, that the Reſult will clear up the Title of Petitioner and ſaid Ottiwell, and leave the ſame unimpeached; but if the Inveſtigation ſhould not be ended in the preſent Seſſion, the Petitioner will be utterly precluded from deriving ſuch Benefit from the great Sums expended by the Petitioner as he humbly conceives he is juſtly entitled to, and that their Lordſhips will be pleaſed to grant Petitioner ſuch other and further Relief as to their Lordſhips ſhall ſeem meet.

John Hart,

Alſo a Petition of John Hart, of the City of Dublin, Brewer, was preſented and read, ſetting forth that the Petitioner in or about May, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety, took certain Grounds on the North-ſtrand, juſt below the New Cuſtom Houſe, and that when Petitioner took ſame, he did not entertain a Doubt but that the intended Improvements would be carried on; and which was Petitioner's principal Inducement to take the Ground he did.

That from the Stop put to the Improvements and opening the Avenues, which Petitioner believes was principally owing to their Lordſhips' Inveſtigation and Report laſt Year, the Petitioner cannot ſet any of his Grounds or raiſe Money to build thereon, the Public being generally of Opinion that the Avenues will not be opened, and therefore Petitioner's Ground is of little or no Value.

That the Petitioner for the Reaſons aforeſaid has been very much injured in his Trade and Buſineſs, which would not have been the Caſe had the Avenues been opened or the Improvements likely to go on, as Petitioner then would have ſet his Ground at a conſiderable Profit, and thereby be enabled to raiſe Money if neceſſary.

That the Petitioner is peculiarly circumſtanced, in as much that in conſequence of the intended Improvements not going on, he feels himſelf of Neceſſity obliged to ſolicit, and pray their Lordſhips for Redreſs, that their Lordſhips' Inveſtigation may be ſpeedily determined, that the Public may entertain but one Opinion of what is to be done with regard to the opening the intended Approaches that were held out to the Public, and on the Faith of which, Petitioner with many others have riſked their Property to a very conſiderable Amount.

William Cope,

Alſo a Petition of William Cope, of the City of Dublin, Merchant, was preſented and read, ſetting forth, that ſome Time in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-two, Petitioner took certain Grounds on the North Side of Carliſle-Bridge, in the City of Dublin, and that when Petitioner took them he did not entertain a Doubt but that the intended Improvements would be carried on, which was his principal Inducement for taking them, and ſo confident was Petitioner that they would go on rapidly, he conſented to undergo a third Part of his full Rent the firſt Year, and did purchaſe out ſeveral Tenants who had Intereſts for Years to come in ſaid Grounds, in order to get them immediately into his Hands, and did alſo purchaſe other adjacent Grounds to complete his Plan, for which Petitioner paid a conſiderable Sum, ſo that on the whole, Petitioner finds himſelf engaged in a moſt ſerious Undertaking.

That the Calamities of the Times cauſed ſuch a Damp on Speculations that few would venture to take Grounds; however, Petitioner looked forward, expecting that the intended Improvements would be carried on, in which Caſe he had Hopes of gaining ſome Advantage; but the Inveſtigations of their Lordſhips in the laſt Seſſions, and their Lordſhips' Reſolutions, have had ſuch an Effect on the Public with regard to the Title of Mr. Ottiwell, that no one would venture to take take a Foot of Ground where the Board for making Wide Streets were concerned; and further, their Lordſhips' Report, Petitioner conceives, was the Cauſe of diſcharging the Juries that were appointed to value on that Side the Water, which has put a total Stop to all the intended Improvements in that Quarter.

That Petitioner thus circumſtanced, his Ground hemmed in, in conſequence of the intended Improvements not going on, feels himſelf of Neceſſity obliged to ſolicit their Lordſhips for Redreſs; and therefore praying that their Inveſtigation may be ſpeedily determined, that the Public may entertain but one Opinion of what is to be done with regard to opening the intended Approaches that were held out to the Public, and on the Faith of which, Petitioner with many others have riſked their Property to a very conſiderable Amount.

Henry Lunn, Alſo a Petition of Henry Lunn, of Abbey-ſtreet, in the City of Dublin, Glaſs Manufacturer, was preſented and read, ſetting forth, that the Petitioner did carry on the Glaſs Manufacture in Abbey-ſtreet, very extenſively, and would have continued the ſame was it not that he received a Notice from the Commiſſioners for making wide and convenient Streets in the City of Dublin, that his Glaſs Houſe and Warehouſe would be valued for the opening the intended Avenue to the Cuſtom Houſe, and they were accordingly actually valued.

That the Petitioner imagining that his Glaſs Houſe would have been ſhortly thrown down, did ſet the ſame for a mere Trifle until it ſhould, by which he has loſt between ſix and ſeven hundred Pounds a Year which he made of the Buſineſs, and would have continued carrying on the ſame ſtill, was it not for the Commiſſioners of Wide Streets.

That the Commiſſioners have ſerved Notice lately that they would not require his Concerns as the Improvements were put a Stop to, which if the Petitioner had known in Time he would not have parted with his Concerns, whereby he will loſe a conſiderable Sum of Money, as the Perſon to whom he ſet the ſame for a Trifle now makes near one thouſand Pounds a Year, ſo that Petitioner is committed to the Perſon to whom he has ſet, and deprived of a very conſiderable Income; and therefore praying their Lordſhips will take the Premiſes into Conſideration, and from their wonted Goodneſs give ſuch Relief to the Individual as to their Lordſhips may ſeem meet.

Robert Lloyd, Alſo a Petition of Robert Lloyd, of the City of Dublin, Rope-maker, was preſented and read, ſetting forth, that in the Month of November one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one, a Jury was impannelled by the Commiſſioners for making wide and convenient Streets in the City of Dublin, for the Purpoſe of valuing among others the Houſes No. two, three, four and five, with three hundred and thirty Feet of Ground at the Rere thereof, Part of a Rope Walk, the Property of the Petitioner, ſituate on the North Strand, which Jury aſcertained the Value of ſaid Houſes and Ground at ſix thouſand nine hundred and fifty-five Pounds fifteen Shillings and one Penny Halfpenny, and in the Month of May following, returned their Verdict to ſaid Commiſſioners, who ſet ſaid Houſes and Ground as the Petitioner is informed to Mr. Henry Ottiwell, and gave him Poſſeſſion of the Houſes No. four and five, Part thereof, in the Name of the whole.

That the Petitioner having in the Years one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-two, and one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-three, made repeated Applications to ſaid Commiſſioners for the Amount of ſaid Valuation, received on the fourteenth of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-three, a Letter from them in anſwer to Petitioner's Memorial of the twenty-third of May, intimating that they would feel very great Concern for any Inconvenience that might ariſe to Petitioner from their Proceedings, that there was then no Fund for Payment of the Petitioner's Demand, and that they would take the earlieſt Opportunity of communicating when any ſhould be conſigned to them for that Purpoſe.

The Petitioner being fully perſuaded it was the Intention of ſaid Commiſſioners immediately to take Poſſeſſion of ſaid Premiſes, he ſet the Remainder of his Rope Walk, conſiſting of near nine hundred Feet, to Mr. William Cope, who threw down the Wall of, and interſected the ſame by a Street now called Cope-ſtreet.

That Petitioner on the twenty-third of Auguſt following, was much ſurprized and diſappointed at the Receipt of a Notice from the Law Agent of ſaid Commiſſioners, informing Petitioner that the ſaid Commiſſioners did not intend to proceed with the Valuation of ſaid Houſes and Concerns, and that they intended forthwith to diſcharge ſaid Jury.

That Petitioner has been extremely embarraſſed and diſtreſſed by the Proceedings of ſaid Commiſſioners, in ſo much, that he had determined to have recourſe to the Law of his Country for Redreſs; but is adviſed, and hopes he will obtain that Juſtice in a ſummary Manner from their Lordſhips, which he is apprehenſive his Circumſtances will not enable him to look for in the ordinary Way.

That Petitioner is inclined to believe, and humbly begs Leave to obſerve to their Lordſhips, ſhips, that various Opinions are entertained reſpecting the Agreement of ſaid Commiſſi-

and oners with Mr. Ottiwell, and that the Public do not think themſelves ſafe in treating with Mr. Ottiwell for the Ground granted him by ſaid Commiſſioners, Part of which is the ſaid Ground the Property of Petitioner ſo valued by ſaid Jury; and that in Caſe the preſent Inveſtigation on Foot in the Houſe of Lords be not ſped with Effect, the intended Improvements in that Quarter of the Town will be further retarded, and no Fund eſtabliſhed for Payment of the Engagement of ſaid Commiſſioners; and therefore praying their Lordſhips to take the Petitioner's Caſe into Conſideration, and make ſuch Order therein for the Petitioner's Relief, as to their Lordſhips' Juſtice and Wiſdom ſhall ſeem meet.

Charles Mulvany. And alſo a Petition of Charles Mulvany, of the City of Dublin, was preſented and read, ſetting forth, that he took certain Grounds in Sackville-ſtreet from Mr. Ottiwell, at a moſt exorbitant Rent, ſuppoſing at the Time that the Improvements at that Side the Water would have gone on rapidly: that he acknowledged to have received many Advantages and great Encouragement from Mr. Ottiwell, but as all that is inadequate to meet the Change of Times, and the Diſappointment Petitioner has met with in not getting into his Hands thoſe Grounds when there was a Rage for building, will in the End moſt materially injure him; and though Petitioner had not them in actual Poſſeſſion, yet were it not for the Inveſtigation that took Place by a Committee of their Lordſhips in the laſt Seſſions, and the Colouring that was given to Mr. Ottiwell's Title, he ſhould, at this Day, have got moſt Part of them off his Hands, but no one would deal with him ſuppoſing Mr. Ottiwell's Title bad, and that in this Situation he is likely to be left under a heavy Rent, together with ſuch a Change in the Times as no one could foreſee; and therefore praying their Lordſhips to eaſe the Minds of thoſe concerned, in as much as regards the expediting of the Inveſtigation of the preſent Committee, that the Public may not be kept in ſuſpenſe, whereby Individuals are injured in their Property without a Poſſibility of Redreſs.

Ordered, that the ſaid Petitions do lie on the Table.

Report from Committee appointed to enquire into the Meaſures taken by Commiſſioners for making wide Streets in the City of Dublin. The Lord Viſcount Dillon, from the Lords Committees, appointed to enquire into the Meaſures taken by the Commiſſioners for making wide and convenient Streets in the City of Dublin, for opening the Paſſage from Sackville-ſtreet to Carliſle Bridge, and for laying out new Streets to the Eaſtward thereof, whether they have made any, and what Agreements reſpecting the ſame; what was the Value of the Ground compriſed in the ſeveral Agreements made by the ſaid Commiſſioners at the reſpective Times when ſuch Agreements were made; what Loſs or Profit has accrued to the Public, or is likely to accrue thereby; alſo into the Cauſes which have delayed the completing thereof, and into the whole Conduct of the ſaid Commiſſioners and their Officers reſpecting the ſame; made the following Report:

MY LORDS,

THE Lords Committees appointed to enquire into the Meaſures taken by the Commiſſioners for making wide and convenient Streets in the City of Dublin, for opening the Paſſage from Sackville-ſtreet to Carliſle-Bridge, and for laying out new Streets to the Eaſtward thereof, whether they have made any and what Agreements reſpecting the ſame; what was the Value of the Ground comprized in the ſeveral Agreements made by the ſaid Commiſſioners at the reſpective Times when ſuch Agreements were made; what Loſs or Profit has accrued to the Public, or is likely to accrue thereby; alſo into the Cauſes which have delayed the Completion thereof, and into the whole Conduct of the ſaid Commiſſioners and their Officers reſpecting the ſame, have proceeded to examine into the Matter to them referred, and find that the Commiſſioners appointed for making wide and convenient Streets in the City of Dublin, by Deed dated the 16th of November, 1791, agreed with Henry Ottiwell, of the City of Dublin, that as to ſuch Parts or Lots of the Ground in the ſaid City, deſcribed in a Map annexed to the ſaid Agreement, as were then in the actual Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Commiſſioners, they or a competent Number of them, ſhould and would within three Calendar Months from the Date thereof, execute Leaſes of the ſame to him the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs and Aſſigns, at his Expence for three Lives renewable for ever, at the following Rents, that is to ſay:—For the Fronts in the Main Streets, at the Rent of one Pound three Shillings for each Foot, lineal Meaſure, and for the Fronts in the croſs Streets, thirteen Shillings per Foot, lineal Meaſure, on Payment by the ſaid Henry Ottiwell of one tenth Part of the Purchaſe Money of the ſaid ſeveral Lots, at the Rate of twenty Years Purchaſe for the Rents ſo reſerved; and the ſaid Commiſſioners did alſo agree, that upon Payment of ſuch Depoſits by the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, he ſhould be put into Poſſeſſion of the ſeveral Lots by them; and that as to the Remainder of ſuch Lots or Parts of the ſaid Grounds and Premiſſes, ſo agreed to be demiſed to the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns, as have not been valued or purchaſed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or which are not come into their Poſſeſſion, they the ſaid Commiſſioners or their Succeſſors, from and immediately, or as ſoon after they ſhall purchaſe and obtain the Poſſeſſion of the ſame reſpectively, as may conveniently be done, and at fartheſt within three Calendar Months from that

that Time, ſhall and will deliver, or cauſe to be delivered up unto the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns, the whole of each and every ſuch reſpective Lot or Lots of Ground hereby agreed for as before mentioned, with all the Materials thereon, he the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns, firſt paying down unto the ſaid Commiſſioners or their Succeſſors, at the Time of obtaining ſuch Poſſeſſion of each and every ſuch Lot, one-tenth Part of the Purchaſe Money of the Rent thereof, calculated at twenty Years Purchaſe of the yearly Rent, at the Rate aforeſaid, at the reſpective Rates per Foot herein before and in the ſaid recited Statement and Agreement mentioned, and tendering to them for Execution, ſuch Leaſe or Leaſes, and Counterpart or Counterparts thereof, with a Map or Maps thereunto annexed as aforeſaid, and duly perfecting the ſame: and alſo that they the ſaid Commiſſioners and their Succeſſors, ſhall and will pay or allow unto the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns, one Year and three Months Rent, of each and every Lot of ſaid Ground hereby agreed for as aforeſaid, that is to ſay, three Months Rent, commencing from the Day the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns ſhall get or receive the Poſſeſſion of each ſuch Lot as aforeſaid, for the Purpoſe of clearing the Ground, preparatory to the building thereon, and one Year's Rent from Expiration of ſaid three Months, for time for building upon the ſame: And that they the ſaid Commiſſioners or their Succeſſors, ſhall and will pay unto the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns, lawful Intereſt for all ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as he, they or any of them, ſhall ſo pay or depoſit with the ſaid Commiſſioners, on obtaining Poſſeſſion of each and every ſuch Lot of Ground, from the Time of actual Payment thereof to the end of one Year and three Months, to commence and be computed from the Day that actual Poſſeſſion of each Lot ſhall be ſo delivered to the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns: And further, that they the ſaid Commiſſioners or their Succeſſors, ſhall and will on the Requeſt, and at the Coſt and Charges of the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns, demiſe or grant unto the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns, each and every of ſuch Lots of Ground as are herein before, and in and by the ſaid recited Propoſal and Reſolution of the ſaid Commiſſioners agreed to be demiſed or granted to him and them in Manner following, (that is to ſay,)—That they the ſaid Commiſſioners, or ſome three or more of them, ſhall and will make, perfect and execute unto the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns, two Parts of a Leaſe for three Lives renewable for ever, of each and every of the ſaid Lots of Ground ſo agreed to be demiſed to him as aforeſaid, which they the ſaid Commiſſioners now have in their Poſſeſſion, or which they ſhall hereafter purchaſe and obtain the Poſſeſſion of as aforeſaid, ſuch Leaſe to commence from the Day on which the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns, ſhall obtain Poſſeſſion of each reſpective Lot of Ground as aforeſaid, and be ſubject to a yearly Rent, calculated according to the Rates per Foot in the ſaid Statement and Agreement mentioned, after deducting thereout the ſaid one-tenth Part thereof, ſo to be purchaſed by ſuch Depoſit as herein before mentioned, and to continue payable thereout during ſaid Term, and every Renewal thereof Half-yearly, above all Taxes; which ſaid Leaſes are to contain a Covenant or Clauſe of Diſtreſs and Re-entry in Caſe of Non-payment of the Rent, to be reſerved; a Covenant for Payment of ſuch Rent; a Covenant for building according to the Lines and Levels, and to ſuch Elevations as may be directed or approved of by the ſaid Commiſſioners or their Succeſſors; a Covenant for keeping the ſaid Premiſes in tenantable Repair, and peaceably yielding up the ſame on any Determination of the ſaid Term, or any Renewal thereof; and (where the ſaid Commiſſioners or their Succeſſors may chooſe or think proper and neceſſary) a Covenant for preſerving the Uniformity of ſuch Houſes or Buildings as ſhall be thereon erected, and Covenants for renewing ſuch Leaſes for ever on the Death or Failure of every Life named and to be named therein on Payment of a Pepper-Corn Fine on each Renewal, over and above all Rent and Arrears of Rent then due, together with the uſual Warranty; to each of which ſaid Leaſes is to be annexed a Map, or actual Survey of the Lot of Ground thereby demiſed, one Part of which ſaid Leaſes reſpectively ſo compleated, is to remain with the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns, and the other Part thereof with the ſaid Commiſſioners and their Succeſſors; which ſaid ſeveral Leaſes and Counterparts and Maps thereto annexed, and every Renewal thereof reſpectively, are to be prepared, written and made out, by the Officers belonging to the ſaid Commiſſioners, whoſe Buſineſs it is to prepare ſame, and are to be made and done at the proper Coſts and Charges of him the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs and Aſſigns; and the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, did on his Part agree with the ſaid Commiſſioners, that he the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns, ſhall and will within three Months next after the Perfection of theſe Preſents, take and accept from the ſaid Commiſſioners, Leaſes or Demiſes ſuch as before deſcribed, of the ſeveral and reſpective Lots of Ground and Premiſſes in the ſaid Commiſſioners Map thereof, and the ſaid Statement or Agreement mentioned, as are now in the Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Commiſſioners, and Leaſes of the Remainder thereof or ſo much of the ſame as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall purchaſe and

and oners with Mr. Ottiwell, and that the Public do not think themſelves ſafe in treating with Mr. Ottiwell for the Ground granted him by ſaid Commiſſioners, Part of which is the ſaid Ground the Property of Petitioner ſo valued by ſaid Jury; and that in Caſe the preſent Inveſtigation on Foot in the Houſe of Lords be not ſped with Effect, the intended Improvements in that Quarter of the Town will be further retarded, and no Fund eſtabliſhed for Payment of the Engagement of ſaid Commiſſioners; and therefore praying their Lordſhips to take the Petitioner's Caſe into Conſideration, and make ſuch Order therein for the Petitioner's Relief, as to their Lordſhips' Juſtice and Wiſdom ſhall ſeem meet.

Charles Mulvany. And alſo a Petition of Charles Mulvany, of the City of Dublin, was preſented and read, ſetting forth, that he took certain Grounds in Sackville-ſtreet from Mr. Ottiwell, at a moſt exorbitant Rent, ſuppoſing at the Time that the Improvements at that Side the Water would have gone on rapidly: that he acknowledged to have received many Advantages and great Encouragement from Mr. Ottiwell, but as all that is inadequate to meet the Change of Times, and the Diſappointment Petitioner has met with in not getting into his Hands thoſe Grounds when there was a Rage for building, will in the End moſt materially injure him; and though Petitioner had not them in actual Poſſeſſion, yet were it not for the Inveſtigation that took Place by a Committee of their Lordſhips in the laſt Seſſions, and the Colouring that was given to Mr. Ottiwell's Title, he ſhould, at this Day, have got moſt Part of them off his Hands, but no one would deal with him ſuppoſing Mr. Ottiwell's Title bad, and that in this Situation he is likely to be left under a heavy Rent, together with ſuch a Change in the Times as no one could foreſee; and therefore praying their Lordſhips to eaſe the Minds of thoſe concerned, in as much as regards the expediting of the Inveſtigation of the preſent Committee, that the Public may not be kept in ſuſpenſe, whereby Individuals are injured in their Property without a Poſſibility of Redreſs.

MY LORDS,

THE Lords Committees appointed to enquire into the Meaſures taken by the Commiſſioners for making wide and convenient Streets in the City of Dublin, for opening the Paſſage from Sackville-ſtreet to Carliſle-Bridge, and for laying out new Streets to the Eaſtward thereof, whether they have made any and what Agreements reſpecting the ſame; what was the Value of the Ground compriſed in the ſeveral Agreements made by the ſaid Commiſſioners at the reſpective Times when ſuch Agreements were made; what Loſs or Profit has accrued to the Public, or is likely to accrue thereby; alſo into the Cauſes which have delayed the Completion thereof, and into the whole Conduct of the ſaid Commiſſioners and their Officers reſpecting the ſame, have proceeded to examine into the Matter to them referred, and find that the Commiſſioners appointed for making wide and convenient Streets in the City of Dublin, by Deed dated the 16th of November, 1791, agreed with Henry Ottiwell, of the City of Dublin, that as to ſuch Parts or Lots of the Ground in the ſaid City, deſcribed in a Map annexed to the ſaid Agreement, as were then in the actual Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Commiſſioners, they or a competent Number of them, ſhould and would within three Calendar Months from the Date thereof, execute Leaſes of the ſame to him the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs and Aſſigns, at his Expence for three Lives renewable for ever, at the following Rents, that is to ſay:—For the Fronts in the Main Streets, at the Rent of one Pound three Shillings for each Foot, lineal Meaſure, and for the Fronts in the croſs Streets, thirteen Shillings per Foot, lineal Meaſure, on Payment by the ſaid Henry Ottiwell of one tenth Part of the Purchaſe Money of the ſaid ſeveral Lots, at the Rate of twenty Years Purchaſe for the Rents ſo reſerved; and the ſaid Commiſſioners did alſo agree, that upon Payment of ſuch Depoſits by the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, he ſhould be put into Poſſeſſion of the ſeveral Lots by them; and that as to the Remainder of ſuch Lots or Parts of the ſaid Grounds and Premiſſes, ſo agreed to be demiſed to the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns, as have not been valued or purchaſed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or which are not come into their Poſſeſſion, they the ſaid Commiſſioners or their Succeſſors, from and immediately, or as ſoon after they ſhall purchaſe and obtain the Poſſeſſion of the ſame reſpectively, as may conveniently be done, and at fartheſt within three Calendar Months from that

obtain the Poſſeſſion of, when and as the ſame ſhall be purchaſed by the ſaid Commiſſioners and come into their Poſſeſſion, and the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns, ſhall receive Notice thereof in writing, ſigned by the Secretary or Law Agent of the ſaid Commiſſioners, and ſhall accept ſuch Leaſes at the Rates and Prices herein before mentioned, and within twenty-one Days after being ſerved with ſuch Notice, pay or cauſe to be paid to the ſaid Commiſſioners or their Succeſſors, for each and every ſuch Lot, one-tenth Part of the Purchaſe Money of the Rent thereof, calculated at twenty Years Purchaſe of ſuch yearly Rent, at the reſpective Rates per Foot herein before and in the ſaid Statement and Agreement mentioned, but to be allowed one Year and three Months Rent of each and every ſuch Lot for clearing the ſame and building thereon as aforeſaid, and alſo to be paid lawful Intereſt for all ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as ſhall be ſo paid unto the ſaid Commiſſioners or their Succeſſors for ſuch Purchaſe for one Year and three Months from the Time of ſuch Depoſit or Depoſits made as aforeſaid: And alſo that he the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns, ſhall and will perfect and execute two Parts of each and every ſuch Leaſe or Demiſe for Lives renewable for ever, as herein before mentioned, with Maps or Surveys thereunto reſpectively annexed, prepared by the Officers belonging to the ſaid Commiſſioners, and containing ſuch Covenants, Clauſes and Agreements as aforeſaid, the Rent of each ſuch Leaſe to be calculated at the Rate or Price per Foot according to its Situation herein before and in the ſaid Statement or Agreement mentioned, but deducting from the groſs Amount of the Rent of each ſuch Lot the one-tenth Part of ſuch Rent which is to be ſo purchaſed by ſaid Depoſit, and ſuch Rent to be paid and payable half-yearly above Taxes, and will pay to the Officers belonging to the ſaid Commiſſioners the Coſt or Expence of preparing ſuch Leaſes, Maps and Renewals, and ſave and keep indemnified therefrom the ſaid Commiſſioners and their Succeſſors for ever: And that the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns, will erect or build on each and every ſuch Lot of Ground as he or they ſhall ſo obtain Poſſeſſion of as aforeſaid, an Houſe or Houſes according to the Lines and Levels and to ſuch Elevations as the ſaid Commiſſioners or their Succeſſors or any five or more of them, at a public Board or Meeting ſhall or may direct or appoint, and not otherwiſe. And it is hereby declared by and between the ſaid Commiſſioners Parties hereto on behalf of themſelves and the reſt of the ſaid Commiſſioners and their Succeſſors, and the ſaid Henry Ottiwell on behalf of himſelf and the ſaid John Pentland, Chriſtopher Abbott, John White, Benjamin Braddle, John Montgomery, George Parviſol, Peter Farrell, James Farrell, and Curtis Crofton, that the ſaid Bond ſo as aforeſaid this Day executed by the ſaid Henry Ottiwell and his Co-obligors before named to the ſaid Commiſſioners Parties hereto, and the ſaid Warrant of Attorney to confeſs Judgment or Judgments thereon, were ſo executed by the ſaid Obligors and accepted by the ſaid Commiſſioners, and that the ſame, as alſo any Judgment or Judgments to be obtained on the ſaid Bond, ſhall be, ſtand and remain as Security that he the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, ſhall and will, well and truly pay or cauſe to be paid unto the ſaid Commiſſioners the ſeveral Sums of Money or Depoſits herein before mentioned, in ſuch Manner and at ſuch Times as herein before for that Purpoſe expreſſed, and well and faithfully perform, fulfil and execute all and every other the Covenants, Conditions and Agreements herein before mentioned, and which on his and their Parts are and ought to be paid, done, and performed as herein before ſet forth, and that on any Failure in all or any of theſe Reſpects on the Part and Behalf of the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, the Condition of the ſaid Bond ſhall then and thenceforth be conſidered in Law and Equity as broken; and that then and thenceforth it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners Parties hereto, and the Survivors and Survivor of them, and for the Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns of ſuch Survivor, by due Courſe of Law as they ſhall think fit, to levy and raiſe the ſaid Sum of Twenty Thouſand Pounds ſo mentioned in the Condition of the ſaid Bond, and all Coſts of entering Judgment or Judgments on ſaid Bond, and levying the ſaid Money whether by Execution or Executions, againſt the Perſons or Eſtates real or perſonal of all or any of the ſaid Obligors; and that when ſuch Money or any Part or Parts thereof ſhall be ſo levied or raiſed, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in ſuch Execution or Executions ſhall ſtand and be poſſeſſed thereof, in truſt for the Commiſſioners named, conſtituted, appointed and empowered in, by, and in purſuance of the ſaid ſeveral Acts of Parliament, and their Succeſſors, to be by them applied for the Uſes and to effectuate the Intents and Purpoſes of the ſaid Acts of Parliament; and that on Failure in all or any of the Reſpects aforeſaid on the Part and Behalf of the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, then and thenceforth the Agreements herein contained on the Part of the ſaid Commiſſioners, to leaſe or demiſe to the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns, all or any of the Lots of Ground and Premiſſes aforeſaid, ſo far as the ſame ſhall not have then been carried ried into Execution by Leaſes or Demiſes theretofore actually made and executed, ſhall be to all Intents and Purpoſes null and void, and no longer obligatory on the ſaid Commiſſioners Parties hereto, or the reſt of the ſaid Commiſſioners or their Succeſſors, but that, for and notwithſtanding ſuch Agreement on their Part, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners to ſet, ſell, or diſpoſe of all and every of ſaid Lots and Premiſſes, not then actually leaſed or demiſed to the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs or Aſſigns, in ſuch Manner as they lawfully might do in caſe they never had entered into any of the Agreements aforeſaid with the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, and as if theſe Preſents never had been executed, any Thing in theſe Preſents contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding: Provided always, that if the ſaid Henry Ottiwell, his Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, ſhall well and truly pay the ſeveral Depoſits herein mentioned, and perform all and every the Covenants and Agreements herein contained, on his and their Part to be paid, done and performed within the Times, and in the Manner herein before ſpecified, without Failure on his or their Part in any reſpect whatſoever, then and thenceforth the ſaid Bond ſhall be void and delivered up to the Obligors therein to be cancelled; and if Judgment or Judgments ſhall be entered thereon, the Conuzees of ſuch Judgment or Judgments or the Survivors or Survivor of them, or the Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns of ſuch Survivor, ſhall on the Requeſt and at the Coſts and Charges of the Conuzor or Conuzors of ſuch Judgment or Judgments, execute Warrant or Warrants of Attorney to acknowledge Satisfaction on the Record or Records of ſuch Judgment or Judgments, and deliver the ſame to the Conuzor or Conuzors thereof, his or their Executors or Adminiſtrators. And have examined ſeveral Witneſſes concerning the Matter aforeſaid, the whole of whoſe Teſtimony they have annexed to their Report, viz:

Mr. Thomas Sherrard being ſworn and examined, ſays, he is Clerk to the Commiſſioners for making Wide Streets, and that he is the Perſon who has been for ſome Years employed as Surveyor to the ſaid Commiſſioners.

Queſtion. What has been the uſual Mode of proceeding by the Commiſſioners in ſetting or ſelling their Grounds?

Anſwer. The uſual Mode is ſometimes by Auction, and ſometimes by private Agreement, but more generally by Auction.

Q. Whether he has known any, and what Inſtances of ſetting or ſelling their Ground by private Contract?

A. The Inſtances are the Club-Houſe in College Green, the Account-Offices in Foſter-Place, another Lot of Ground intended for the Stamp-Office in Angleſea-ſtreet, a Lot of Ground in Foſter-Place to the late Mr. Swan, a Lot in the Angle of Cavendiſh-Row in Great Britain-ſtreet to Mr. Robinſon, a ſmall Lot in Angleſea-ſtreet ſet to himſelf, and a large Lot of Ground behind Dame-ſtreet ſold to the Board of Works for the Uſe of the Caſtle.—That ſeveral Ground Rents have been frequently ſold by private Contract.

Q. Whether upon the ſeveral Sales or ſetting by Auction or by private Contract by the Commiſſioners, he was conſulted as to the Value of the Grounds previous to ſuch Sales or ſetting?

A. With regard to public Auctions, the Commiſſioners always aſcertain before they go to Auction what they were to be ſet up at, but his Opinion was not always concluſive.—With regard to the private Agreements by the Commiſſioners, he don't recollect making any Valuation for the Commiſſioners except the Club Houſe, and Mr. Swan's Ground: That the ſaid Valuations were made at the Time of the Propoſals coming in.

Q. Whether he knows of any Inſtance of the Commiſſioners ſetting or ſelling any Ground until they had purchaſed and got into Poſſeſſion of the ſame, previous to Mr. Ottiwell's Bargain?

A. Not to his Knowledge or Recollection.

Q. Whether in the Year 1789, there were any Lots of Ground ſet upon the Line between Sackville-ſtreet and Carliſle Bridge?

A. That on the 30th of March, 1789, there was a ſetting by public Auction of 7 Lots, viz:

No. 1.—to William Pemberton, 19 Feet 6 Inches, at £3: 1*s.* per Foot, containing 47 Feet in Depth; that the ſaid 47 Feet was alſo a Front to Eden-quay, and 19 Feet 6 Inches to Sackville-ſtreet, upon which laſt Front it was ſet; and that the ſaid Lot of Ground was ſet up at 30 Shillings per Foot.

No. 2.—23 Feet in Front, 45 Feet in Depth, at 29 Shillings per Foot, to Mr. John Beatty, ſet up at one Guinea.

No. 3.—23 Feet in Front, about 56 Feet in Depth, to the ſame Perſon, at 33 Shillings per Foot, ſet up at 25 Shillings.

No. 4.—23 Feet in Front, and 72 Feet deep, to Mr. Jeſſop, at 40 Shillings per Foot, ſet up at 20 Shillings.

No. 5.—23 Feet in Front, 72 Feet deep, ſet up at 25 Shillings, and ſet at 40 Shillings to Mr. Manders.

No. 6.—23 Feet in Front, 72 Feet deep, ſet up at 30 Shillings, and ſet to Mr. Manders at 40 Shillings per Foot.

No. 7.—23 Feet in Front, 72 Feet deep, ſet up at three half Guineas, and ſet to Mr. Robinſon at 39 Shillings per Foot.

That the Condition of the ſetting was for the Rent of the ſaid Lots to commence on the 25th of March, 1790.

That on the 8th of June following, the Commiſſioners ſold theſe Rents by Auction, but as the Commiſſioners were not enabled through a Deficiency in their Funds to open the Street, they were obliged to pay the Rents for the Tenants to the Purchaſers for three Years until the 25th of March, 1793.

Q. Whether there were any Materials on any of the ſaid Lots?

A. That there were the Materials of one Houſe given in with the firſt Lot, but did not actually ſtand upon it.—That he believes there were no Materials upon any of the other Lots.

Q. Whether if at that Time the Commiſſioners had been in Poſſeſſion of, and enabled to ſet the Remainder of the Ground between Sackville-ſtreet and Carliſle Bridge, they could have let the whole at as high a Price as the ſaid ſeven Lots?

A. That he believes Mr. Pemberton's Lot, No. 1, is the beſt circumſtanced Lot in the whole of that Property, and therefore he does not apprehend that any other Lot would ſet at ſo high a Rent.

That he believes the ſix correſponding Lots on the oppoſite Side might be of equal Value if they had been brought to Sale at that Time.

That he believes that the Lots would diminiſh in their Value as they recede from the River, and particularly ſo from Abbey-ſtreet up to Henry-ſtreet, as they are conſiderably ſhallower, ſuppoſing theſe Lots ſet as the others were without Materials.

Q. Whether if they were to be ſet with the Materials, it would enhance their Price?

A. That he believes generally Ground with Materials is more valuable than Ground without Materials; but he can't ſay to what Extent, that muſt depend upon the Value of the Materials.

Q. Whether there was any Riſe or Fall in the Value of Grounds between the Year 1789 and the Year 1791, in the Line of Sackville-ſtreet?

A. That he is not competent to anſwer that Queſtion, not having had any Dealing in Ground during that Period in that Situation.

Q. Whether he has ever made any Computation whether the Sum of £25,000 granted by Parliament would have been ſufficient to have completed the Line from Sackville-ſtreet to Carliſle-bridge, if no Agreement had been entered into with Mr. Ottiwell?

A. That he made a Computation in the Year 1790 of what he did ſuppoſe the Ground that would be to ſet in the Line of Sackville-ſtreet from Henry-ſtreet to the Bridge would produce, and upon that Calculation he did conceive £25,000 would have been ſufficient to complete the Line of Sackville-ſtreet: That the £25,000 then granted was in Debentures at 4 per Cent. which the Proprietors of the Ground (except two whoſe Claims were £1400) refuſed taking.

Q. Whether he has made any Computation ſince the Agreement with Mr. Ottiwell, of the Sum neceſſary to complete the Line?

A. That he has, according to which, £15,000 in Addition to the £25,000 would be ſufficient to complete the Line.

Q. Whether he knows Mr. Henry Darley, and whether Mr. Darley was ever employed by the Board of Commiſſioners to make an Eſtimate of the Sum that would be requiſite to purchaſe thoſe Grounds on the Eaſt Side of Sackville-ſtreet for carrying on their intended Line from Sackville-ſtreet to the New Cuſtom Houſe?

A. He don't recollect Mr. Darley was ever employed by the Board for that Purpoſe.

Q. Whether he was ever directed by the Board to make a Computation of the Sum that the Ground would ſet for that muſt be purchaſed in order to complete that Scheme?

A. That he was not, by the Board.

Q. Whether he was ever employed by any other Perſon to make ſuch a Calculation?

A. That he was, and did make ſuch Calculation, but did not include the Line from Henry-ſtreet to Carliſle-bridge.

Q. At whoſe Deſire he made that Calculation?

A. He believes at the Deſire of Mr. Beresford.

Q. Whether between the 7th of February, and the Time Mr. Ottiwell gave in his Propoſal, did he ever attend any Conſultation with Mr. Ottiwell, Mr. Ganden, Mr. Darley, or any of them, to conſult what Sum was neceſſary for Mr. Ottiwell to propoſe?

A. He did not.

Q. Whether he was ever preſent at any Conference with them or any of them concerning the ſetting of thoſe Grounds?

A. That

A. That he was not. That he met Mr. Darley at the Cuſtom Houſe, where he was told by Mr. Beresford that there was a Propoſal intended to be made by a Company of Gentlemen, who intended to treat for the whole of thoſe Grounds, and his Opinion aſked, whether it would be for the public Advantage to treat for the whole.—That he gave his Opinion that it would, becauſe it would expedite the Buſineſs.

Q. What he means by the whole of the Ground?

A. The whole of the Ground advertiſed to be ſet on the 7th of February, 1791, to the Eaſt of Gardiner's-ſtreet.

Q. Whether any Part of thoſe Grounds included in the Agreement with Mr. Ottiwell, had been advertiſed to be ſet, except thoſe ſet up on the 7th of February, 1791.

A. That they were not.

Q. Whether he ever knew of any Grounds whatſoever ſet by the Commiſſioners without being advertiſed, except thoſe ſet to Mr. Ottiwell?

A. That he did.—The Club Houſe in College Green, and thoſe Grounds in Angleſea-ſtreet and Foſter-Place before mentioned were never advertiſed.

Q. Whether the general Practice of the Commiſſioners was not to advertiſe the Grounds they had to ſet?

A. Except in the Caſes he has already mentioned, it generally was.

Q. Whether he has made any Computation of what the Loſs or Profit would be to the Public by completing the Line from Sackville-ſtreet to the Cuſtom Houſe?

A. That he has; that the Expence to the Public according to his Computation would be £87,799: 13*s.* 7*d.*

Q. Was this Computation made upon a Suppoſition that Mr. Ottiwell's Agreement was to be carried into Execution?

A. It was.

Q. Did he make any Computation of the Expence to the Public, ſuppoſing Mr. Ottiwell's Agreement was not to be carried into Execution?

A. He did not.

Mr. Henry Darley, ſworn and examined.

Q. Whether he was at any, and what Time employed by any Perſon, and who, to make an Eſtimate of the Sum which would be required to purchaſe thoſe Grounds on the Eaſt Side of Sackville-ſtreet to the New Cuſtom-Houſe through which the new Streets were intended to be run?

A. That he was employed by Mr. Beresford.

He then produced a Calculation dated the 26th of January, 1791, which he begun about 9 Months before, viz:

A Valuation of Ground and Houſes, in Abbey-ſtreet, Marlborough-ſtreet, Tucker's-row, Union-ſtreet, Batchelor's-walk, and Potter's-alley.

Q. Whether he knows Mr. Henry Ottiwell?

A. That he has known him ſince the Year 1791.

Q. Did he know Mr. Ottiwell previous to his giving in his Propoſal to the Commiſſioners?

A. He did not know him, but had ſeen him.

Q. Did he ever hear of his Intention of giving in his Propoſal to the Commiſſioners before he gave it in?

A. He did not know when it was given in.

That he attended the Sale at the Exchange very early in the Year 1791; that there were but one or two Bidders, and the Sale was adjourned.

That ſoon after that Time he met Mr. Beresford near the Cuſtom Houſe, and that he recommended to him to take 100 Feet of the Ground; that he anſwered he would not, becauſe he did not chooſe to build upon a high Ground Rent; that he underſtood he expected a good deal above 30 Shillings per Foot; that he believes Mr. Ottiwell was preſent; that a few Days after Mr. Beresford mentioned to him that there was a Propoſal made to him for the whole Ground that was to be ſet at 22 Shillings per Foot for the Main Streets, and 12 Shillings per Foot for the back Streets, and aſked his Opinion; that he told Mr. Beresford it was a great Undertaking, and that he did think that if any Man who could give good Security would give 24 Shillings per Foot for the Main Streets and 14 Shillings per Foot for the back Streets, it would be a very good Job for the Public, that is, the Ground would be very well ſet; that he would not venture to take ſo much Ground and be ſubject to the Conſequence of it's lying on his Hands even at 20 Shillings per Foot for the Main Streets, the back Streets he did not mention; that his Son Frederick Darley expecting to be turned out of the Situation he now holds on the River, took a Piece of Ground the other Day from Cope and Company in Gardiner's-ſtreet near the Circus oppoſite the Cuſtom-Houſe; allowing a proper Price for a large Piece of Ground in the Rere, the Front is valued at 20 Shillings per Foot, which Ground is 150 Feet deep, with a Stable Lane of 18 Feet behind; that he values the back Ground at about £50 a Year.

That in about a Week or ten Days after his firſt Converſation with Mr. Beresford, he told him that Mr. Ottiwell had amended his Propoſal by offering 23 Shillings per Foot for the Main Streets and 13 Shillings per Foot for the back Streets; that it was his Opinion that Mr. Beresford ſhould accept of it, and he then added that he would not take it at 20 Shillings per Foot, to be liable to the Conſequences of not ſetting, and having ſo much Ground on Hands.

Q. Whether he was ever preſent at any Conference or Meeting with Mr. Sherrard, Mr. Ganden, Mr. Ottiwell, or any other Perſon, wherein it was conſidered what Rent ſhould be offered to the Board, when and where ſuch Meeting was had?

A. That he does not recollect meeting any of the ſaid Perſons for that Purpoſe, that he mentioned to Mr. Ganden, who thought with him, that it was a very good Bargain for the Public.

Q. Whether Grounds in thoſe Situations in the Year 1791, brought a high Price?

A. That Grounds in the new Streets at that Time ſet under 20 Shillings per Foot, and in Glouceſter-ſtreet at about 12 Shillings.

Q. Whether he believes that the Grounds agreed for by Mr. Ottiwell would have brought a higher Price, if the Commiſſioners had poſtponed to ſet them until ſuch Time as they ſhould have acquired by Degrees the Poſſeſſion of them, and ſet them by public Auction in detail?

A. That they might have brought a little higher Price by bringing a ſmaller Parcel to Market at a Time, but it would be a tedious Job.

Q. Whether he believes that the Price of the Grounds neceſſary to be purchaſed in order to make the new intended Streets, has been encreaſed by reaſon of the Commiſſioners having entered into the Agreement with Mr. Ottiwell?

A. That

A. That if theſe Grounds were purchaſed a Year ago, they would be much higher than if they were to be diſpoſed of now; and believes the Agreement with Mr. Ottiwell was not the Cauſe of any Encreaſe in the Purchaſe of Grounds.

Q. Which are the Grounds moſt valuable in the new Line?

A. Sackville-ſtreet, Abbey-ſtreet, and the Quays; Sackville-ſtreet becauſe of it's Intercourſe with the new Bridge, but that the Houſes were laid out with ſuch ſmall Depths as not to be fit for Merchants.

Q. What Parts of the Grounds taken by Mr. Ottiwell would bring the higheſt Price?

A. The Grounds next the City.

Q. Whether if Abbey-ſtreet and Eden-quay had been open before the Time that the Lots were advertiſed on the 7th of February, 1791, thoſe Lots would not probably have brought a higher Price than they would have done in the then State of thoſe Grounds?

A. That he believes they would not, becauſe the Ground in Abbey-ſtreet is too ſhallow for Merchants, and the Ground in Beresford-place contains a great Depth.

Q. Whether he recollects being employed by Mr. Beresford or any other Perſon to make a Valuation of ſome of the Grounds in queſtion prior to the one he mentioned?

A. That he was employed by Mr. Beresford to make a Valuation about five or ſix Years ago, of ſome Grounds that were to be valued by a Jury, and that he was informed his Calculation was within twenty Pounds of the Verdicts of the Jury; believes the Sum was between twenty and thirty thouſand Pounds.

Q. Whether he thinks the Grounds neceſſary to be purchaſed for opening the Avenues from Sackville-ſtreet to the Cuſtom-Houſe, could now be purchaſed for the Price at which he had eſtimated they could be purchaſed in 1791?

A. That he believes the difference would be very little.

Q. What was the Tranſaction relative to the Purchaſe of Mr. Eccles's Ground?

A. That to the beſt of his Recollection, meaſuring it along Sackville-ſtreet, it came to about 24 Shillings per Foot; that the Agreement with Mr. Eccles was made by private Contract, by two Arbitrators named by each Party, and he, Mr. Darley was one.

Q. Whether the Ground he mentioned to be taken by Mr. Frederick Darley, is near the Ground taken by Mr. Ottiwell?

A. Very near it.

Q. Whether at the Time Mr. Ottiwell took the Ground, he gave a fair Price for it?

A. That in his Opinion he did, conſidering the great Quantity of Ground he would have to let.

Q. Whether if any Perſon had bid more for the whole of the Ground at the Time Mr. Ottiwell propoſed for it to the Commiſſioners, giving equal Security, that Perſon's Offer would have been accepted?

A. That if a higher Bidder had given ſixpence per Foot more, he would have had the Preference.

Q. What is his Opinion of Mr. Ottiwell's Bargain at this Day?

A. Hitherto it has been advantageous, but hereafter it may be very contrary.

Q. Whether he would give Mr. Ottiwell £6000 a Year for his Bargain, net Rent, after deducting the Rent he is to pay to the Commiſſioners?

A. That he would not give him £2000 a Year for it.

Q. Whether it was known that the Commiſſioners would receive any Propoſal for any of the Grounds of which they were not in Poſſeſſion?

A. He does not know.

Q. At what Period does he conceive that Mr. Ottiwell firſt thought of making a Propoſal to the Commiſſioners?

A. Mr. Beresford and he had a Converſation, Mr. Ottiwell happened to be by, and he believes that was the beginning of Mr. Ottiwell's Intention, and that it was a Matter of Chance his being preſent at the Converſation.

Q. Whether he heard of the Propoſal made by Mr. Ottiwell to the Commiſſioners ſpoken of publickly previous to the Agreement of the Board, or after?

A. Both before and after, but more publickly after.

Q. Whether the Materials upon the Ground belonging to Mr. Eccles were included in the Bargain, and whether thoſe Materials were given up to Mr. Ottiwell?

A. They were.

Mr. Thomas Sherrard further examined.

Q. What is the Computation of the Amount of Ground to ſet Eaſt of Sackville-ſtreet, which he gave to Mr. Beresford?

A. The Fee Simple of the Ground to ſet Eaſt of Sackville-ſtreet, as per Eſtimate, dated 8th of January, 1791, is £113,870.

That the annual Value is £5693 : 10*s.*

Q. What was included in that Computation?

A. It includes thoſe Lots on the Eaſt Side of Sackville-ſtreet, agreed to be ſet to Mr. Ottiwell, and all the other Grounds Eaſt of Sackville-ſtreet.

Q. Were any of the Grounds on the Weſt Side of Sackville-ſtreet included in the Computation?

A. None.

Q. Whether this Computation was ever laid before the Board of Commiſſioners?

A. That he never laid it before the Board.

Q. Whether if it had been laid before the Board ſitting as Commiſſioners while ſitting as a Board, he muſt have known it?

A. That if it came officially before the Board, he certainly muſt have known it.

Q. Whether previous to the Time of Mr. Ottiwell's giving in his Propoſal to the Board, he knew for what Grounds it was to be given in, and what Rent was to be propoſed therein?

A. That he did not know either as to Extent or Value.

Q. At what Time was Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal given in to the Commiſſioners, and what Commiſſioners were preſent?

A. The Propoſal was given in and read the 6th of May, 1791; the Commiſſioners preſent were the Right Honorable David La Touche, in the Chair, John Swan, Eſquire, William-Digges La Touche, Eſquire, the Right Honorable William Conyngham, William Colville, Eſquire, and the Right Honorable John Beresford.

A Copy of Mr. Ottiwell and Co.'s Propoſal to the Commiſſioners read, as follows:

" My Lords and Gentlemen,

" HAVING viewed the Plan of your intended Improvements from the New Cuſtom Houſe to Sackville-ſtreet, as they appear upon the Plan or Map now up in the Royal Exchange, we are induced to ſubmit the following Propoſal to your Conſideration, which in our Opinion will greatly expedite your Intentions, and ſave an Immenſity of Time, Trouble and Expence. We purpoſe to take the whole of the Ground for building on, agreeable to the particular Delineations of the Map, upon the following Terms.—We will take each Lot from you as ſoon as it ſhall come into your Poſſeſſion, and will pay for the ſame in the following Manner:

" For the Fronts in the Main Streets, viz. Beresford-Place, New Abbey-ſtreet, ſuch Part of Sackville-ſtreet as we ſhall get, and from thence round the Quay to the New Cuſtom Houſe, £1: 3*s.* per Foot lineal.

" For the croſs Streets leading from Frenchman's Lane to the River, for the Continuation of Marlborough-ſtreet in the ſame Direction, and the other bye Fronts, 13 Shillings per Foot lineal.

" We require that the whole of each Lot with the Materials thereon, may be delivered up to us immediately after you get Poſſeſſion of each Lot.

" That three Months Time be given us from the Day of our getting Poſſeſſion of each Lot, for the Purpoſe of clearing the ſame preparatory to building: That we ſhall be allowed one Year's Rent from the Time that the Ground ſhall be ſo cleared for building: That we ſhall not commence Rent for one Year and three Months, from the Time of Poſſeſſion of each Lot being given to us.

" That we will pay down on receiving Poſſeſſion of each Lot, one-tenth of the Purchaſe Money of the Rent, (at twenty Years Purchaſe) and give approved Security for the due Performance of every Particular on our Part, on being paid legal Intereſt for ſuch Depoſits for the Time they continue.

" We are aware that in your Advertiſement you have deſired that a fourth Part of the Purchaſe Money be paid down; but we conceive when you conſider the Magnitude of the Undertaking we are about, and the very large Sum of Money we muſt advance, and that you are as ſecure in the Performance of our Contract by Depoſits of one-tenth as you could be by Depoſits of one-fourth, that you will think it reaſonable to lower your Depoſits, and eſpecially when you conſider the Intereſt payable on the Depoſits, the leſs Depoſits the leſs Intereſt you have to pay. You will alſo have an Advantage when ſelling the Ground Rents, as a Purchaſer would be much more inclined to purchaſe ſubject to one-tenth than one-fourth.

" We ſhall expect that Leaſes, Maps, &c. be made perfect to us within a reaſonable Time after we have received Poſſeſſion, without Expence on our Part.

" If your Lordſhips and Honors ſhall think theſe Terms eligible, we are ready to agree to them, in which Caſe there will be no Impediment to the immediate Proceedings in the new Streets, and no Delay in carrying them on as ſoon as the Valuations are made.

" We have the Honor to be " Your moſt obedient and very " Humble Servants,
" H. OTTIWELL & CO."

6th May, 1791.

Q. Whether any Order was made in Conſequence thereof on that Day?

A. There was; " That the ſame be referred to Mr. Sherrard, and that he do report

" port the Sum to which the ſaid Propoſal " amounts, on Friday next."

Q. Whether any Enquiry whatſoever concerning the Grounds or the Materials ſtanding thereon or oppoſite thereto, was directed by the Board?

A. There was not.

Q. Whether it was cuſtomary for the Board to conſult him concerning the Value of ſuch Grounds as they had to ſet?

A. That the Commiſſioners did conſult him in reſpect of the Club Houſe, Mr. Swan's Ground, and the Sale of the Grounds in Beresford-place; but he don't recollect any other Inſtance.

Q. What was done on the 13th May, 1791?

A. That on the ſaid Day the Commiſſioners met purſuant to ſpecial Notice in the Summons to all the Commiſſioners, to take Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal into Conſideration, and to receive his, Mr. Sherrard's Report thereupon.

Q. What the Commiſſioners did on that Day?

The Proceedings of the Board on that Day were read in anſwer, as follow:

" At a Meeting of the Commiſſioners for " making wide and convenient Streets in " the City of Dublin.

" Royal Exchange, Friday 13th May, 1791.

" The Board having read the ſaid Propoſal " of Mr. Ottiwell, and taking the ſame into " Conſideration purſuant to Notice:

" Reſolved, That the Board will accept of " Mr. Ottiwell and Company's Propoſal, on " their agreeing to build to ſuch Lines and " Levels, and to ſuch Elevations as may be " approved of by this Board, excepting the " following Particulars, viz. That the Expences of Leaſes and Maps, &c. ſhall be " defrayed by Meſſrs. Ottiwell and Company " as uſual, and to be executed by the Officers " of this Board.

" That the Commiſſioners will not bind " themſelves to purchaſe and deliver up to " Meſſrs. Ottiwell and Company, that Portion " of the Batchelor's-Walk, between Sackville-ſtreet and Union-ſtreet, that is not now in the " Poſſeſſion of the Board; but that if at any " future Period they ſhould think fit to purchaſe the ſaid Portion of the Batchelor's-Walk, the Board will in that Caſe let the " ſaid Grounds to Meſſ. Ottiwell and Company, at the Rate propoſed, twenty-three " Shillings per Foot.

" Ordered, That the Clerk do furniſh Mr. " Ottiwell with a Copy of the aforeſaid Reſolution."

Q. What Members were preſent on the 13th of May, 1791?

A. Samuel Hayes, Eſquire, in the Chair, Right Honorable John Beresford, John Swan, Eſquire, Right Honorable David La Touche, William Digges La Touche, Eſquire, Colonel Euſtace, Andrew Caldwell, Eſquire, Frederick Trench, Eſquire, J. C. Beresford, Eſquire, Alderman Hamilton, Right Honorable Lord Donoughmore, Right Honorable William Conyngham, and Right Honorable Lord Mountjoy.

Q. Whether the Commiſſioners agreed unanimouſly to accept the Propoſal?

A. He recollects one Gentleman was averſe to the Buſineſs altogether.

Q. On what Day did the Board next meet?

A. The 17th of May, 1791.

Q. What Members were then preſent?

A. Right Honorable Lord Mountjoy in the Chair, William-Digges Latouche, Eſquire, Alderman Hamilton, Right Honorable William Conyngham, Right Honorable John Beresford, and Colonel Euſtace.

Q. Whether at that Meeting there was any Caſe directed to be laid before Counſel, whether the Commiſſioners were bound by that Agreement?

A. There was an Order that a Copy of Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal ſhould be laid before Counſel, to know whether the Board were bound by that Propoſal to deliver the whole of the Ground to him.

Q. Whether

Q. Whether he underſtood by that Order, that the Commiſſioners entertained a Doubt concerning the Propriety of agreeing to ſuch Propoſal?

A. He believes that it aroſe from Mr. Conyngham's Difference of Opinion, but that he can give no deciſive Opinion on the Matter.

Q. Whether Mr. Hugh Wilſon is not the Standing Counſel of the Board?

A. He is.

Q. Whether any Opinion in Conſequence of thoſe Directions was taken?

A. There was on the 21ſt of May, 1791.

Counſellor Wilſon's Opinion read from the Minutes of the Board.

Q. Whether Mr. Sherrard, previous to the Time of Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal having been given in, knew that the Commiſſioners would agree to ſet any of their Grounds before that they ſhould have acquired the Poſſeſſion of them?

A. He did not.

Q. Had they ever before ſet any of their Grounds before they had acquired Poſſeſſion of them?

A. Not to his Knowledge.

Q. Whether it was publickly known previous to the Time of Mr. Ottiwell giving in his Propoſal, that the Commiſſioners were willing to receive Propoſals or enter into any Treaty for the ſetting of thoſe Grounds which were included in Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal, and were not in the Poſſeſſion of the Commiſſioners?

A. Believes it was not publickly known, as no publick Notice was given.

Q. Whether if the Commiſſioners had had ſuch an Intention, they would not have cauſed it to be publickly known by Advertiſement?

A. That they never made known to him their Intentions to that Effect.

Q. If an Advertiſement had been inſerted in the News-papers, would it not have given an Opportunity to other Perſons to make Propoſals as well as Mr. Ottiwell?

A. It would.

Q. Had Perſons an Opportunity of making Propoſals as there was no Advertiſement?

A. That as there was no Notice, he conceived Perſons did not think of making Propoſals, but if Propoſals had been made, believes they would have been taken into Conſideration.

Q. Whether he believes if their Intention had been publickly advertiſed, there would not have been many Propoſals for the whole or Part of the Grounds?

A. That he cannot anſwer what would poſſibly be the Conſequence of a publick Advertiſement, but that when Part of thoſe Grounds were ſet up to Sale, no Bidders would offer unleſs they were put up at an under Value.

Q. Whether any Opinions were taken concerning the Security that was to be given by Mr. Ottiwell?

A. Deſires to refer to the Minutes of the Board.

Counſellor Wilſon's Opinion read, dated the 7th of July, 1791.

Counſellor Wilſon's Opinion read, dated the 8th of July, 1791.

Attorney General's Opinion read, dated the 14th of July, 1791.

Q. At what Time the Agreement with Mr. Ottiwell was dated, and who are the Perſons who ſigned the ſame?

A. Dated the 16th of November, 1791.

Q. At what Time were the Grounds that were ſet up on the 7th of February 1791, delivered into Mr. Ottiwell's Poſſeſſion?

A. On or before the 1ſt of May, 1792.

Q. Was the Map made by Mr. Sherrard, dated the 12th of November 1790, made previous to the Commiſſioners having acquired and got Poſſeſſion of the Grounds it repreſents?

A. They were only poſſeſſed of a Part of thoſe Grounds.

Q. At what Time the red Lines were put upon the old Map of 1784?

A. After the 12th of November, 1790.

Q. Whether any Sum of Money was ever granted by Parliament for running the new Streets from Sackville-ſtreet to the Cuſtom-Houſe?

A. Refers to the Journals of the Houſe of Commons of the 26th of March 1783.

Q. Whether any Lines whatſoever were determined upon by the Commiſſioners to the Eaſt of Sackville-ſtreet before the Year 1790?

A. That the Map was not ſigned by the Commiſſioners till the 12th of November, 1790, but that the general Lines were deſigned long before.

Mr. Sherrard produced a Map laid down in the Year 1789; ſays there are ſome ſmall Variations between that Map and the Map of the Year 1790, ſigned by the Commiſſioners, but that the general Deſign is the ſame, and that there are ſome Maps made prior to that Period, but he has not been able to find them at preſent.

Mr.

Mr. Sherrard alſo preſented a Copy of a Valuation of Streets Eaſt of Sackville-ſtreet, delivered to the Right Honorable John Beresford the 8th of January 1791, viz:

Total Value —	£113,870

Q. How long before the Time it was delivered he was deſired to make that Eſtimate?

A. He can not poſſibly ſay.

Q. Whether he ever delivered any Copy of that Eſtimate to any other of the Commiſſioners except to Mr. Beresford?

A. He thinks he did not; that ſubſequent to the Agreement with Mr. Ottiwell, he ſhewed the Eſtimate to Mr. David and Mr. Digges La Touche.

Q. Whether a Part of the Ground contained in the Eſtimate was not ſet up to Auction at the Rate ſtated in the Eſtimate on the 7th of February, 1791?

A. It was on the 7th of February, and that no Perſon would bid for it at that Rate.

Q. Whether when Grounds are ſet up at 30 Shillings per Foot, they can be purchaſed under 33 Shillings per Foot?

A. They cannot, as there muſt be three Bidders, and each Bidder muſt advance one Shilling per Foot.

Q. Was it not a Corner Lot that was ſet up at 30 Shillings per Foot?

A. It was a Corner Lot, and one of the beſt advertiſed to be ſold.

Q. Whether there was not an Offer made to him on that Day, of 30 Shillings per Foot for that Lot, and by whom?

A. He does not recollect there was.

Q. Does he recollect whether any Perſon after that Day made him an Offer of 30 Shillings per Foot?

A. There did—a Mr. Tommins for the Corner Lot that had been ſet up, containing 25 Feet in Front.

Q. How many Lots were advertiſed on that Day?

A. Five Lots in Beresford-Place, and ſome other Lots in Gardiner's-ſtreet and another Street not named: That No. 1. was put up, but whether any other Lots were put up, he can't ſay.—The ſetting was adjourned for want of Bidders.

Q. Whether it has not been the Practice where Sales were put off for want of Bidders, to advertiſe another Sale in about a Fortnight?

A. That there is no general Rule for Adjournment; that he has known them to be adjourned for a Fortnight, ſometimes for three Months, and ſometimes ſine die.

Q. Whether there were any Applications ſubſequent to that Day, to know when thoſe Lots would be ſet up again?

A. He don't recollect.

Q. Whether

Q. Whether he thinks the Grounds contained in the Eſtimate were of as much Value in May as in January, 1791?

A. He believes they were.

Q. Whether he does not believe that thoſe Grounds which were ſet up in February, 1791, would have ſet better if the new Streets leading to them were completed before they were ſet up, than at the Time they were ſet up?

A. He believes they would.

Q. How long he ſuppoſes it would have taken to complete thoſe new Streets?

A. Believes three or four Years would complete the new Streets, if the Commiſſioners had Money to proceed.

Q. How long in the preſent Caſe?

A. The ſame Length of Time after they get Money.

Q. Whether he believes that if all thoſe Lots of Ground had been ſet up in Detail, in the uſual Manner as the Commiſſioners ſhould have got them into their Poſſeſſion, they would according to his Judgment have ſet for as high a Price as in the Eſtimate he has made?

A. He believes they would.

Q. If the Commiſſioners had proceeded by Degrees to let the Grounds as the Improvements were made, would not the Price to be paid by them for the Purchaſe of Grounds to be made by them, advance in Proportion to ſuch Improvements?

A. He believes it would.

Q. Whether the general Mode of proceeding is not for the Jury or Juries to value the Grounds one after the other in Succeſſion, that are neceſſary to be purchaſed, ſo as the Juries ſhall return their Verdicts upon the different Intereſts at the ſame Time upon the whole or upon a large Part?

A. That the general Practice of the Juries is to return their Verdict upon the whole given in Charge to them at the ſame Time.

Q. Whether in general the Juries in their Valuation of Ground do not take into Conſideration the Value ariſing from the adjacent Improvements?

A. Believes they do.

Q. Whether he made any Eſtimate by the Directions of the Board, of the Sum that would be neceſſary to complete the Line from Sackville-ſtreet to Carliſle-Bridge, previous to an Application to Parliament for that Purpoſe?

A. He made two, the firſt in February 1790, which was £25,000, before the Agreement with Mr. Ottiwell; the ſecond was made in February 1793, £15,000 in Addition.

Q. What occaſioned that Increaſe in his Eſtimate?

A. In Conſequence of the three Years Delay, a great Expenſe was incurred in Intereſt and Compenſations.

Q. Was there any other Reaſon?

A. That the Grounds as ſet did not produce the Amount eſtimated at, and that a Proviſion was not made in the former Eſtimate for a Lot of Ground not yet purchaſed.

Q. Whether any of the Grounds on the Eaſt of Sackville-ſtreet, beſides thoſe which were advertiſed to be ſet on the 7th of February, had been valued by the Juries previous to the Agreement with Mr. Ottiwell?

A. He refers to the Law Agent.

Q. Whether he does believe that the Commiſſioners will be able to purchaſe the Grounds neceſſary for making theſe new Streets, at ſuch Prices as they would have been able to purchaſe them if the Agreement with Mr. Ottiwell had never been entered into?

A. That he is not ſufficiently converſant in the Mode of Valuation by Jury to give an Opinion, and he cannot ſay what Effect that Agreement may have upon Juries.

Q. Whether there were one or two of the Commiſſioners who took upon them the principal Management and Direction of the Buſineſs, of laying out the Streets from Sackville-ſtreet to the Cuſtom-houſe, and having the Streets opened?

A. Mr. Beresford took a great deal of Pains and Trouble in the Buſineſs.

Q. Did not Mr. Beresford lay the Reſult of his Pains and Trouble before the Board, and the Acts done in Conſequence, were they not the Acts of the Board?

A. All Mr. Beresford's Plans were laid before the Board, and ſigned and ſanctioned by them.

Q. Whether Mr. Beresford ever laid before the Board the Eſtimate made by him by Mr. Beresford's Directions?

A. Not to his Knowledge.

Q. Was not the Ground ſet up on the 7th of February, ſet up at the preciſe Rate ſtated in his Eſtimate?

A. It was.

Q. Was it not ſet up at that Rate by Order of the Board?

A. It was.

Q. Is it not the Practice of the Board to call upon him to make an Eſtimate at what Rate Ground is firſt to be ſet up at Auction?

A. That

A. That he is generally called upon to fix a Price per Foot for the firſt Lot, but not in the way of Eſtimate.

Q. Whether it does not very often happen, that Grounds which remain unſold for want of Bidders, bring a greater Price at the ſecond ſetting-up?

A. That he has obſerved, that the oftener Grounds are brought to Market, the leſſer Price they bring, and he inſtances the Caſe of the Barley Field.—The firſt Time they were ſet up there were a few Offers, the ſecond Time leſs, and they were then offered to the Publick by Propoſal, when only three Propoſals came in, one of which was rejected, and the other two accepted.

Q. Whether there was not a great Change in the Times from the Time of the firſt Auction in the Barley Field, to the Time of their being ſet?

A. That there may be ſome, but it cannot be conſiderable, between the 3d of June 1793, and the 17th of February laſt, which were the two Days of ſetting.

Q. Whether he ever made any Eſtimate of the Expence to the Public, prior to Mr. Ottiwell's Agreement of opening the Grounds Eaſt of Sackville-ſtreet?

He produced the Eſtimate, dated 5th of July, 1793.

Q. Whether according to his Eſtimate he computed what Sum the Purchaſe of the Grounds will amount to?

A. £161,324: 13*s.* 7*d.*—That Mr. Darley in his Eſtimate did not include Sir Anneſley Stewart's Concerns, Mr. Eccles's Ground, and Mr. Donald Stewart's Ground, amounting to £16,314: 13*s.* 7*d.* and £10,000 allowed for Contingencies, Compenſation, &c. all which are included in his Eſtimate.

Q. What is the Difference between the Value that in his Eſtimate of the 8th of January, 1791, he computes that the Rents of the Grounds to be ſet would amount to, and the Sums at which upon Mr. Ottiwell's Rents they would amount to, in the Lines Eaſt of Sackville-ſtreet?

A. That the Difference is £34,154 in Fee, at twenty Years Purchaſe.

Q. What was the Amount of the Produce of the Grounds to be ſet in the Sackville-ſtreet Line made in his Computation in February, 1790?

A. £29,345.

Q. What was the Amount of the Produce of the ſaid Grounds according to his Computation in February, 1793?

A. £19,319: 1*s.* 8*d.*

Q. Whether in either or both of thoſe Eſtimates the Value of the Materials were included?

A. That in the Eſtimates of February, 1790, January, 1791, and February, 1793, the Value of the Materials were conſidered as compoſing a Part of the Value of the Ground.

Q. Whether in his Eſtimate of £87,799, the Loſs in conſequence of Delay, or the Difference between his Eſtimate and what the Grounds agreed to be ſet to Mr. Ottiwell, was the greateſt?

A. As that is made upon Eſtimate he cannot aſcertain.

The above Queſtion repeated with reſpect to Sackville-ſtreet Line.

A. The actual Loſs by the Delay on the Line of Sackville-ſtreet to the 24th of June, 1793, was £15,433: 18*s.* 5*d.* which Loſs will be ſtill accumulating as the Intereſt amounts to upwards of £2000 a Year. That the Courſe of the Commiſſioners upon that Line was to grant Certificates bearing Intereſt at 5 per Cent. for the Sum awarded to the Different Proprietors, which they were obliged to do for want of a ſufficient Sum in Hand, or they could not have carried on their Improvements.

Q. Whether he recollects any Inſtance whatſoever in all the Minute Books of the Commiſſioners, of any Order of Reference either to his Predeceſſor Mr. Adams or to himſelf, to give an Opinion to the Board of the Value of any Grounds to be ſet or ſold?

A. He does not recollect, except thoſe general Eſtimates already ſtated.

Q. Did the Commiſſioners upon all Occaſions when they intended to diſpoſe of ſuch Grounds as they from Time to Time became poſſeſſed of, let the Quantity be ſmall or great, conſult him concerning the Value thereof, previous to the ſetting or ſelling the ſame?

A. They did not.

Q. Had the Commiſſioners ever before the Agreement with Mr. Ottiwell, any Propoſal to enter into an Agreement to ſet Grounds not in their Poſſeſſion?

A. That he believes a Gentleman once applied to him to know whether the Commiſſioners would receive a Propoſal to ſet ſome Grounds not in their Poſſeſſion; he cannot poſitively ſay whether the Propoſal came before the Commiſſioners, but he believes if it did the Propoſal was not accepted—he believes this paſſed in 1789.

Q. Does he believe that the Grounds from Old Sackville-ſtreet to Carliſle-Bridge, if they had been ſet up in the uſual Manner by Cant after the Time that the Commiſſioners got into Poſſeſſion of the ſame, would have ſet at leaſt at as high a Price as the ſeven Lots which had been before ſet in New Sackville-ſtreet, and if ſet with the Materials on them conſiderably higher ?

A. He thinks that the whole Line would not, becauſe ſome of the Lots are not ſo deep, and the greater Diſtance from the River, they become leſs valuable—believes they would not ſet conſiderably higher if ſet with the Materials.

Q. Were there any Materials on the Line between Abbey-ſtreet and Carliſle-Bridge worth mentioning at the Time of the Agreement with Mr. Ottiwell ?

A. There were three or four old Houſes, the Value of which he cannot aſcertain.

Q. Were the Materials of any other Part of the Grounds agreed to be ſet to Mr. Ottiwell, of inconſiderable Value ?

A. Between Lime-ſtreet and Mabbot-ſtreet upon the North Strand, the Materials were of very little Value.

Q. Which does he conceive the Average Value of the Materials of the whole of the Ground agreed to be ſet to Mr. Ottiwell, or the average Value of the Materials ſet with the new Line of Dame-ſtreet and College-green, in Proportion to the Number of Feet in the reſpective Fronts, to be greateſt ?

A. That he conceives the Materials in Dame-ſtreet to be of the greateſt Value in Proportion to the Number of Feet.

Q. Would not any Meaſure that facilitated the ſetting or ſelling of the Grounds ſo ſoon as the Commiſſioners had acquired Poſſeſſion, prevent an accumulated Expence to the Public ?

A. It would.

Q. Was it ever the Cuſtom or is there any one Inſtance in the Commiſſioners Books, previous to the Agreement with Mr. Ottiwell, of advertiſing any Grounds which the Commiſſioners intend to agree for by private Contract ?

A. He does not recollect any ſuch Inſtance.

Q. Whether it is uſual to have ſo great a Board of Commiſſioners as thirteen Members ?

A. It is very unuſual.

Q. Was there not a long Time ſpent in the Diſcuſſion of Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal at the Meetings of the 6th and 13th of May, 1791, and at the ſubſequent Meetings before the ultimate Execution of the Agreement ?

A. There was, and it was a Subject very fully taken up at ſeveral Meetings.

Q. Was it not publickly known that the Commiſſioners were always ready to receive any Propoſal for the Grounds they had to diſpoſe of ?

A. He does not know what the publick Opinion was on that Subject.

Q. Did he ever know of any Inſtance of any Propoſal being laid before the Board that was not taken into Conſideration ?

A. Certainly not.

Q. Were not the Commiſſioners always particularly diſpoſed to receive Propoſals for ſetting or ſelling by private Contract ?

A. He believes they were.

Q. Did not that Mode ſave Expence to the Public ?

A. Any Meaſure that expedites the Buſineſs certainly ſaves Expence.

Q. Was it not publickly known immediately on Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal that he had made it, and was not the Nature of it a Matter of public Notoriety ?

A. He believes it was.

Q. Did any Propoſal come in after Mr. Ottiwell's ?

A. There did not.

Q. If any Perſon had propoſed a better Price and equal Security before the Terms of the Agreement were finally ſettled with Mr. Ottiwell, does he not think it would be accepted of by the Board ?

A. He believes it would.

Q. Does he think that Mr. Ottiwell was likely to have many Competitors in ſo deep a Speculation ?

A. That he cannot form any Opinion on that Matter.

Q. What Date is the Map now laid before the Committee ?

A. 1784.

Q. Was it not a Matter of Notoriety that there was a Combination among the Builders at the Auction of the 7th of February, 1791, and was not the Board acquainted with the ſame ?

A. He believes it was a Matter of Notoriety that there was a Combination, and that the Board was acquainted with it afterwards.

Q. Have you known any Inſtances of ſimilar Combinations ſince ?

A. He has—That the Bidders have agreed not to bid againſt each other, and to draw Lots for the Article.

Q. Does

Q. Does he not conceive that that Combination of the 7th of February 1791, was the Cauſe that prevented the Commiſſioners from ſetting up thoſe Grounds again to public Cant between the Periods of the 7th of February and 6th of May 1791?

A. He believes it was.

Q. Whether he conceives that the Eſtimate which he made for Mr. Beresford on the 8th of January 1791, was made with any View to the Propoſal of Mr. Ottiwell?

A. He don't believe it was.

Q. Does he recollect any Plans being laid before Government by Mr. Beresford, and for what Purpoſe?

A. He drew for Mr. Beresford the Plan of the Ground from Sackville-ſtreet to the New Cuſtom-Houſe in the Year 1789, which he believes he laid before the Marquis of Buckingham, which he afterwards altered agreeable to Inſtructions from the Marquis; the Purpoſe of this Plan was to have the Approbation of Government to the whole of the Improvements on that Side of the River, and he believes that Mr. Beresford recommended very ſtrongly to Government to become the Purchaſers of the whole of the Grounds in order to carry the Improvements into Execution with a Saving to the Public, a ſhort Time before the Marquis of Buckingham quit the Kingdom, and believes had it been done it would have been a great Saving to the Public, and that it was propoſed with that View.

Q. Does he recollect the State of the Improvements on the North-ſide of the River at that Period?

A. He does.—There was little done except taking down a few Houſes between Abbey-ſtreet and the Quay in the Line of Sackville-ſtreet.

Q. Does he recollect how long it was from the Time the Commiſſioners firſt had the Grant from Parliament to carry on theſe Improvements to that Date?

A. He believes the firſt Grant was in 1782.

Q. What was the State of the Funds of the Board upon the Line of Sackville-ſtreet and the Line to the Cuſtom-Houſe at the Time of the Application to the Marquis of Buckingham, and from that to the Year 1791?

A. Without reſorting to the Books he can't tell immediately, but that the Buſineſs was at a total Stop for want of Money.

Q. Does he recollect at whoſe Application to the Board that the public Auction was held on the 7th of February 1791?

A. At the Inſtance of Mr. Beresford.

Q. Are there not many Papers produced to the Board which are not mentioned in the Minutes?

A. There have been a great many.

Q. Did he make a Computation of the Average per Foot of the Amount of the two Verdicts of the Juries of the Grounds from Mabbot-ſtreet to Lloyd's Rope-Walk?

A. As well as he recollects it was £2: 5*s*. per Foot.

Q. Does he recollect that Average having been ſtated to the Board in Corroboration of Mr. Henry Darley's Valuation?

A. He believes it was.

Q. Were there not ſome of the moſt valuable Houſes on the whole of the Line of the Eaſtern Improvements on the Grounds between Lime-ſtreet and Lloyd's Rope-Walk?

A. There were.

Q. Was not the Verdict of the ſecond Jury of the 17th of January 1789, accounted by the Board ſo exorbitant, that they refuſed to confirm it?

A. It was.

Q. When a Sale is adjourned for want of Bidders, is it not the uſual Form of Adverti-ſement, that the Ground will be ſet up at a future Day, of which Notice will be given?

A. It is.

Q. Did not the Expectation of opening ſo much Ground as was likely to be thrown into the Market, of the public Property, between the Time of his Eſtimate and the 6th of May 1791, tend to diminiſh the Value of the Ground that was likely to be in the Poſſeſſion of the Commiſſioners?

A. He believes it might.

Q. Whether there were any other Grounds and what Grounds open for ſetting at the Time of Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal?

A. There were great Quantities of Building Ground in every Part of the Town.

Q. What is the Amount of the Certificates iſſued by the Board for the Payment of the Proprietors of the Ground, and the Intereſt thereon?

A. £42,035: 16*s*. 11*d*. and the Intereſt at 5 per Cent. £2101: 15*s*. 7*d*. and up the Line Eaſt of Sackville-ſtreet, the Amount of Certificates iſſued is £14,832: 8*s*. 9*d*. and the Intereſt thereon £741: 12*s*. 5*d*.

Q. Whether at the latter end of the Year 1790 and the beginning of the Year 1791, there were ſufficient Funds in the Hands of the Commiſſioners which they could command to proceed with the Improvements?

A. There were not without reſorting to Certificates.

Q. Whether the Sum of £42,035: 16*s.* 11*d.* for which Certificates have been iſſued, the Commiſſioners have actually in their Hands a Fund for the Payment of the ſaid Sum?

A. They have, taking Credit at Par. for £25,000 in Debentures at 4 per Cent.

Q. Whether the Sum of £14,832: 8*s.* 9*d.* for which Certificates have been iſſued on the Line Eaſt of Sackville-ſtreet, the Commiſſioners have actually in their Hands a Fund for the Payment of the ſaid Sum?

A. None but what the Grounds to ſell may produce.

Q. Whether in the latter end of the Year 1790 and the beginning of the Year 1791, the only Meaſure which the Board could purſue in order to forward the Plan, was to purchaſe with what Money they could command, and ſell the Premiſſes again?

A. It was.

Q. Did not the Commiſſioners endeavour to purſue this Syſtem in the Inſtance of the five Lots in Beresford-Place?

A. They did.

Q. Did not the Experiment fail?

A. It did.

Q. Did not ſome of the Bidders at the ſetting of the 7th of February, 1791, offer much leſs for the Corner Lot than it was ſet up for, and how much leſs?

A. As well as he recollects, the Sums mentioned by the Bidders were twenty Shillings or a Guinea.

Q. Would it have been poſſible for the Commiſſioners in the Situation of their Funds and Reſources at the beginning of the Year 1791, to have completed the opening of the Streets leading to the Lots ſet up the 7th of February, 1791?

A. It would not.

Q. Whether the Grounds agreed to be ſet to Mr. Ottiwell in the Line from Old Sackville-ſtreet to Carliſle-Bridge, upon an Average, be of greater or leſs Value than the Average Value of the reſt of the Grounds agreed to be ſet to him Eaſt of Sackville-ſtreet?

A. He thinks the Grounds in Sackville-ſtreet of more Value than any of the reſt.

Q. Whether he knows of any Inſtances of the Riſe of the Value of Grounds ſet by the Commiſſioners at public Auctions after they had been ſet up at public Auctions?

A. He has heard that the Grounds in College-green that were ſet by the Commiſſioners by public Auction at 33 and 37 Shillings per Foot, were ſoon afterwards ſet by the Takers at three Guineas per Foot; that he has alſo heard that one or two of the ſeven Lots which were ſet in Sackville-ſtreet for 29 and 33 Shillings per Foot, were re-ſet at three Guineas.

Q. Are there not many Contingencies valued in the Purchaſe of Grounds to the Commiſſioners, for which they receive no Value in the ſetting or ſelling of the ſame?

A. There are.

Q. In widening Streets, muſt there not be more Ground purchaſed than is afterwards ſold?

A. There muſt.

Q. Has he made any Computation how much the probable Loſs will be on all the new Lines in Queſtion on the North Side of the River, and what is the Amount?

A. Amount of Purchaſe per Valuation by Jury and Eſtimate £ 283,134 6 9½
Value of the Rents - 113,892 11 4½
Loſs - 169,241 15 5

Q. What Proportion does the Loſs bear to the Expenditure?

A. Something more than three-fifths.

Q. What was the eſtimated Loſs on the North Side of Dame-ſtreet and College-green?

A. Amount of Purchaſe per Valuations by Jury - - - £ 91,597 16 1
Value of Rents to ſell, eſtimated to - 35,038 2 4
Loſs (upwards of three-fifths) 56,559 13 9

Q. What was the real Loſs on the South Side of that Line, and what Proportion do theſe aggregated Loſſes bear to the Sum Total of the Expenditure?

A. Amount of Purchaſe £ 87,563 2 3
Amount of Sale - 44,680 14 0½
Loſs (nearly one-half) 42,882 8 2½

Aggregate Loſs about 11-20ths.

Q. What was the eſtimated Loſs on the Valuation made by him on the Avenues propoſed on the South Side of Carliſle-Bridge, and the Proportion that the Loſs bears to the Expenditure?

A. Value of Ground and Houſes to purchaſe eſtimated at - - £ 165,240
Value of Ground to ſell eſtimated to 70,250
Loſs (4-7ths) - - - 94,990

Q. What

Q. What was the Average Depth of Ground purchaſed and to be purchaſed by the Commiſſioners, and given up to the Public in the Line of Sackville-ſtreet?

A. Average Depth purchaſed about 260 Feet.

Given up to the Public about 115 Feet.

Q. What was the Average Depth of Grounds purchaſed and to be purchaſed by the Commiſſioners, and given up to the Public in the Line of Dame-ſtreet?

A. About 40 Feet on the South Side of Dame-ſtreet.

Q. Were there many Houſes to be purchaſed in the Line of Sackville-ſtreet, and were any of thoſe Houſes of a high Price?

A. The four Houſes at the Foot of Old Sackville-ſtreet are of very great Value, and there are many other Houſes of Value.

Q. Was there not a conſiderable Space of a double Front to Abbey-ſtreet and to the Quay to be purchaſed?

A. There was a conſiderable Space.

Q. What is the Amount of Mr. Ottiwell's annual Rent payable to the Board, if he ſhall be put in Poſſeſſion of the whole of the Ground?

A. £5303: 6*s.*

Q. What is the Amount of the Security he has given to perform his Contract?

A. £20,000.

Q. Whether he can form a Computation of what Sum it will probably coſt to cover the Ground agreed for by Mr. Ottiwell, according to the Plans of the Commiſſioners?

A. He cannot give any poſitive Anſwer, but he believes it will not coſt leſs than £200,000.

Q. Is it not his Opinion that a Man who engages in ſuch a Speculation is entitled to a conſiderable Profit?

A. It is.

Q. Did not the diſcharging of the Juries, and the Delay of the Proceedings, incur a conſiderable Loſs and Inconvenience to Individuals whoſe Properties were under Valuation?

A. He conceives it did.

Q. Has he heard of any Intention of a Perſon whoſe Property was under Valuation, to inſtitute a Suit againſt the Commiſſioners for Damages?

A. He has heard that a Mr. Lloyd intends to ſue the Commiſſioners to compel them to take his Premiſſes at the Valuation.

Q. Whether it is, or is not his Opinion that Mr. Beresford's Activity was directed to the forwarding the Work with Advantage to the Public and Eaſe to the Board?

A. That it is his Opinion that thoſe were Mr. Beresford's Motives.

Q. When any Difficulties occurred on theſe Lines in Queſtion, was he not frequently deſired to conſult Mr. Beresford, and to requeſt his Attendance at the Board?

A. He was.

Q. Did he not often go of his own Accord to conſult Mr. Beresford, when he was at a Loſs how to proceed in any Buſineſs relative to theſe Lines?

A. He did.

Q. Did Mr. Beresford ever give him any Advice or Aſſiſtance that he does not think was for the public Good?

A. He did not.

Q. Had he many Conferences with Mr. Beresford in the Winter of 1790 and Spring of 1791, upon the State of the Funds of the Board, and the moſt feaſible Mode of carrying into Execution the Lines from Sackville-ſtreet to the Cuſtom-Houſe?

A. He had.

Q. Does he not conceive that the great Object of Mr. Beresford appeared to be to forward the Work and to complete the Plan?

A. He does.

Q. Was not Mr. Henry Darley a Perſon whom the Board had recourſe to in ſome Caſes where they wanted Information, of the Value of Ground and Houſes to be purchaſed?

A. He was.

Q. Was he not frequently appointed a Referee by the Board in Objects of purchaſing Grounds and Houſes to a conſiderable Value?

A. He was.

Q. Does he not conceive that the ſeveral Eſtimates made by himſelf and Mr. Darley, at the Inſtance of Mr. Beresford, were in Conſequence of the ſeveral Conferences he had with them, and the State of the Funds of the Board?

A. He believes they were.

Q. Was Mr. Beresford preſent at the Auction of the 7th of February 1791?

A. He was not.

Q. Does he know of any Inſtances of Ground being purchaſed by the Commiſſioners by private Contract?

A. He does:—Sir Anneſley Stewart's Concerns, Mr. Eccles's, and others.

Q. Does he recollect about what Time the New Bridge was begun?

A. He believes it was ſome Time in the Year 1790.

Q. Does

A. There were not without reſorting to Certificates.

Q. Whether the Sum of £42,035: 16*s.* 11*d.* for which Certificates have been iſſued, the Commiſſioners have actually in their Hands a Fund for the Payment of the ſaid Sum?

A. They have, taking Credit at Par. for £25,000 in Debentures at 4 per Cent.

Q. Whether the Sum of £14,832: 8*s.* 9*d.* for which Certificates have been iſſued on the Line Eaſt of Sackville-ſtreet, the Commiſſioners have actually in their Hands a Fund for the Payment of the ſaid Sum?

A. None but what the Grounds to ſell may produce.

Q. Whether in the latter end of the Year 1790 and the beginning of the Year 1791, the only Meaſure which the Board could purſue in order to forward the Plan, was to purchaſe with what Money they could command, and ſell the Premiſſes again?

A. It was.

Q. Did not the Commiſſioners endeavour to purſue this Syſtem in the Inſtance of the five Lots in Beresford-Place?

A. They did.

Q. Did not the Experiment fail?

A. It did.

Q. Did not ſome of the Bidders at the ſetting of the 7th of February, 1791, offer much leſs for the Corner Lot than it was ſet up for, and how much leſs?

A. As well as he recollects, the Sums mentioned by the Bidders were twenty Shillings or a Guinea.

Q. Would it have been poſſible for the Commiſſioners in the Situation of their Funds and Reſources at the beginning of the Year 1791, to have completed the opening of the Streets leading to the Lots ſet up the 7th of February, 1791?

A. It would not.

Q. Whether the Grounds agreed to be ſet to Mr. Ottiwell in the Line from Old Sackville-ſtreet to Carliſle-Bridge, upon an Average, be of greater or leſs Value than the Average Value of the reſt of the Grounds agreed to be ſet to him Eaſt of Sackville-ſtreet?

A. He thinks the Grounds in Sackville-ſtreet of more Value than any of the reſt.

Q. Whether he knows of any Inſtances of the Riſe of the Value of Grounds ſet by the Commiſſioners at public Auctions after they had been ſet up at public Auctions?

A. He has heard that the Grounds in College-green that were ſet by the Commiſſioners by public Auction at 33 and 37 Shillings per Foot, were ſoon afterwards ſet by the Takers at three Guineas per Foot; that he has alſo heard that one or two of the ſeven Lots which were ſet in Sackville-ſtreet for 29 and 33 Shillings per Foot, were re-ſet at three Guineas.

Q. Are there not many Contingencies valued in the Purchaſe of Grounds to the Commiſſioners, for which they receive no Value in the ſetting or ſelling of the ſame?

A. There are.

Q. In widening Streets, muſt there not be more Ground purchaſed than is afterwards ſold?

A. There muſt.

Q. Has he made any Computation how much the probable Loſs will be on all the new Lines in Queſtion on the North Side of the River, and what is the Amount?

A. Amount of Purchaſe per Valuation by Jury and Eſtimate £ 283,134 6 9½
Value of the Rents - 113,892 11 4½
Loſs - 169,241 15 5

Q. What Proportion does the Loſs bear to the Expenditure?

A. Something more than three-fifths.

Q. What was the eſtimated Loſs on the North Side of Dame-ſtreet and College-green?

A. Amount of Purchaſe per Valuations by Jury - - - £ 91,597 16 1
Value of Rents to ſell, eſtimated to - 35,038 2 4
Loſs (upwards of three-fifths) 56,559 13 9

Q. What was the real Loſs on the South Side of that Line, and what Proportion do theſe aggregated Loſſes bear to the Sum Total of the Expenditure?

A. Amount of Purchaſe £ 87,563 2 3
Amount of Sale - 44,680 14 0½
Loſs (nearly one-half) 42,882 8 2½

Aggregate Loſs about 11-20ths.

Q. What was the eſtimated Loſs on the Valuation made by him on the Avenues propoſed on the South Side of Carliſle-Bridge, and the Proportion that the Loſs bears to the Expenditure?

A. Value of Ground and Houſes to purchaſe eſtimated at - - £ 165,240
Value of Ground to ſell eſtimated to 70,250
Loſs (4-7ths) - - - 94,990

Q. What

Q. What was the Average Depth of Ground purchaſed and to be purchaſed by the Commiſſioners, and given up to the Public in the Line of Sackville-ſtreet?

A. Average Depth purchaſed about 260 Feet.

Given up to the Public about 115 Feet.

Q. What was the Average Depth of Grounds purchaſed and to be purchaſed by the Commiſſioners, and given up to the Public in the Line of Dame-ſtreet?

A. About 40 Feet on the South Side of Dame-ſtreet.

Q. Were there many Houſes to be purchaſed in the Line of Sackville-ſtreet, and were any of thoſe Houſes of a high Price?

A. The four Houſes at the Foot of Old Sackville-ſtreet are of very great Value, and there are many other Houſes of Value.

Q. Was there not a conſiderable Space of a double Front to Abbey-ſtreet and to the Quay to be purchaſed?

A. There was a conſiderable Space.

Q. What is the Amount of Mr. Ottiwell's annual Rent payable to the Board, if he ſhall be put in Poſſeſſion of the whole of the Ground?

A. £5303: 6*s.*

Q. What is the Amount of the Security he has given to perform his Contract?

A. £20,000.

Q. Whether he can form a Computation of what Sum it will probably coſt to cover the Ground agreed for by Mr. Ottiwell, according to the Plans of the Commiſſioners?

A. He cannot give any poſitive Anſwer, but he believes it will not coſt leſs than £200,000.

Q. Is it not his Opinion that a Man who engages in ſuch a Speculation is entitled to a conſiderable Profit?

A. It is.

Q. Did not the diſcharging of the Juries, and the Delay of the Proceedings, incur a conſiderable Loſs and Inconvenience to Individuals whoſe Properties were under Valuation?

A. He conceives it did.

Q. Has he heard of any Intention of a Perſon whoſe Property was under Valuation, to inſtitute a Suit againſt the Commiſſioners for Damages?

A. He has heard that a Mr. Lloyd intends to ſue the Commiſſioners to compel them to take his Premiſſes at the Valuation.

Q. Whether it is, or is not his Opinion that Mr. Beresford's Activity was directed to the forwarding the Work with Advantage to the Public and Eaſe to the Board?

A. That it is his Opinion that thoſe were Mr. Beresford's Motives.

Q. When any Difficulties occurred on theſe Lines in Queſtion, was he not frequently deſired to conſult Mr. Beresford, and to requeſt his Attendance at the Board?

A. He was.

Q. Did he not often go of his own Accord to conſult Mr. Beresford, when he was at a Loſs how to proceed in any Buſineſs relative to theſe Lines?

A. He did.

Q. Did Mr. Beresford ever give him any Advice or Aſſiſtance that he does not think was for the public Good?

A. He did not.

Q. Had he many Conferences with Mr. Beresford in the Winter of 1790 and Spring of 1791, upon the State of the Funds of the Board, and the moſt feaſible Mode of carrying into Execution the Lines from Sackville-ſtreet to the Cuſtom-Houſe?

A. He had.

Q. Does he not conceive that the great Object of Mr. Beresford appeared to be to forward the Work and to complete the Plan?

A. He does.

Q. Was not Mr. Henry Darley a Perſon whom the Board had recourſe to in ſome Caſes where they wanted Information, of the Value of Ground and Houſes to be purchaſed?

A. He was.

Q. Was he not frequently appointed a Referee by the Board in Objects of purchaſing Grounds and Houſes to a conſiderable Value?

A. He was.

Q. Does he not conceive that the ſeveral Eſtimates made by himſelf and Mr. Darley, at the Inſtance of Mr. Beresford, were in Conſequence of the ſeveral Conferences he had with them, and the State of the Funds of the Board?

A. He believes they were.

Q. Was Mr. Beresford preſent at the Auction of the 7th of February 1791?

A. He was not.

Q. Does he know of any Inſtances of Ground being purchaſed by the Commiſſioners by private Contract?

A. He does:—Sir Anneſley Stewart's Concerns, Mr. Eccles's, and others.

Q. Does he recollect about what Time the New Bridge was begun?

A. He believes it was ſome Time in the Year 1790.

Q. Does he recollect at what Time the Cuſtom-houſe was fit for the Reception of the Officers?

A. He believes it was in the Year 1790.

Q. Did not theſe Events induce a Neceſſity of taking ſome extraordinary Steps to enable the Board to open the Paſſages to the one, and to the Front of the other?

A. They did.

Q. After the Acceptance of Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal, was there not more done in theſe Improvements in twelve Months than in ten Years before?

A. There was.

Q. What is his Opinion of the Riſe of Grounds from Spring 1791 to Michaelmas 1792?

A. That they were in a progreſſive State of Encreaſe in Value.

Q. When he ſtated that he aſſented to the Expediency of dealing for the whole of the Ground in the Manner ſuggeſted by Mr. Beresford, and that he then only meant by the Word whole thoſe Grounds that were adverti ſed to be ſet on the 7th of February, 1791, does he not conceive that Mr. Beresford muſt have imagined that he meant to aſſent to the Expediency of dealing for the whole of the Ground contained in Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal?

A. From the ſubſequent Circumſtances, and that Mr. Beresford having at all Times the Completion of the general Plan in View, Witneſs conceives he might.

Q. Was it not uſual for the Board to conſult him as to the Value of ſuch Grounds as they had to diſpoſe of, and in Caſes where there were but a few Lots to be ſold together?

A. That it was uſual for the Board to conſult him as to the Value of ſuch Grounds as they had to diſpoſe of, in Caſes where there were but a few Lots to be ſold together, in order to aſcertain a Price before they went to public Sale.

Q. Whether he remembers any Inſtance of the Commiſſioners ſetting any Ground in groſs except to Mr. Ottiwell?

A. They did in the Inſtance of the Angle of Cavendiſh-Row, in which there were nine Lots.

Q. Are the Materials oppoſite to the Lots of Ground between Prince's-ſtreet and Old Sackville-ſtreet of conſiderable Value?

A. He believe they are.

Q. Does he recollect whether in the Converſation of the 13th of May, 1791, the Commiſſioners took any Notice of the Eſtimate made in 1791?

A. To the beſt of his Knowledge they did not.

Q. Was it before or after the 13th of May 1791, that he ſhewed the Eſtimate to Mr. La Touche?

A. After.

Q. Was it in conſequence of any Application to him that he furniſhed that Eſtimate?

A. It was.

Q. Whether he believes Mr. Digges La Touche knew the Contents of that Eſtimate before he furniſhed him with it?

A. He is rather induced to think he did not.

Q. Whether he thinks Mr. David La Touche knew the Contents of that Eſtimate before he furniſhed him with it?

A. He is rather induced to think he did not.

Mr. John Brabazon Lyſter, ſworn and examined.

Q. Whether he is employed in any Capacity by the Board of Commiſſioners?

A. As Law Agent.

Q. Does he in his Office attend the different Tranſactions of the Juries as to the Valuation of Grounds?

A. He does.

Q. Has he attended upon any ſuch Valuations concerning the Grounds Eaſt of Sackville-ſtreet?

A. He has.

Q. When were thoſe Valuations had?

A. The firſt Inquiſition returned by a Jury was the 23d of February, 1789.

Q. Whether he attended upon any other Valuation ſince?

A. There have been ſix other Verdicts returned ſince; the ſecond was returned the 17th of June, 1789, which the Commiſſioners thought exceſſive and did not confirm; and on the ſame Ground another Jury returned their Verdict the 29th of March, 1790; the fourth Verdict was returned the 16th of June, 1790, upon a ſmall Intereſt belonging to Mr. Boe; the fifth was returned the 21ſt of June, 1790; the ſixth was returned the 25th of January, 1792, for a ſmall Piece of Ground in Mabbot-ſtreet; and the ſeventh was returned the 22d of June, 1792, for a Tract of Ground commencing at Lloyd's Rope-walk.

Q. Whether he knew any Inſtance of the Board ſetting any Grounds till after they had got Poſſeſſion of them?

A. He has, many Inſtances, but not till after Valuation, and that they have in ſome Inſtances paid the Proprietors with the Money for which the Premiſſes were ſold joined with their other Funds.

Q. Were

Q. Were there any Proceedings by other Juries except thoſe already mentioned?

A. There were.

Q. Does he recollect any Inſtructions given by the Commiſſioners to have a Caſe ſtated to Counſel, whether the Commiſſioners have a Power to ſet Grounds not in their Poſſeſſion?

A. He does not.

Q. Who gave him Inſtructions to draw the Article of the 16th of November, 1791, between Mr. Ottiwell and the Commiſſioners?

A. The Commiſſioners.

Mr. Joſhua Manders ſworn and examined.

Q. Whether he attended at the Auction on the 7th of February, 1791?

A. He don't particularly recollect the Day, but he attended an Auction of Grounds in Beresford-place, between Chriſtmas and March.

Q. For what Lot or Lots did he bid, and what Price did he offer?

A. Five Lots were advertiſed in Beresford-Place, and he was called upon to ſet up a Lot, which he did at 30 Shillings per Foot.

Q. Whether any Perſon bid more?

A. There did not at that Time.

Q. Had he any Converſation with Mr. Sherrard concerning the Price at which that Lot would be ſet for?

A. Not till after he had bid 30 Shillings per Foot.

Q. Mention what that Converſation was?

A. Mr. Sherrard told him that the firſt Bidder muſt bid two Guineas or the Sale could not go on.

Q. Did he go there with an Intention of taking any of the Grounds advertiſed?

A. He did.

Q. Had he conſidered how far he would bid for thoſe Lots or any of them previous to the Sale?

A. He had.

Q. What Price would he have given on that Day for thoſe Lots?

A. He had a Conſultation with a Friend before he went to the Sale; he told him his Situation at the time with regard to Money, that if the five Lots had gone off reaſonable he would have taken them, if not, he would take two or three. He aſked his Friend what he thought a reaſonable Price, who told him if they went off at or under two Guineas per Foot, he thought it was reaſonable.

Q. Whether any Perſon bid more than 30 Shillings per Foot?

A. There did not.

Q. If any Perſon had bid 31 Shillings, would he have bid 32 Shillings?

A. He would.

Q. Whether according to the Terms of the Sale it was in his Power to take thoſe Grounds unleſs ſome other Perſon bid?

A. He apprehends not.

Q. Whether according to the Terms of the Sale any Perſon could have taken thoſe Grounds without paying 33 Shillings per Foot?

A. That he underſtood from Mr. Sherrard the Sale could not go on unleſs the firſt Bidder bid two Guineas.

Q. Whether he thought at that Time the Commiſſioners were ſerious in attempting to ſet the moſt diſtant Parts of their Eſtate before the Parts immediately under Improvement?

A. He had no reaſon to doubt but they were ſerious.

Q. Whether he is acquainted with thoſe Grounds which have been ſet to Mr. Ottiwell?

A. He has often viewed them.

Q. What average Prices according to the beſt of his Judgment, he believes the Grounds with the Materials thereon ſet to Mr. Ottiwell would have brought, if brought to Sale in the uſual Manner?

A. That in the Year 1791, they would have brought from 40 to 50 Shillings per Foot upon an Average.

Mr. Sherrard further examined.

Q. Does he recollect whether the Materials on, and oppoſite the Lots, were inſerted in the Advertiſement for the Auction of the 7th of February, 1791?

A. The Words of the Advertiſement were "the Materials upon each Lot to become the Property of the Taker."

Q. Does he conceive that it was the Intention of the Commiſſioners that the Materials on, and oppoſite to each Lot, ſhould belong to the Taker?

A. He does, becauſe the Word oppoſite was a clerical Omiſſion of his own, and the Order for advertiſing was general, to advertiſe them in the uſual Manner and in the uſual Papers, and that he was ordered by the Board to deliver to Mr. Ottiwell, a Schedule of the Fixtures of ſuch Houſes as were then in their Poſſeſſion.

Q. If the Materials oppoſite the Lots were not to have become the Property of the Taker, what Quantity of Materials would have remained on the five Lots in the new Line?

A. In ſome Inſtances little or none, becauſe the new Buildings were to be erected upon the Scite of the preſent Yards and rere Grounds.

Q. What was the Amount of the Value of the Grounds which are included in Mr. Ottiwell's Agreement, and are not included in Mr. Sherrard's Eſtimate given to Mr. Beresford, according to Mr. Sherrard's Eſtimate made in 1790?

A. £29,345.

Q. What was the Amount of the ſaid Grounds according to Mr. Ottiwell's Agreement?

A. £19,319: 1s. 8d.

Mr. Manders further examined.

Q. Whether he is well acquainted with many of the Builders in the City of Dublin?

A. He is.

Q. Were any of thoſe with whom he is intimate preſent at the Cant of the 7th of February, 1791?

A. There were.

Q. He mentioned having conſulted with a Friend of his in the Morning previous to the Cant; was he preſent?

A. He was.

Q. Whether he frequently attended the Cants of the Commiſſioners?

A. He did.

Q. What is the conſtant Mode of proceeding by the Commiſſioners at public Cants?

A. The Advertiſement is firſt read, the Plans and Elevations are exhibited, and then the Conditions of the Sale are ſtated.

Q. Whether the Perſon who acts as Auctioneer does not fix the Price at which the Grounds are to be ſet up?

A. He does not know it to be the general Mode.

Q. Who is the Perſon that read the Advertiſement on the 7th of February, 1791, and ſtated the Conditions of the Sale?

A. To the beſt of his Recollection Mr. Sherrard.

Q. Whether Mr. Sherrard did not ſet up that Ground on the 7th of February, 1791, at 30 Shillings per Foot?

A. He did not.

Q. Does he remember what the Conditions of the Sale were on the 7th of February, 1791?

A. He does,—the Conditions of the Sale were as uſual by the Commiſſioners for Wide Streets.—He did not hear of any Stipulation for the Sale, but that the firſt Bidder ſhould ſet it up at two Guineas per Foot.

Q. What does he mean by the firſt Bidder ſetting it up at two Guineas per Foot?

A. There muſt be three Bidders to conſtitute an Auction.

Q. What the Conditions of the Sale contained?

A. They were as uſual.

Q. Whether the Number of Bidders and the Riſe by each Bidder is not a neceſſary Part of the Conditions of the Sale?

A. In ſome Caſes it is, but it did not happen to be ſo that Day.

Q. Whether he ever knew a Sale by the Commiſſioners that the Number of Bidders and the Riſe by each Bidder was not mentioned previous to the Sale?

A. It was not on the 7th of February, 1791.

Q. Whether he does not think if he or any other Perſon had bid 33 Shillings per Foot on that Day, they would not have been declared the Taker of the Lot?

A. He thinks not.

Q. Does he know what the contiguous Ground to Mr. Ottiwell's, ſet by Mr. Moland to Mr. Cope, ſet for by the Foot ſubſequent to Mr. Ottiwell's Take?

A. He does not know.

Q. Does he know what the Ground in the Rope-walk to the Eaſt of the Cuſtom-Houſe let for by the Foot about the Time of Mr. Ottiwell's Take?

A. He does not.

Q. Does not the Value of Ground for building depend very much upon the Depth of the Ground?

A. According to the Situation it does, and in every Inſtance let the Situation be what it may.

Q. Does he know the Depth of all the Ground taken by Mr. Ottiwell?

A. He does not.

Q. Did he ever take the Trouble to enquire whether there were Grounds to be ſet in the Neighbourhood of thoſe Grounds?

A. He did not, after the Sale.

Mr. Sherrard further examined.

Q. Did he ſet up the Ground on the 7th of February, 1791?

A. He did, he ſet it up at 30 Shillings per Foot.

Q. What

Q. What were the Terms?

A. The Terms were the ſame as uſual with the Board, that each Bidder ſhould riſe one Shilling per Foot, and ſome of the Bidders obſerved that they could not get it for leſs than 33 Shillings per Foot.

Q. If Mr. Manders or any other Perſon had bid 33 Shillings per Foot, would not they have got the Ground?

A. If the Ground is ſet up at 30 Shillings per Foot, the Perſon who would give 33 Shillings muſt have had the Ground; and that he might have told Mr. Manders that the Ground was worth two Guineas per Foot, but not officially.

Mr. Thomas Darcy ſworn and examined.

Q. Whether he took any and what Grounds from Mr. Ottiwell ſubſequent to his Agreement with the Commiſſioners, and when and at what Price?

A. He took Grounds ſome time in April, 1792.

He took Nos. 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17 in the Line of Sackville-ſtreet, at the Rate of 48 Shillings per Foot.

Nos. 1 and 2 in Abbey-ſtreet, at two Guineas per Foot.

Nos. 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 in Abbey-ſtreet, at 48 Shillings per Foot.

Nos. 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15 in Abbey-ſtreet, at 38 Shillings per Foot.

Nos. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 in Beresford-place, at 50 Shillings per Foot.

Nos. 5, 6 and 7 in Gardiner's-ſtreet, at 30 Shillings per Foot.

That he was alſo concerned with Meſſrs. Glynn and Bayley on the North Side of Abbey-ſtreet, in the Lots from No. 16 to No. 42, at 46 Shillings per Foot; alſo No. 7 in Marlborough-ſtreet, and Nos. 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13 in Blenheim-ſtreet, at 46 Shillings per Foot.

Q. Was there any Fine paid to Mr. Ottiwell upon thoſe Grounds, from No. 16 to 42 incluſive, in Abbey-ſtreet?

A. Nine Hundred Pounds, of which Sum he paid his Proportion.

Q. Were there any other Fines paid upon the taking of any of thoſe Grounds?

A. There were; that he was to give Mr. Ottiwell £400 which he was to allow as a Fine for a Houſe to be built for him in Beresford-place; that he gave him £200 which Mr. Ottiwell conceived to be as a Fine, but that he agreed to allow it to him upon his mentioning that he underſtood it otherwiſe.

Q. Was there any conſiderable Riſe in the Value of Grounds between May, 1791, and April, 1792?

A. The greateſt he ever remembered.

Q. Whether the Riſe extended to other Grounds during that Period as well as to Grounds taken by Mr. Ottiwell?

A. It did, but particularly to thoſe Eaſt of the new Bridge.

Q. Whether ſince that Time there has not been a great Fall in the Value of Grounds?

A. There has, as there is no Perſon to take Ground at this Time, from the State of Public Credit and Scarcity of Money.

Q. Does he think it a good Bargain that he made with Mr. Ottiwell?

A. At the Time he made it he thought it a good one, but from the aforeſaid Circumſtances it alters it much, and among other Things the Inveſtigation of the Lords' Committees of laſt Year.

Q. If the Inveſtigation was over, whether he does not conceive that the Depreſſion ariſing from it would not ceaſe?

A. That it certainly would, the Cauſe being done away; but he does not think he would be in the ſame Situation as if there had been no ſuch Inveſtigation, having loſt his Opportunity of ſetting the Grounds when there were many Bidders.

Q. If this Inveſtigation were to continue to another Seſſion without coming to a Deciſion, would it not be a Cauſe of much Injury to many other Individuals as well as to him?

A. That he is ſure it would.

Q. Whether he finds himſelf in a better Situation in his Circumſtances ſince his Bargain with Mr. Ottiwell?

A. That he was in an extenſive Line of Mercantile Buſineſs, which he was obliged to get out of in Conſequence of it, as he laid out many thouſand Pounds on thoſe Grounds, which at beſt the Public conſidered a doubted Title, and that he conſidered his Credit very much injured in Conſequence of the Title being called in Queſtion.

Q. What is his Opinion of the State of Mr. Ottiwell's Tenantry in general, in Conſequence of their Bargains with him?

A. They are in general in as bad a Situation as himſelf, and ſome in a worſe.

Q. What is become of Mr. Bayley?

A. He is gone to the Eaſt Indies in Conſequence of this Inveſtigation.

Q. What was the Situation of Mr. Bayley's Credit?

A. He conſidered the Situation of Mr. Bayley's Credit and Property at that Time very good, and that from his Connexions he could get as much Money as would carry the entire of the Plan into Execution.

Q. Did he take any legal Opinion concerning the Title of Mr. Ottiwell before he made his Agreement with him?

A. He did not, and his Reaſon for not taking an Opinion was, his having taken them from the Commiſſioners of Wide Streets, under the Sanction of an Act of Parliament, a Matter that is by every one conſidered ſo ſacred.

Q. Upon what he conceives the Doubt of the Title aroſe?

A. On Account of the Inveſtigation of laſt Year.

Q. Did that Doubt apply to all the Grounds then in Poſſeſſion of the Commiſſioners?

A. It certainly applied to all.

Q. Whether he knows whether Mr. Ottiwell has advanced Money to his Tenants to enable them to build their Houſes?

A. He believes he has; as to himſelf he has accommodated him with many Thouſands, and as he knows how he was mauled in Conſequence of his Bargain with him, he offered to guarantee any Money he owed to any Perſon; in particular there were ſome very envious Reports concerning him during his Abſence in England; that Mr. Ottiwell went to the Banks, particularly Mr. Finlay's, and offered to guarantee him for any Sum.

Q. Had he any Converſation with Doctor Waite concerning his Bargain with Mr. Ottiwell?

A. That he frequently met Doctor Waite, and that he exclaimed at the Prices Mr. Ottiwell got for his Ground; that the People were mad and would be ruined.

Q. Did he ever ſtate to him any average Value that he thought the Fronts in Abbey-ſtreet and on the Quay were worth?

A. That he recollects one Day that he acquainted him with the Nature of his Bargain with Mr. Ottiwell, and he ſaid that he would not take it off his Hands for a conſiderable Sum, and that he did not think the average Value of the Fronts in Abbey-ſtreet and on the Quay were worth 25 Shillings per Foot.

Q. How this Enquiry has prevented Perſons from ſetting their Grounds and Houſes?

A. Becauſe the Public doubted their Title.

Q. Was there not a conſiderable Run upon Mr. Ottiwell in Conſequence of his Advance to his Tenants?

A. There was, and unleſs he had been a Man of large Property, he could not have ſtood it.

Q. Did he ever hear that Mr. Wilſon in an Opinion given to the Board, had doubted their having a Power of making a Leaſe to Mr. Ottiwell?

A. He never knew that he had ever given ſuch an Opinion till he heard it read Yeſterday or the Day before, or that there were any Doubts entertained.

Q. Does he not think it would be of great Advantage to the Perſons who have taken thoſe Grounds, if their Titles ſhould be confirmed by Act of Parliament?

A. Certainly any Thing that would be of Uſe, but he conceives they have a ſufficient Title already.

Q. Whether he does not think that in Conſequence of the Conduct of Mr. Ottiwell to the Perſons to whom he let his Ground, he got a higher Price than another Perſon could get, who did not act in the ſame Manner?

A. He did, and that an Individual will always get a higher Price than a public Board.

Doctor Thomas Waite, (being a Quaker,) affirmed and examined.

Q. Whether he attended the Sale of the five Lots of Ground in Beresford-Place on the 7th of February, 1791?

A. He did, with a View of taking a Lot or two, in caſe they were ſet at a reaſonable Rate.

Q. Whether he had fixed in his own Mind what Price he would go to?

A. He had not finally fixed.

Q. Whether he entertained any Doubt, whether it was intended the Sale would go on, and for what Reaſon?

A. That his Reaſons were formed in Conſequence of the Conduct of the Board, both at the Sale of the 7th of February, 1791, and ſubſequent to Mr. Ottiwell's Take; and theſe Reaſons were given to ſhew why he did not think the Commiſſioners ſerious in ſetting the Grounds on the 7th of February, 1791.

I. An Attempt was made to diſpoſe of the Grounds, in his Opinion, and in the Opinion of many others preſent, in a Way contrary to the uſual Practice, and which was generally diſapproved of.

II. A ridiculous Report induſtriouſly propagated, ſeemingly with a View of decrying the Utility or Neceſſity of public Auctions, that a Combination exiſted among the Builders, or rather every Deſcription of People, rich or poor, with a View of leſſening the Value of Lands veſted in the Hands of the Commiſſioners of Wide Streets,—and that he believes it impoſſible that ſuch a Combination could exiſt.

III. The expoſing the moſt diſtant Parts of the Eſtate for Sale, without clearly ſhewing how the Grounds ſituated between the New Cuſtom-Houſe and Carliſle-bridge, and deſignated by black Lines to be diſpoſed of, whether for the Purpoſe of Dwelling Houſes, Timber, Iron or Coal Yards.

IV. Diſpoſing

IV. Diſpoſing of the Grounds to Mr. Ottiwell in a very private Manner, which if Report ſays true, at 23 Shillings per Foot, notoriouſly under the Value.

Theſe are his Reaſons for giving his Opinion that the Commiſſioners were not ſerious in ſetting the Grounds on the 7th of February 1791.

N. B. Dr. Waite read the above Part of his Evidence from a written Paper written by himſelf.

Q. What Sum of Money by the Foot would he have given for Lot No. 1, ſet up on the 7th of February, 1791?

A. If ſuch a Map as the preſent had been exhibited he would have given two Guineas per Foot, but from the Map he ſaw there, he would not have given more than 30 Shillings per Foot.

Q. Whether he has ever viewed the Houſes oppoſite the Lots taken by Mr. Mulvany, and what he thinks them worth?

A. That he has aſked different People their Opinions, by which only he can form any himſelf; ſome have valued them at £3000; that they are more valuable to the Perſon who is obliged to build on the Grounds.

Q. Whether he ever communicated the Paper he has read before he came to the Committee?

A. That he ſhewed it to one or two, but not to any of the Committee, and that he never conſulted any Perſon whatſoever before he wrote it.

Mr. Sherrard further examined.

Q. Whether the Map produced is the Map that was hung up in the Coffee-room in the Royal Exchange?

A. It is, and that it was hung up in the Coffee-room from the 6th December, 1790, or thereabouts.

Dr. Waite further examined.

Q. Does he recollect at what Price the Ground was ſet up at the Sale of the 7th of February, 1791?

A. To the beſt of his Recollection 30 Shillings per Foot.

Q. Whether he has attended many Auctions of the Commiſſioners?

A. He has.

Q. Whether he ever knew any Inſtance of the Commiſſioners not abiding by the Terms of the Sale, or ſetting as propoſed by their Officer?

A. He never did.

Q. What he means by the Attempt to diſpoſe of Ground contrary to the uſual Practice?

A. Fixing ſo high a Price upon the Lots on the firſt ſetting them up.

Q. Don't he conſider himſelf a good Judge of Building Ground?

A. He knows the Value of Ground.

Q. When he took Ground from Lord Mountjoy, did he not examine the Maps to ſee how the Approaches were laid out previous to his taking ſuch Ground?

A. He did.

Q. Is it his uſual Practice to decide on the Value of any Ground without knowing how the Approaches are laid out?

A. It is not.

Q. What Coffee-houſe did he uſually frequent?

A. The Lower Exchange Coffee-houſe in the Year 1791.

Q. Did he ever ſee the Map dated the 12th of November, 1790, before the 7th of February 1791?

A. He never did.

Q. Why he determined upon giving 30 Shillings per Foot for Ground which he did not know in what Manner the Approaches were to be laid out to it?

A. He had ſeen the Lines upon another Map, but not divided into Lots for Building.

Q. Does the Diviſion of a Map into Lots for Buildings make any Difference in the general Line?

A. It certainly does.

Q. In what Manner?

A. That he had made up his Mind to have given 30 Shillings per Foot for the Lot of Ground wich was ſet up on the 7th February 1791 in Beresford-place, without knowing the particular Depth.

Q. Does he think all the Gentlemen who attended that Auction were determined to purchaſe without ſeeing the Map?

A. He does not.

Q. Why he did not deſire to ſee the Map?

A. Becauſe he was not determined ſeriouſly to bid; if he had got a Bargain he would have bid; that he is ſatisfied that 33 Shillings would not have been a Bargain at that Time; and that if he had ſeen the Map as it now ſtands, and that the Plan would have been ſpeedily carried into Execution, he would have given two Guineas; that he ſaw the Map with the black Lines in the Year 1789, and that he does not recollect to have ſeen the Map with the black Lines from the Year 1789, to February, 1791; that he might have ſeen a ſimilar Map at Mr. Sherrard's, but he don't recollect whether he did or not; that it was upon the Recollection of two Years of the Map with black Lines that he went to bid; that he does not recollect mentioning to the Committee laſt Year thoſe Reaſons which he put upon Paper yeſterday; that he thought it prudent to put his Sentiments upon Paper leſt he might be miſconceived; that he thinks if there had been three Bidders at 31, 32 and 33 Shillings, he believes all the Lots would have been ſold; that he ſuppoſes if the Commiſſioners could have got 33 Shillings the Ground would have been ſold that Day; that he conſiders 20 Shillings would have been a good Price to put it up at, and that 30 Shillings was not an extravagant Price; that if it had been ſet up at 20 Shillings, and three Bidders had appeared, they muſt have knocked it down at 23 Shillings if there had been no higher bidding that Day.

Q. Whether he is a Doctor of Medicine or Doctor in Divinity?

A. Doctor of Medicine.

Q. How long?

A. About ten Years.

Q. How he accounts that when there were a Number of Bidders at the Auction that muſt have ſeen the Map of the 12th February, 1790, and he having valued the Ground at two Guineas per Foot, ſuppoſing the Bidder to have been made acquainted with the intended Improvements,—that notwithſtanding there was no one to bid 31 Shillings on the 7th of February, 1791?

A. Believes it was owing to a general Diſlike that the Bidders had to the Ground being ſet up at ſo high a Price; but he believes if it had been ſet up at 20 Shillings it would have gone to two Guineas, from ſome Declarations he heard from a Mr. Robinſon.—That they thought if it was put up at a low Price, and but few Bidders attended, they might have got the Ground at a low Price, but he does not think that Conduct like a Combination.

Q. If the Bidders could contrive that the Commiſſioners ſhould ſet up their Grounds at 20 Shillings per Foot, if it were poſſible that there could exiſt a Combination amongſt them, might not they always get the Ground at 23 Shillings per Foot?

A. Certainly; but he ſuppoſes there can be no Combination amongſt Builders or Takers of Ground.

Q. Suppoſe he had an Eſtate that extended from Dorſet-ſtreet to Drumcondra-Bridge, ſhould he, or ſhould he not think it advantageous for the intermediate Parts, to have the diſtant ones firſt built?

A. Certainly it would be of Advantage to the intermediate Parts to have the diſtant Parts improved; but it would be throwing away a Part of the Value of the diſtant Parts, more than would counterbalance the Advantage to the intermediate Parts.

Q. Which does he think it would have been more for the Benefit of the Public to pay the Intereſt of £10,000 for eight or ten Years, or to ſet up the Lots in Beresford-place at public Auction, in order to diſcharge the Principal?

A. It would be better to diſpoſe of the Grounds in Beresford-place than to pay the Intereſt of £10,000 for eight or ten Years.

Q. If this Propoſal of Mr. Ottiwell was talked of publicly in the Coffee-Houſes immediately after it was made, could it be called a private Agreement?

A. He calls any Thing a private Agreement which is not mentioned to the Public, or ſold by Auction.

Q. Does he know what the Grounds contiguous to Mr. Ottiwell's, were ſetting for at that Time?

A. Does not know.

Q. How then can he pretend to ſay that 23 Shillings per Foot was notoriouſly under Value, when he formed no Compariſon between thoſe Grounds and the contiguous Grounds?

A. That he paid more for one Lot of Ground No. 5, on the Eaſt Side of the Continuation of Sackville-ſtreet, a Year and half before that Time.

Q. Does not he conſider Lots near the Bridge of a great deal more Value than Lots that are more diſtant?

A. That he ſhould think ſo, but the Fact is otherwiſe, as the more remote ones have ſet at as high a Price.

Q. Whether he has not built his Houſe for a Shop?

A. He has.

Q. Don't he conſider that Situations for Shops are more valuable, in Proportion to the Concourſe of People?

A. Certainly.

Q. Muſt there not be a greater Concourſe of People between Abbey-ſtreet and the Bridge than between any other Part of the Grounds let to Mr. Ottiwell?

A. Certainly there muſt.

Q. What Map he examined when he took that Lot?

A. The Map that was hung up in the Royal Exchange.

Q. Whether

Q. Whether he is the particular Friend of Mr. Ottiwell?

A. He is not.

Q. Whether he had any Diſagreement or Diſpute with him?

A. He had.

Q. What were the Materials valued at by Arbitration that ſtood upon his Lot and had been removed?

A. Believes from £100 to £130.

Q. What were the Extent of his Lots?

A. 18 Feet each.

Q. He mentioned to the Committee Yeſterday, that he had ſhewed the Compoſition which he read to the Committee to ſome Friends, who were they?

A. Mr. William Croſbie and Captain Cunningham.

Q. Did he ſhew it to Mr. Manders?

A. He believes he did not.

Q. Had he at any Time any Diſagreement with Mr. Ottiwell?

A. He had.

Q. Was that Diſagreement previous to his being examined before the laſt Committee?

A. It was.

Q. Did he during the Subſiſtance of that Diſagreement expreſs his Determination to be even with Mr. Ottiwell if the Matter in Diſpute was not ſettled agreeable to his Wiſhes?

A. He did.

Q. Did he ſay at that Time that he would procure a Petition to be ſigned and preſented to Parliament to expoſe the Tranſaction to the Public?

A. That he would endeavour to get a Petition ſigned to Parliament to have the Matter inveſtigated.

Q. Does he know Mr. Joſhua Manders who was examined before the Committee Yeſterday?

A. He does.

Q. Was he the Perſon appointed by him as his Referee?

A. He was appointed by the Arbitrators as Umpire.

Q. Whether he has taken ſome Grounds from Mr. Ottiwell?

A. He has.

Q. When he propoſed to Mr. Ottiwell for thoſe Grounds, did he proceed in the ſame Manner as he has declared it was his Intention of doing on the 7th of February, 1791, by offering for the Grounds without ſeeing the Map or informing himſelf of the particular Depth, or did he not frequently apply for Information upon this Subject and frequently conſult the Map?

A. He did not frequently conſult the Map before he had taken the two Lots, but he did conſult the Map before he had taken them.

Q. Would he have taken thoſe Lots without having ſeen the Map?

A. He certainly would not.

Q. Whether he made particular Enquiry concerning the Depth of thoſe Grounds?

A. He did, it was marked on the Map.

Mr. Charles Mulvany, ſworn and examined.

Q. Whether he has taken Grounds from Mr. Ottiwell between Henry-ſtreet and Prince's-ſtreet?

A. He has.

Q. At what Rate per Foot did he take them?

A. At £3: 5*s.* per Foot.

Q. Is not that a very high Rent for Grounds ſo ſituated?

A. It is.

Q. Is there any collateral Circumſtance that induced him to give ſo high a Rent?

A. There is; the Value of the Materials connected with thoſe Lots.

Q. Can he form any Opinion of what the Value of thoſe Materials may be?

A. That he can form an Opinion, that he reckons they may be a Saving of about £2000 in the Building.

Q. Would he have given £3: 5*s.* per Foot for thoſe Grounds if he had not conſidered thoſe Materials his own Property?

A. Certainly not.

Q. Is not Mr. Ottiwell bound to deliver him up thoſe Materials with the Ground?

A. He is.

Q. Would that Ground have brought as much as he is to pay if the Commiſſioners had ſet it up Lot by Lot?

A. He thinks not; that he would never have gone to the Commiſſioners of Wide Streets to have entered into ſo heavy an Engagement, and to have paid to them ſo great a Sum of Money as the Fourth of the Purchaſe would come to, agreeable to their former Mode of ſetting Grounds.

Q. Does he conceive that the Board in general could get as good a Price for thoſe Grounds as an Individual could?

A. He

A. He thinks they could not, becauſe an Individual can offer Inducements to a Speculator under him in various Ways, none of which could be offered by a public Board. The Individual can lend the Tenant Money, can take a greater or leſſer Sum as a Fine, can give Time for the Payment of the Fine, and by various Acts of private Friendſhip, offer Inducements to a Tenant to go under heavier Engagements than he would otherwiſe think of doing. That ſome Individuals can get more for Ground than others, from their greater Ability and greater Addreſs in colouring the Advantages of the Ground.

Q. Were not the Commiſſioners under ſome Difficulties at their Sales by Reaſon of Agreements amongſt the Bidders not to outbid each other?

A. He believes they have been often ſo, and the Reaſon why he believes it to be ſo, is, that he has been a Combinator himſelf: That the Lot which is now the Corner of Gardiner's-Row in the Barley Field was ſet up by the Board, ſubject to ſome Alteration of the Houſe ſtanding thereon; it was ſet up at £20 per Annum, after which he bid, and was out-bid: That he found in three or four Biddings the Perſon moſt likely to raiſe it high; he told that Perſon to let him buy it, at the Price it then ſtood at £28 per Annum, and that after it was knocked down to him he would toſs up with him for the Bargain; he was declared the Purchaſer, and loſt the Bargain.

Q. Was there any Riſe in the Value of Grounds on the North of the New Bridge ſubſequent to the Month of May, 1791?

A. There was a very conſiderable Riſe for a few Weeks after opening of the New Bridge for Foot-paſſengers; and he believes the Ground would have held that encreaſed Price but for the Depreſſion of public Credit, becauſe the Public expected the Bridge would have been immediately finiſhed and the Avenues opened to College-green.

Q. Does he conceive that Grounds had riſen during the Period he ſpeaks of, more than in a conſiderable Time before?

A. He believes they have; that at the Time he made his Bargain his Friends conceived it not to be very advantageous, but upon the opening the Bridge for Foot-paſſengers they thought otherwiſe.

Q. Is there no other Cauſe why the Value of Mr. Ottiwell's Ground is not ſo great as when he took it?

A. He thinks there is, he thinks the Enquiry of the Committee of laſt Seſſion has conſiderably injured Mr. Ottiwell and his Tenants.

Q. Was there not a rapid Riſe in the Value of Grounds all over the City in the Year 1791 and 1792?

A. There was.

Q. Has there not been as rapid a Fall ſince the War?

A. He believes there has.

Q. What does he think of his Bargain with Mr. Ottiwell at this Day?

A. If he was now to be put into Poſſeſſion he would think it a very bad Bargain.

Q. What he would have thought of Mr. Ottiwell's Bargain if the Depreſſion of public Credit had taken Place immediately after the Confirmation of his Agreement?

A. He believes it would have ruined him.

Q. Does he not think that Mr. Ottiwell's Bargain was but a hazardous Speculation at the Time that he made it, at the beſt?

A. Could the Commiſſioners have put him into Poſſeſſion of the whole of his Bargain, he would think it a very hazardous one.

Q. Could the Commiſſioners have put Mr. Ottiwell into Poſſeſſion of the whole of his Bargain with them until Money had been granted by Parliament to purchaſe the Grounds?

A. That they certainly could not, until they were enabled by Parliament or otherwiſe.

Q. Does he think that any Perſon but a Man of conſiderable Property which he could command, could make any Advantage of Mr. Ottiwell's Bargain?

A. He thinks not, as it is a very deep Speculation, and the Profits ought to be very conſiderable to warrant the Undertaking. That any Speculation involving a Property of one, two or three hundred thouſand Pounds, ought to be very profitable.

Q. How has the Enquiry of laſt Year affected him?

A. If he had been put into Poſſeſſion before that Enquiry it would have ruined him.

Q. If Mr. Ottiwell's Under-tenants were now to be put into Poſſeſſion of their Bargains, what would be their Situation?

A. A very bad one.

Q. Whether the Opinion he has now formed does not ariſe from the Depreſſion of public Credit?

A. Partly from the Depreſſion of public Credit and from the Continuation of the Streets to College-green not taking place, and partly from the Enquiry of the Committee; that if the Avenue on the South Side is not opened he would not pay Taxes for the Houſes in the new Line.

Mr.

Mr. William Cope ſworn and examined.

Q. Had he in his Hands building Grounds at the Time Mr. Ottiwell took the Grounds from the Commiſſioners?

A. He had.

Q. Did he take any Ground ſince?

A. He did from Mr. Moland in December 1791, adjoining the Ground which Mr. Ottiwell has agreed for with the Commiſſioners, and on the ſame Line with Gardiner-ſtreet.

Q. What he gives per Foot on the Building Front?

A. On the Building Front it ſtands him in about 8 Shillings per Foot, but he took it at a Lump Rent.

Q. What Depth does he mean to give with the Front that joins Mr. Ottiwell's Ground?

A. 150 Feet.

Q. Had he ever any Offer for the Ground that joins Mr. Ottiwell's in the ſame Line of the Street?

A. He had, ſome Time about the Middle of the Year 1792, at 30 Shillings per Foot, which he refuſed, as he expected to get 40 Shillings per Foot.

Q. What Rents Mr. Ottiwell pays for the Ground immediately joining his in Gardiner-ſtreet?

A. He is informed Mr. Ottiwell pays 13 Shillings per Foot.

Q. What Difference he thinks there is between his Ground and Mr. Ottiwell's Ground joining his?

A. He thinks his Ground a great deal more valuable.

Q. Did he know that the Grounds that were afterwards agreed to be let to Mr. Ottiwell were to be diſpoſed of, and had he any Thoughts of bidding for them?

A. He certainly did; they were publicly advertiſed, and Maps hung up in the Royal Exchange.—That he had not any Intention of bidding for them.

Q. Did he at that Period conceive that the Commiſſioners would treat for Ground not then in their Poſſeſſion?

A. It did not occur to him that they would.

Q. Does he know the Rents Mr. Ottiwell is to pay to the Commiſſioners?

A. He underſtands twenty-three Shillings per Foot for the Main Streets, and thirteen Shillings for the Croſs Streets.

Q. At the Time he took the Ground from Mr. Moland, which did he conſider his Bargain with him or Mr. Ottiwell's Bargain at the Time he made the Agreement with the Commiſſioners the beſt in Proportion to the Number of Feet in each?

A. For ſo much as his went, he conſiders his vaſtly ſuperior: that there was at that Time a general public Talk or Cenſure againſt the Commiſſioners for the ſetting to Mr. Ottiwell, and his Obſervation at that Time was, that it would remove all Poſſibility of Cenſure, his Take was ſo much inferior in Price.

Q. Was his Take from Mr. Moland pretty conſiderable?

A. About four thouſand Feet.

Q. Was there not in ſix or twelve Months after Mr. Ottiwell took from the Commiſſioners a very great Riſe?

A. There was a very great Riſe, and ſince a very great Fall.

Q. Has he not taken large Quantities of Ground in other Parts of the City?

A. He has.

Q. Is it uncommon in his Belief that thoſe who have taken Grounds have made by letting them again, double and treble the Rent at which they were originally taken?

A. The Fact is ſo from his own Knowledge.

Q. What are the Cauſes of the late Fall of Rents?

A. A great Damp brought on public Credit by the preſent War is one Cauſe, a Delay in opening the Avenues, bringing into Queſtion the Takes which have been granted, an Enquiry by the Houſe of Lords in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, and even this preſent Enquiry, has done him great Injury, as well as Mr. Ottiwell, and every other Perſon engaged in taking Ground, as it brings Doubts as to the Title, and whether the Avenues will ever be opened.

Q. If he is acquainted with the Object of the Enquiry inſtituted in the laſt Year by the Houſe of Lords, and this preſent Committee?

A. He underſtands it was calling in Queſtion the Right the Commiſſioners had to make the Agreement with Mr. Ottiwell.

Q. Whether he conceives it was one of the Objects of this Committee to interfere with his Bargain with Mr. Moland?

A. No, but it does it an Injury.

Q. Whether he has not ſet ſome of that Ground which he values at eight Shillings per Foot, at thirty Shillings per Foot?

A. He has.

Q. Whether he could not ſet more of that Ground at the ſame Rate, if he did not expect 40 Shillings per Foot?

A. He could.

Q. Whether the retarding the opening the Avenues, has not hurt him in his Take?

A. It certainly has.

Q. If Mr. Ottiwell had all the Grounds agreed for with the Commiſſioners now in his Hands, does he think he could let them for any conſiderable Profit?

A. He might let a very ſmall Part at a Profit, but it would be a very heavy Buſineſs.

Q. Does he think that when Mr. Ottiwell took theſe Grounds from the Commiſſioners, that he gave a fair Price for them?

A. He does think he did, becauſe of the Bargain that he had made himſelf, and becauſe Men who are very knowing in the City of Dublin would not give ſo much.

Q. Whether he does not think that if he or any other Perſon of equal Security had offered a better Price at the Time Mr. Ottiwell made his Propoſal, they would not have been accepted?

A. He thinks they would, as the Commiſſioners always wiſh to get the higheſt Price.

Q. Was not one of the Cauſes of the general Outcry againſt the Commiſſioners, that the Commiſſioners had ſet thoſe Grounds to Mr. Ottiwell, without advertiſing them, or giving the Public an Opportunity of bidding for them?

A. He did hear it was, but that his Take from Mr. Moland would ſtop all Cenſure on that Account.

Q. Whether another Cauſe of that Outcry was not, that the Commiſſioners had ſet Grounds to Mr. Ottiwell before they had obtained the Poſſeſſion, although they never in any other Inſtance had done ſo?

A. He heard ſo.

Q. Whether one of the other Cauſes was not that the Commiſſioners had ſet ſo large a Quantity of Ground to Mr. Ottiwell, though they had always before ſet their Grounds in detail?

A. He heard ſo.

Q. Whether another Cauſe was not that it had not been publicly known or imagined that the Commiſſioners would treat for any of thoſe Grounds of which they had not obtained the Poſſeſſion?

A. It was.

Q. Whether he does not believe that if the Grounds bought by him from Mr. Moland had been laid out in Lots by Mr. Moland previous to the Time of the Sale to Mr. Cope, and that they had been advertiſed to be ſet by public Cant at the Time they were ſold to Mr. Cope, he does not believe that they would have brought a much higher Rent than 8 Shillings per Foot?

A. No, becauſe they were laid out in Lots when he took them; that they were advertiſed by Mr. Moland to be let out in Lots, and that they made a very pretty Picture; that Mr. Alderman Read and others bid for them.

Q. Did he not conſider the Map of all the Grounds ſet to Mr. Ottiwell, laid out by the Surveyor of the Board, approved of by the Commiſſioners, and hung up in the Royal Exchange Coffee-Houſe for a conſiderable Time, as a Notice to the Public that the ſaid Grounds were to be diſpoſed of by the Commiſſioners, and that they were ready to receive Propoſals for them?

A. He did conſider it ſo, and as he had no Idea of building, he did not trouble himſelf about it.

Q. If he had had a Wiſh to deal for any of theſe Grounds deſcribed in the Map, with the Commiſſioners by private Contract, would he have heſitated to have ſent in his Propoſals to the Commiſſioners?

A. He would not.

Q. Whether ever he heard before of any Perſon whatſoever taking any Grounds from the Commiſſioners till after they had obtained Poſſeſſion?

A. That he did take ſome Ground in Dame-ſtreet by public Auction from the Commiſſioners, and he was obliged to give one of the Tenants 20 or 30 Guineas to obtain Poſſeſſion; that they had purchaſed the Ground, but the Man was not paid.

John Swan, Eſq. ſworn and examined.

Q. Whether is he one of the Commiſſioners of Wide Streets?

A. He is.

Q. Whether he is one of the Commiſſioners who attended the Board on the ſixth and thirteenth May, 1791?

A. He was.

Q. Whether on the ſixth of May, he was preſent when a Propoſal was opened from Mr. Ottiwell?

A. He was.

Q. Did he know what that Propoſal was before it was opened?

A. He did not.

Q. Was there on that Day an Eſtimate laid before the Board, of a Valuation of Streets Eaſt of Sackville-ſtreet made by Mr. Sherrard?

A. He does not recollect any ſuch Valuation.

Q. Does he recollect whether the Board was then informed that ſuch a Valuation had been made by Mr. Sherrard?

A. He does not recollect.

Q. Whether he recollects that that Valuation was laid before the Board on the 13th May, 1791, the Time Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal was accepted?

A. He does not recollect.

Q. Whether the Board was then informed that ſuch an Eſtimate had been made?

A. He does not believe it was.

Q. Whether if he had known that Mr. Sherrard had in the January preceding made a Valuation, by which it appeared that he valued the Grounds on the Eaſt Side of Sackville-ſtreet to amount to conſiderably more than the Propoſal which Mr. Ottiwell had given in for theſe Grounds and alſo the Grounds on the Weſt Side of Sackville-ſtreet, he would have thought that Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal ought to have been accepted of?

A. He might notwithſtanding have thought Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal might have been accepted of, and that he might have valued them higher than the real Value: That ſuppoſing he had ſeen the Valuation made by Mr. Sherrard, he would prefer a certain Sum of £108,587 to an uncertain Calculation of £113,870: That he found there was a Combination not to bid for the Grounds, and that after Mr. Ottiwell's Bargain was made, the Builders in general declared they would give more.

Q. Is not the Lot oppoſite the New Cuſtom-Houſe one of the beſt Lots of the whole Ground?

A. It is, and was put up at 30 Shillings per Foot, but there were not any Bidders.

Q. If he had been apprized of the Valuation, would he or would he not have thought Mr. Sherrard had been miſtaken in his Calculation?

A. He certainly would, from what paſſed at the Sale in 1791.

Q. Does he recollect at what Rate the Commiſſioners purchaſed from Mr. Eccles?

A. He does not.

Q. Has not one great Cauſe of the Expence to the Public in this Buſineſs been the Commiſſioners having their Ground left upon their Hands untenanted after they had purchaſed?

A. He thinks it has.

Q. Is not the beſt Expedient for that, to ſecure a Tenant for the Grounds immediately after they have purchaſed it?

A. It certainly is.

Q. What were the general Inducements that incited the Board to come to an Agreement with Mr. Ottiwell?

A. That they conceived it the beſt Thing they could do for the Public to bring it to a ſpeedy Concluſion: He attended at two Sales, and there were no Bidders, beſides being likely to have a vaſt Quantity of Ground upon their Hands, which of courſe would leſſen the Value of it.

Q. Whether the Board was not convinced that there was a Combination amongſt the Builders and Takers of Ground?

A. They were.

Q. What Quantity of Ground was in the Poſſeſſion of the Commiſſioners on the 7th of February, 1791?

A. He cannot exactly aſcertain it.

Q. Whether he ever knew, prior to the 7th of February, 1791, any Inſtance where the Commiſſioners got Poſſeſſion of any Ground which they had purchaſed, that they did did not either ſet by Auction or by private Contract ſoon after the Time at which they got into Poſſeſſion of the ſame, except thoſe Grounds advertiſed on the 7th of February, 1791?

A. He does not recollect.

Q. That when Grounds are put into the Poſſeſſion of the Commiſſioners, muſt they not be ſubject to the Intereſt of the Money agreed to be paid for the Purchaſes?

A. They muſt.

Q. If a Combination is entered into by the Builders not to bid for their Ground, unleſs the Commiſſioners can counteract that Combination, are they not driven to the Alternative of giving their Ground to the Builders at their own Price, or of holding it in their Poſſeſſion ſubject to an accumulating Loſs to the Public?

A. They certainly are.

Andrew Caldwell, Eſq. ſworn and examined.

Q. Whether he is one of the Commiſſioners of Wide Streets?

A. He is.

Q. Was he preſent at the Board on the 13th May, 1791, the Day on which Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal was accepted?

A. He was.

Q. Whether he recollects that the Valuation made by Mr. Sherrard was laid before the Board on that Day?

A. He cannot poſitively ſay; but there was ſome Eſtimate laid before the Board from the Commiſſioners of the Revenue.

Q. Whether Mr. Sherrard is not a Man very much confided in by the Board for his Knowledge in valuing Grounds?

A. He is, and the Board have great Confidence in him.

Q. If he had ſeen that Eſtimate and known that it exceeded the Value of the whole of the Grounds according to the Rates propoſed by Mr. Ottiwell, although it did not include the Value of the Grounds propoſed for by Mr. Ottiwell on the Weſt Side of Sackville-ſtreet, he would have thought it right to accept Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal?

A. That the Board were almoſt unanimous in agreeing to Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal, as they thought the Eſtimates that were made very doubtful and uncertain whether they would produce as much, and they thought it more advantageous to the Public to make a ſecure Bargain.

Q. Whether he knew at that Time at how much Mr. Sherrard had in his Eſtimate to Parliament valued the Grounds on the Weſt Side of Sackville-ſtreet, included in Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal?

A. He cannot recollect from the Diſtance of Time ſince the Tranſaction.

Q. Whether if he had entertained any Doubt concerning the Power of the Commiſſioners to ſet their Grounds until ſuch Time as they ſhould have purchaſed the ſame, and acquired the Poſſeſſion thereof, he would have agreed to have accepted the ſaid Propoſal until ſuch Time as the Opinion of Counſel ſhould have been taken thereupon?

A. He never entertained an Opinion that the Commiſſioners could ſet Grounds which did not belong to them, nor had come into their Poſſeſſion, but he thought they might make a general Agreement to diſpoſe of them at a certain Rate, provided they ever ſhould come into their Poſſeſſion: That he thought at that Time the Commiſſioners had made ſo good a Bargain for the Public, that there was no Probability that an higher Price would have been offered: That the Commiſſioners had been a long Time of Opinion that very ſtrong Combinations had been formed againſt them: That they were compelled to purchaſe at what they thought a very high Rate; and though they never expected the Public to be fully reimburſed, yet they were generally diſſatisfied with the Rates at which they ſold: They thought the Public loſt too much in the Difference between buying and ſelling. What greatly influenced the Commiſſioners in making this Bargain with Mr. Ottiwell, was, they found they could not procure 30 Shillings per Foot for ſome of the fineſt and moſt valuable Lots that were to be found in this or any other City: They thought what they had been offered upon the whole was a very fair Propoſal, becauſe though 23 Shillings per Foot were too cheap for the Lots that were put up to Auction, yet when they could not obtain 30 Shillings per Foot for them, 23 Shillings per Foot for the whole, and the moſt diſtant Lots was an advantageous Bargain at that Time. From what has ſince happened, he ſhould have Hopes they might have made a better Bargain for the Public, but it is a Matter of Uncertainty, becauſe if the Combination ſubſiſted it would be juſt the ſame.

Q. How it came that if the Commiſſioners were willing to accept of Propoſals for ſuch Grounds as were not come into their Poſſeſſion, it was not made publicly known by Advertiſement?

A. The Reaſon was, that they found advertiſing and a public Sale was attended with no Advantage: That the Map of the 12th of November, 1790, contains in it all the Ground included in Mr. Ottiwell's Agreement and more: That it was made by Order of the Commiſſioners to ſignify to the Public the Ground that they meant to let, and to get into their Poſſeſſion.

Q. Does he recollect at the Board that any Order was given for advertiſing for receiving Propoſals for Ground which the Commiſſioners were willing to let by private Contract?

A. He does not recollect, but he refers to the Minutes.

Q. Does he recollect at the Time of Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal having been conſidered by the Board, Mr. Beresford ſtated the Whole of the Buſineſs fully from Eſtimates made by Mr. Darley and Mr. Sherrard?

A. He recollects that Mr. Beresford entered very fully into the Buſineſs, and ſtated different Eſtimates, but can't at this Diſtance of Time ſay whoſe Names he made Uſe of: That he ſhewed to the Board that it was the moſt likely Method to expedite the Improvements, and they were often ſenſible that the Public thought they were too ſlow in their Proceedings.

Q. Does he recollect whether Mr. Beresford acquainted him that there was a Propoſal for the Whole of the Ground previous to Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal being laid before the Board?

A. That the ſame Day of the Auction he called upon Mr. Beresford; that he was very much diſappointed and vexed; Mr. Beresford deſired him not to be vexed, as there was a great Propoſal coming forward.

Frederick Trench, Eſq. ſworn and examined.

Q. Whether he is one of the Commiſſioners of Wide Streets?

A. He is.

Q. Whether he attended the Board on the 13th of May?

A. He believes he did.

Q. Whether he recollects ſeeing an Eſtimation made by Mr. Sherrard at the Board?

A. He never ſaw it.

Q. Is not Mr. Sherrard a Perſon employed by the Board, in whoſe Valuations the Commiſſioners have great Confidence?

A. He is, and a Perſon in whom the Board have great Confidence, and that he has great Confidence in him.

Mr. John Glynn, ſworn and examined.

Q. Has he taken any Ground from Mr. Ottiwell?

A. That he took 264 Feet at £2: 18*s.* 4*d.* per Foot, Weſt Side of Sackville-ſtreet.

Q. What were his Inducements for giving ſo high a Price?

A. He would not have given quite ſo much, but for the Materials that were on the Grounds; that he conceives his Grounds to be the beſt Grounds Mr. Ottiwell had to ſet in Sackville-ſtreet, excluſive of the Materials. That the whole Rent he is to pay Mr. Ottiwell is £770 a Year.

Q. Has he derived any Advantages from Mr. Ottiwell which he could not have expected to derive from the Board?

A. He has many; when he went to Mr. Ottiwell his Intention was to take only one Lot, but he was induced to take more from the Advantages Mr. Ottiwell offered him; one of which was his giving him more Time for building than he had himſelf from the Commiſſioners, and otherwiſe aſſiſting him ſince; that he believes Mr. Ottiwell is now ſubject to pay Rent, and that he has not commenced Rent; that Mr. Ottiwell has frequently aſſiſted him with Money to enable him to carry on his Buildings.

Q. Does he think Mr. Ottiwell got a great Bargain from the Commiſſioners at the Time he made his Agreement with them?

A. He thinks that from the many Obſtacles that Mr. Ottiwell had to encounter, and from the low Price which large Takes of Ground have ſet at, before and ſince, that he paid a fair Price for the Ground.

Q. Does he think that Mr. Ottiwell, from his Conduct to his Tenantry, has made more of his Ground than moſt other Men could do?

A. He has many Reaſons for thinking, that very few Men could make near ſo much of the Ground as Mr. Ottiwell.

Q. Does he know a Gentleman who is called Doctor Waite?

A. He does.

Q. Has he ever heard him expreſs himſelf in any Manner in reſpect to Mr. Ottiwell?

A. He has—He has heard Doctor Waite ſay, while a Difference ſubſiſted between him and Mr. Ottiwell, that if the Buſineſs was not ſettled to his Satisfaction, he would inſtitute a Petition to be preſented to Parliament, to expoſe the Buſineſs, or Words to that Effect: That he has laid out conſiderable Sums of Money on Grounds that he has taken from Mr. Ottiwell.—At the Time that he began, he expected the New Bridge would be opened for Carriages about March, 1793. That he was offered £400 Fine, and £100 a Year, for one of the Houſes which he has built, before he knew of this Enquiry being inſtituted, and that ſince that Time the Perſon who made the Offer, told him he would have nothing to do with a doubtful Title: That he has been told by ſeveral Perſons, that he would loſe his Ground and Houſes, inſomuch that he has ſome Notion of laying a Caſe before Counſel.

Q. If he conceives the Perſon who offered him a Fine of £400 and £100 a Year Rent, would become his Tenant at that Price, ſuppoſing this Enquiry had never taken Place, until Carliſle-bridge and the Avenues leading to it were opened?

A. He certainly does, as he did offer it already.

Mr. Richard Harman ſworn and examined.

Q. Did he at any Time take any Grounds on Summer-hill?

A. He did in 1789.

Q. At how much per Foot?

A. At ſix Shillings.

Q. Could he have had any more at that Time?

A. He could.

Q. What the ſame Ground which he could have in 1789 for 6 Shillings per Foot, was ſetting for in the Year 1792?

A. He has been informed that the Ground was ſetting at that Time for 20 Shillings per Foot.

Q. Did Mr. Beresford preſs him to take any Grounds in Beresford-place, and at what Price?

A. He did about the Time the Grounds were ſet up at Auction, at a Guinea and a half per Foot; and he thought the Ground might ſet at that Price in that Place, but he did not chooſe to ſpeculate at that Time.

Q. Did Mr. Beresford ever tell him that he had received an Offer of 22 Shillings per Foot for the Main Streets, and 12 Shillings for the bye Streets, in the Avenues leading from the Bridge to the Cuſtom-houſe?

A. He did tell him ſo.

Q. Did he ever commiſſion him to enquire at what Price Grounds were ſet at in Glouceſter-ſtreet?

A. He did; he believes it was a good while before Mr. Ottiwell's Agreement in that Year that he made the Enquiry, and found that the Grounds in Glouceſter-ſtreet were ſetting at twelve Shillings per Foot, and he acquainted Mr. Beresford of it.

Q. Was he preſent at the Auction at the Time that the Lots in Beresford-place were ſet up?

A. He was.

Q. Does he recollect who the Perſon was that acted as Auctioneer?

A. A Mr. Sherrard.

Q. Does he recollect that there were any Bidders on that Day.?

A. He does not recollect there was one.

Q. Whether the Converſation he had with Mr. Beresford was before or after the Auction?

A. He believes it was between the Time of the Auction and the Agreement with Mr. Ottiwell.

Q. Did he know by whom the Propoſal was made?

A. He did not.—He did not know that Mr. Ottiwell was about taking the Ground till he heard he had taken it.

Mr. John Hart ſworn and examined.

Q. Has he taken any Grounds on the North Strand, and when and where?

A. That he took them about the Beginning of the Year 1790; that they are nearly oppoſite the Cuſtom-Houſe Dock; that he pays for ſome ſix Shillings per Foot, and for ſome eight Shillings per Foot; that he has let ſome of thoſe Grounds at ten Shillings per Foot in the Year 1792.

Q. When Mr. Ottiwell took his Grounds, does he think he gave a fair Price for them?

A. He thinks he did.

Q. If Mr. Ottiwell had offered him a Part of his Bargain, would he have been glad to have accepted of it?

A. He thinks not.

Q. Have the Grounds in that Quarter fallen in Value within theſe twelve Months?

A. They have.

Q What does he conſider the Cauſe of Depreſſion in the Value of Grounds?

A. He

A. He thinks the War is a principal Cauſe, and the Delay in opening the Avenues on the South Side of the River; another Cauſe of lowering the Value of Ground, is the Delay the Improvements met with.

Q. Whether the Delay in opening the Avenues on the North Side of the River, is not an Injury to his Grounds whoſe Title is not in Queſtion?

A. The Improvements being ſtopped and the Avenues not opened, he conceives an Injury to him.

Ald. James Hamilton ſworn and examined.

Q. Is he not one of the Commiſſioners for Wide Streets?

A. He is.

Q. Did he attend the Board on the 13th May, 1791?

A. He did.

Q. Whether he recollects that on that Day any Valuation by Mr. Sherrard was produced?

A. Does not recollect ſeeing any ſuch Valuation.

Mr. Henry Ottiwell ſworn and examined.

Q. Whether he did not give in a Propoſal for all the Grounds on the North Side of the River which had not been before ſet by the Commiſſioners?

A. He does not know but they might have been more than he propoſed for; that he believes all in the Map except thoſe Parts which are marked yellow.

Q. How long before his giving in his Propoſal to the Board, had he it in Contemplation to give in that Propoſal?

A. That he went to bid for ſome of thoſe Grounds at public Auction about three Years before he gave in that Propoſal, and it appeared to him at that Time, that it was a Party Buſineſs among the Builders; and a Perſon not of that Profeſſion had no Chance of getting the Grounds. He then ceaſed from thinking any more of them, till about ſix, ſeven or eight Months previous to his giving that Propaſal.—That he wrote to a Perſon who lived with Lord Ormond, who he conceived to be very well ſkilled in the Value of Grounds, to come to him; that he came to him, and that he told him there was a Knot amongſt the Builders, and that he wiſhed to propoſe for the whole.—That he took him over the Grounds, and deſired his Advice what he ſhould offer for them.—That he told him if he exceeded 30 Shillings for the Main Streets and about 15 or 16 Shillings for the bye Streets, it would be a very ſerious and heavy Buſineſs. He then judged that it would be a good Thing to give him a Share if he took them, he told him that he would not venture; that he then returned to the Country, and in the Interim he prepared his Propoſal and gave it to Mr. Sherrard to lay before the Board.

Q. If he can recollect how long the Gentleman was making the Valuation?

A. He believes he was about a Week.

Q. Whether he ever communicated his Intention to any of the Commiſſioners, of giving in his Propoſal previous to the Time of giving it to Mr. Sherrard?

A. He did.

Q. Can he recollect how long he communicated his Intention previous to the Time of his giving in his Propoſal?

A. He cannot recollect.

Q. Did he give in a Propoſal for theſe Grounds to one of the Commiſſioners of Wide Streets previous to his giving it in to the Board?

A. That he was unacquainted with the Form of Application.—That he thought any of the Commiſſioners would take it, but he offered it to two of them and they refuſed to take it.

Q. Who are the Commiſſioners who refuſed to take it?

A. Mr. Beresford, (and he believes Lord Donoughmore.) That Mr. Beresford refuſed to take it, and told him at the ſame Time that it was ſo low, that the Board would not receive it if he did not offer more.

Q. Whether he offered to Mr. Beresford a ſecond Propoſal in which he encreaſed his Offer?

A. That the Propoſal he gave in to the Board was ſomewhat more, but not within £5000 or £6000 of that which Mr. Beresford wanted him to make: He ſuppoſes to meet ſome Calculation that was made for the Board.

He don't think to the beſt of his Recollection Mr. Beresford ſaw his ſecond Propoſal, till it was given in to the Board, but he can't ſay at this Diſtance of Time whether he did or did not, but is rather inclined to think he did not.

Q. Whether he did not entertain a Doubt, before he gave in his Propoſal, whether the Board would treat with him for Ground, which had never been valued and was not in their Poſſeſſion?

A. He never entertained a Doubt but the Board had very good and lawful Authority to treat with him, or he never ſhould have made the Propoſal.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

To theſe Bills, the Deputy Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

"Le Roy le veult."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament as follows, viz:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THE important Objects which engaged your Attention being concluded, I am enabled to relieve you from further Attendance in Parliament.

I have his Majeſty's Commands to expreſs his moſt entire Satisfaction in the Zeal and Unanimity which have governed your Proceedings during the preſent Seſſion, and the Chearfulneſs with which you have provided for the extraordinary Emergencies of the State. This Conduct ſo honorable to yourſelves, muſt eſſentially tend to preſerve the internal Tranquillity of your Country, to maintain that free Conſtitution under which you enjoy ſuch ineſtimable Bleſſings, and is highly beneficial to the general Intereſts of the Empire, and the common Cauſe of Europe.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I am directed by his Majeſty to return you his Thanks for the very liberal Supplies you have voted for the public Service: you may rely on their faithful Application to the Purpoſes for which they were granted.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

His Majeſty feels with the moſt cordial Pleaſure, the Loyalty of his People of Ireland, and the affectionate Determination they have always ſhewn to ſtand and fall with Great Britain. In the Conteſt in which we are engaged by the unprovoked Aggreſſion of France, Meaſures of the moſt vigorous Nature continue to be requiſite, and his Majeſty will perſevere in his Exertions in Conjunction with his Allies againſt the common Enemy. Under the Divine Providence, on the Juſtice of his Cauſe, on the diſciplined Valour of his Fleets and Armies, and the united Efforts of all his Subjects, his Majeſty relies for a favourable Iſſue to a War, which, on the Part of our Enemies, is waged againſt the envied Liberty of theſe Kingdoms, and the eſtabliſhed Government of every State in Europe.

I applaud your Wiſdom in paſſing an Act for preſerving the Property within this Kingdom of Perſons reſident in France, from becoming the Plunder of thoſe who have uſurped the Government of that unhappy Country. It is peculiarly our Duty to ſupport the Security of private Property, and to maintain the Principles of Juſtice, when Doctrines have been advanced, and Attempts endeavoured to be carried into Execution for the Deſtruction of both.

I am ſorry to inform you that in ſome Parts of the County of Cork, the People deluded by the Artifices of wicked and deſigning Men, have aſſembled in numerous Bodies, and have compelled many to take unlawful Oaths. The timely Exertions of the Magiſtrates, aided by the ſpirited Conduct of his Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces, have nearly ſuppreſſed thoſe Diſturbances. No Attention ſhall be wanting on my Part to the Protection of the peaceable and induſtrious, and to the Puniſhment of Offenders againſt the Law, and eſpecially of thoſe who have inſtigated the Ignorant to the Commiſſion of ſuch dangerous Crimes.

The early Concluſion of the Seſſion will enable you in your reſpective Counties, to enforce a due Obedience to the Laws, and to inculcate that Spirit of Loyalty to the King, and Attachment to our happy Conſtitution, which has ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed your Conduct.

I am truly ſenſible of the repeated Teſtimonies I have received of your Confidence and Support, for which I return you my moſt ſincere Thanks, and ſhall endeavour to enſure their Continuance, by employing every Power with which I am inveſted, for the Maintenance of the public Tranquillity, and the Advantage of this Kingdom, and by faithfully repreſenting to his Majeſty your unremitting Attention to the Welfare of Ireland, and your unanimous Exertions for the general Cauſe of the Empire.

After which the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the twenty-ſeventh Day of May next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the twenty-ſeventh Day of May next. Parliament prorogued.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

His Excellency William Earl Fitz-William, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Duke of Leinſter carrying the Cap of Maintenance, and the Marquis of Waterford the Sword of State; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, 'till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

The Lord Chancellor kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and then ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint the Commons that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in this Houſe.

And the Commons being come, they with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IN obedience to his Majeſty's Commands, I reſort to your Councils, at a Period which, in a peculiar Manner, calls for the Wiſdom and Energy of Parliament.

His Majeſty's Determination is fixed. As long as he is ſupported by his faithful Subjects, he never will be wanting to them or to himſelf. His Majeſty has no Intereſt but that of his People; no Views but for their Happineſs; no Object but their general Safety.

The uniform Tenor of your Conduct has demonſtrated that you will not only be deſirous, but zealous, to ſecond and emulate the Magnanimity of a Sovereign, formed to lead a Nation, that has ever been as firm to aſſert its Liberties, as affectionately devoted to a Government, which maintains its own Authority for the ſole Purpoſe of ſupporting thoſe Liberties. As you are thus cordially attached to that Sovereign, and to the Conſtitution, which it is his Glory to protect, I have to announce to you with true Satisfaction, what you will hear with equal Pleaſure, the intended Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, with the Princeſs Carolina-Amelia-Elizabeth, Daughter of his moſt illuſtrious Highneſs the Duke of Brunſwick and Lunenburgh, a Princeſs of that illuſtrious Houſe to whoſe mild and conſtitutional Sway theſe Kingdoms are highly indebted for the Bleſſings they enjoy: This Marriage promiſes the Perpetuation of the ſame Bleſſings under the ſame Houſe.

I have it alſo in Command to inform you, that his Majeſty has concluded a Treaty of Amity, Commerce and Navigation, with the United States of America, in which it has been his Majeſty's Object to remove, as far as poſſible, all Grounds of Jealouſy and Miſunderſtanding, and to improve an Intercourſe beneficial to both States. As ſoon as the Ratification of this Treaty ſhall have been exchanged, and I ſhall have received a Copy of it, I will direct it to be laid before you, in order that you may conſider, if it will be neceſſary to make any Proviſions for carrying into Effect a Treaty, in which the Commerce of this Kingdom is ſo materially and extenſively intereſted.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have directed the Eſtimates for the public Service, and the State of the public Accounts, to be laid before you.

His Majeſty has that aſſured Confidence, grounded on a long and uniform Experience of your Loyalty, and your Zeal for his Service and the Good of your Country, that I think it unneceſſary to preſs you, in any particular Manner, to make a Proviſion adequate to the preſent awful Situation of Affairs.

It is with Pleaſure I acquaint you, that the Proviſion will, in ſome Degree, be facilitated by the Circumſtance, that during the Exiſtence of ſuch a War as the preſent, the public Revenue, together with the Commerce of the Kingdom, has kept up, and has been even augmented: Advantages which are due to the Care and Vigilance of our Sovereign, in the general Protection provided by him for all his Subjects.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I earneſtly recommend to you a Continuance of the laudable Pains you have conſtantly taken to cultivate all your domeſtic Advantages in Commerce, in Manufacture, and in ſuch public Works as have appeared directed to promote thoſe important Objects. Theſe are the true Foundations of all public Revenue and public Strength. Your Endeavours have had their Fruit. The great Staple Manufacture of this Kingdom has encreaſed beyond the moſt ſanguine Expectations: An Advantage principally owing to the conſtant Superintendance and wiſe Proviſions of the Parliament of Ireland; and next to thoſe, to the aſſured liberal and moſt merited Encouragement which it receives, in the rich and extenſive Market of Great Britain; a Circumſtance tending to cement the Union, and to perfect the Harmony, which happily ſubſiſts, and, I truſt, will ſubſiſt for ever, between the two Kingdoms.

Attached as you are to the general Cauſe of Religion, Learning and Civilization, I have to recommend to your Conſideration the State of Education in this Kingdom, which in ſome Parts will admit of Improvement, in others may require ſome new Arrangement. Conſiderable Advantages have been already derived, under the wiſe Regulations of Parliament, from the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and theſe will, as uſual, claim your Attention: But as theſe Advantages have been but partial, and as Circumſtances have made other Conſiderations, connected with this important Subject, highly neceſſary, it is hoped, that your Wiſdom will order every Thing relating to it, in the Manner moſt beneficial, and the beſt adapted to the Occaſions of the ſeveral Deſcriptions of Men, which compoſe his Majeſty's faithful Subjects of Ireland.

We are engaged in an arduous Conteſt. The Time calls not only for great Fortitude, and an unuſual Share of public Spirit, but for much Conſtancy and Perſeverance. You are engaged with a Power, which, under the antient Forms of its internal Arrangement, was always highly formidable to the neighbouring Nations. Lately this Power has aſſumed a new Shape: But with the ſame Ambition, with much more extenſive and ſyſtematic Deſigns, far more effective, and, without Compariſon, more dreadful in the certain Conſequences of its eventual Succeſs, it threatens nothing leſs than the entire Subverſion of the Liberty and Independence of every State in Europe. An Enemy to them all, it is actuated with a peculiar Animoſity againſt theſe Kingdoms, not only as the natural Protection of the Balance of Power in Europe, but alſo, becauſe, by the Poſſeſſion of a legal, humane and rational Freedom, we ſeem to reproach that falſe and ſpurious Liberty, which, in reality, is an ignominious Servitude, tending to extinguiſh all good Arts, to generate nothing but Impiety, Crime, Diſorder and ferocious Manners, and to end in Wretchedneſs and general Deſolation.

To guard his People from the Enterpriſes of this dangerous and malignant Power, and for the Protection of all civilized Society againſt the Inroads of Anarchy, his Majeſty has availed himſelf of every rational Aid, foreign and domeſtic: He has called upon the Skill, Courage and Experience of all his Subjects, whereſoever diſperſed: And you muſt be duly ſenſible, in ſuch a Criſis as the preſent, which rarely occurs in the Courſe of human Affairs, of the Advantage of his Majeſty's thus endeavouring to profit of the united Strength and Zeal of every Deſcription of his Subjects.

I have to aſſure you of his Majeſty's moſt cheerful Concurrence in every Meaſure which your Wiſdom and comprehenſive Patriotiſm ſhall point out for this ſalutary Purpoſe.

On my Part you ſhall find me, from Principle and from Inclination, thoroughly diſpoſed to concur with his Majeſty's paternal Wiſhes, and with the wiſe Meaſures of its Parliament. On a cordial Affection to the whole of Ireland, and on a Conduct ſuitable to that Sentiment, I wiſh to found my own perſonal Eſtimation and my Reputation, in the Execution of the great Truſt committed by the moſt beneficent of Sovereigns to my Care.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table;

Speech to be printed.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to declare our warmeſt and unfeigned Attachment to his Royal Perſon, Family and Government, and to offer to his Majeſty our ſincere and humble Thanks for reſorting to our Councils at a Period, which in a peculiar Manner calls for the Wiſdom and Energy of Parliament.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we moſt ſenſibly feel that by his Majeſty's Appointment of our preſent moſt excellent Chief Governor, his Majeſty has given a new and affecting Proof of the conſtant Attention and parental Kindneſs which always directs his Majeſty's Conduct towards his grateful People of Ireland.

To repreſent to his Majeſty that the uniform Tenor of his Reign has clearly proved to his faithful Subjects, that his Majeſty has ever conſidered the Intereſt of his People as his own, that he has no Views but for their Happineſs, and no Object but their general Safety; and to aſſure his Majeſty that we ſhall ſhall moſt earneſtly and zealouſly ſecond the Magnanimity of a Sovereign formed to lead a Nation that has ever been as firm to aſſert its Liberties, as affectionately devoted to a Government, which maintains its own Authority for the ſole Purpoſe of ſupporting thoſe Liberties.

To expreſs to his Majeſty, that cordially attached as we are to his Majeſty and that happy Conſtitution which it is his Glory to protect, we learn with the utmoſt Satisfaction the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales with the Princeſs Carolina-Amelia-Elizabeth, Daughter of his Moſt Illuſtrious Highneſs the Duke of Brunſwick and Lunenburgh, a Princeſs of that Illuſtrious Houſe to whoſe mild and conſtitutional Sway theſe Kingdoms are highly indebted for the Bleſſings they enjoy, and which promiſes the Perpetuation of the ſame Bleſſings under the ſame Houſe.

To inform his Majeſty that we learn with the ſincereſt Pleaſure that his Majeſty has concluded a Treaty of Amity, Commerce and Navigation with the United States of America, in which we are convinced his Majeſty's Object has been to remove as far as poſſible all Grounds of Jealouſy and Miſunderſtanding, and to promote a beneficial Intercourſe between the two States; and we entertain no Doubt that when we ſhall have conſidered the Proviſions of the Treaty, we ſhall be deſirous to purſue whatever Meaſures may be neceſſary on our Part to give it Effect.

To aſſure his Majeſty that we ſhall continue to cultivate all our domeſtic Advantages in Commerce, in Manufactures and in ſuch public Works as have appeared calculated to promote theſe important Objects, which are the only true Foundations of public Revenue and of public Strength. That we reflect with the greateſt Satisfaction upon the Succeſs of our Endeavours for the Promotion of thoſe Objects, and view with peculiar Joy the Increaſe of our great Staple Manufacture; an Increaſe commenſurate with our Efforts, but exceeding our moſt ſanguine Expectations, and which has been moſt materially aſſiſted by the Encouragement it receives in the rich and extenſive Market of Great Britain, a Circumſtance tending to cement the Union and perfect the Harmony which ſo happily ſubſiſts, and we truſt will for ever ſubſiſt between the two Kingdoms.

That attached as we are to the general cauſe of Religion, Learning and Civilization, we ſhall conſider with an anxious Attention the preſent State of Education in this Kingdom; and as conſiderable Advantages have been derived from the Proteſtant Charter Schools, they ſhall receive as uſual our merited Regard, but as theſe Advantages have been but partial, we ſhall endeavour to order every Thing relating to this moſt important Object in the Manner moſt beneficial, and the beſt adapted to the Occaſions of the ſeveral Deſcriptions of Men which compoſe his Majeſty's faithful Subjects in Ireland.

That we are ſenſible we are engaged in an arduous Conteſt, and that the Time calls not only for great Fortitude, and an unuſual Share of public Spirit, but for much Conſtancy and Perſeverance; that we are engaged with a Power, which under the antient Forms of its internal Arrangement, was always highly formidable to the neighbouring Nations, which has of late aſſumed indeed another Shape, but with the ſame Ambition, with much more extenſive and ſyſtematic Deſigns, with Means far more effective, and without Compariſon more dreadful, as the certain Conſequence of its eventual Succeſs, threatens nothing leſs than the entire Subverſion of the Liberty and Independence of every State in Europe; that an Enemy to them all, it is actuated with a peculiar Animoſity againſt theſe Kingdoms, not only as a natural Protection of the Balance of Power in Europe, but alſo becauſe by the Poſſeſſion of a legal, humane and rational Freedom, we ſeem to reproach that falſe and ſpurious Liberty, which in Reality is an ignominious Servitude, tending to extinguiſh all good Arts, to generate nothing but Impiety, Crime, Diſorder and ferocious Manners, and to end in Wretchedneſs and Deſolation.

To expreſs to his Majeſty our heartfelt Thanks for his Majeſty's having, in order to guard his People from the Enterprizes of this dangerous and malignant Enemy, and for the Protection of all civilized Society againſt the Inroads of Anarchy, availed himſelf of every rational Aid, foreign and domeſtic; and that in a Criſis ſuch as the preſent, which has rarely occurred in human Affairs, his Majeſty has thought fit to call upon the Skill, Courage and Experience of all his Subjects whereſoever diſperſed, and thus endeavoured to profit of the united Strength and Zeal of all his People; and to aſſure his Majeſty that he may depend upon our cheerful Concurrence in every Meaſure which may tend to the Accompliſhment of ſo ſalutary a Purpoſe.

Ordered, that the Earl of Portarlington, and all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning at ten o'Clock, in the Committee Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency William Earl Fitz-william, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of this Kingdom, to return his Excellency our Thanks for his Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

Ordered, that the Earl of Charlemont, and all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning at eleven o'Clock, in the Committee Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Return from Office of Arms,

The Houſe being informed, that Ulſter King of Arms attended,

He was called in, and delivered at the Bar,

A Return from the Office of Arms; alſo a correct Liſt of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Peereſſes of Ireland.

And then he withdrew.

And the Titles thereof being read by the Clerk;

and

Ordered, that the ſaid Return and Liſt do lie on the Table.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Declarations of our warmeſt and moſt unfeigned Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, and to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere and humble Thanks, for reſorting to our Councils at a Period, which in a peculiar Manner calls for the Wiſdom and Energy of Parliament.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we moſt ſenſibly feel, that by your Majeſty's Appointment of our preſent moſt excellent Chief Governor, your Majeſty has given a new and affecting Proof of the conſtant Attention and parental Kindneſs, which always directs your Majeſty's Conduct towards your grateful People of Ireland.

We gratefully acknowledge to your Majeſty, that the uniform Tenor of your Majeſty's Reign has clearly proved to your faithful Subjects, that your Majeſty has ever conſidered the Intereſt of your People as your own, that your Majeſty has no Views but for their Happineſs, and no Object but their general Safety, and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall moſt earneſtly and zealouſly ſecond the Magnanimity of a Sovereign formed to lead a Nation, that has ever been as firm to aſſert its Liberties, as affectionately devoted to a Government which maintains its own Authority, for the ſole Purpoſe of ſupporting thoſe Liberties.

Cordially attached as we are to your Majeſty and that happy Conſtitution, which it is your Majeſty's Glory to protect, we learn with the utmoſt Satisfaction the intended Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, with the Princeſs Carolina-Amelia-Elizabeth, Daughter of his Moſt Illuſtrious Highneſs the Duke of Brunſwick and Lunenburgh, a Princeſs of that Illuſtrious Houſe, to whoſe mild and conſtitutional Sway theſe Kingdoms are highly indebted for the Bleſſings they enjoy, and which promiſes the Perpetuation of the ſame Bleſſings under the ſame Houſe.

We learn with the ſincereſt Pleaſure, that your Majeſty has concluded a Treaty of Amity, Commerce and Navigation with the United States of America, in which we are convinced your Majeſty's Object has been to remove as far as poſſible all Grounds of Jealouſy and Miſunderſtanding, and to promote a beneficial Intercourſe between the two States; and we entertain no Doubt, that when we ſhall have conſidered the Proviſions of the Treaty, we ſhall be deſirous to purſue whatever Meaſures may be neceſſary on our Part to give it Effect.

We aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall continue to cultivate all our domeſtic Advantages in Commerce, in Manufactures, and in ſuch public Works as have appeared calculated to promote thoſe important Objects, which are the only true Foundations of public Revenue, and public Strength. We reflect with the greateſt Satisfaction upon the Succeſs of our Endeavours for the Promotion of thoſe Objects, and view with peculiar Joy the Increaſe of our great Staple Manufacture, an Increaſe commenſurate with our Efforts, but exceeding our moſt ſanguine Expectations, and which has been moſt materially aſſiſted by the Encouragement it receives in the rich and extenſive Market of Great Britain, a Circumſtance tending to cement the Union, and perfect the Harmony which ſo happily ſubſiſts, and we truſt will for ever ſubſiſt between the two Kingdoms.

Attached as we are to the general Cauſe of Religion, Learning and Civilization, we ſhall conſider with an anxious Attention the preſent State of Education in this Kingdom, and as conſiderable Advantages have been derived from the Proteſtant Charter Schools, they ſhall receive as uſual our merited Regard: But as theſe Advantages have been but partial, we ſhall endeavour to order every Thing relating to this moſt important Object in the Manner moſt beneficial, and the beſt adapted to the Occaſions of the ſeveral Deſcriptions of Men which compoſe your Majeſty's faithful Subjects in Ireland.

We are ſenſible that we are engaged in an arduous Conteſt, and that the Time calls not only for great Fortitude, and an unuſual Share of public Spirit, but for much Conſtancy and Perſeverance; we are engaged with a Power, which under the antient Forms of its internal Arrangement, was always highly formidable to the neighbouring Nations, which has of late aſſumed indeed another Shape, but with the ſame Ambition, with much more extenſive and ſyſtematic Deſigns, with Means far more effective, and without Compariſon more dreadful, as the certain Conſequences of its eventual Succeſs, threaten nothing leſs than the entire Subverſion of the Liberty and Independence of every State in Europe; an Enemy to them all, it is actuated with a peculiar Animoſity againſt theſe Kingdoms, not only as the natural Protection of the Balance of Power in Europe, but alſo becauſe by the Poſſeſſion of a legal, humane and rational Freedom, we ſeem to reproach that falſe and ſpurious Liberty, which in Reality is an an ignominious Servitude, tending to extinguiſh all good Arts, to generate nothing but Impiety, Crime, Diſorder and ferocious Manners, and to end in Wretchedneſs and Deſolation; and we cannot but expreſs to your Majeſty our heartfelt Thanks, for your Majeſty's having, in order to guard your People from the Enterprizes of this dangerous and malignant Enemy, and for the Protection of all civilized Society againſt the Inroads of Anarchy, availed yourſelf of every rational Aid, foreign and domeſtic; and that in a Criſis ſuch as the preſent, which has rarely occurred in human Affairs, your Majeſty has thought fit to call upon the Skill, Courage and Experience of all your Majeſty's Subjects whereſoever diſperſed, and thus endeavoured to profit of the united Strength and Zeal of all your Majeſty's People; and we humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that you may depend upon our cheerful Concurrence in every Meaſure which may tend to the Accompliſhment of ſo ſalutary a Purpoſe.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order that the ſame may be laid before his Majeſty.

The Earl of Charlemont reported from the Lords Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, nemine diſſentiente, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency

WILLIAM EARL FITZWILLIAM,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our ſincere Thanks for your Speech from the Throne: We aſſure your Excellency, that we conſider his Majeſty's Appointment of your Excellency to be our Chief Governor, as a ſignal Inſtance of his Majeſty's Attention to the Intereſts, and Condeſcenſion to the Wiſhes of his People of Ireland.

We are convinced that in your Excellency, we ſhall always find a ready Concurrence with his Majeſty's paternal Wiſhes, and with the wiſe Meaſures of his Parliament, for the Happineſs of his Subjects, and that on a cordial Affection to the whole of Ireland, and on a Conduct ſuitable to that Sentiment, your Excellency wiſhes to found your own perſonal Eſtimation and your Reputation in the Execution of the great Truſt committed by the moſt beneficent of Sovereigns to your Care. On our Part, your Excellency may depend upon a firm and affectionate Support, prompted by Inclination as much as by Duty. We ſhall ſecond with peculiar Pleaſure, the Meaſures of a Chief Governor, no leſs remarkable for his unſhaken Loyalty to his Sovereign, than for his inviolable Attachment to the Rights and Liberties of the People, and whoſe Poſſeſſions in this Country, however ample, afford a Pledge much leſs valuable than his Character, for his Attention to its Intereſts.

We return your Excellency our ſincere Acknowlegements for the kind Opinion you have expreſſed of our Conduct, and we aſſure your Excellency, we ſhall not only be deſirous but zealous to emulate the Magnanimity of a Sovereign, formed to lead a Nation, that has ever been as firm to aſſert its Liberties, as affectionately devoted to a Government which maintains its own Authority, for the ſole Purpoſe of ſupporting thoſe Liberties.

Cordially attached as we are to that Sovereign and to that Conſtitution, which it is his Glory to protect, we warmly participate in the Joy your Excellency feels in communicating to us, the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, with the Princeſs Carolina-Amelia-Elizabeth, Daughter of his Moſt Illuſtrious Highneſs the Duke of Brunſwick and Lunenburg, a Princeſs of that Illuſtrious Houſe, to whoſe mild and conſtitutional Sway theſe Kingdoms are highly indebted for the Bleſſings they enjoy, and which we truſt, will by this Marriage be perpetuated under the ſame Houſe.

We receive the Communication which your Excellency has been pleaſed to make to us, by his Majeſty's Command, of his Majeſty's having concluded a Treaty of Amity, Commerce and Navigation with the United States of America, with the ſincereſt Satisfaction, and we are perſuaded that his Majeſty's Object has been to remove as far as poſſible, all Ground of Jealouſy or Miſunderſtanding, and to promote a beneficial Intercourſe between the two States, and we doubt not, that when we ſhall have conſidered the Proviſions of the Treaty, we ſhall be deſirous to purſue whatever Meaſures may be neceſſary on our Part to give it Effect.

We are ſenſible of your Excellency's Wiſdom, in recommending to us to cultivate all our domeſtic Advantages in Commerce, in Manufactures, and in ſuch public Works as have appeared directed to promote theſe important Objects, which your Excellency juſtly conſiders as the true Foundations of public Revenue and of public Strength. And we aſſure your Excellency, that while we reflect with peculiar Satisfaction on the Succeſs of our Efforts for the Proſperity of our Linen Manufacture, we do alſo gratefully acknowledge that its rapid and unexampled Increaſe, has been materially promoted by the liberal Encouragement it receives in the rich and extenſive Market of Great Britain, a Circumſtance tending to cement the Union and perfect the Harmony which ſubſiſts, and we truſt will ever ſubſiſt between the two Kingdoms.

Attached as we are to the general Cauſe of Religion, Learning and Civilization, we feel ourſelves bound to return your Excellency our warmeſt Thanks for recommending to our Care the State of Education in this Kingdom, and though the Advantages which have been received from the Proteſtant Charter Schools entitle them to our peculiar Attention, yet your Excellency may be aſſured we ſhall endeavour to order every Thing relating to this moſt important Object, in the Manner which ſhall appear moſt beneficial and the beſt adapted to the Occaſions of the ſeveral Deſcriptions of Men, which compoſe his Majeſty's faithful Subjects of Ireland.

Engaged as we are in a Conteſt which calls not only for great Fortitude and an unuſual Share of public Spirit, but for much Conſtancy and Perſeverance to oppoſe the Arms and Machinations of a Power, which under the ancient Forms of its internal Government was always highly formidable to the neighbouring Nations, but which at preſent in a new Shape but with the ſame Ambition, with more extenſive and ſyſtematic Deſigns and with Means far more effective, threatens nothing leſs than the entire Subverſion of the Liberty and Independence of every State in Europe. We thank your Excellency for communicating to us, his Majeſty's gracious Intention of calling upon the Skill, Courage and Experience of all his Subjects wherever diſperſed, and of availing himſelf of the united Strength and Zeal of all his People, and your Excellency may reſt aſſured of our cordial Co-operation in all ſuch Meaſures as are calculated to carry into Execution this wiſe and ſalutary Purpoſe.

We requeſt your Excellency to repreſent to his Majeſty, our unſhaken Loyalty to his Royal Perſon, Family and Government, and our fixed Determination to ſupport, to the utmoſt of our Power, our Siſter Country againſt the rancorous Animoſity and dangerous Rivalry of her antient Enemy. Great Britain aſſailed by France may rely with Confidence on the firm and affectionate Supportof Ireland; and we entreat your Excellency to believe that we eſteem it a ſignal Happineſs to this Nation to be governed in ſuch a Criſis as the preſent, by a Nobleman whoſe Manners are formed to conciliate and unite his Majeſty's faithful Subjects in the Support of the Honor of his Crown and the Safety and Proſperity of all his Dominions.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know what Time he will pleaſe to appoint to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that, in Obedience to their Lordſhips' Order, he had waited on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know what Time he would pleaſe to appoint to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency, and that his Excellency was pleaſed to appoint To-morrow at three o'Clock, at the Caſtle.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that the Houſe had attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with their humble Addreſs to be preſented to his Majeſty, and his Excellency was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

" My Lords,

Lord Lieutenant's Anſwers. " I SHALL forthwith tranſmit this dutiful " and loyal Addreſs to his Majeſty."

The Lord Chancellor alſo reported, that the Houſe did at the ſame time, preſent their Lordſhips' Addreſs to his Excellency; to which he was pleaſed to give this Anſwer:

" My Lords,

" THIS cordial Addreſs, juſtifying with " ſuch Promptitude and Alacrity, the Confi- " dence, which his Majeſty repoſes in the " Spirit and Loyalty of the Houſe of Lords " of Ireland, is of ſo ſalutary and animating " a Tendency, reflects ſuch high Honor on " the national Character, and gives ſo happy " an Earneſt of the Chearfulneſs, Vigor and " Extent of the national Exertion at this " arduous and trying Criſis, that it calls for " more than ordinary Expreſſions of Satis- " faction and Acknowledgment.

" Such Sentiments communicating them- " ſelves from one Kingdom to the other, " ſuch Conformity in Attachment to the " Conſtitution, and in Affection for the beſt " and moſt beloved of Sovereigns, a Spirit " ſo firm and perſevering in the Support of " a Cauſe, which they conſider as common " to both, and a Determination ſo fixed and " unſhaken to ſtand or fall together, muſt " be as encouraging to the Friends, as for- " midable to the Enemies of the Britiſh " Name and Empire. Standing on this " Ground we have nothing to dread. The " Diſturbers of the Peace of Europe will ſee, " that bound indiſſolubly together in Intereſts,

" in Principles, and in Affection, Great Bri- " tain and Ireland diſregard their Menaces,
" and are determined, under Providence, to " check the Courſe of their exterminating " Ambition.

" If any thing could be wanting to com" plete my Satisfaction at this happy and " auſpicious Commencement of my Adminiſ-
" tration, I ſhould find it in the flattering
" Terms, in which you expreſs your Appro-
" bation of my Principles and paſt Conduct,

Referred to Committee for Privileges.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Order of Reference, the ſaid Memorial and Report, be referred to the Grand Committee for Privileges.

Ordered, that the Grand Committee for Privileges do meet on next Saturday ſe'nnight, in order to take the Matter of the ſaid Reference into Conſideration, and that his Majeſty's Attorney General have Notice thereof.

Upon reading the Petition of the Right Honorable John Earl of Clanwilliam, the Right Honorable Theodoſia Counteſs of Clanwilliam his Wife, the Honorable Richard Meade, commonly called Lord Viſcount Gilford, eldeſt Son and Heir apparent of the ſaid Earl and Counteſs, the Right Honorable Caroline Lady Viſcounteſs Gilford his Wife, and the Honorable Robert Meade, ſecond Son of the ſaid Earl and Counteſs, praying, for the Reaſons therein contained, that Leave may be given to bring in a Bill for the Purpoſes therein mentioned;

Earl Clanwilliam's Petition;

It is ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition be referred to Mr. Juſtice Boyd and Mr. Juſtice Downes, and that they do forthwith ſummon all Parties before them who may be concerned in the Bill, and after hearing all the Parties, do report to this Houſe the State of their Caſe, and their Opinion thereupon under their Hands; and alſo that the ſaid Judges having peruſed the Bill, do ſign the ſame.

Counſel, according to Order, were called in to be further heard in the Cauſe wherein Dame Mariamne Hamilton is Plaintiff, and the Moſt Noble Arthur Marquis of Donegall is Defendant.

Hamilton againſt Marquis of Donegall, in Error.

And one Counſel for the Plaintiff having been heard by way of Reply,

They were all directed to withdraw.

Propoſed that the following Queſtions be put to the Judges:

Queſtions to Judges.

1. Whether the keeping, maintaining and continuing the Cuts, Weirs and Traps, by the Defendant in the Court below, as ſtated and alledged by the Declaration and found by the Verdict, will enable the Plaintiff to maintain his Action?

2. Whether the Injury complained of by the Plaintiff, ariſing to his Fiſhery in the County of Armagh, as ſtated and alledged by the Declaration and found by the Verdict, will enable him to maintain his Action?

3. Whether upon the whole Record, it appears that a Cauſe of Action has ariſen to the Plaintiff within the County of Armagh?

The ſame were agreed to.

And the ſaid Queſtions were accordingly ordered to be put, and the Judges to deliver their Opinions on Monday the ſecond of March next.

The Anſwer of Edward Lynch, Eſquire, Sir Walter Blake, Baronet, and William Burke, Eſquire, to the Petition and Appeal of Robert-Blake Foſter, Eſquire, was this Day brought in.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Committee to enquire into Meaſures taken by Commiſſioners for making wide Streets.

Ordered, that a Committee be appointed to enquire into the Meaſures taken by the Commiſſioners for making wide and convenient Streets in the City of Dublin, for opening the Paſſage from Sackville-ſtreet to Carliſle-Bridge, and for laying out new Streets to the Eaſtward thereof, whether they have made any and what Agreements reſpecting the ſame, what was the Value of the Ground comprized in the ſeveral Agreements made by the ſaid Commiſſioners at the reſpective Times when ſuch Agreements were made, what Loſs or Profit has accrued to the Public, or is likely to accrue thereby; alſo into the Cauſes which have delayed the completing thereof, and into the whole Conduct of the ſaid Commiſſioners and their Officers reſpecting ting the ſame; that the ſaid Committee have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, and to examine Witneſſes in the moſt ſolemn manner, and that the Lord Viſcount Dillon and all the Lords preſent be the ſaid Committee, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow in the Committee Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Ordered, that all Parties concerned in ſaid Enquiry have Leave to be heard by Counſel before the ſaid Committee if they think fit.

Petitions of Henry Ottiwell,

Upon reading the Petition of Henry Ottiwell, of the City of Dublin, ſetting forth, that in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one, the Petitioner entered into an Agreement with the Commiſſioners appointed by Act of Parliament for making wide and convenient Streets in the City of Dublin, and took from the ſaid Commiſſioners certain Grounds ſituate on the North Side of Carliſle-Bridge.

That ſince the Petitioner came into Poſſeſſion of Part of the aforeſaid Grounds, a Sum of Money not leſs than thirty thouſand Pounds has been expended and laid out in building on and improving the ſaid Grounds according to the Plan delivered to the Petitioner for laying out new Streets.

That the Agreement aforeſaid having been brought into Inveſtigation before their Lordſhips' and their Lordſhips' Enquiry having been pending for two Seſſions of Parliament, and the ſame having been referred to a Committee of their Lordſhips' Houſe, the Petitioner has thereby ſuffered moſt materially, as, and in conſequence thereof, neither the Petitioner, nor any Perſon concerned with or deriving Leaſes under the Petitioner have been able to let any Part of ſaid Grounds, or any Houſe or Houſes they have built thereon.

That in conſequence of the aforeſaid Proceedings before their Lordſhips, his principal Tenants on ſaid Grounds have refuſed to pay and do now withhold their Rents from the Petitioner, and others of his Tenants have relinquiſhed their Agreements.

That the Petitioner is in conſequence of his aforeſaid Agreement now under £1,400 a Year Rent, which together with the Intereſt of the principal Money expended by the Petitioner and his Tenants on the ſaid Grounds amount to upwards of £3000 per Annum, therefore the moſt ſerious Conſequences to the Property and Credit of the Petitioner and thoſe deriving under him, and alſo thoſe who have entered into Securities for the Petitioner's Performance of his Contract, are likely to enſue by this long pending Enquiry, which has impreſſed the Public with Ideas unfavourable to the Petitioner's Title;

And therefore humbly praying that their Lordſhips will pleaſe to take the Petitioner's Caſe into immediate Conſideration, and grant him ſuch Relief in the Premiſes, as to their Lordſhips' Wiſdom ſhall ſeem meet.

John Hart,

Alſo upon reading the Petition of John Hart, of the City of Dublin, Brewer, ſetting forth, that Petitioner in or about May, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety, took certain Grounds on the North Strand, juſt below the New Cuſtom-Houſe, and that when Petitioner took the ſame, he did not entertain a Doubt but that the intended Improvements would be carried on, and which was Petitioner's principal Inducement to take the Grounds he did.

That from the Stop put to the Improvements and opening the Avenues, which Petitioner believes was principally owing to their Lordſhips' Inveſtigation and Report laſt Year, the Petitioner cannot ſet any of his Grounds or raiſe Money to build thereon, the Public being generally of Opinion that the Avenues will not be opened, and therefore Petitioner's Ground is of little or no Value.

That Petitioner for the Reaſons aforeſaid has been very much injured in his Trade and Buſineſs, which would not have been the Caſe had the Avenues been opened or the Improvements likely to go on, as Petitioner then would have ſet his Ground at a conſiderable Profit, and thereby be enabled (if neceſſary) to raiſe Money.

That Petitioner was induced to prepare a Petition to this Effect laſt Seſſions, but as yet has had no Relief.

That Petitioner is peculiarly circumſtanced, in as much that in conſequence of the intended Improvements not going on, he feels himſelf of Neceſſity obliged to ſolicit and pray their Lordſhips for Redreſs, that their Lordſhips' Inveſtigation may be ſpeedily determined, that the Public may entertain but one Opinion of what is to be done with regard to the opening the intended Approaches that were held out to the Public, and on the Faith of which, Petitioner with many others have riſked their Property to a very conſiderable Amount.

John Glynn,

Alſo upon reading the Petition of John Glynn, of the City of Dublin, Builder, ſetting forth, that the Petitioner took from Mr. Ottiwell, certain Grounds in the Line of Sackville-ſtreet, on which Grounds he has laid out a conſiderable Sum of Money.

That Petitioner was induced to take ſaid Grounds, believing that the New Bridge and Avenues adjacent would be immediately opened.

That the Petitioner has had ſome Advantages from Mr. Ottiwell, with regard to getting longer Time than Mr. Ottiwell is allowed himſelf for building, and in many other reſpects has received great Encouragement; however, notwithſtanding all that Accommodation, and Petitioner having expended a conſiderable Sum of Money, by Mortgage, which is the Practice of moſt Builders to enable them to proceed, Petitioner had no Doubt of finding Means, but to his great Diſappointment and Loſs, he can neither raiſe Money, nor can he even let any of his Buildings, for that the Public are induced from an Enquiry and Reſolutions of the Houſe of Lords, in the laſt Seſſions, to believe that his Title under Mr. Ottiwell is not good, and conſequently will not treat with him; as an Inſtance, Petitioner can prove that a certain Perſon, who had actually agreed to give him one hundred Pounds per Annum, and four hundred Pounds Fine for one of his Houſes, has retracted, and gave him for reaſon that he would not venture on ſuch precarious Title, ſo that as an Individual, Petitioner is likely to be ruined by the Meaſures taken laſt Seſſion of Parliament, and by Opinions ſtated in Debate reſpecting Mr. Ottiwell's Title.

That the Petitioner views with the utmoſt Concern the great Difference between his unhappy Situation and that of others, who took Ground from the Commiſſioners, and whoſe Intereſt far exceeds either the Petitioner's or Mr. Ottiwell's, particularly in Dame-ſtreet, where the Loſs to the Public, (if ſo he can call it) was in Proportion double, nay treble the Loſs ſuſtained by their Agreement with Mr. Ottiwell, as appears by the Evidence laid before their Lordſhips in the Committee; from the reſpectable Evidence that appeared at the laſt Committee, the Petitioner was in hopes there would have been no further Enquiry, and that their Lordſhips were fully ſatisfied of the Fairneſs of the Bargain.

And therefore praying that their Lordſhips will ſpeedily put an End to this Buſineſs, otherwiſe the great Property Petitioner has expended will be entirely loſt to him, and himſelf reduced to the utmoſt Diſtreſs.

Thomas D'Arcy,

Alſo upon reading the Petition of Thomas D'Arcy, of the City of Dublin, Merchant, ſetting forth, that in the Month of May, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-two, Petitioner took Leaſes of ſeveral Lots of Ground in Sackville-ſtreet and Beresford-Place, for building, from Henry Ottiwell, Eſquire, on which Petitioner hath expended many thouſand Pounds in erecting Houſes thereon; having completely finiſhed ſix Houſes in Sackville-ſtreet, and nearly finiſhed eighteen in Beresford-Place, Abbey-ſtreet and Sackville-ſtreet.

That Petitioner with humble Deference, begs leave to repreſent to their Lordſhips, that he has been much retarded in building ſaid Houſes, by their Lordſhips having called in Queſtion the Title of ſaid Ottiwell, which has greatly injured Petitioner's Property, as he was thereby prevented ſetting any of ſaid Houſes, or raiſing Money by Sale or Mortgage, from an Idea having been conceived by the Public that his Title and that of ſaid Ottiwell to ſaid Grounds was precarious and inſecure, and his Credit as a Merchant has been ſo much injured, that the Petitioner has been obliged almoſt to quit Trade, all in conſequence of an Inveſtigation by a Committee of their Lordſhips, and the Report made by ſaid Committee.

That ſaid Inveſtigation and Report prevented his ſetting ſaid Houſes at a conſiderable Profit-Rent, and cauſed a Gentleman joined with Petitioner in ſaid Undertaking to relinquiſh his Partnerſhip therein, and who is now gone to the Eaſt-Indies. That Petitioner thus injured in his Credit and Property finds himſelf engaged alone in an heavy Undertaking, which he fears will involve himſelf and Family in Ruin.

That as a further Proof of the Injury done the Petitioner, all Houſes built in Sackville-ſtreet, the Title of which has not been called in Queſtion, have been theſe twelve Months inhabited and ſet at more conſiderable Rents and Fines than the Petitioner would ſet his Houſes for, in no reſpect inferior; yet the Petitioner cannot get a Purchaſer on account of this Enquiry for one of his Houſes now eighteen Months finiſhed.

That this is the third Seſſion, unfortunately for Petitioner, that this Buſineſs has been agitated, which laſt Seſſion the Petitioner was in hopes would have put an End to, from the numerous and reſpectable Evidence examined, and that thereby the Petitioner would have an Opportunity of getting ſome Return for the very conſiderable Sums he has expended, which now he can't procure a Shilling for, more than, by pulling down the Houſes, the Materials thereof would produce.

And therefore praying their Lordſhips to come to a ſpeedy Determination, otherwiſe the Petitioner will be ruined, and the Petitioner relies on their Lordſhips' Juſtice and Liberality to grant him ſuch Compenſation for his very great Loſſes as he ſhall prove by their Inveſtigation he has ſuſtained.

William Billing.

And alſo upon reading the Petition of William Billing, of the City of Dublin, Eſquire, ſetting forth, that the Petitioner in or about November, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-two, took certain Lots of Ground from Mr. Ottiwell, in the Neighbourhood of the New Cuſtom-Houſe, and when Petitioner took ſaid Grounds he did not entertain a Doubt, but the then intended Improvements would have been immediately carried on, which induced Petitioner to take ſame.

That

That from the Stop put to ſaid Improvements and opening the Avenues, (which Petitioner believes was principally owing to their Lordſhips' Inveſtigation and Report concerning ſame) Petitioner cannot ſet ſaid Ground or raiſe Money (if he required it) to build thereon, the Public being of Opinion that ſuch Avenues will not be opened, and therefore Petitioner's ſaid Ground has become of little or no Value.

That Petitioner preferred a Petition on this Subject laſt Seſſions, and did hope from the reſpectable Evidence that appeared before their Lordſhips on the laſt Committee that this Buſineſs would have been put an end to, and that their Lordſhips were fully ſatisfied on the Subject.

That Petitioner has been much injured in his Property by taking ſaid Ground, which he conceives would not have been the Caſe had the Avenues been opened or the Improvements proceeded upon, as Petitioner would by that means have ſet ſaid Ground at conſiderable Profit.

And therefore praying, that their Lordſhips' Inveſtigation may be ſpeedily determined, that the Public may entertain but one Opinion of what is to be done, with regard to opening the intended Approaches ſo held out to them, and on the Faith of which, Petitioner with many others have riſked their Property.

Referred to Committee. Ordered, that the foregoing Petitions be referred to the ſaid Committee.

Hodie ſecunda vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for indemnifying ſuch Perſons as have acted for the Service of the Public in adviſing or carrying into Execution two ſeveral Proclamations of the Lord Lieutenant and Council of this Kingdom bearing Date the twenty-fourth and twenty-ninth Days of January, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five, reſpectively, and for continuing and giving effect to the ſaid Proclamations. Biſhop of Cork introduced.

The Honorable and Reverend Thomas Stopford, Dean of Ferns, being by Letters Patents dated the twenty-eighth Day of June, in the thirty-fourth Year of King George III. created Biſhop of Cork and Roſs, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Biſhop of Dromore and the Biſhop of Cloyne, in their Robes; the Yeoman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and Ulſter King of Arms in his Coat of Arms, carrying his Lordſhip's Letters Patents preceding: his Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor on his Knee at the Woolſack, who gave them to the Deputy Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: his Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Biſhop's Bench.

Hamilton againſt the Marquis of Donegall;

The Order of the Day being read, for the Judges to deliver their Opinions upon the Queſtions propoſed to them on Monday the ſixteenth Day of February laſt;

Mr. Juſtice Crookſhank delivered the unanimous Opinion of the Judges on the firſt Queſtion in the following Words, viz:

Judges Opinion.

" We are of Opinion, that the keeping, " maintaining and continuing the Cuts, " Weirs and Traps by the Defendant in the " Court below, as ſtated and alledged by the " Declaration and found by the Verdict, " would not, independent of the Injury com- " plained of by the Plaintiff ariſing to his " Fiſhery in the County of Armagh, as ſtated " and alledged by the Declaration and found " by the Verdict, enable the Plaintiff to main- " tain his Action."

And on the ſecond and third Queſtions delivered the unanimous Opinion of the Judges in the Affirmative.

Whereupon the following Order and Judgment was made:

AFTER hearing Counſel on the ninth, tenth, eleventh and ſixteenth Days of February laſt, to argue the Errors aſſigned upon the Writ of Error brought into this Houſe the fourteenth Day of February one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-four, wherein Dame Mariamne Hamilton is Plaintiff, and the Moſt Noble Arthur Marquis of Donegall is Defendant, in order to reverſe a Judgment given in the Court of Exchequer Chamber for the ſaid Defendant, and hearing the unanimous mous Opinion of the Judges upon the Queſtions of Law to them propoſed, and due Conſideration had of what was offered on either ſide in this Cauſe;

Judgment. IT is ordered and adjudged by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Judgment of the Court of Exchequer Chamber be, and the ſame is hereby affirmed; and that the Record be remitted to the end ſuch Proceedings may be had thereupon, as if no ſuch Writ of Error had been brought into this Houſe.

The Tenor of which Judgment to be affixed to the Tranſcript to be remitted is as follows:

On which Day before the ſame Court of Parliament at Dublin, came as well the ſaid Dame Mariamne Hamilton, as the ſaid Arthur Marquis of Donegall, in their proper Perſons; but becauſe the Court of Parliament aforeſaid, now here are not adviſed to give their Judgment of and upon the Premiſſes, a Day therefore is given as well to the ſaid Dame Mariamne Hamilton, as the ſaid Arthur Marquis of Donegall, before the ſaid Court of Parliament until Monday the ſecond Day of March next enſuing, whereſoever &c. to hear their Judgment thereon. On which Day before the ſame Court of Parliament at Dublin, came as well the ſaid Dame Mariamne Hamilton, as the ſaid Arthur Marquis of Donegall, in their proper Perſons; whereupon all and ſingular the Premiſſes being ſeen and by the ſaid Court of Parliament, now here more fully underſtood, and as well the Record and Proceedings aforeſaid, and the Judgment thereupon given in the Court of Exchequer Chamber at Dublin, as the ſaid Cauſes and Matters above aſſigned for Error by the ſaid Dame Mariamne Hamilton, being diligently examined and inſpected, and mature Deliberation being thereon had, it appears to the Court of Parliament aforeſaid now here, that there is no Error in the Record and Proceedings aforeſaid in giving the Judgment aforeſaid in the ſaid Court of Exchequer Chamber at Dublin, and that the ſaid Judgment ſo given as aforeſaid, is in no wiſe vicious or defective. Therefore it is conſidered by the Court of Parliament aforeſaid, that the Judgment aforeſaid given at the ſaid Court of Exchequer Chamber at Dublin, be in all things affirmed and in full force and effect as if no ſuch Writ of Error had been brought into this Houſe; and therefore the Record, as alſo the Proceedings aforeſaid in the ſame Court of Parliament, in the Premiſſes had by the ſame Court of Parliament, are remitted, &c.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that the Judges, according to Order, had prepared a Report of what Laws have lately expired or are near expiring, which he presented to the House, and the same was read by the Clerk at the Table as follows, viz.:

My Lords,

Judges' Report on Temporary Laws.

IN Obedience to your Lordships' Order of the twenty-third of January last, whereby the Judges were directed to enquire and report what Laws have lately expired or are near expiring, the Judges on such Enquiry find:

That the Statute thirteenth and fourteenth George III. Chapter thirty-nine, intitled, An Act for altering, amending and making more effectual the Laws for repairing the Road leading from the City of Dublin to the Town of Kinnegad in the County of Westmeath, and from thence to the Town of Mullingar in the same County, and for other Purposes therein mentioned, will expire in the present Year.

And that a Clause in an Act made in this Kingdom in the first Year of George III. relative to Colliers and Miners, who absent themselves in Breach of Contract without License or Discharge, was continued by the Statute of seventeenth and eighteenth George III. Chapter thirty-six, Section four, to the twenty-fourth of June, one thousand seven hundred and ninety, and from thence to the end of the then next Session of Parliament, and the same did then expire.

And further, that the several Clauses relative to trawling in the Bay of Dublin, and to the Preservation of the Game, which Clauses are contained in an Act made in this Kingdom in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, intitled, An Act for reviving and continuing several temporary Statutes, and to prevent the destructive Practice of trawling for Fish in the Bay of Dublin, was continued by the Statute seventeenth and eighteenth George III. Chapter thirty-six, Section six, to the twenty-fourth of June, one thousand seven hundred and ninety, and from thence to the end of the then next Session of Parliament, when the same did expire.

And further, that an Act of the nineteenth and twentieth George III. intitled, An Act to amend and continue an Act passed in the seventeenth and eighteenth Years of his present Majesty, intitled, An Act to amend and continue an Act passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of his present Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the better Regulation of the Baking Trade in the City of Dublin, and for other Purposes; and also an Act of twenty-first and twenty-second George III. intitled, An Act for regulating the Price and Assize of Bread, and preventing Frauds and Impositions in the Sale of Flour, and other Articles sold by Weight or Measure in the County of Dublin, were continued by the Statute twenty-eighth George III. Chapter forty-two, Section two, to the twenty-fourth of June, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, and to the end of this present Session of Parliament, when the same will expire.

And further, that the Statute nineteenth and twentieth George III. Chapter forty-two, intitled, An Act for regulating the Baking Trade in the City of Cork, which was continued by the Statute twenty-eighth George III. Chapter forty-two, Section three, to the end of this present Session, will then expire.

And further, that the Statute twenty-first and twenty-second George III. Chapter thirty-six, intitled, An Act for the better regulating the Corn Trade of this Kingdom, did continue to the twenty-fourth of June, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, and from thence to the end of the last Session of Parliament, when the same did expire.

And further, that the additional Tolls granted by the Statute twenty-sixth George III. Chapter forty-one, Section one, on the Turnpike Road leading from Dublin to Mullingar, will expire in the present Year, at the Time of the Expiration of the Statute of thirteenth and fourteenth George III. Chapter thirty-nine, herein first above mentioned.

And further, that an Act of the twenty-ninth George III. Chapter thirty-eight, intitled, An Act to continue an Act passed in the twenty-third and twenty-fourth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, intitled, An Act for regulating the Import of Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace and Nutmegs, and for the better collecting the Duties thereon, will expire at the end of this present Session of Parliament.

And further, that an Act passed in the twenty-third and twenty-fourth Years of George III. intitled, An Act for the more effectual Discovery and Prosecution of Offenders called Houghers, and for the Support and Maintenance of Soldiers or others houghed, maimed, and disabled by such Offenders, and which was continued by the Statute of thirty-first George III. Chapter forty-four, Section three, will expire at the end of this present Session of Parliament.

And further, that the Bounties under the Act of thirty-second George III. Chapter twenty-three, intitled, An Act for the further Encouragement of the Fisheries on the Coasts of this Kingdom, will expire the twenty-fifth of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five.

And further, that the Statute thirty-fourth George III. Chapter twenty-four, intitled, An Act for further continuing an Act, intitled, An Act for facilitating the Trade and Intercourse between this Kingdom and the United States of America, will expire on the twenty-fifth of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five.

And

And further, that the Statute thirty-firſt George III. Chapter twenty-nine, intitled, An Act to amend the Laws reſpecting Aſſiſtant Barriſters of the Seſſions of the Peace, will continue to the twenty-fourth of June next, and to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament.

And further, that the Statute thirty-fourth George III. Chapter eleven, intitled, An Act for continuing the ſeveral Laws relating to Licenſes for the Sale of Spirituous Liquors, and the Regulations for remedying the Abuſes which have ariſen from the immoderate Uſe of ſuch Liquors, will expire on the twenty-ninth of September, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the foregoing Report ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to a Select Committee, and that the Lord Viſcount Ranelagh, and all the Lords preſent be the ſaid Committee; and that all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee are to have Voices therein; and two of the Judges to aſſiſt. referred to Committee.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet on Monday Morning next, at eleven o'Clock, in the Committee Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Adjourned till Monday Morning next, at Eleven o'clock.

MY LORDS,

Report from Committee on Wide Streets.

THE Committee appointed to enquire into the Meaſures taken by the Commiſſioners for making wide and convenient Streets in the City of Dublin, for opening the Paſſage from Sackville-ſtreet to Carliſle-Bridge, and for laying out new Streets to the Eaſtward thereof, whether they have made any and what Agreements reſpecting the ſame; and what was the Value of the Ground compriz-ed in the ſeveral Agreements made by the ſaid Commiſſioners at the reſpective Times when ſuch Agreements were made, what Loſs or Profit has accrued to the Public, or is likely to accrue thereby; alſo into the Cauſes which have delayed the completing thereof, and into the whole Conduct of the ſaid Commiſſioners and their Officers reſpecting the ſame, have proceeded to examine into the Matter to them referred, and have examined ſeveral Witneſſes, the whole of whoſe Teſtimony they have annexed to their Report, viz:

The Right Honorable John Foſter, ſworn and examined. Right Ho John Fo

Q. Whether he was one of the Commiſſioners who attended the Board on the 6th and 13th May, 1791?

A. He

A. He does not recollect he was.

Q. Whether he recollects hearing of a Propoſal from Mr. Ottiwell to the Commiſſioners for a large Lot of Ground, which was not in their Poſſeſſion?

A. He has heard it talked of.

Q. Whether as a Commiſſioner he did not conceive the Clauſe in the Act of the thirty-firſt George II. was the only Clauſe that empowered the Commiſſioners to ſet, ſell, or diſpoſe of Ground?

A. That he always underſtood they had no Power of ſetting or ſelling but what that Clauſe gave, and under that Impreſſion he gave his Opinion that they had no Power to make the Agreement they did make with Mr. Ottiwell.

Q. Whether the Sum of £15,000 was granted by Addreſs for opening the Communication between the North and South Sides of the River?

A. That the Order ſpeaks for itſelf.

Q. Whether they had any Power of opening any other Parts before that was completed?

A. That if Money was allotted for any other Parts they might proceed.

Thomas Burgh, Eſq.

Thomas Burgh, Eſquire, ſworn and examined.

Q. Whether he was one of the Commiſſioners who attended the Board on the 6th and 13th May, 1791?

A. He was not.

Q. Did he hear at the Board, or from public Report, whether a Propoſal had been made by Mr. Ottiwell to take a large Quantity of Ground from the Commiſſioners, not then in their Poſſeſſion?

A. He did not hear till after the Bargain was concluded.

Q. How long he has been a Commiſſioner?

A. About ten or twelve Years or more.

Q. Is he ſtill a Commiſſioner of that Board?

A. He is.

Q. Whether he did conceive or not, that the Authority for ſetting or ſelling was not comprized in the 13th Clauſe in the Act of the thirty-firſt George II?

A. He conceives that to be the only Authority the Commiſſioners had.

Q. Whether he conceives that the Commiſſioners were empowered to contract with Mr. Ottiwell for Grounds not then in their Poſſeſſion?

A. He did not think they were with any one.—That he ſigned the Deed.—Mr. Lyſter the Agent came to him and told him, that if the Deed was not ſigned they could not recover the Value of what they had given to Mr. Ottiwell and Co. either Rent or Purchaſe.—That Mr. Lyſter brought him the Attorney General's Opinion, dated the 14th July, 1791, which ſtates that the Commiſſioners may be compelled to carry into Execution ſuch Parts as they have purchaſed or ſhall purchaſe.

Q. Whether he has read the Deed?

A. He did not till after he had ſigned it.

Q. Does he recollect the Clauſe in the Deed which binds the Commiſſioners to give Mr. Ottiwell Poſſeſſion of Grounds which they had not then purchaſed?

A. He does not directly recollect the Clauſe.

Q. Whether in the Agreement with Mr. Ottiwell, the Commiſſioners have either pledged the Public or themſelves to purchaſe any more Ground in conſequence of the Bargain with Mr. Ottiwell?

A. He thinks not—that he has gone with others and broke up a Verdict.

Q. Whether if the Commiſſioners had purchaſed more of that Ground than they had originally contracted for with Mr. Ottiwell, they would not have been bound to deliver him Poſſeſſion of the ſame?

A. He thinks ſo.

Major General Euſtace, ſworn and examined. Major General Euſtace,

Q. How long he has been a Commiſſioner for wide Streets.

A. About five Years and upwards.

Q. Is he ſtill a Commiſſioner of that Board?

A. He is.

Q. Was he preſent at the Board on the 6th and 13th May, 1791?

A. He was not preſent on the 6th, but on the 13th May, the Day on which Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal was accepted.

Q. Whether he conceives the Commiſſioners were empowered to contract with Mr. Ottiwell for Grounds not then in their Poſſeſſion?

A. By no Means.—He particularly that Day aſked the Queſtion before he agreed to receive the Propoſals—Whether the Commiſſioners were obliged to purchaſe and convey to Mr. Ottiwell the Grounds not then in their Poſſeſſion? and he underſtood it to be the Senſe of the Board that they were by no Means obliged.

Q. Whether as a Commiſſioner he did not conceive that the 13th Clauſe in the Act of the thirty-firſt George II. is the only Authority that empowers the Commiſſioners to ſell or diſpoſe of Ground in their Poſſeſſion?

A. He always conceived ſo.

Sackville Hamilton, Eſq.

Sackville Hamilton, Eſquire, ſworn and examined.

Q. Does he recollect at any Time any Communication between Government and Mr. Beresford, through him, relative to the Grounds between the new Cuſtom Houſe and Carliſle-Bridge?

A. He does recollect.

Q. Could he ſtate the Time?

A. It was in the Adminiſtration of the Marquis of Buckingham.—As well as he can recollect Mr. Beresford deſired he would lay the Plans of that Ground before the Lord Lieutenant, and ſubmit to him whether Government ſhould not purchaſe thoſe Grounds and reſerve ſo much of them as might be neceſſary for the Convenience of the Cuſtom-Houſe, and that by the Sale of the Remainder, the Ground for the Uſe of the Cuſtom-Houſe would be obtained at a much ſmaller Expence than it could otherwiſe be had for. —That he communicated to Mr. Beresford the Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer, which was, that he did not think it proper for the Government to engage in ſuch a Speculation, and therefore declined proceeding in the Matter.

Q. Whether in the Courſe of that Tranſaction between Government and Mr. Beresford, through the Medium of him, Mr. Beresford did not ſeem deſirous that Government ſhould accede to the Meaſure?

A. That he did ſeem deſirous, and ſaid that if that Opportunity was not taken it was not likely to be recovered.

Mr. Thomas Sherrard,

Mr. Thomas Sherrard, ſworn and examined.

Q. Does he recollect at any Time making any Eſtimate for Mr. Beresford for the Purpoſe of laying before Government?

A. That he did make Eſtimates for Mr. Beresford by his Order, which he delivered to him in the Year 1791.

Q. Were thoſe Eſtimates made by Order of the Board?

A. They were not.

Right Hon. William Conyngham,

The Right Honorable William Conyngham, ſworn and examined.

Q. Whether he was a Commiſſioner of wide Streets in May, 1791?

A. He was.

Q. Whether he attended the Board on the 6th and 13th May, 1791?

A. He believes he did.

Q. Whether as a Commiſſioner he did not conceive that the 13th Clauſe in the Act of the thirty-firſt George II. is the only Authority that empowers the Commiſſioners to ſell or diſpoſe of Ground in their Poſſeſſion?

A. He always conceived that the Commiſſioners had Powers to purchaſe Grounds, and to ſell again, but he cannot ſay whether that was the only Authority; and that if any Objections were made at any Time, they had Reference to Counſel.

Q. Whether he conceives the Commiſſioners had a Power to let or diſpoſe of Grounds, which were not then in their Poſſeſſion?

A. Only conditionally.

Q. Whether he does not conceive that as the Board becomes poſſeſſed of thoſe Grounds which they agreed to diſpoſe of to Mr. Ottiwell, they are obliged to deliver him Poſſeſſion of the ſame?

A. He muſt have thought there was an Obligation, from what he recollects of his Objections to ſuch Engagement, as he ſtated to the Board that the Value of the Houſes unbought muſt be eſtimated by a Jury on the Value at the Time of the Inquiſition, and as the purchaſing of ſome Houſes and opening the Streets, would encreaſe the Value of all the neighbouring Grounds, the Jury might be under a Neceſſity of fixing a greater Value, than what was really the Value of thoſe Grounds at the Time of making ſaid Agreement.

John-Claudius Beresford, Eſq.

John-Claudius Beresford, Eſquire, ſworn and examined.

Q. Whether he was a Commiſſioner of wide Streets in May, 1791?

A. He was.

Q. Whether he was preſent at the Board on the 6th and 13th May, 1791?

A. He was on the 13th May, 1791.

Q. Whether as a Commiſſioner he did not conceive that the 13th Clauſe in the Act of the thirty-firſt of George II. is the only Authority that empowers the Commiſſioners to ſell or diſpoſe of Ground in their Poſſeſſion? and

A. That he did not read the Act ſo accurately as to know whether that is the only Clauſe, but he has read the Act and believes it is the only Clauſe.

Q. Whether

Q. Whether he conceives that the Commiſſioners were empowered to diſpoſe of Grounds not then in their Poſſeſſion?

A. He recollects the Day Mr. Ottiwell's Propoſal was opened, aſking him whether he wiſhed to bind the Commiſſioners to acquire thoſe other Grounds which he had propoſed for, and not then in their Poſſeſſion? to which he anſwered, that he did not; but as he was embarking in ſo large an Undertaking, he thought if he could by his own Endeavours raiſe the Price of the Grounds, he had a Right to the full Benefit of the Riſe; and as ſome of the other Commiſſioners ſeemed to think what he ſaid was reaſonable, he ſaid no more on that Day. That ſome Time after he was at the Board, and was informed that Mr. Conyngham and ſome other Gentlemen ſeemed to think that Part of the Bargain improvident, and that they had conſulted ſome Law Opinion to know whether they could ſet it aſide, and that it had been declared they could not, and he is therefore induced to think that the Bargain is legal.

John Brabazon Lyſter, Eſq ſworn and examined.

John-Brabazon Lyſter, Eſquire, ſworn and examined.

Q. Whether any Verdicts have been given by the Juries employed by the Board for valuing Grounds for the Commiſſioners of Wide Streets, ſubſequent to the Agreement made by them with Mr. Ottiwell, relative to the Grounds ſet to Mr. Ottiwell?

A. There was a Verdict returned on the 22d June, 1792, of the Houſes Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 on the North Strand, and Grounds and Buildings in their Rere. The Houſes Nos. 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, 104, 105, 106, 107 and 108 on the North Side of Abbey-ſtreet, and Grounds and Premiſes in their Rere, extending to Potter's-Alley, and the Intereſt of the Repreſentative of Donnelan, in the Houſe No. 103 on the North Side of Abbey-ſtreet.

Q. Whether there were any Purchaſes made in conſequence of that Verdict?

A. There were not.

Mr. Sherrard preſented a Letter from the Right Honorable Secretary Hobart to the Commiſſioners of Wide Streets, which was read at their Board on the 2d of Auguſt 1793, as follows, viz:

"Dublin Caſtle, 26th July 1793.

"Gentlemen,

"THE Lord Lieutenant upon Conſideration of the various Expences which the "preſent Circumſtances of the Country muſt "neceſſarily induce, has commanded me "earneſtly to deſire you not to proceed in "the Valuation of Grounds by Juries, or "taking any other Step to pledge the "Public in any other Expence whatſoever "for opening Streets, and particularly the "Communication Eaſtward of Carliſle Bridge "to the Cuſtom Houſe, and Southward of "Carliſle Bridge to the Parliament Houſe.

Mandeville againſt Lackey, in Error.

The Order of the Day being read for the Judges to deliver their Opinions upon the Queſtion of Law propoſed to them on Saturday the ſecond Inſtant;

The Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer delivered the unanimous Opinion of the Judges in the following Words, viz:

Judges Opinion.

" We are of Opinion that Edmond Mande- " ville, under the Will of James Butler, took " an Eſtate for his Life only, and not an Eſ- " tate in tail Male.

Whereupon the following Order and Judgment was made:

AFTER hearing Counſel on Friday and Saturday laſt, to argue the Errors aſſigned upon the Writ of Error brought into this Houſe the twentieth Day of February laſt, wherein Mary Mandeville is Plaintiff, and Robert Lackey, Leſſee of the Right Honorable Henry-Thomas Earl of Carrick, and alſo Leſſee of John Cronyn, is Defendant, in order to reverſe a Judgment given in the Court of King's Bench for the ſaid Defendant, and hearing the unanimous Opinion of the Judges upon the Queſtion of Law to them propoſed, and due Conſideration had of what was offered on either ſide in this Cauſe;

Judgment.

IT is ordered and adjudged by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Judgment of the Court of King's Bench be, and the ſame is hereby affirmed; and that the Record be remitted, to the end ſuch Proceedings may be had thereupon, as if no ſuch Writ of Error had been brought into this Houſe.

The Tenor of which Judgment to be affixed to the Tranſcript to be remitted, is as follows:

On which Day, before the ſame Court of Parliament at Dublin, came as well the ſaid Mary Mandeville, as the ſaid Robert Lackey, in their proper Perſons; but becauſe the Court of Parliament aforeſaid, now here are not yet adviſed to give their Judgment of and upon the Premiſſes, Day therefore is given as well to the ſaid Mary Mandeville, as to the ſaid Robert Lackey, before the ſaid Court of Parliament until Wedneſday the ſixth Day of May next enſuing, whereſoever &c. to hear their Judgment thereon. On which Day before the ſame Court of Parliament at Dublin, came as well the ſaid Mary Mandeville, as the ſaid Robert Lackey, in their proper Perſons; whereupon all and ſingular the Premiſſes being ſeen, and by the ſaid Court of Parliament, now here more fully underſtood, and as well the Record and Proceedings aforeſaid, and the Judgment thereupon given in the Court of King's Bench at Dublin, as the ſaid Cauſes and Matters above aſſigned for Error by the ſaid Mary Mandeville, being diligently examined and inſpected, and mature Deliberation being thereon had, it appears to the Court of Parliament aforeſaid now here, that there is no Error in the Record and Proceedings aforeſaid in giving the Judgment aforeſaid in the ſaid Court of King's Bench at Dublin, and that the ſaid Judgment ſo given as aforeſaid, is in no wiſe vicious or defective. Therefore it is conſidered by the Court of Parliament aforeſaid, that the Judgment aforeſaid given in the ſaid Court of King's Bench at Dublin, be in all things affirmed and in full force and effect as if no ſuch Writ of Error had been brought into this Houſe; and thereupon the Record aforeſaid, as alſo the Proceedings aforeſaid in the ſame Court of Parliament, in the Premiſſes had by the ſame Court of Parliament, to the Court of our ſaid Lord the King before the King himſelf, whereſoever he ſhall be in Ireland, are remitted, &c.

Upon reading the Memorial of Sir Chicheſter Forteſcue, Knight, Ulſter King of Arms of all Ireland, ſetting forth that Memorialiſt conceives he would be wanting in his Duty if he did not make known to their Lordſhips his ineffectual Endeavours to carry into Execution the Orders contained in their Lordſhips' Reſolutions of the twelfth of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, touching the Deſcent of the Peers. Memorial of King of Arms,

That an Inveſtigation of the Books of the Memorialiſt's Office, kept for the Purpoſe of conforming to the ſaid Reſolutions of their Lordſhips' Houſe, will exemplify the Fact, and point out to their Lordſhips the Cauſes of ſuch a defective Regiſtry.

That under ſuch Circumſtances, Memorialiſt ſhould hold himſelf unjuſtifiable in keeping from their Lordſhips the Knowledge thereof, particularly as he is under the ſaid Reſolutions made entitled to certain Fees for his Trouble and Expenſe in the Execution of ſuch Services, which for the Reaſons above mentioned, Memorialiſt deems himſelf no longer warranted to claim. He therefore prays that the ſeventh Article of the Reſolutions of their Lordſhips' Houſe of the twelfth of June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, may be withdrawn.

Memorialiſt truſts, that it will appear manifeſt to their Lordſhips by his paſt Endeavours to effect the Purpoſe of thoſe Reſolutions, that his Zeal is not wanting but forward to execute the Services required of him. And therefore reſts his Hopes on the Wiſdom of their Lordſhips, in pointing out to him a Mode more effectual for the Honor and Dignity of the Houſe of Peers, and more compatible with that Reſpectability which Ulſter feels a Right to claim, empowered by Virtue of his Patent, to demand his Dues unattended with that ungracious Impreſſion which Solicitation is ſo apt to create.

Report on Memorial of King of Arms.

The Lord Viſcount Harberton from the Select Committee, to whom the Conſideration of the Memorial of Sir Chicheſter Forteſcue, Ulſter King of Arms of all Ireland, was referred, made the following Report:

MY LORDS,

THE Select Committee to whom the Conſideration of the Memorial of Sir Chicheſter Forteſcue, Knight, Ulſter King of Arms of all Ireland, was referred, have met, and come to the following Reſolutions, viz:

1. Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that upon examining the Books of Ulſter King of Arms, kept by him under the the Reſolutions of the Houſe of Peers of twelfth June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight; he appears to have great Merit in the Endeavours he has uſed to carry thoſe Reſolutions into Effect; but we are notwithſtanding of Opinion, that thoſe Reſolutions are not adequate to the Purpoſe for which they were intended.

2. Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that ſome Difficulties have occurred which have prevented Ulſter King of Arms from complying fully with the fifth Reſolution of the twelfth June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight.

3. Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that at a convenient Period of each Seſſion of Parliament, a Committee of Privileges ſhould be appointed to examine the Books of Ulſter King of Arms, kept by him, conformable to the Reſolutions of the Houſe of Peers, in order to ſee that the Service required of him, be regularly and duly performed, and a Report made thereon to the Houſe.

4. Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that Ulſter King of Arms, ſhould be allowed a Clerk to aſſiſt in carrying on the Service required of him by this Houſe, under his Direction and at his Diſpoſal, with a Salary of ſeventy Pounds per Annum.

5. Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that Ulſter King of Arms, well deſerves the Conſideration and Attention of the Houſe of Peers, from his Aſſiduity and Exertions in the Duties of his Office, and is juſtly entitled to an Encreaſe of Salary, ſeeing that his perſonal Attendance upon the Houſe of Peers is equally required with that of other Officers, whoſe Recompences for their Services are much greater: And it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Sum of one hundred Pounds will be a reaſonable Addition to be made to his preſent Salary.

6. Reſolved, that it having appeared to us, that the Fees mentioned in the Reſolutions of the twelfth June, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-eight, have not been duly paid.—It is the Opinion of this Committee, that this inconvenience would be remedied by making the ſaid Reſolutions Standing Orders of this Houſe.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament as follows, viz.:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I AM directed by his Majeſty to convey to you his full Approbation of your Services in the preſent Seſſion and to relieve you from further Attendance in Parliament. It has afforded me infinite Satisfaction to obſerve ſince my arrival in this Kingdom, the great Temper and Wiſdom with which your Proceedings have been uniformly conducted.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I am particularly to expreſs his Majeſty's Acknowledgements for the very liberal Supplies, which you have contributed for the Service of the Empire and the Defence of the Kingdom with ſuch Unanimity and Chearfulneſs. The extent of your Grants is a convincing Proof how warmly you feel yourſelves intereſted in the vigorous Proſecution of a War rendered neceſſary by the wanton and unprovoked Attack of France, and involving in it the general Cauſe of ſocial Order, Morality and Religion in all civilized Countries. On my Part you may be aſſured they ſhall be faithfully applied to the great Purpoſes, for which they were granted.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

His Majeſty obſerves with the higheſt Satisfaction, that during the preſent Criſis you have not failed to cheriſh and to maintain the various Sources of your internal Proſperity. You have alſo completed the Intention ſo benevolently entertained of entirely relieving the poorer Claſſes from the Tax of Hearthmoney. A wiſe Foundation has been laid for educating at Home the Roman Catholic Clergy. A ſatisfactory Arrangement of the Treaſury has been confirmed by Law; and an Alteration of Duties has been introduced with a View to prevent the immoderate Uſe of Spirituous Liquors, and in the Hope of introducing a more general Habit of Sobriety amongſt the lower Orders of the People. In the Execution of theſe Meaſures you may depend upon my ſincere and earneſt Endeavours to purſue that wiſe and prudent Policy by which they were dictated.

On

On repairing to your reſpective Counties, which I cannot too ſtrongly and too earneſtly recommend, it is eſpecially incumbent upon you to make thoſe Exertions which the Times demand, and to inculcate the Neceſſity of an exact Submiſſion to the Laws. By contraſting the Bleſſings which reſult from a well regulated Liberty and peaceable Subordination, with the Miſchiefs which neceſſarily ſpring from Licentiouſneſs and Anarchy, you will encreaſe the Attachment of the People to our free and happy Conſtitution. To preſerve the Conſtitution inviolate is the great Object of his Majeſty in the preſent Conteſt, and he cannot but look to its fortunate Iſſue when he reflects on the Loyalty, Spirit and Power of his People, and on their juſt Senſe of the invaluable Inheritance for which they contend.

It will be the conſtant Object of my Adminiſtration, in which his Majeſty's Commands and my own perſonal Wiſhes are moſt intimately combined, to forward with unremitting Vigilance, the Welfare and Happineſs of this Country. Theſe Objects I cannot ſo effectually promote as by attending to, and acting upon thoſe eſtabliſhed Principles which form the Connexion between Great Britain and Ireland, and on which the Security, the Freedom and Proſperity of both Kingdoms moſt eſſentially depend.

After which the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the eleventh Day of Auguſt next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the eleventh Day of Auguſt next. Parliament prorogued.

Memorandum: The Parliament being prorogued to Tueſday the 11th Day of Auguſt 1795, it was, before the appointed time of Meeting, by Proclamation of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, dated the 10th Day of Auguſt 1795, further prorogued to Tueſday the 13th Day of October next.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

Lord Lieutenant preſent.

His Excellency John Jeffries, Earl Camden, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Marquis of Waterford carrying the Cap of Maintenance, and the Earl of Weſtmeath the Sword of State; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, 'till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and then ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Yeoman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint the Commons that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in this Houſe.

they enter.

And the Commons being come, they with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I HAVE received his Majeſty's Commands to meet you in Parliament.

It gives me the moſt ſincere Satisfaction to be authorized to inform you, that notwithſtanding the Advantages which the Enemy poſſeſſed at the Commencement of the laſt Year, and the Succeſſes which attended their Operations in the former Parts of the Campaign, the general Situation of Affairs is on the whole moſt eſſentially improved.

The continued and brilliant Succeſſes of the Auſtrian Armies upon the Rhine; the important Captures of the Cape of Good Hope and of Trincomalé by his Majeſty's Forces, and the decided and confirmed Superiority of his Fleets, are Circumſtances of the utmoſt Importance to the common Cauſe; and their Effect is ſtrengthened by the internal Diſtreſſes, the ruined Commerce, and increaſing Financial Embarraſſments of the Enemy.

The Criſis lately depending in France has led to an Order of Things in that Country, ſuch as will induce his Majeſty to meet any Diſpoſition to Negotiation on the Part of the Enemy, with an earneſt Deſire to give it the fulleſt and ſpeedieſt Effect, and to conclude a Treaty of general Peace when it may be effected on juſt and ſuitable Terms for himſelf and his Allies.

The Treaty of Commerce between his Majeſty and the United States of America having been mutually ratified, I have ordered Copies of it by his Majeſty's Command, to be laid before you.

I have the Pleaſure to announce to you that her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales has been happily delivered of a Princeſs: An Event which by giving additional Stability to his Majeſty's Auguſt Houſe, cannot fail to afford you the higheſt Satisfaction.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I obſerve with the ſincereſt Pleaſure that, notwithſtanding the continued Preſſure of the War, the Commerce and Revenues of this Kingdom have not in any Degree fallen from that flouriſhing State of Advancement, which in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament was a Subject of ſuch juſt Congratulation. This Circumſtance affords a deciſive Proof that your Proſperity is founded on a ſolid Baſis, and leads me to indulge the flattering Hope, that whatever additional Burthens you may find it neceſſary to impoſe, will not be materially felt by the People.

I have ordered the Public Accounts and Eſtimates for the enſuing Year to be laid before you, and have no Doubt of your Readineſs to provide ſuch Supplies as a due Senſe of the Exigencies of the Kingdom ſhall ſuggeſt, and the wiſe Policy of ſtrengthening his Majeſty's Exertions for procuring a ſolid and permament Peace ſhall appear to render neceſſary.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is with Regret that I feel myſelf obliged to advert to thoſe ſecret and treaſonable Aſſociations, the dangerous Extent and Malignancy of which have in ſome Degree been diſcloſed on ſeveral Trials, and to the Diſturbances which have taken Place in ſome Parts of the Kingdom. It has at the ſame Time been a Source of great Satisfaction to me to obſerve the ſucceſsful and meritorious Exertions of the Magiſtrates in ſeveral Parts of the Kingdom, and the Alacrity which his Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces have univerſally manifeſted in Aid of the Civil Power, whenever they have been called upon for the Preſervation of the Peace and Support of the Laws. It remains for your Prudence and Wiſdom to deviſe ſuch Meaſures as together, with a Continuance of thoſe Exertions, and the additional Powers, which by the Advice of the Privy Council, I have thought it neceſſary to eſtabliſh in different Counties, will prevent the Return of ſimilar Exceſſes, and reſtore a proper Reverence for the Laws of the Country.

The ſuperior and increaſing Importance of the Agriculture and Manufactures, and particularly of the Linen Manufacture of the Kingdom, will command your accuſtomed Support. Under the preſent Situation of Europe you cannot fail to attend with peculiar Vigilance to the general State of Proviſions; and if Circumſtances ſhall at any Time render your Interpoſition adviſable, I have no doubt of your adopting ſuch Meaſures as ſhall beſt apply to the exiſting Neceſſity of the Times.

I am alſo deſirous of pointing your Attention to the Proteſtant Charter Schools and other Inſtitutions of Public Charity and Improvement.

Your Unanimity and Zeal can never be of more Importance than at the preſent Criſis, in order to impreſs the Enemy with a thorough Conviction of the Reſources of his Majeſty's Kingdoms, and to procure a favorable Termination of your honorable Efforts. His Majeſty has the fulleſt Reliance on your Firmneſs and Attachment, and on the Fortitude, Spirit, and Perſeverance of his People.

It will be my Ambition, as it is my Duty, to repreſent your Zeal in his Majeſty's Service, and it will be my perſonal and moſt anxious Wiſh to co-operate with your Efforts in the common Cauſe in which we are all equally engaged and intereſted, and my utmoſt Endeavors ſhall be uſed to ſecure the Happineſs and Proſperity of this Kingdom, and to protect and maintain its moſt excellent Conſtitution.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered, and the Commons returned to to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table;

Speech to be printed.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, approaching his Throne with the moſt ſincere and ardent Profeſſions of affectionate Attachment to his Majeſty's royal Perſon, Family and Government.

To aſſure his Majeſty that we join with the univerſal Voice of his Majeſty's Subjects in Thankſgiving to the Almighty Power which averted the execrable Attempt of an Aſſaſſin upon his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and has preſerved to his People a Life ſo precious to their deareſt Intereſts, and to the anxious Feelings of their Hearts.

To expreſs our Joy in the ſafe Delivery of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales, and to congratulate his Majeſty upon the Acceſſion to his domeſtic Happineſs in the Birth of a Princeſs, an Event which by giving additional Stability to the Auguſt Houſe of Hanover, is to us a Subject of the higheſt Satisfaction.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we are happy in the Information his Majeſty has been pleaſed to communicate to us, that notwithſtanding the Advantages which the Enemy poſſeſſed at the Commencement of the laſt Year, and the Succeſſes which attended their Operations in the former Parts of the Campaign, the general Situation of Affairs is, on the whole moſt eſſentially improved.

That the continued and brilliant Succeſſes of the Auſtrian Armies upon the Rhine, the important Captures of the Cape of Good Hope and of Trincomalé by his Majeſty's Forces, and the decided Superiority of his Fleets, are Occaſions of cordial Rejoycing to us, and Circumſtances of the utmoſt Importance to the common Cauſe, and that we perceive how much their Effect muſt be ſtrengthened by the internal Diſtreſſes, the ruined Commerce, and the Financial Embarraſſments of the Enemy.

That we rejoice that the Criſis lately depending in France has led to an Order of Things in that Country, ſuch as will induce his Majeſty to meet any Diſpoſition to Negotiation on the Part of the Enemy with an earneſt Deſire to give it the fulleſt and ſpeedieſt Effect, and to conclude a Treaty of general Peace, when it may be effected on juſt and ſuitable Terms for his Majeſty and his Allies.

To thank his Majeſty for his Communication of the Treaty of Commerce which has been mutually ratified between his Majeſty and the United States of America.

To expreſs our deep Regret at thoſe ſecret and treaſonable Aſſociations, the dangerous Extent and Malignancy of which have in ſome Degree been diſcloſed on ſeveral Trials, and at the Diſturbances which have taken Place in ſome Parts of this Kingdom. That we have great Satisfaction in obſerving the Succeſsful and Meritorious Exertions of the Magiſtrates Magiſtrates in ſeveral Parts of the Kingdom. And that we have with no leſs Satisfaction beheld the Alacrity which his Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces have univerſally manifeſted in Aid of the Civil Power whenever they have been called upon for the Preſervation of the Peace and the Support of the Laws. And to aſſure his Majeſty, that he may rely upon our Co-operation to theſe important Ends, and we truſt that a Continuance of Exertion, with ſuch additional Powers as have been already eſtabliſhed, and may by the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature be created to meet the Evil, will prevent a Return of ſimilar Exceſſes, and reſtore the Reverence due to the Laws.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we ſhall not fail to give our Support to thoſe Objects of National Concern, recommended by his Majeſty to our Attention. The Agriculture, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture of this Kingdom. The Proteſtant Charter Schools, and other Inſtitutions of public Charity and Improvement.

To acknowledge with Gratitude the freſh Inſtance of his Majeſty's benevolent Attention to his People, in calling our peculiar Vigilance to the general State of Proviſions. And to aſſure his Majeſty, that ſhould Circumſtances render the Interpoſition of the Legiſlature adviſeable, we ſhall not fail to adopt ſuch Meaſures as may beſt apply to the exiſting Neceſſity of the Times.

To requeſt his Majeſty to accept our ſincere Thanks for continuing the Government of this Kingdom in the Care of a Nobleman whoſe public and private Virtues have endeared him to this Country, and from the Experience of whoſe temperate Firmneſs and Wiſdom, we are confident that the true Happineſs and Proſperity of Ireland are the ſteady Objects of his Adminiſtration.

That we feel the momentous Importance of the preſent Criſis, and the incumbent Duties of Unanimity and Zeal in our Proceedings. To thank his Majeſty for the juſt Reliance he places on our Firmneſs and Attachment. That the Fortitude, Spirit and Perſeverance of his People, and the Union of Affection and Sentiment which ſubſiſt between them and their Sovereign, muſt thoroughly convince the Enemy of the Reſources of his Majeſty's Kingdoms, and at length procure a favourable Termination to his Majeſty's juſt and honorable Efforts.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſcount Conyngham, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'Clock, in the Committee Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency John-Jeffries, Earl Camden, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of this Kingdom, to return his Excellency our Thanks for his Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament. Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſcount O'Neill and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning at eleven o'Clock, in the Committee Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

The Houſe being informed, that the Deputy Ulſter King of Arms attended, Return from Office of Arms,

He was called in, and delivered at the Bar,

A Return from the Office of Arms; alſo a correct Liſt of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Peereſſes of Ireland.

And then he withdrew.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Their

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet in the Committee Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, on Thurſday next at four o'Clock in the Afternoon, and ſo on every Thurſday, weekly.

Ordered, that the Lords preſent be appointed Lords Sub-Committees, to conſider of the Orders and Cuſtoms, and to peruſe and perfect the Journals of this Houſe.

Their Lordſhips, or any two of them, to meet when, where, and as often as they pleaſe.

Ordered, That the daily Attendance of all the Judges be diſpenſed with, and that two only be required to attend the Service of this Houſe, till further Order of this Houſe.

Ordered, that the Judges do enquire what Laws have lately expired, or are near expiring, and report, that the Houſe may take it into their Conſideration which of ſuch Laws are proper to be revived or continued.

The Lord Viſcount Conyngham reported from the Lords Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, nemine diſſentiente, as follows, viz:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, approach your Throne with moſt ſincere and ardent Profeſſions of affectionate Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

We join with the univerſal Voice of your Majeſty's Subjects, in Thankſgiving to the Almighty Power, which averted the execrable Attempt of an Aſſaſſin upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and has preſerved to your People, a Life ſo precious to their deareſt Intereſts, and to the anxious Feelings of their Hearts.

We rejoice in the ſafe Delivery of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales, and we ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty upon the Acceſſion to your domeſtic Happineſs in the Birth of a Princeſs. An Event which by giving additional Stability to the Auguſt Houſe of Hanover, is to us a Subject of the higheſt Satisfaction.

We are happy in the Information your Majeſty has been pleaſed to communicate to us, that notwithſtanding the Advantages which the Enemy poſſeſſed at the Commencement of the laſt Year, and the Succeſſes which attended their Operations in the former Parts of the Campaign, the general Situation of Affairs is on the whole moſt eſſentially improved.

The continued and brilliant Succeſſes of the Auſtrian Armies upon the Rhine. The important Captures of the Cape of Good Hope and of Trincomalé by your Majeſty's Forces, and the decided Superiority of your Fleets are Occaſions of cordial Rejoicing to us, and Circumſtances of the utmoſt Importance to the common Cauſe. And we perceive how much their Effect muſt be ſtrengthened by the internal Diſtreſſes, the ruined Commerce and the Financial Embarraſſments of the Enemy.

We rejoice that the Criſis lately depending in France has led to an Order of Things in that Country, ſuch as will induce your Majeſty to meet any Diſpoſition to Negotiation on the part of the Enemy with an earneſt Deſire to give it the fulleſt and ſpeedieſt Effect, and to conclude a Treaty of general Peace, when it may be effected on juſt and ſuitable Terms for your Majeſty and your Allies.

We humbly thank your Majeſty for your Communication of the Treaty of Commerce which has been mutually ratified between your Majeſty and the United States of America.

We deeply regret thoſe ſecret and treaſonable Aſſociations, the dangerous Extent and Malignancy of which have in ſome Degree been diſcloſed on ſeveral Trials, and the Diſturbances which have taken Place in ſome Parts of the Kingdom. We have great Satisfaction in obſerving the ſucceſsful and meritorious Exertions of the Magiſtrates in ſeveral Parts of the Kingdom. We have with no leſs Satisfaction beheld the Alacrity which your Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces have univerſally manifeſted in Aid of the Civil Power whenever they have been called upon for the Preſervation of the Peace and the Support of the Laws. Your Majeſty may rely on our Co-operation to thoſe important Ends; and we truſt that a Continuance of Exertion with ſuch additional Powers as have been already eſtabliſhed, and may by the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature be created to meet the Evil, will prevent a Return of ſimilar Exceſſes and reſtore the Reverence due to the Laws.

We ſhall not fail to give our Support to thoſe Objects of National Concern recommended by your Majeſty to our Attention. The Agriculture, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture of this Kingdom, the Proteſtant Charter Schools and other Inſtitutions of Public Charity and Improvement.

We acknowledge with Gratitude the freſh Inſtance of your Majeſty's benevolent Attention to your People in calling our peculiar Vigilance to the general State of Proviſions. Should Circumſtances render the Interpoſition of the Legiſlature adviſeable, we ſhall not fail to adopt ſuch Meaſures as may beſt apply to the exiſting Neceſſity of the Times.

We requeſt your Majeſty to accept our ſincere Thanks for continuing the Government of this Kingdom in the Care of a Nobleman whoſe public and private Virtues have endeared him to this Country, and from the Experience of whoſe temperate Firmneſs and Wiſdom, we are confident that the true Happineſs and Proſperity of Ireland, are the ſteady Objects of his Adminiſtration.

We feel the momentuous Importance of the preſent Criſis, and the incumbent Duties of Unanimity and Zeal in our Proceedings. We thank your Majeſty for the juſt reliance you place on our Firmneſs and Attachment. The Fortitude, Spirit and Perſeverance of your People, and the Union of Affection and Sentiment which ſubſiſts between them and their Sovereign, muſt thoroughly convince the Enemy of the Reſources of your Majeſty's Kingdoms, and at length procure a favourable Termination of your Majeſty's juſt and honorable Efforts.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order that the ſame may be laid before his Majeſty.

The Lord Viſcount O'Neill, reported from the Lords Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, nemine diſſentiente, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency

JOHN-JEFFRIES EARL CAMDEN,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our ſincere Thanks for your Excellent Speech from the Throne.

We are happy in the Information your Excellency is pleaſed to communicate to us, that notwithſtanding the early Advantages of the Enemy, and their Succeſſes in the former Parts of the Campaign, the general Situation of Affairs is on the whole moſt eſſentially improved.

The continued and brilliant Succeſſes of the Auſtrian Armies upon the Rhine; the important Captures of the Cape of Good Hope and of Trincomalé by his Majeſty's Forces, and the decided Superiority of his Fleets, are of the utmoſt Importance to the Common Cauſe, and their Effect muſt be ſtrengthened by the internal Diſtreſſes, the ruined Commerce and increaſing Financial Embarraſſments, which the deſperate and unhappy Policy of the Enemy has brought upon their Country.

We learn with the higheſt Satisfaction, that the Criſis lately depending in France, has led to an order of Things in that Country, ſuch as will induce his Majeſty to meet any Diſpoſition to Negotiation on the Part of the Enemy, with an earneſt Deſire to give it the fulleſt and ſpeedieſt Effect, and to conclude a Treaty of general Peace when it may be effected on juſt and ſuitable Terms for himſelf and his Allies.

We humbly thank your Excellency for directing the Treaty of Commerce between his Majeſty and the United States of America to be laid before us.

The ſafe Delivery of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales and the Birth of a Princeſs, are Events which upon every Conſideration give us the higheſt Satisfaction.

We look with Indignation and Horror to thoſe ſecret and treaſonable Aſſociations, the dangerous Extent and Malignancy of which, have in ſome Degree been diſcloſed on ſeveral Trials, and to the Diſturbances which have taken Place in ſome Parts of the Kingdom; and we acknowledge with Gratitude the unremitted Attention and ſpirited Aſſiſtance which your Excellency has given to the Suppreſſion of thoſe Outrages: we have obſerved with great Satisfaction the ſucceſsful and meritorious Exertions of the Magiſtrates in ſeveral Parts of the Kingdom, and the Alacrity which his Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces have univerſally manifeſted in Aid of the Civil Power whenever they have been called upon for the Preſervation of the Peace, and the ſupport of the Law. Your Excellency may depend upon our chearful Co-operation. And we truſt that a Continuance of Exertion with ſuch additional Powers as have been already eſtabliſhed, and may by the Wiſdom of the Legiſlature be created to to meet the Evil, will prevent the Return of ſimilar Exceſſes, and reſtore a due Reverence for the Laws.

The ſuperior Importance of the Agriculture and Manufactures of this Kingdom, increaſing under the auſpicious Influence of our happy Conſtitution, and the mild Protection of his Majeſty's Government, ſhall command our accuſtomed Support, and we will not fail in our Attention to the Proteſtant Charter Schools and other Inſtitutions of public Charity and Improvement.

We are eſpecially bound to thank your Excellency for your humane Benevolence in calling our Vigilance and Attention to the general State of Proviſions. Should Circumſtances render the Interpoſition of the Legiſlature adviſeable, we ſhall adopt ſuch Meaſures as may be applicable to the exiſting Neceſſity of the Times.

We are fully ſenſible of his Majeſty's Goodneſs in continuing your Excellency in the Government of this Kingdom, perſuaded that in your Excellency's Hands, it will ever be conducted with that Wiſdom, Firmneſs and Benignity, of which we have had ſuch happy Experience.

We ſhall manifeſt that Spirit of Unanimity and Zeal which is of ſo great Importance at the preſent Criſis, in order to impreſs the Enemy with a thorough Conviction of the Reſources of his Majeſty's Kingdoms, and to procure a favourable Termination to his Majeſty's juſt and honorable Efforts. We entreat your Excellency to repreſent in their full Light our faithful Duty and affectionate Loyalty to his Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government, and to aſſure his Majeſty that he may place the moſt entire Reliance on our Firmneſs and Attachment, and on the Fortitude, Spirit and Perſeverance of his People of Ireland.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know what Time he will pleaſe to appoint to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that, in Obedience to their Lordſhips' Order, he had waited on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know what Time he would pleaſe to appoint to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency, and that his Excellency was pleaſed to appoint To-morrow at three o'Clock, at the Caſtle.

Hayden againſt Carroll.

The Order of the Day being read, for the Judges to deliver their Opinions upon the Queſtions put to them on Thurſday laſt.

Mr. Juſtice Kelly delivered the Opinion of the Judges on the firſt Queſtion, in the following Manner, viz:

Judges' Opinion.

That the eighth Section of the Act of the thirty-third of George the Second, which enacts, "that the real and perſonal Eſtates of a Banker dying, ſtopping Payment, abſconding or concealing himſelf, are liable and ſubject to the Payment of all and every of his Debts of what Nature or Kind ſoever they may be without any Regard to Priority or Preference in Point of Payment, except in the Inſtances ſpecified therein," extends to all the Debts of ſuch Banker indiſcriminately.

And on the ſecond Queſtion, delivered the Opinion of the Judges in the following Words, viz:

That all Deeds and Conveyances executed by ſuch Banker, not regiſtered purſuant to the Act, are void againſt the Creditors at large of ſuch Banker.

Then the following Order and Judgment was made:

AFTER hearing Counſel on Monday, Tueſday, Wedneſday and Thurſday laſt, upon the Petition and Appeal of Henry Hayden, Eſquire, Frances Hayden, otherwiſe Hunt Wife of ſaid Henry Hayden, William-Edward Hayden, Henry Hayden, Charles Hayden, Joſeph Hayden, Frances Hayden and Elizabeth Hayden, Infants, Children of ſaid Henry and Frances Hayden, by Henry Hayden, their Father and next Friend, Edward Hunt, and Chriſtopher Hunt, Eſquires, complaining of a Decree of the Court of Chancery, of the twenty-fourth Day of July, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five, and praying that the ſame might be reverſed, or that the Appellants might have ſuch other Relief as to this Houſe ſhould ſeem meet; as alſo upon the Anſwer of John Carroll, Merchant, Humphrey Jones, Eſquire, and Daniel Connors, put in to the ſaid Appeal, and after hearing the Opinion of the Judges upon the Queſtions of Law to them propoſed, and due Conſideration had of what was offered on either Side in this Cauſe.

IT is ordered and adjudged by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Decree be affirmed, with the following Variation, viz. That it is declared and adjudged, that all Bonds and other Deeds or Conveyances executed by the ſaid Henry Hayden and Bartholomew Rivers reſpectively, for ſecuring any Debts ſince they became Bankers, are and ſhall be deemed fraudulent and void, as againſt all and every the Creditor and Creditors of the ſaid Henry Hayden and Bartholomew Rivers. And that the Words "the Creditors of the Bank lately "held by them at the City of Waterford," be expunged in that Part of the Decree ſo varied. Judgment,

To this Bill the Deputy Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, in theſe Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſirè."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

IN releaſing you from further Attendance in Parliament, I am peculiarly commanded by his Majeſty to thank you for that conſpicuous Zeal and Unanimity, ſo honorable to yourſelves, and ſo impreſſive on our Enemies, which have marked your Conduct through the whole Seſſion, in promoting by your Energy and Temper the Intereſts of your Country, and in ſupporting by your Spirit and Liberality, the common Cauſe of the Empire.

His Majeſty has taken the Steps, which appeared moſt proper, for ſetting on Foot a Negotiation for general Peace, if the Enemy ſhould be diſpoſed to enter into ſuch a Negotiation on Grounds conſiſtent with the Safety, Honor, and Intereſt of his Majeſty's Kingdoms, and of his Allies.

If his Majeſty's Views in this Reſpect ſhould fail, he has no Doubt that the Valour of his Subjects, the Reſources of his Kingdoms, and the Exertions of the Powers engaged with him, will ultimately produce this deſirable End.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I am to thank you in his Majeſty's Name, for the Cheerfulneſs and Liberality with which you have provided for the current Services of the Year, and it affords me the higheſt Satisfaction to reflect that theſe Objects have been attained by Burthens ſo judiciouſly impoſed, that they can ſcarcely affect the lower Orders of the People. It is equally ſatisfactory to obſerve, that your Strength and Proſperity remain undiminiſhed, notwithſtanding the Preſſure of the War, and it will be my Endeavour to cheriſh your Reſources, and apply your Liberality with Oeconomy and Prudence.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Enquiries I had ordered to be made with regard to the Produce of the laſt Harveſt, and the Meaſures taken by you to prevent the Export of Grain, muſt relieve the public Mind from an Apprehenſion of Scarcity. If any illicit Means ſhould be attempted to evade the Proviſions of the Laws, which have been enacted upon this important Subject, I ſhall be attentive in exerciſing thoſe Powers with which I am entruſted.

The vigorous Meaſures you have adopted for the Suppreſſion of Inſurrection and Outrage, and the wiſe Proviſions you have made for preventing the Extenſion of ſimilar Offences, muſt have the moſt ſalutary Effects.

The new Regulation of Licenſes under the Superintendence of Magiſtrates will tend to promote Tranquillity and Sobriety. The Eſtabliſhment of more frequent Seſſions of the Peace will afford an eaſy and expeditious Adminiſtration of Juſtice in the different Diſtricts throughout the Kingdom. The liberal Increaſe of the Salaries of the Judges, and the Alteration of the Civil Bill Juriſdiction, for the Convenience of the lower Ranks of the People, will enſure the conſtant and regular Attention of his Majeſty's Judges to the civil and criminal Buſineſs, that will remain to be done on the Circuits.

Theſe Meaſures cannot but demonſtrate to the People at large the Firmneſs and the Temper of Parliament, which, whilſt it is determined to repreſs the Exceſſes of Licentiouſneſs and Outrage, is at the ſame Time, anxious to enſure to the Country thoſe permanent Advantages of Security, Peace and good Order, which are to be derived from a prompt and upright Adminiſtration of Juſtice.

I cannot too ſtrongly recommend it to you to give Effect to theſe Benefits by your Example and Preſence, and I am confident that when you are relieved from your Duty in Parliament, all Ranks and Deſcriptions of his Majeſty's faithful Subjects, will feel themſelves protected by your Exertions and Authority in your different Counties.

Your kind Declarations in favor of my Adminiſtration make the deepeſt Impreſſion upon my Feelings. If I have any Claim to your Confidence and good Opinion, it ariſes from the Fidelity with which I have repreſented to his Majeſty your Loyalty and Zeal, and, from the ſincere Deſire I feel to conform form my Conduct to your Sentiments. Great Britain and Ireland form one Empire; they are inſeparably connected; they muſt ſtand or fall together, and we are all equally engaged, becauſe we are all equally intereſted in the common Cauſe of defending and upholding our Religion, our Laws, and our Conſtitution.

After which the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Parliament prorogued.

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the fourteenth Day of June next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the fourteenth Day of June next.

Return from Office of Arms.

The Houſe being informed, that Ulſter King of Arms attended,

He was called in, and delivered at the Bar,

A Return from the Office of Arms; alſo, a correct Liſt of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Peereſſes of Ireland.

And then he withdrew.

And the Titles thereof being read by the Clerk.

Ordered, that the ſaid Return and Liſt do lie on the Table.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed. And

Lord Lieutenant preſent.

His Excellency John-Jeffries, Earl Camden, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Marquis of Clanricarde carrying the Cap of Maintenance, and the Marquis of Waterford the Sword of State; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, 'till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and then ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Yeoman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint the Commons that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in this Houſe.

they enter.

And the Commons being come, they with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament as follows, viz:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I HAVE his Majeſty's Commands to acquaint you that he has thought it neceſſary to require your Attendance in Parliament at this early Period, and to reſort to your deliberative Wiſdom at a Time when the ambitious Projects of our Enemies have threatened to interrupt the Happineſs and Proſperity of his People, by making a Deſcent on this Kingdom and Great Britain. And although his Majeſty looks forward with the utmoſt Confidence to the Spirit, Loyalty and Ability of his faithful People of Ireland to repel ſuch an Attack, it will yet become your Wiſdom to neglect no Precautions which may preclude the Attempt, or ſecure the ſpeedieſt Means of turning it to the Confuſion of the Enemy.

His Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to direct an Addition to be made to the Regular Forces in this Kingdom by Troops ſent from Great Britain, the greater Part of which is already arrived. And in purſuance of his Majeſty's Commands, I have alſo encouraged the loyal and zealous Diſpoſition which has generally diſplayed itſelf to aſſociate in Arms under his Majeſty's Authority, for the better Security of Property, and the Preſervation of Tranquillity and good Order.

I have at the ſame Time his Majeſty's Commands to acquaint you, that in Conſequence of the Steps which he has taken to reſtore Peace to Europe, and to ſecure its future Tranquillity, a Way has at length been opened for an immediate and direct Negotiation, and that it is his Majeſty's Intention to ſend a Perſon to Paris with full Powers to treat for the Reſtoration of general Peace.

The apparently hoſtile Diſpoſitions and Conduct of the Court of Spain, has led to Diſcuſſions, of which I am not able to acquaint you with the final Reſult; but whatever may be their Iſſue they cannot but afford to Europe a farther Proof of his Majeſty's Moderation and Forbearance, and cannot fail to animate your utmoſt Exertions in defending the Dignity, Rights and Intereſts of his Empire againſt every Aggreſſion.

In reviewing the Events of this Year, it muſt afford you the greateſt Satisfaction to obſerve that by the Spirit and Exertions of his Majeſty's Navy, the Commerce of his Kingdoms has been protected in a Degree almoſt beyond Example, and in no Part more completely than by the Skill, Activity and Bravery of the Squadron ſtationed on the Coaſts of this Kingdom.

The Succeſs of his Majeſty's Arms in the Eaſt and Weſt Indies has been highly honorable and advantageous to the Empire, and evinces in the ſtrongeſt Manner the Valour and good Conduct of his Forces both by Sea and Land.

The ſteady and dignified Conduct of the Emperor, and the Intrepidity and Spirit of the Auſtrian Forces under the Command of the Arch-Duke Charles, have given ſo eſſential a Change to the Aſpect of Affairs on the Continent, as to inſpire a well grounded Confidence that the final Reſult of the Campaign, will be ſuch, as materially to promote his Majeſty's Endeavours to obtain a ſafe and honorable Peace for himſelf and his Allies.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered to be laid before you an Account of ſuch Articles of Expenſe as are not included in the Eſtimates for the current Year, and which the preſent Circumſtances have rendered neceſſary, and when you conſider the great Intereſts for which we are engaged, and the Objects for which we are contending, I doubt not that you will grant the Supplies which may be requiſite for them, with your accuſtomed Chearfulneſs and Liberality; and when the ordinary Accounts and Eſtimates for the enſuing Year ſhall be laid before you, I truſt you will then proceed with the Zeal you have always manifeſted in providing for the Exigencies of the State and the honorable Support of his Majeſty's Government.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Expediency of the vigorous Meaſures which you adopted in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament has been amply proved, by thoſe Outrages which they were intended to ſuppreſs, having in a great Meaſure ſubſided. I have, however, to lament that in one Part of the Country, good Order has not yet been entirely reſtored, and that in other Diſtricts, a treaſonable Syſtem of ſecret Confederation, by the adminiſtring of illegal Oaths ſtill continues, although no Means within the Reach of Government have been left untried to counteract it.

You will not fail at a proper Time, to continue your Attention to the Manufactures, the Agriculture, and the Commerce of the Country, and to extend your accuſtomed Benevolence to the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and the other Inſtitutions of Education and Charity, which has been ſo long foſtered by your liberal Encouragement.

The Proſperity and Reſources of the Kingdom ſo highly improved by your meritorious Care, ſtill remain unimpaired by the Preſſure of the War; and I truſt to your unremitting Attention for the further Advancement of the national Proſperity.

You have learnt the Steps which his Majeſty has taken to procure the Bleſſings of general Peace upon a ſolid and permanent Baſis. Should theſe gracious Endeavours of his Majeſty not be followed by the Succeſs which he has every Reaſon to expect, he is ſatisfied that the Affections, Courage and Perſeverance of his People, will enable him to fruſtrate the Deſigns of our Enemies, and to maintain the Honor and Dignity of his Crown.

It will afford me the higheſt Satisfaction to be aided at this important Criſis by your Advice, and I rely with a Confidence, you have taught me to indulge, upon your liberal Interpretation of my Conduct, and upon that Support I have ſo amply experienced ſince I received his Majeſty's Commands to repair to this Country. And it will be peculiarly gratifying to me, if I ſhould have the good Fortune, in the Adminiſtration of the King's Government, to impreſs upon your Minds, the full Extent of his Majeſty's paternal Care of this Kingdom, and of my own Anxiety to promote by every Means, its Intereſts, its Safety, and its Proſperity.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table;

Speech to be printed.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to aſſure his Majeſty, that his moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, bled, beg Leave to approach his Majeſty with the moſt cordial Declarations of their unfeigned Attachment to his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, Family and Government.

To aſſure his Majeſty, we are truly ſenſible of his Majeſty's Confidence in his Parliament by aſſembling us at this early Period, when a Deſcent on this Kingdom and Great Britain is meditating by our ambitious Enemies.

That we ſhall certainly neglect no Means or Precaution in our Power which may preclude ſuch an Attempt, and may turn it to the Confuſion of the Enemy.

That his Majeſty can ſecurely depend on our unanimous Exertions, and on the Spirit, Loyalty and Ability of his faithful People.

That we beg Leave to offer our Acknowlegements to his Majeſty for the Addition of Regular Forces which at this critical Period he ordered to be ſent into this Kingdom from Great Britain, and that we admire the Wiſdom of his Majeſty's Government in encouraging the loyal and zealous Diſpoſition which has generally diſplayed itſelf to aſſociate in Arms under his Majeſty's Authority, for the better Security of Property and the Preſervation of Tranquillity and good Order.

That we learn with ſincere Satisfaction, that a Way has at length been opened for an immediate and direct Negotiation by the wiſe Steps his Majeſty has taken for reſtoring and preſerving the Tranquillity of Europe, and that we entertain a juſt Hope that the Efforts of the Perſon whom his Majeſty intends ſending to Paris to treat for the Reſtoration of General Peace will be followed with complete Succeſs.

That the Diſpoſition and Conduct of the Court of Spain ſo apparently hoſtile have filled us with Concern and Indignation, and that we wait with Anxiety for the Reſult of the Diſcuſſion to which they have led. That whilſt on the one Hand Europe cannot too much applaud this additional Proof of his Majeſty's Moderation and Forbearance, his Majeſty may on the other Hand rely on our warmeſt Exertions to defend the Dignity, Rights and Intereſts of the Empire from every Aggreſſion.

That we obſerve with Pleaſure that the Commerce of the Empire has received a Protection almoſt unexampled by the ſpirited Exertions of his Majeſty's Navy, and that we feel particularly indebted to his Majeſty's paternal Attention to the Intereſts of Ireland in aſſigning a Squadron to the Guardianſhip of our Coaſts which has diſplayed ſuch eminent Skill, Activity and Bravery.

That at the ſame Time, we obſerve with Pleaſure the Succeſs of his Majeſty's Arms in the Eaſt and Weſt Indies which has evinced the Valour and good Conduct of his Forces, and has at once been highly honorable to themſelves and advantageous to the Empire.

That we are juſtly impreſſed by the manly and dignified Conduct of the Emperor, and the Intrepidity and Spirit of the Auſtrian Forces under the Command of the Arch-Duke Charles; and when we reflect on the eſſential Change which their perſevering Valour has produced in the Affairs of the Continent, we truſt that his Majeſty's Endeavours to procure an honorable Peace for himſelf and his Allies will be materially promoted by the final Iſſue of the Campaign.

To expreſs our Satisfaction that our Efforts in the laſt Seſſion for the Suppreſſion of Outrage have been happily attended with general Succeſs; that we lament however, that in one Part of the Country, good Order has not been entirely reſtored, and that notwithſtanding the Exertions of his Majeſty's Government a Syſtem of ſecret Confederation under illegal Oaths ſtill continues: But that his Majeſty may be aſſured of our determined Reſolution to counteract by every Means in our Power ſuch dangerous Aſſociations.

To aſſure his Majeſty that the Manufactures, Agriculture and Commerce of the Kingdom, will engage our moſt ſerious Attention at the Proper Seaſon; and that we ſhall continue that liberal Encouragement which has ſo long and wiſely maintained the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and other public Inſtitutions of Education and Charity.

That we acknowledge his Majeſty's Condeſcenſion in aſcribing to our Care the Proſperity of the Kingdom, and the Preſervation of its Reſources under the Preſſure of War. That our Endeavours will be unremittingly directed for their further Advancement.

That his Majeſty having announced to us the Steps he has taken to procure the Bleſſings of a ſolid and permanent Peace, we beg Leave to aſſure his Majeſty, that if the deſerved Succeſs ſhall not attend his benevolent Efforts, the firmeſt Reliance may be placed on our unalterable Zeal and Loyalty: The Exertions of his Majeſty's People will riſe in Proportion to the Danger which may threaten the Empire, and will enable his Majeſty to repel every hoſtile Attack, and to vindicate the Honor and Dignity of his Crown.

That we return our humble Thanks to his Majeſty for continuing the Earl Camden in the Adminiſtration of this Kingdom, and that whilſt he is endeared to our Affection by his amiable and benevolent Virtues, we have the fulleſt Confidence in his Firmneſs, Integrity and Abilities: And that we feel ſatisfied that he will ever faithfully re-preſent our Exertions in his Majeſty's Service, and zealouſly purſue the true Intereſts of the Nation.

Ordered, that the Marquis of Downſhire, and all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'Clock, in the Committee Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency John-Jeffries, Earl Camden, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of this Kingdom, to return his Excellency our Thanks for his Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

Ordered, that the Earl of Ormonde and Oſſory and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning at eleven o'Clock, in the Committee Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Earl of Weſtmeath's Petition,

Upon reading the Petition of George-Frederick Nugent Earl of Weſtmeath, praying Leave to bring in a Bill to diſſolve his Marriage with Ann Counteſs of Weſtmeath his now Wife, and to enable him to marry again, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

And alſo, upon reading the following Entry in the Journal of this Houſe of the nineteenth of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, viz: and

" Mr. Thomas Mangan Deputy Regiſter of " the Conſiſtorial Court of Dublin (according " to Order) attended at the Bar, and produ- " ced the Definitive Sentence of Divorce in " the Spiritual Court mentioned in the Earl " of Weſtmeath's Petition to this Houſe.

Ordered, that Leave be given to bring in a Bill purſuant to the Prayer of the ſaid Petition. Order thereon:

His Divorce Bill,

The Marquis of Downſhire reported from the Lords Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, nemine diſſentiente, as follows, viz:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King. WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the moſt cordial Declarations of our unfeigned Attachment to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, Family and Government.

We are truly ſenſible of your Majeſty's Confidence in your Parliament, by aſſembling us at this early Period, when a Deſcent on this Kingdom and Great Britain is meditating by our ambitious Enemies. We ſhall certainly neglect no Means or Precaution in our Power which may preclude ſuch an Attempt, and may turn it to the Confuſion of the Enemy. Your Majeſty can ſecurely depend on our unanimous Exertions, and on the Spirit, Loyalty, and Ability of your faithful People.

We beg Leave to offer our Acknowledgments to your Majeſty for the Addition of Regular Forces which at this critical Period you ordered to be ſent into this Kingdom from Great Britain, and we admire the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Government, in encouraging the loyal and zealous Diſpoſition which has generally diſplayed itſelf to aſſociate in Arms under your Majeſty's Authority, for the better Security of Property, and the Preſervation of Tranquillity and good Order.

We learn with ſincere Satisfaction, that a Way has at length been opened for an immediate and direct Negotiation, by the wiſe Steps your Majeſty has taken for reſtoring and preſerving the Tranquillity of Europe. And we entertain a juſt Hope, that the Efforts of the Perſon whom your Majeſty intends ſending to Paris to treat for the Reſtoration of general Peace, will be followed with complete Succeſs.

The Diſpoſition and Conduct of the Court of Spain, ſo apparently hoſtile, have filled us with Concern and Indignation, and we wait with Anxiety for the Reſult of the Diſcuſſion to which they have led. Whilſt on one Hand, Europe cannot too much applaud this additional Proof of your Majeſty's Moderation and Forbearance; your Majeſty may on the other Hand, rely on our warmeſt Exertions, to defend the Dignity, Rights and Intereſts of the Empire, from every Aggreſſion.

We obſerve with Pleaſure, that the Commerce of the Empire has received a Protection almoſt unexampled, by the ſpirited Exertions of your Majeſty's Navy, and we feel particularly indebted to your Majeſty's paternal Attention to the Intereſts of Ireland, in aſſigning a Squadron to the Guardianſhip of our Coaſts, which has diſplayed ſuch eminent Skill, Activity and Bravery.

At the ſame Time, the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Eaſt and Weſt Indies, has evinced the Valour and good Conduct of your Majeſty's Forces, and has at once been highly honorable to themſelves, and advantageous to the Empire.

We are juſtly impreſſed by the manly and dignified Conduct of the Emperor, and the Intrepidity and Spirit of the Auſtrian Forces under the Command of the Arch-Duke Charles. And when we reflect on the eſſential Change which their perſevering Valour has produced in the Affairs of the Continent, we truſt that your Majeſty's Endeavours to procure an honorable Peace for yourſelf and your your Allies, will be materially promoted by the final Iſſue of the Campaign.

Our Efforts in the laſt Seſſion for the Suppreſſion of Outrage have been happily attended with general Succeſs. We lament, however, that in one Part of the Country, good Order has not been entirely reſtored, and that notwithſtanding the Exertions of your Majeſty's Government, a Syſtem of ſecret Confederation under illegal Oaths ſtill continues. But your Majeſty may be aſſured of our determined Reſolution to counteract by every Means in our Power, ſuch dangerous Aſſociations.

The Manufactures, Agriculture and Commerce of the Kingdom, will engage our moſt ſerious Attention at the proper Seaſon; and we ſhall continue that liberal Encouragement which has ſo long and wiſely maintained the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and other public Inſtitutions of Education and Charity.

We acknowledge your Majeſty's Condeſcenſion in aſcribing to our Care the Proſperity of the Kingdom, and the Preſervation of its Reſources under the Preſſure of War; and our Endeavours will be unremittingly directed for their further Advancement.

Your Majeſty having announced to us the Steps you have taken to procure the Bleſſings of a ſolid and permanent Peace, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that if the deſerved Succeſs ſhall not attend your benevolent Efforts, the firmeſt Reliance may be placed on our unalterable Zeal and Loyalty. The Exertions of your Majeſty's People will riſe in Proportion to the Danger which may threaten the Empire, and will enable your Majeſty to repel every hoſtile Attack, and to vindicate the Honor and Dignity of your Crown.

We thank your Majeſty for continuing Earl Camden in the Adminiſtration of this Kingdom, whilſt he is endeared to our Affection by his amiable and benevolent Virtues, we have the fulleſt Confidence in his Firmneſs, Integrity and Abilities, and we feel ſatisfied, that he will ever faithfully repreſent our Exertions in your Majeſty's Service, and zealouſly purſue the true Intereſts of the Nation.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order that the ſame may be laid before his Majeſty.

The Earl of Ormonde and Oſſory, reported from the Lords Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, nemine diſſentiente, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency

JOHN-JEFFRIES EARL CAMDEN,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our unfeigned Thanks for your excellent Speech made this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Gratitude to his Majeſty for continuing to us a Chief Governor ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed, as well by his amiable and domeſtic Virtues, as by his public Firmneſs, Uprightneſs and Ability.

We thank your Excellency for communicating to us in his Majeſty's Name, that the Enemy threaten a Deſcent on this Kingdom and Great Britain. This Intimation leſs calculated to alarm than to excite our Feelings, will ſtimulate us to evince that Loyalty and Spirit in which we truſt his Majeſty fully relies: We ſhall neglect no Precaution for preventing or defeating all hoſtile Attacks which may be attempted, and we doubt not they will quickly terminate in the Confuſion of our Enemies.

We beg Leave to acknowledge your Excellency's Attention to our Security, in procuring an additional Supply of Regular Troops from Great Britain, and in encouraging the zealous and loyal Diſpoſition which is ſo univerſally diſplayed to aſſociate in Arms under his Majeſty's Authority. Such Exertions if continued with Perſeverance, will enable us to repel any Attack with the ſureſt Proſpect of Succeſs, and will preſerve internal Tranquillity, and give additional Security to Property.

Your Excellency has afforded us great Satisfaction by announcing to us, that his Majeſty has opened a Way for an immediate and direct Negotiation, and that it is his Intention to ſend a Perſon to Paris with full Powers to treat for the Reſtoration of general Peace.

The Conduct and Diſpoſition of the Court of Spain which at preſent wears ſo hoſtile an Appearance, will we truſt, be ſatisfactorily explained, when your Excellency ſhall be enabled to diſcloſe the Reſult of the Diſcuſſions reſpecting them. If in this Inſtance we admire his Majeſty's Moderation and Forbearance we are at the ſame Time ready to vindicate the Dignity, the Rights and the Intereſts of the Empire againſt every Aggreſſion.

When we reflect that the vaſt and extenſive Commerce of his Majeſty's Kingdoms have been protected during the preſent Year in a Degree almoſt beyond Example, we cannot but admire the Spirit and Exertions which ſo eminently diſtinguiſh his Majeſty's Navy. Nor can we paſs without a peculiar Mark of Applauſe the Conduct of the Squadron ſtationed on the Coaſts of this Kingdom, which has defeated every Effort of the Enemy againſt our Trade, with ſuch ſucceſsful Vigilence and Intrepidity

When your Excellency points our Attention to the Succeſs of his Majeſty's Arms in the Eaſt and Weſt Indies, we ſee that the Exertions of his Forces by Sea and Land are there alſo conſpicuous, productive of real Glory to themſelves, and of great Advantages to the Empire.

It is a real Source of Satisfaction to us to reflect on the honorable and dignified Conduct of the Emperor and the invincible Gallantry of the Auſtrian Armies under the Command of the Arch-Duke Charles. Their Steadineſs and Valour have wrought a material Change in the Aſpect of Affairs, and we truſt that the final Iſſue of the Campaign not leſs diſaſtrous to France than its Commencement was flattering, will facilitate his Majeſty's Endeavours to procure an honorable and laſting Peace for himſelf and his Allies.

The Ceſſation of Outrage which has in general taken Place in Conſequence of the vigorous Meaſures we adopted in the laſt Seſſion, affords us real Satisfaction. We lament, however, with your Excellency that good Order has not been univerſally reſtored; and we cannot but feel a juſt Reſentment againſt that Syſtem of Confederation under ſecret and unlawful Oaths which has ſpread itſelf in ſome Diſtricts of the Kingdom. And as we are aſſured that no Means have been left untried by your Excellency to counteract the Inſtigators of Diſaffection, it becomes us to encreaſe our Vigilance and to aid your Excellency's Endeavours with proportionate Energy.

The Agriculture, the Manufactures, the Commerce of the Kingdom which have been recommended to our Attention by your Excellency will be the Objects of our peculiar Care: The Proteſtant Charter Schools and other Inſtitutions of Education and Charity, which have been uſually ſuccoured by national Benevolence, will alſo receive at a proper Time their due Encouragement.

We cannot but feel the ſtrongeſt Incitement to exert ourſelves for the Advancement of national Proſperity, when we reflect that even under the preſſure of War our Reſources remain unimpaired. This fortunate Situation of our Country, is an evident Proof that the Meaſures of Government have been wiſely directed to the true Intereſts of the Kingdom.

We look forward to the early Attainment of an honorable and permanent Peace from the Steps which his Majeſty has taken to ſecure that moſt deſirable Event. If any ſiniſter Views ſhall defeat his benevolent Purpoſes, his Majeſty may reſt aſſured of our Readineſs to ſacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in ſupport of his Crown and Dignity. And we doubt not, that a brave and loyal People will enable your Excellency to fruſtrate every hoſtile Attack, and maintain the Kingdom in Peace and Security.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know what Time he will pleaſe to appoint to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that, in Obedience to their Lordſhips' Order, he had waited on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know what Time he would pleaſe to appoint to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency, and that his Excellency was pleaſed to appoint To-morrow at four o'Clock, at the Caſtle.

Ordered, that the proper Officers do lay before this Houſe Liſts of the ſeveral Perſons who have regiſtered their Arms purſuant to the Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament for that Purpoſe.

Earl of Weſtmeath's Divorce Bill,

The Order of the Day being read for the ſecond Reading of the Bill, intitled, An Act to diſſolve the Marriage of George-Frederick Earl of Weſtmeath with Ann Counteſs of Weſtmeath his now Wife, and to enable him to marry again, and for hearing Counſel for and againſt the ſame.

Counſel were accordingly called in.

And Mr. Saurin and Mr. Plunket appearing as Counſel for the Bill, but no Counſel appearing on Behalf of the Counteſs of Weſtmeath againſt it.

John Murtagh was called, in order to prove Service of the Order, who being ſworn, acquainted the Houſe that he ſerved the Counteſs of Weſtmeath perſonally with the Order of the Houſe for the ſecond Reading of the Bill on the ſeventeenth of October Inſtant, at Putney near London, and at the ſame Time delivered to her a true Copy of the Bill.

He was directed to withdraw.

read ſecond time.

Then the ſaid Bill was read a ſecond time.

And Counſel were heard in ſupport of the Bill and to make out the Allegations thereof; and in Order to prove the Marriage,

The Reverend George Lambert was called in and being ſworn, proved the Marriage of George-Frederick Lord Viſcount Delvin now Earl of Weſtmeath, with Ann Jefferyes now Counteſs of Weſtmeath, to have been celebrated on the twenty-ſeventh of April, one thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four, and that the Marriage Ceremony was performed by the Deponent, and that two Sons are the only ſurviving Iſſue of ſaid Marriage.

He was directed to withdraw.

William Glaſcock was called in and being ſworn, proved an atteſted Copy of a Judgment obtained by the Earl of Weſtmeath againſt the Honorable Auguſtus-Cavendiſh Bradſhaw, in the Court of Exchequer in Ireland.

He was directed to withdraw.

Paulet St John was called in and being ſworn, proved a Settlement made on the Marriage of George-Frederick Lord Viſcount Delvin now Earl of Weſtmeath with Ann Jefferyes now Counteſs of Weſtmeath.

He was directed to withdraw.

Mary Tucker was called in, and being ſworn, ſaid ſhe knew the preſent Earl and Counteſs of Weſtmeath, having lived in their Service one Time as Houſe Maid and another Time as Childrens Maid, for upwards of fifteen Months at their Houſe in Baker-ſtreet London: That ſhe knows the Honorable Auguſtus-Cavendiſh Bradſhaw, and very frequently ſaw ſaw him viſit Lady Weſtmeath at her Houſe in London, at which Times Lord Weſtmeath was in Ireland, and that ſhe received him alone in her Drawing Room and once or twice in her Dreſſing Room, and that he uſually ſtaid with her from five o'Clock till twelve at Night and they were always alone.—Said there was a large Sofa in each Room, and that ſhe has frequently obſerved the Marks of Powder and of the Dirt of Shoes on the Sofa after Mr. Bradſhaw had gone away from Lady Weſtmeath, and alſo, that it was very much tumbled, and well remembers that it was always clean and ſmooth before and at the Times of Mr. Bradſhaw's coming into the Room.—She remembers one Time after ſeven o'Clock in the Evening ſhe ſaw a Candle lighting in the Front Drawing Room in which there was not any one then ſitting, and ſhe was about to take it away, but John Doyne, her Ladyſhip's Footman prevented her and locked the Door leaving the Candle lighting in the empty Room, that ſhortly after ſhe heard a double Rap at the Door and then ſaw Mr. Bradſhaw come in and go up Stairs to Lady Weſtmeath's Dreſſing Room, where he ſtaid till twelve o'Clock at Night—Said ſhe knew Lady Weſtmeath to ſleep out of her own Houſe frequently, and to go away in the Evening with Mr. Bradſhaw unattended by any of her own Servants, and not return till twelve the next Day when ſhe came back alone, the Witneſs alſo went with her Ladyſhip to Tunbridge Wells the Summer of one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-four, and during that whole Time Mr. Bradſhaw was alſo there, and viſited Lady Weſtmeath in like Manner as he did in London. Remembers Lady Weſtmeath three Times to have changed her Lodgings whilſt at Tunbridge, and that ſhe ſlept the firſt Night at the new Lodgings without being attended by any of her Servants, whom ſhe ordered to follow her there the next Day.

She was directed to withdraw.

Elizabeth Leekes, was called and being ſworn, ſaid that ſhe lived in one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-four, for above ſeven Months in London with Lady Weſtmeath, and that during a great Part of that Time Lord Weſtmeath was in Ireland, that ſhe frequently ſaw Mr. Bradſhaw viſit her Ladyſhip at her Houſe in Baker-ſtreet London, and ſhe received him always alone, and during his Viſits deſired herſelf to be denied to any other Company—She alſo gave the like Teſtimony as to the State of the Sofa before and after Mr. Bradſhaw's Viſits to Lady Weſtmeath as was given by Mary Tucker, and ſaid that ſhe received him in a very looſe Dreſs, and ſeemed very much tumbled and diſcompoſed in her Dreſs after his Departure, and alſo, that Lady Weſtmeath frequently ſlept out unattended by any of her Servants, and that when ſhe went out to ſleep ſhe always took her Night Cloths with her, and uſed to go out in a Curricle with Mr. Bradſhaw and returned alone next Day—She alſo ſaid, ſhe attended Lady Weſtmeath at Tunbridge, and gave the like Teſtimony as given by Mary Tucker, as to Lady Weſtmeath's changing her Lodgings there, and going to ſleep at the new Lodgings unattended by her Servants on the firſt Night of ſuch change, and that at Tunbridge ſhe ſaw Mr. Bradſhaw put his Hand in Lady Weſtmeath's Boſom, and which ſhe did not reſiſt but ſuffered him to keep it there for ſome Time.

The Evidence being finiſhed, the Counſel were directed to withdraw.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe. committed.

Ordered, by ſpecial Leave that the Houſe be put into a Committee on the ſaid Bill immediately.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee thereupon. Houſe in Committee.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant had received his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe of the fourteenth Day of October laſt, which his Excellency directed him to lay before their Lordſhips, which he read, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz:

"GEORGE R.

King's Anſwer to Addreſs. "HIS Majeſty returns his Thanks to the "Houſe of Lords of Ireland, for their dutiful "and loyal Addreſs, and for their cordial "Declarations of Attachment to his Perſon, "Family and Government.

"The Sentiments they have expreſſed at "the apparently hoſtile Diſpoſition and Con-"duct of the Court of Spain, are highly gra-"tifying to his Majeſty, and he places the "firmeſt Reliance on their Exertions to de-"fend the Dignity, Rights and Intereſts of "the Empire from Aggreſſion.

"His Majeſty obſerves with Pleaſure, the "Aſſurances given of the ſame Attention "to which the Manufactures, Agriculture "and Commerce of Ireland owe their pre-"ſent State of Proſperity, and their Deter-"mination to continue their liberal Encou-"ragement to the Proteſtant Charter Schools "and other public Inſtitutions of Education "and Charity, and that their Endeavours "will be unremittingly directed to the Ad-"vancement of the public Reſources of that "Kingdom.

" His Majeſty is truly ſenſible of their " Expreſſions of unalterable Zeal and Loyal- " ty, and ſhould the Steps which he has " taken for the Reſtoration of general Peace " upon a ſolid and permanent Baſis, not be " followed by Succeſs, he is confident that " the Exertions of his People will not fail to " enable him to repel every hoſtile Attack, " and to vindicate the Honor and Dignity of " his Crown.

" The favorable Sentiments they continue " to entertain of the Earl Camden, and the " Manner in which they expreſs their Senſe " of his Attention to the true Intereſts of " the Nation, cannot but be highly pleaſing " to his Majeſty."

G. R."

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had received a Meſſage from his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, which his Excellency directed him to lay before their Lordſhips, which he read, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table as follows, viz:

CAMDEN,

I HAVE it in Command from his Majeſty to acquaint the Houſe of Lords, that his Majeſty feels the deepeſt Regret that his Endeavours to preſerve Peace with Spain, Meſſage from Lord Lieutenant.

and to adjuſt all Matters in Diſcuſſion with that Court by an amicable Negotiation, have been rendered ineffectual, by an abrupt and unprovoked Declaration of War, on the Part of the Catholic King.

His Majeſty at the ſame Time that he ſincerely laments this Addition to the Calamities of War, already extending over ſo great a Part of Europe, has the Satisfaction to reflect, that nothing has been omitted on his Part which could contribute to the Maintenance of Peace, on Grounds conſiſtent with the Honor of his Crown, and the Intereſts of his Dominions.

And he truſts, that under the Protection of Divine Providence, the Firmneſs and Wiſdom of his Parliament, will enable him effectually to repel this unprovoked Aggreſſion, and to afford to all Europe an additional Proof of the Spirit and Reſources of his Majeſty's Kingdoms.

I am alſo commanded by his Majeſty to acquaint the Houſe of Lords, that his Majeſty feels the utmoſt Concern that his earneſt Endeavours to effect the Reſtoration of Peace, have been unhappily fruſtrated, and that the Negotiation in which he was engaged, has been abrubtly broken of, by the peremptorily Refuſal of the French Government to treat, except upon a Baſis, evidently inadmiſſable, and by their having in Conſequence required his Majeſty's Plenipotentiary to quit Paris within forty-eight Hours.

I have directed the ſeveral Memorials and Papers, which have been exchanged in the Courſe of the late Diſcuſſion, and the Account tranſmitted to his Majeſty of its final Reſult, to be laid before the Houſe.

From theſe Papers, his Majeſty truſts it will be proved to the whole World, that his Conduct has been guided by a ſincere Deſire to effect the Reſtoration of Peace, on Principles ſuited to the relative Situation of the Belligerent Powers, and eſſential for the permanent Intereſts of his Kingdoms, and the general Security of Europe; whilſt his Enemies have advanced Pretenſions at once inconſiſtent with thoſe Objects, unſupported even on the Grounds, on which they were profeſſed to reſt, and repugnant both to the Syſtem eſtabliſhed by repeated Treaties, and to the Principles and Practice which have hitherto regulated the Intercourſe of Independent Nations.

In this Situation his Majeſty has the Conſolation of reflecting, that the Continuance of the Calamities of War can be imputed only to the unjuſt and exorbitant Views of his Enemies, and his Majeſty looking forward with Anxiety to the Moment when they may be diſpoſed to act on different Principles, places in the mean Time, the fulleſt Reliance, under the Protection of Providence, on the Wiſdom and Firmneſs of his Parliament, on the tried Valour of his Forces by Sea and Land, and on the Zeal, public Spirit and Reſources of his Kingdoms, for vigorous and effectual Support in the Proſecution of a Conteſt which it does not depend on his Majeſty to terminate, and which involves in it the Security and permanent Intereſts of this Country and of Europe.

I ſincerely congratulate the Houſe of Lords upon the Failure of the recent formidable Attempt of the French to invade his Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland. The providential Diſperſion of their Squadrons until his Majeſty's Fleets were enabled to appear upon the Coaſt cannot fail to impreſs Senſations of awful and ſerious Gratitude for ſo ſignal an Inſtance of Divine Interpoſition. At the ſame Time the Houſe of Lords will cheriſh the ſatisfactory Reflection, that the deluſive Hopes of Succeſs in creating Diviſion and Inſurrection in the Country by which the Enemy were inſpired, have been totally diſappointed, and that the late Alarm, has afforded his Majeſty's faithful Subjects an Opportunity of teſtifying at the Hazard of their Fortunes and their Lives, their invincible Attachment to the mild Government of their beloved Sovereign and the Bleſſings of their happy Conſtitution. I have beheld with Pleaſure the Zeal and Alacrity of his Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces, and the prompt and honorable Exertions of the Yeomanry Corps, whoſe decided Utility has been ſo abundantly diſplayed, while the diſtinguiſhed Services of the moſt reſpectable Characters in forwarding the Meaſures of Government, the benevolent Attention ſhewn to the Army by all Ranks and Deſcriptions of Perſons, and the ſpirited Meaſures which were taken for ſupporting public Credit have made an indelible Impreſſion on my Mind. It was from this general Spirit of animated and gallant Loyalty that I was inſpired with a juſt Hope, that had the Enemy ſucceeded in an Attempt to land, their Career would have ſoon terminated in total Diſcomfiture. I have not failed to repreſent to his Majeſty this meritorious Conduct of his faithful Subjects of Ireland, and am expreſsly commanded to convey to them his cordial Acknowledgments and Thanks.

His Majeſty's Concern for the Safety and Happineſs of his People has been anxious and unceaſing. He has prepared to ſend every requiſite Military Aſſiſtance from Great Britain; and his Majeſty is not without Hopes, that the formidable Fleet aſſembled under the Command of Lord Bridport for the Protection of this Kingdom, (the Arrival of which which was only obſtructed by thoſe adverſe Storms which have proved ſo deſtructive to the preſent Expedition of the Enemy) may ſtill fall in with the hoſtile Squadron and effect their final Defeat.

At the ſame Time, however his Majeſty truſts, that the Houſe of Lords will advert to the Situation and Reſources of the Kingdom for eſtabliſhing future Security, by Means proportionable to the daring Efforts which may be expected from a deſperate Enemy, who having rejected every reaſonable Propoſal for the Reſtoration of Peace, is endeavouring to excite Diſaffection among his Majeſty's Subjects, and to propogate the Principles of Anarchy by the Spirit of Plunder.

C.

Proteſt,

BECAUSE the following Addreſs propoſed by me immediately after Prayers and before any other Buſineſs was proceeded on, was propoſed and offered to the Houſe without a ſingle Objection made to any Part of it, was negatived, viz:

"To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty;

"The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual "and Temporal in the Parliament of Ire- "land aſſembled.

"Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

"WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal "Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal "in Parliament aſſembled, duly ſenſible of "your Majeſty's paternal Care of your People, "and heartily provoked at the inſolent Rejec- "tion of your humane Endeavours to reſtore "a permanent Tranquillity to Europe, by the "preſent unprincipled, perfidious and deteſta- "ble Government of France, further aggrava- "ted by their daring, though impotent attempt "to invade this Realm, which if the Divine "Providence and Interpoſition had not ren- "dered abortive, your faithful People of Ire- "land had little Doubt of effecting, having "riſen in a voluntary Maſs to oppoſe the In- "ſult, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our "Determination to co-operate with the Reſt "of our loyal fellow Subjects, in ſtrengthening "your Majeſty's Arms with our Lives and "Fortunes in repelling all ſuch Attacks and "Aggreſſions, and compelling the atheiſtical "and regicide Deſpots of that deluded and "wretched Country, to relinquiſh the Provin- "ces and Countries they have ſo treacherouſly "wreſted from indolent, unſuſpicious and un- "offending States, in Violation of the Law of "Nations, of Treaties, of Aſſurances, and "Manifeſtoes which ſet out with Declarations "that Defence not Conqueſts was their Ob- "ject, and that they neither wiſhed nor would "add to their Territory.

"From ſuch a Government no Truth or "Juſtice is to be expected, no Promiſe can "bind, no Treaty or Peace can be relied on, "and until the Governors with their Princi- "ples who now Tyranize over France, and "whoſe Aim is to extend the baneful Influence "over Europe are completely ſubdued and era- "dicated, no Power or Nation can be ſecure.

"We rely on the Almighty, the Union of "Loyalty, Reſources and Vigour of our Arms "to effect this, and that the innocent Blood "which has and may yet be ſhed in this War "of Aggreſſion on the Part of our Enemies, "the Enemies of Mankind will lye at their "Door.

"While we make theſe loyal and ſincere "Profeſſions to your Majeſty we cannot but "obſerve how inefficacious Portſmouth and "Plymouth are for the Protection of this King- "dom, which the late Invaſion hath manifeſt- "ed, as the unavoidable Delays occaſioned by "the Neceſſity of having different trading "Winds to clear the Channel, and often Wind

" bound in thoſe Ports, affords Time and Op" portunity for any Deſcent the French may
" at any Time make on our defenceleſs Coaſts
" with Impunity from the Britiſh Fleet, and " clearly evinces the Neceſſity of forming as
" at Deptford, Chatham, Sheerneſs, Portſmouth,
" and Plymouth and other Seaports of Great " Britain, Dock-Yards and Arſenals, with all " Kinds of Naval Stores, in the more capaci-
" ous and commodious Havens of this Realm,
" few of which are ſubject to thoſe Inconveni-
" encies from their Situation on the Atlantic,
" and would be of infinite Service to Great " Britain in her Commerce with her Colonies,
" and their Defence ſo much readier afforded
" to the Weſt India and American Settlements,
" than at thoſe Ports.

" We further humbly repreſent to your Ma-
" jeſty, the Expediency of having five Ships of " the Line, and as many Frigates always ſta-
" tioned at the Ports of this Kingdom, by " Nature pointed out as beſt to watch, guard
" againſt or attack the Foes of this happy
" Empire, which the Ships captured from the " Enemy this War would be equal to, without
" leſſening the Navy of England or the Force
" requiſite for its own Defence, and would be " an Armament at all Times ready for, and " equal to any Enterprize or Emergency, and
" be as ſubſervient, and of infinitely more
" Utility to Great Britain, than if ſtationed ei" ther at Portſmouth or Plymouth.

" While we cannot but regret the ſhort
" ſighted miſtaken Jealouſy and narrow Po" licy, which has ſo long withſtood and pre" vented the Adoption of ſo ſalutary a Mea-
" ſure, we truſt the recent Proofs of the Loy" alty of this Country, and Affection and De" termination, to riſe or fall with her Siſter
" Kingdom, have now totally removed thoſe
" ſelfiſh Prejudices.

" Permit us alſo, Moſt Gracious Sovereign,
" to ſuggeſt, that the raiſing forty thouſand
" Seamen, placed on this Eſtabliſhment, and " employed at the ſeveral Ports of this King" dom, in building, repairing, caulking Ships
" of War, making Ropes, Sails and Anchors,
" and in fiſhing, ſo as to be always ready for " Service, would be a more effectual and leſs
" oppreſſive Meaſure of manning our Fleets
" on the ſhorteſt Notice, than by the grievous
" Mode of preſſing, which Meaſures the Inve-
" teracy of the War forced upon us by the " common Foes of the human Race, and the " Maintenance of foreign Conqueſts and Do-
" minions in the Eaſt and Weſt Indies peculi-
" arly points out.

" Peace with ſuch a Government is incom-
" patible with the Dignity and Safety of your
" Majeſty's Empire, and though the carrying " on of this War muſt be attended with heavy
" Burdens on your faithful Subjects, we truſt
" your Majeſty will alleviate them as much as " poſſible, by the Reduction of uſeleſs Places
" and unmerited Penſions, and by directing
" the ſtricteſt Oeconomy in the Expenditure
" of the public Grants, and we doubt not but " every Perſon of landed or perſonal Proper" ty, and every Perſon in Office, will voluntа-
" rily give their Quota to ſupport the com" mon Cauſe.

" We beg Leave to ſubmit to your Majeſty
" the want of a Mint in this Kingdom, where
" notwithſtanding its Gold, Silver and Copper
" Mines, the Coin is ſo debaſed, eſpecially the " Silver and Copper, and alſo ſo ſcarce as to be " totally inadequate for the Purpoſe of Trade
" and public Credit, and of Courſe a very con-
" ſiderable Drawback and Onus on the Exerti-
" ons of your faithful People, who are at all " Times ready to unite with Great Britain in " their mutual Support of our juſt, mild and
" happy Conſtitution, and of your Majeſty's
" Royal Perſon, Family and Government."

I therefore think, to get rid of ſo true and ſalutary and well timed Addreſs by the previous Queſtion, very injurious to the Liberty, Zeal and Loyalty of Peers, who preſs forward in the public Service, and that the Arguments againſt referring to the Crown the Wiſh and juſt Demand of this Kingdom for its Defence and Credit, could at no Time be more properly repreſented to our Sovereign than the preſent, Ports, Sailors, Ships of War and a Mint, being moſt clearly implicated therein, and which as hereditary Guardians of this Realm, it is our Duty to make known, and endeavour to obtain.

ALDBOROUGH.

Forbes againſt Graham.

The Houſe being moved, that a Day may be appointed for hearing the Cauſe wherein John Forbes and James Barlow, Eſquires, ſurviving Executors of William Forbes, Eſquire, late of the City of Dublin, Alderman, are Appellants, and Elizabeth-Gertrude Graham, and others, are Reſpondents;

It is ordered, that this Houſe will hear the ſaid Cauſe, by Counſel at the Bar, on Monday the ſixth of February next.

Reſpondent peremptorily to anſwer Berry's Croſs Appeal.

The Houſe was informed, that the Moſt Noble the Marquis of Drogheda, Reſpondent to the Croſs Appeal of Charles Berry, Gentleman, Attorney, had not put in his Anſwer to the ſaid Appeal, though duly ſerved with the Order of this Houſe for that Purpoſe.

And thereupon, an Affidavit of John Browne, of the due Service of the ſaid Order being read;

Ordered, that the ſaid Reſpondent do put in his Anſwer to the ſaid Appeal peremptorily in ſix Days.

Lord Viſc. Bandon's Petition for Leave to Appeal, tho' out of time.

Upon reading the Petition of the Right Honorable Francis Lord Viſcount Bandon, Adminiſtrator with the Will annexed of Francis cis Bernard, the elder, Eſquire, deceaſed; and alſo of Francis Bernard, the younger, Eſquire, deceaſed, and ſole Executor of James Bernard, Eſquire, deceaſed, John King, Gentleman, Adminiſtrator of Edmond and Francis Knapp, deceaſed, and the Reverend Charles Beamiſh, Clerk, ſetting forth, "that the "Petitioners being adviſed to appeal from an "Order made by the Court of Exchequer on "the fifth of December laſt, in a Cauſe where-"in the Appellant Francis Lord Viſcount Ban-"don, was Plaintiff, the Appellant John King, "and others were Defendants, directed their "Agent to take the neceſſary Steps for that "Purpoſe, who immediately prepared the uſ-"ual Petition, but the ſaid Agent was not able "to get ſame ſigned by the Counſel who were "to appear at the Bar of this Houſe on behalf "of the Petitioners, until after the Time li-"mited by the Standing Order of the Houſe "for lodging Appeals expired;" and therefore praying under the Circumſtances of this Caſe, "that the Houſe will be pleaſed to re-"ceive the ſaid Appeal."

And alſo, upon reading the Affidavit of Robert Reeves, Agent for the Petitioners, verifying the Allegations of the ſaid Petition;

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition be taken into Conſideration on Thurſday next. to be taken into Conſideration.

The Houſe being informed, that an Officer from the Impreſt-Office attended, Impreſt Accounts delivered in.

He was called in, and delivered at the Bar, purſuant to the Directions of ſeveral Acts of Parliament:

An Account of the Receipts and Diſburſements of the Commiſſioners of Account, for one Year ending the twenty-fifth Day of December, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix.

And then he was directed to withdraw.

And the Title thereof being read by the Clerk;

Ordered, that the ſaid Account do lie on the Table.

Houſe in Conſideration of Meſſage. The Houſe (according to Order) proceeded to take into Conſideration his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Meſſage to this Houſe of Yeſterday.

And the ſame being read by the Clerk.

Copies of the ſeveral Memorials and Papers which have been exchanged in the Courſe of the late Negotiation with the Government of France, were alſo read.

And Conſideration being had thereof.

Reſolution for an Addreſs to the King. Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to expreſs our ſincere Thanks for the Communication which has been made to this Houſe by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, in his Majeſty's Name.

That we participate in the Concern which his Majeſty feels, that his Majeſty's Endeavours to preſerve Peace with Spain, and to adjuſt all Matters in Diſcuſſion with that Court by an amicable Negotiation, have been abruptly terminated by an unprovoked Declaration of War on the Part of the Catholic King.

That however, we lament, together with his Majeſty, this Addition to the Calamities of War, already extending over ſo great a Part of Europe, we feel the ſatisfactory Aſſurance, that his Majeſty has neglected no Means, which conſiſtently with the Honor of his Crown and the Intereſts of his Dominions, could tend to the Maintenance of Peace; that we truſt that Divine Providence will aſſiſt his Majeſty's Efforts in Proportion to the Juſtneſs of his Cauſe, will enable his Majeſty to repel this unprovoked Aggreſſion, and to afford to all Europe an additional Proof of the Spirit and Reſources of his Majeſty's Kingdoms.

That we ſee with true Regret, that his Majeſty's earneſt Endeavours to effect the Reſtoration of Peace have been unhappily fruſtrated, and that the Negotiation in which his Majeſty was engaged has been ſuddenly broken off, by the peremptory Refuſal of the French Government to treat, except upon a Baſis evidently inadmiſſible, and by their having required his Majeſty's Plenipotentiary to quit Paris within forty-eight Hours.

To offer our humble Thanks to his Majeſty for the gracious Communication of the ſeveral Memorials and Papers which have been exchanged in the Courſe of the late Diſcuſſion, and of the Account tranſmitted to his Majeſty of the final Reſult.

That we doubt not that from theſe Papers the whole World will acknowledge, that his Majeſty's Conduct has been guided by a ſincere Deſire to effect the Reſtoration of Peace on Principles ſuited to the relative Situation of the Belligerent Powers, and eſſential for the permanent Intereſts of his Majeſty's Kingdoms, and the general Security of Europe, whilſt the Pretenſions of his Enemies are at once inconſiſtent with thoſe Objects, unſupported even on the Grounds on which they were profeſſed to reſt, and repugnant both to the Syſtem eſtabliſhed by repeated Treaties, and to the Principles and Practice which have hitherto regulated the Intercourſe of independent Nations.

That his Majeſty will in this Situation have the Conſolation to reflect, that to the unjuſt and exorbitant Views of his Enemies, the Continuance of the Calamities of War can be alone imputed, and whilſt his Majeſty looks forward with Anxiety to the Moment when they may be diſpoſed to treat on other Principles, we truſt, that under the Guidance of Providence, the Wiſdom and Firmneſs of his Parliaments, the tried Valour of his Forces by Sea and Land, the Zeal, public Spirit, and Reſources of his Kingdoms, will enable his Majeſty to proſecute the preſent Conteſt with Vigour and Succeſs, a Conteſt which involves in it the Security and permanent Intereſts of the Empire and of Europe, and which it does not depend on his Majeſty to terminate.

To preſent our ſincere Congratulations to his Majeſty, upon the recent Failure of a formidable Attempt by the French to invade this Kingdom; the ſignal Inſtance of Divine Interpoſition, by which the hoſtile Squadrons were diſperſed, until his Majeſty's Fleets were enabled to arrive on our Coaſts, have impreſſed our Minds with the moſt ſerious Gratitude to Divine Providence; we reflect at the ſame Time with Pleaſure, in the Diſappointment of thoſe Hopes, by which our Enemies were inſpired of creating Diviſion and Inſurrection in the Country, and that the Opportunity has been afforded for his Majeſty's faithful Subjects to manifeſt by the Tender of their Lives and Fortunes, their invincible Attachment to his Majeſty's mild Government, and to the Bleſſings of their free and happy Conſtitution: The Ardour and Alacrity diſplayed by his Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces, the ready and honorable Exertions of the Yeomanry Corps, whoſe ſignal Utility has been ſo abundantly proved, inſpired us with Feelings of Confidence, whilſt Gratitude and Admiration were excited by the diſtinguiſhed Services of the moſt reſpectable Characters, by the generous Attention ſhewn to the Army by all Ranks and Deſcriptions of Perſons, and by the ſpirited Exertions which were made for the Support of public Credit. We ſaw with Pleaſure a general Spirit of animated and gallant Loyalty diffuſe itſelf, and we felt a juſt Hope that the Efforts of the Enemy would have been ſoon diſcomfited, if they had ſucceeded in an Attempt to land.

That we are truly ſenſible of his Majeſty's paternal Feelings, in his gracious and condeſcending Acknowledgments of the Services of his People, and we know that their Safety and Happineſs is ever the anxious Object of his unceaſing Care. We feel aſſured, that all requiſite Military Aſſiſtance would have been ſent to our Aid from Great Britain, and that the Arrival of his Majeſty's Fleet was merely delayed by thoſe adverſe Storms which have been ſo ruinous to the Expedition of the Enemy; and we ſtill truſt, that the reſpectable Naval Force aſſembled under Lord Bridport may be enabled to fall in with them in their Retreat, and complete their Overthrow.

That his Majeſty may be aſſured, that we ſhall immediately take into our Conſideration the Situation and Reſources of the Kingdom, and reflecting on the daring Efforts which may be expected from our Enemy, we ſhall uſe our utmoſt Exertions for eſtabliſhing future Security. We truſt, that the united Efforts of his Majeſty's Kingdoms will ſoon reduce them to the Acceptance of reaſonable Conditions of Peace; we doubt not of rendering all their Attempts to excite internal Diſaffection abortive, and by ſhewing that they are actuated by Principles which lead to Anarchy, and are led only by a Spirit of Plunder, we ſhall hope to combine the Exertions of every Individual in a common Effort for their Diſcomfiture and Defeat.

That

That we are particularly called upon at the preſent Criſis, to expreſs our Approbation of the Conduct of the Earl Camden in the Adminiſtration of this Kingdom; his vigorous and effectual Meaſures for preventing the Miſchiefs of Foreign Invaſion and Domeſtic Diſturbance, claim our warmeſt Gratitude, and we look forward to his Continuance in the Government as a Pledge of his Majeſty's paternal Regard for the Happineſs of his People of Ireland.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſcount Dillon, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at ten o'Clock, in the Committee Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nemine diſſentiente, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency John-Jeffries, Earl Camden, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of this Kingdom, to return his Excellency our Thanks for his Meſſage ſent down to this Houſe: And for his great Exertions made for the Defence of this Kingdom upon the recent Attempt made by the Enemy to invade it.

Ordered, that the Lord Roſſmore, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at eleven o'Clock, in the Committee Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Viſcount Dillon reported from the Lords Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, nemine diſſentiente, as follows, viz.:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our ſincere Thanks, for the Communication which has been made to the Houſe of Lords, by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant in your Majeſty's Name. Addreſs to the King.

We participate in the Concern which your Majeſty feels, that your Majeſty's Endeavours to preſerve Peace with Spain, and to adjuſt all Matters in Diſcuſſion with that Court by an amicable Negotiation, have been abruptly terminated by an unprovoked Declaration of War on the Part of the Catholic King.

However, we lament, together with your Majeſty, this Addition to the Calamities of War, already extending over ſo great a Part of Europe, we feel the ſatisfactory Aſſurance that your Majeſty has neglected no Means, which conſiſtently with the Honor of your Crown, and the Intereſts of your Dominions, could tend to the Maintenance of Peace. We truſt that Divine Providence will aſſiſt your Majeſty's Efforts in Proportion to the Juſtneſs of your Cauſe, will enable your Majeſty to repel this unprovoked Aggreſſion, and afford to all Europe an additional Proof of the Spirit and Reſources of your Majeſty's Kingdoms.

We ſee with true Regret, that your Majeſty's earneſt Endeavours to effect the Reſtoration of Peace have been unhappily fruſtated, and that the Negotiation in which your Majeſty was engaged has been ſuddenly broken off, by the peremptory Refuſal of the French Government to treat, except upon a Baſis evidently inadmiſſible, and by their having required your Majeſty's Plenipotentiary to quit Paris within forty-eight Hours.

We offer our humble Thanks to your Majeſty for the gracious Communication of the ſeveral Memorials and Papers which have been exchanged in the Courſe of the late Diſcuſſion, and of the Account tranſmitted to your Majeſty of the final Reſult.

We doubt not that from theſe Papers the whole World will acknowledge, that your Majeſty's Conduct has been guided by a ſincere Deſire to effect the Reſtoration of Peace on Principles ſuited to the relative Situation of the Belligerent Powers, and eſſential for the permanent Intereſts of your Majeſty's Kingdoms, and the general Security of Europe, whilſt the Pretenſions of your Enemies are at once inconſiſtent with thoſe Objects, unſupported even on the Grounds on which they were profeſſed to reſt, and repugnant both to the Syſtem eſtabliſhed by repeated Treaties, and to the Principles and Practice which have hitherto regulated the Intercourſe of independent Nations.

Your Majeſty will in this Situation have the Conſolation to reflect, that to the unjuſt and exorbitant Views of your Enemies, the Continuance of the Calamities of War can be alone imputed, and whilſt your Majeſty looks forward with Anxiety to the Moment when they may be diſpoſed to treat on other Principles, we truſt, that under the Guidance of Providence, the Wiſdom and Firmneſs of your Parliaments, the tried Valour of your Forces by Sea and Land, the Zeal, the public Spirit and Reſources of your Kingdoms, will enable your Majeſty to proſecute the preſent Conteſt with Vigour and Succeſs, a Conteſt which involves in it the Security and permanent Intereſts of the Empire and of Europe, and which it does not depend on your Majeſty to terminate.

We preſent our ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty, upon the recent Failure of a formidable Attempt by the French to invade this Kingdom. The ſingular Inſtance of Divine Interpoſition by which the hoſtile Squadrons were diſperſed, until your Majeſty's Fleets were enabled to arrive on our Coaſts, have impreſſed our Minds with the moſt ſerious Gratitude to Divine Providence. We reflect at the ſame Time with Pleaſure, in the Diſappointment of thoſe Hopes, by which our Enemies were inſpired of creating Diviſion and Inſurrection in the Country, and that the Opportunity has been afforded for your Majeſty's faithful Subjects to manifeſt by the Tender of their Lives and Fortunes, their invincible Attachment to your Majeſty's mild Government, and to the Bleſſings of their free and happy Conſtitution. The Ardour and Alacrity diſplayed by your Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces, the ready and honorable Exertions of the Yeomanry Corps, whoſe ſignal Utility has been ſo abundantly proved, inſpired us with Feelings of Confidence, whilſt Gratitude and Admiration were excited by the diſtinguiſhed Services of the moſt reſpectable Characters, by the generous Attention ſhewn to the Army by all Ranks and Deſcriptions of Perſons, and by the ſpirited Exertions which were made for the Support of public Credit. We ſaw with Pleaſure a general Spirit of animated and gallant Loyalty diffuſe itſelf, and we felt a juſt Hope, that the Efforts of the Enemy would have been ſoon diſcomfited if they had ſucceeded in an Attempt to land.

We are truly ſenſible of your Majeſty's paternal Feelings in your gracious and condeſcending Acknowledgments of the Services of your People, and we know that their Safety and Happineſs is ever the anxious Object of your unceaſing Care. We feel aſſured, that all requiſite Military Aſſiſtance would have been ſent to our Aid from Great Britain, and that the Arrival of your Majeſty's Fleet was merely delayed by the adverſe Storms which have been ſo ruinous to the Expedition of the Enemy; and we ſtill truſt, that the reſpectable Naval Force aſſembled under Lord Bridport may be enabled to fall in with them in their Retreat, and complete their Overthrow.

Your Majeſty may be aſſured, that we ſhall immediately take into our Conſideration the Situation and Reſources of the Kingdom, and reflecting on the daring Efforts which may be expected from our Enemy, we ſhall uſe uſe our utmoſt Exertions for eſtabliſhing future Security. We truſt, that the united Efforts of your Majeſty's Kingdoms will ſoon reduce them to the Acceptance of reaſonable Conditions of Peace. We doubt not of rendering all their Attempts to excite internal Diſaffection abortive, and by ſhewing that they are actuated by Principles which lead to Anarchy, and are led only by a Spirit of Plunder, we ſhall hope to combine the Exertions of every Individual in a common Effort for their Diſcomfiture and Defeat.

We are particularly called upon at the preſent Criſis, to expreſs our Approbation of the Conduct of the Earl Camden in the Adminiſtration of this Kingdom. His vigorous and effectual Meaſures for preventing the Miſchiefs of Foreign Invaſion and Domeſtic Diſturbance, claim our warmeſt Gratitude, and we look forward to his Continuance in the Government as a Pledge of your paternal Regard for the Happineſs of your People of Ireland.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order that the ſame may be laid before his Majeſty.

The Lord Roſſmore, reported from the Lords Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, nemine diſſentiente, as follows, viz.:

To his Excellency

JOHN-JEFFRIES EARL CAMDEN,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency.

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Excellency with our ſincere Thanks for your Meſſage to this Houſe.

The Vigilance, Activity and Firmneſs of your Excellency's Conduct during the recent Attempt to invade this Kingdom command our warmeſt Acknowledgments and Applauſe. The general Confidence which appeared among all Ranks and Deſcriptions of People, and the conſpicuous Zeal and Loyalty which were diſplayed, afford an unequivocal Teſtimony that your Excellency's private Character is as truly eſteemed as your public Adminiſtration is reſpected. From this affecting diſplay of animated and gallant Loyalty, our Enemies will be ſenſible that their deluſive Hopes of exciting a general Inſurrection in this Kingdom will be ever diſappointed: Had their Attempt to land on our Coaſts ſucceeded, they would ſoon have experienced the effectual and deciſive Reſiſtance of a united Nation, determined at the Hazard of their Fortunes and their Lives to prove their Loyalty to the beſt of Sovereigns, and their invincible Attachment to their happy Conſtitution.

Whilſt we reflect with Pleaſure on the Alacrity and Ardour manifeſted by his Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces, we cannot but advert to the ſignal Services of the Yeomanry Corps, which have been ſo ſucceſsfully eſtabliſhed under your Excellency's Auſpices; we feel the Tranquillity of the Kingdom ſecured, and its Strength encreaſed by this uſeful Inſtitution: It has alſo given additional Security and Value to Property, as well as Stability to the Conſtitution.

It will be our Endeavour to apply the Reſources of the Kingdom, ſo as to meet the preſent Exigency, and we can ſafely rely upon your Excellency's Attention and Prudence for concerting the wiſeſt Meaſures, to ſecure the Kingdom from any future Attempts of the Enemy.

It is our ſincere Wiſh that your Excellency may long continue in the Government: We have every private and public Motive for entertaining ſuch a Hope which can reſult from a Knowledge of your perſonal Virtues, ſo conciliating, ſo exemplary; and from an Experience of your public Conduct, not leſs honorable to his Majeſty, than advantageous to the Kingdom.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe. to be preſented.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know what Time he will pleaſe to appoint to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that, in Obedience to their Lordſhips' Order, he had waited on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know what Time he would pleaſe to appoint to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency, and that his Excellency was pleaſed to appoint To-morrow at three o'Clock at the Caſtle.

The Lord Chancellor reported that the House had attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, with their humble Address to be presented to his Majesty, and his Excellency was pleased to give this Answer, viz:

" My Lords,

Lord Lieutenant's Answers. " I WILL forthwith transmit this dutiful " and loyal Address to be laid before his " Majesty."

The Lord Chancellor also reported, that the House did, at the same Time, present their Lordships' Address to his Excellency: to which he was pleased to give this Answer, viz:

" My Lords,

" THE Terms in which your Lordships " have been so good as to convey to me, " your Approbation of my Conduct are so " flattering, that no Expressions of mine can " convey to you the Impression they have " made upon my Mind.

" I wish I could be conscious I deserved " that Credit you are pleased to give me " for having any Share in calling forth the " Loyalty and Zeal of this Kingdom, during " the late Attempt of the French to invade " it. However flattering it might be to me " to reflect, that I had any personal Share in " the general Spirit which appeared upon " that Occasion, it is much more Satisfac- " tory to your Lordships to observe, with " how universal an Alacrity the genuine " Spirit of the Country was roused, with " the truest and most patriotic Sentiments, " to maintain our happy Constitution against " the Attempts of an Enemy, who, not con- " tent with an Endeavour to destroy this " Kingdom by the usual Instruments of Des- " truction, have vainly attempted to estab- " lish Discontent, and to infuse Rebellion " amongst its Inhabitants.

" The Spirit, Zeal and Alacrity of the " Forces which marched to meet the Enemy, " assisted by the Loyalty, Activity and good " Sense of the Country, would, I firmly trust, " have rendered their Attempt ineffectual. " Those Qualities, encouraged by your Lord- " ships Protection, and promoted by your " Influence, will I hope, prevent the Repe- " tition of this Enterprize; but if it is at- " tempted, I feel a Confidence it will be met " with renewed Spirit, and end in the total " Discomfiture of the Enemy.

" It affords me peculiar Satisfaction to " have been in any Degree instrumental in " the Establishment of the Yeomanry Corps. " Their Extent has exceeded my Expecta- " tions; and whatever I might have hoped " from the Utility of the Establishment, it " would have been presumptuous indeed to " have expected all those Advantages which " have been produced by the most zealous, " praise-worthy, and the best-directed Exer- " tions of that Body of Men.

" It will be my highest Ambition to en- " deavour to deserve that good Opinion " your Lordships are disposed to entertain " of me, by a faithful discharge of my Duty, " and a constant Attention to the Interests " of this Kingdom."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

Ordered, that the Addreſs of this Houſe, preſented Yeſterday to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and his Excellency's Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

The Houſe (according to Order) proceeded to take the Commons Meſſage of Yeſterday into Conſideration.

And the Reſolution for an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant being read as follows, viz:

Reſolution for an Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant ſent up by Commons,

" Reſolved, nemine contradicente, that an " humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excel- " lency the Lord Lieutenant, that he will be " pleaſed to order a Proclamation to be iſſued " for appointing a Day of general Thankſgiv- " ing throughout the Nation, to return our " Thanks to Almighty God, for the provi- " dential Diſperſion of the Fleet of our Ene- " my, and the Diſcomfiture of their hoſtile " Deſigns on this Nation."

agreed to;

Reſolved, that this Houſe doth concur with the Commons in their ſaid Reſolution.

Meſſage to acquaint Commons therewith.

Ordered, that a Meſſage be ſent to the Houſe of Commons by Mr. Burroughs and Mr. Weſtby, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them therewith.

Motion for Thanks of Houſe to Yeomanry Corps,

A Motion was made to reſolve, that the Thanks of this Houſe be given to the Yeomanry Corps of this Kingdom, for the Zeal and Alacrity they have manifeſted in Defence of our happy Conſtitution on the late abortive Invaſion of the French.

Amendment propoſed,

And an Amendment being propoſed, that after the Word " given" the Remainder of the Motion be expunged, and the following Words inſerted, " to the Army, Militia and " Yeomanry, for their Alacrity, Spirit and " meritorious Exertions on Occaſion of the " late threatened Invaſion of this Kingdom."

The ſame was agreed to.

The Queſtion was then put on the Motion as amended.

and agreed to.

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Thanks to the Army, Militia and Yeomanry.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the House, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant had received his Majesty's most gracious Answer to the Address of this House of the eighteenth of January last, which his Excellency directed him to lay before their Lordships, which he read, and the same was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz:

" GEORGE R.

King's Answer to Address.

" HIS Majesty returns his Thanks to the " House of Lords of Ireland, for their dutiful " Assurances of Loyalty and Attachment to " his Person and Government.

" The Sentiments they have expressed on " the unprovoked Aggression of the Court " of Spain, and on the abrupt Conclusion of " the Negotiations for Peace with France are " highly satisfactory to his Majesty, and his " Majesty has the most confident Reliance " on the Justice of his Cause, and the Spirit " of his People, that he shall be enabled to " resist with Success the unreasonable Pre- " tensions of his Enemies, and to terminate " the War by a secure and honorable Peace.

" His Majesty cordially unites with the " House of Lords, in most gratefully acknow- " ledging the Divine Goodness, so eminently " manifested in the Dispersion of the Ene- " my's Fleet, at a Time when his Majesty's " Naval Forces were prevented approaching " the Irish Coast by the Violence of adverse " Winds, during which awful and momen- " tuous Crisis, his Majesty cannot but reflect " with the highest Satisfaction, on the united " and extraordinary Exertions which were " displayed by all Orders of his People of " Ireland, in support of their holy Religion, " and the happy Form of Government under " which they live.

" His Majesty is happy in expressing his " Approbation and Applause of the exem- " plary Conduct of the Regular and Militia " Forces, and in acknowledging the impor- " tant Advantages which have been derived " from the late Establishment of the Yeo- " manry Corps. And his Majesty is fully " convinced, that if the Enemy had effected " a Landing, it would have afforded an Op- " portunity to all these Corps to acquire " additional Honor, by a farther Display of " the Zeal, Alacrity and Courage by which " they have already so much distinguished " themselves.

" The Assurances given by the House of " Lords of their Readiness to concur in every " Measure which shall be found necessary " for the Defence of their Country, are highly " pleasing to his Majesty, and are received " by him as Testimonies of the Loyalty and " Attachment which he has so often and so " uniformly experienced.

" The

" The Houſe of Lords may depend that " no Means will be wanting on the Part of " his Majeſty to give Effect to their Exer- " tions, and they may look with Confidence " to the Co-operation of Great Britain in " every Meaſure, which it may be neceſſary " to purſue for the Safety of her Siſter " Kingdom.

" His Majeſty is much pleaſed to hear the " Sentiments of Reſpect which the Houſe of " Lords profeſs for the Earl Camden, and " the Confidence which they repoſe in his " Character and Conduct. T. Codd, Printer, attends.

T. Codd, Printer of the Hibernian Telegraph, (according to Order) attended at the Bar in Custody of the Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod, and being asked from whom he received the Paragraph complained of on Thursday last, and by whose Direction he published it; he said he received the Paper from his Note-taker, and gave it in the usual Manner to his Printer, without reading it, and without any Intention of offending their Lordships, or misrepresenting the Proceedings of the House.

He was directed to be taken from the Bar.

Motion for Attorney General to prosecute him,

A Motion was then made, that the Attorney General do prosecute T. Codd, Editor of the Hibernian Telegraph or Morning Star, for a false, scandalous and impudent Publication in his Paper of the eighth Instant, reflecting on a Peer of this Realm, and on the Dignity of this House.

Amendment proposed.

And an Amendment being proposed, that after the Word "the" the Remainder of the Motion be expunged, and the following Words inserted, "said T. Codd be repri-"manded and discharged."

and agreed to.

The same was agreed to.

The Question was then put on the Motion as amended.

It was resolved in the Affirmative.

DISSENTIENT.

Protest.

1st. BECAUSE it appears to me that a simple Reprimand at the Bar and Discharge without Fees of T. Codd, Printer of the Telegraph, was not an adequate Punishment for the Editor of a News-paper, convicted of having imposed on the Public Falsehood for Truth, and insulting the Dignity of this House, by having confessedly published as its Order, Words of a gross, false, scandalous and malicious Import, which formed no Part of it.—That the frivolous Excuse of having taken such Words from the Report of his Note-taker was both lame and absurd, and by no Means a Vindication, and must therefore have been instigated thereto by some very extraordinary and unjustifiable Means which would have suited the Wisdom of this House to have traced to its Source, for unless he had been acted upon by some improper Influence or paid for his Misrepresentation, it was as easy for a Note-taker to have inserted the genuine as a spurious Order of this House, who I do not conceive attended sufficiently to its own Consequence in not having the Note-taker produced and punished, when it admitted the wilful Mistatement of the Note-taker as a Paliation for the Publisher; and because if the Publishers of the Tranſactions of Parliament be permitted to impoſe on their Readers garbled or mutilated Speeches, and by a Perverſion of the Senſe, give an improper and unjuſt Turn to the Meaning of what was ſpoken by any Peer of Parliament, the Liberty of the Preſs then becomes Licentiouſneſs.

2dly. Becauſe if the Freedom of the Preſs be controuled or proſtituted, and Printers are either Hirelings or awed by Fear or Power from reporting Matters fairly, by ſuch Violation of Facts, Iniquity, Craft, Oppreſſion, and Injuſtice may be ſheltered, while Truth, Integrity, Virtue and Patriotiſm are unjuſtly calumniated and cenſured.

3dly. Becauſe by ſuch Miſtatements Perſons aggrieved, are in a Manner compelled to uſe other Channels in order to do themſelves Juſtice, and by inducing a Peer of this Houſe to print his Speech and Obſervations in anſwer to, and occaſioned by Inſinuations untruly ſtated in this Houſe, and re-echoed in what muſt be ſuppoſed to be hireling Prints, as they neither would correct their Error or receive a genuine Relation of what was ſpoken in this Houſe, has without Intention, and in my Opinion, very unmeritedly incurred its apparent Cenſure for a mention of Facts, which ſhould rather have been inflicted on the Publiſhers of Falſehood.

4thly. Becauſe it appears very extraordinary, that the learned Lord on the Woolſack, who firſt induced, and then thought proper to animadvert on the Anſwer to his Miſtatement, ſhould himſelf be the Mover of a public Proſecution of a Peer for a private Matter, which only related to himſelf, and which Peer conſidered himſelf as aggrieved, and called upon to refute Abſurdities laid at his Door, and that the learned Lord ſhould alſo appear the Advocate of the Printer, who publiſhed a groſs and moſt unfounded Exaggeration of that Order of Proſecution, and reſcuing him from the Puniſhment due to the Enormity he admitted himſelf to be the Publiſher of, thus placing a Printer of a Newspaper, and the Inſerter therein of a moſt audacious, infamous and proven Libel, on a more favoured Footing than his Brother Peer, for the trivial Offence (if ſuch it can be called) of Self-juſtification.

ALDBOROUGH.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had received a Meſſage from his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, which his Excellency directed him to lay before their Lordſhips, which he read, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz:

CAMDEN,

Meſſage from Lord Lieutenant,

THE dangerous and the daring Outrages committed in many parts of the Province of Ulſter, evidently perpetrated with a View to ſuperſede the Law and prevent the Adminiſtration of Juſtice by an organized Syſtem of Murder and Robbery, have lately increaſed to ſo alarming a Degree in ſome Parts of that Province, as to bid Defiance to the Exertions of the Civil Power, and to endanger the Lives and Properties of his Majeſty's Subjects in that Part of the Kingdom.

Theſe Outrages are encouraged and ſupported by treaſonable Aſſociations to overturn our happy Conſtitution. Threats have been held out againſt the Lives of all Perſons who ſhall venture to diſcover ſuch their treaſonable Intentions. The frequent treaſonable Aſſemblage of Perſons, and their Proceeding by Threats and Force to diſarm the peaceable Inhabitants; their Endeavours to collect great Quantities of Arms in obſcure hiding Places; their aſſembling by Night to exerciſe in the Practice of Arms; their Intimidations accompanied by the moſt horrid Murders, to prevent his Majeſty's faithful Subjects from joining the Yeomanry Corps eſtabliſhed by Law; their having fired on ſome of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, and threatened with Murder any who ſhould have the Spirit to ſtand forth in ſupport of the Laws, which threats have been recently exemplified; their Attacks on the Military by firing on them in the Execution of their Duty, have ſo totally bid Defiance to the ordinary Exertions of the Civil Power, that I found myſelf obliged by every tie of Duty to his Majeſty, and of Regard to the Welfare of his faithful Subjects, to provide for the the public Safety, by the moſt effectual and immediate Application of the Military Force entruſted to me.

I have accordingly ordered the General commanding in that Province to diſpoſe of, and employ thoſe Troops under his Command, with the Aſſiſtance and Co-operation of the Yeomanry, to ſuppreſs theſe Outrages, and, by ſeizing upon all Arms and Ammunition, to recover ſuch as had been traiterouſly taken from his Majeſty's Troops and others, and more effectually to defeat the evil Deſigns of thoſe who had endangered the public Safety.

I have the Satisfaction of informing you, that by the firm and temperate Conduct of the General and the Troops under him, and the zealous Co-operation of the Yeomanry Corps, a very conſiderable Number of Arms has been taken, and I am encouraged to hope, that a Continuance of the ſame vigorous Meaſures will give Confidence to the well-diſpoſed, and reſtore to the Civil Power its Conſtitutional Authority, an Object which it has ever been my Wiſh and ſhall be my ſtrenuous Endeavour to ſupport with energy.

House in Consideration of Message.

The House (according to Order, proceeded to take into Consideration his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Message to this House on Saturday last.

The same was read by the Clerk,

And Consideration being had thereof,

Motion for Address to Lord Lieutenant.

A Motion was made, that an Address be presented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to return our humble Thanks to his Excellency for his most gracious Message.

To assure him, that we are impressed with the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the dangerous and daring Outrages committed in many Parts of the Province of Ulster, evidently perpetrated with a View to supersede the Law, and prevent the Administration of Justice, by an organized System of Murder and Robbery, and which have lately increased to so alarming a Degree, in some Parts of that Province, as to bid Defiance to the Exertions of the Civil Power, and to endanger the Lives and Properties of his Majesty's Subjects in that Part of the Kingdom.

That these Outrages which have been encouraged and supported by treasonable Associations to overturn our happy Constitution, the Threats which have been held out against the Lives of all Persons who shall venture to discover such their treasonable Intentions; the frequent treasonable Assemblage of Persons, and their Proceeding by Threats and Force to disarm the peaceable Inhabitants; their Endeavours to collect great Quantities of Arms in obscure hiding Places, their assembling by Night to exercise in the Practice of Arms, their Intimidations accompanied by the most horrid Murders, to prevent his Majesty's faithful Subjects from joining the Yeomanry Corps, established by Law; their having fired on some of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and threatened with Murder any who should have the Spirit to stand forth in support of the Laws, which Threats have been recently exemplified; their Attacks on the Military by firing at them in the Execution of their Duty, have so totally bid Defiance to the ordinary Exertions of the Civil Power, as to demand the most effectual and immediate Application of the Military Force entrusted to his Excellency's Direction.

To thank his Excellency for having been graciously pleased to communicate to this Houſe the Orders he has given to the General commanding in the Province of Ulſter, for employing the Troops under his Command, with the Aſſiſtance and Co-operation of the Yeomanry to ſuppreſs theſe Outrages, and by ſeizing upon all Arms and Ammunition, to recover ſuch as had been traiterouſly taken from his Majeſty's Troops and others, and more effectually to defeat the evil Deſigns of thoſe who had endangered the public Safety.

To aſſure his Excellency, that we derive great Satisfaction from learning, that by the temperate Conduct of the General, and the Troops under him, and the zealous Co-operation of the Yeomanry Corps, a very conſiderable Number of Arms has been taken; and we moſt earneſtly truſt, that a Continuance of the ſame vigorous Meaſures will give Confidence to the well-diſpoſed, and reſtore to the Civil Power its conſtitutional Authority.

That the Care and Solicitude which his Excellency has evinced in every Period of his Adminiſtration for the Intereſts of the Kingdom, excite in us the warmeſt Emotions of Gratitude, but in no Inſtance has his Excellency's paternal Regard for the Safety and Welfare of his Majeſty's faithful Subjects been more conſpicuouſly manifeſted, than in his wiſe and vigorous Exertions on the preſent urgent Conjuncture; and to expreſs to his Excellency our moſt firm and faithful Attachment to his Excellency's Perſon and Government; and to aſſure his Excellency of our moſt ſtrenuous Support, and zealous Co-operation in the Continuance of ſuch Meaſures as ſhall be beſt calculated for the Suppreſſion of a Syſtem of Inſurrection and Violence, which threatens to bereave his Majeſty's faithful Subjects of the Bleſſings they enjoy under our excellent Conſtitution, and which menaces the entire Subverſion of all public Security and private Happineſs.

Debate thereon, A Debate ariſing thereupon, and the Queſtion being put, the Houſe divided; and Lord Glentworth reported, that the Contents below the Bar were thirty-nine, and the Not-Content in the Houſe was one.

Committee to prepare Addreſs. Ordered, that the Marquis of Waterford, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at eleven o'Clock, in the Committee Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Mr. Baſterot's Bill, Committee ſhortened. The Houſe (according to Order) proceeded to take into Conſideration the Motion made on Saturday laſt, for diſpenſing with the Standing Order requiring fourteen Days Notice to be given of the Meeting of Committees upon Private Bills, ſo far as that the Committee to whom the Bill, intitled, An Act to make good and valid in Law, a certain Conveyance of Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments in the County of Galway, executed by Thomas Walker, Eſquire, Committee of John-James Martin, Francis French, an Inſane, to Bartholemew Baſterot, the Purchaſer thereof, under a Decree of the Court of Chancery in Ireland, ſtand committed, may meet on an earlier Day than is appointed.

And Conſideration being had thereof accordingly.

Ordered, that the ſaid Standing Order be diſpenſed with in this Caſe, and that the Committee may meet to conſider the ſaid Bill To-morrow.

Mr. Dennis's Bill, reported. The Earl of Weſtmeath reported from the Lords Committee, to whom the Bill, intitled, An Act to enable John Dennis of the City of Dublin, Eſquire, Barriſter at Law, now in Poſſeſſion, and after his deceaſe the other Perſons next in Remainder, under the Will of the late James Lord Baron Tracton, deceaſed, when they ſhall reſpectively be in Poſſeſſion, to make a Leaſe or Leaſes for Lives renewable for ever, or for as long a Term as the ſaid James Lord Baron Tracton in his Life time could or might have made of part of the Lands of Newtown in the County of Dublin, in ſaid Will mentioned, containing by Eſtimation twenty-three Acres.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be engroſſed.

The Houſe being informed, that an Officer attended,

He was called in, and delivered at the Bar, purſuant to an Order of this Houſe, of the ſixteenth Inſtant;

Account of the Expenſe of executing the Office of Inſpector of Corn brought Coaſt-ways, delivered in. An Account of the Expenſes of executing the Office of Inſpector of Corn and Flour brought Coaſt-ways to the City of Dublin, for one Year ending the twenty-fifth of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix; and of the Salaries paid to the reſpective Perſons employed therein, during the aforeſaid Period.

And then he was directed to withdraw.

And the Title thereof being read by the Clerk;

DISSENTIENT.

Proteſt. BECAUSE I conſider it to be the pointed Duty of the Peers as Hereditary Counſellors of the King, and of his Majeſty's Repreſentative in this Kingdom: But moſt eſpecially the Duty of ſuch as are Members of his Majeſty's Privy Council, to take good Care that the juſt Influence and high Authority of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Name, be not brought forward to the Public, in order to cover Error in any Man, whatever may be his Rank, Character or Department in the State. The Nature, Magnitude and Impreſſion of the preſent Subject upon the Public Mind, moſt eminently demands the ſacred Performance of this Duty, in ſo much, that I ſhould conſider myſelf unworthy of the high Offices of Truſt and Honor which the Goodneſs of the beſt of Kings has from Time to Time moſt graciouſly conferred upon me, if I were not at all Times, regardleſs of the Conſequences as to myſelf, ready to ſtand forth between his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant and Miſrepreſentation or Miſconception.

With regard to the Legality or Illegality of the Proclamation alluded to in the above Amendment propoſed by me, if any Man at this Day entertains a Doubt upon the Subject, I refer any ſuch Perſon or Perſons to the Opinions of ſome of the moſt authentick and reſponſible Lawyers in this Kingdom, delivered in the moſt deliberate, ſolemn and public Manner.

BELLAMONT.

The Title and Preamble being then read.

The ſaid Addreſs was agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz:

To his Excellency

JOHN-JEFFRIES EARL CAMDEN,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs. WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our humble Thanks for your moſt gracious Meſſage.

We are impreſſed with the utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the dangerous and daring Outrages committed in many Parts of the Province of Ulſter, evidently perpetrated with a View to ſuperſede the Law, and prevent the Adminiſtration of Juſtice, by an organized Syſtem of Murder and Robbery, and which have lately increaſed to ſo alarming a Degree, in ſome Parts of that Province, as to bid Defiance to the Exertions of the Civil Power, and to endanger the Lives and Properties of his Majeſty's Subjects in that Part of the Kingdom.

Theſe Outrages which have been encouraged and ſupported by treaſonable Aſſociations to overturn our happy Conſtitution; the Threats which have been held out againſt the Lives of all Perſons who ſhall venture to diſcover ſuch their treaſonable Intentions; the frequent treaſonable Aſſemblage of Perſons, and their Proceeding by Threats and Force to diſarm the peaceable Inhabitants; their Endeavours to collect great Quantities of Arms in obſcure hiding Places; their aſſembling by Night to exerciſe in the Practice of Arms; their Intimidations accompanied by the moſt horrid Murders, to prevent his Majeſty's faithful Subjects from joining the Yeomanry Corps, eſtabliſhed by Law; their having fired on ſome of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, and threatened with Murder any who ſhould have the Spirit to ſtand forth in ſupport of the Laws, which Threats have been recently exemplified; their Attacks on the Military by firing at them in the Execution of their Duty, have ſo totally bid Defiance to the ordinary Exertions of the Civil Power, as to demand the moſt effectual and immediate Application of the Military Force entruſted to your Excellency's Direction.

We thank your Excellency for having been graciouſly pleaſed to communicate to this Houſe the Orders you have given to the General commanding in the Province of Ulſter, for employing the Troops under his Command, with the Aſſiſtance and Co-operation of the Yeomanry, to ſuppreſs theſe Outrages, and by ſeizing upon all Arms and Ammunition, to recover ſuch as had been traiterouſly taken from his Majeſty's Troops and others, and more effectually to defeat the evil Deſigns of thoſe who had endangered the public Safety.

We derive great Satisfaction from learning, that by the temperate Conduct of the General, and the Troops under him, and the zealous Co-operation of the Yeomanry Corps, a very conſiderable Number of Arms has been taken; and we moſt earneſtly truſt, that a Continuance of the ſame vigorous Meaſures will give Confidence to the well-diſpoſed, and and reſtore to the Civil Power its conſtitutional Authority.

The Care and Solicitude which your Excellency has evinced in every Period of your Adminiſtration for the Intereſts of the Kingdom, excite in us the warmeſt Emotions of Gratitude; but in no Inſtance has your Excellency's paternal Regard for the Safety and Welfare of his Majeſty's faithful Subjects been more conſpicuouſly manifeſted, than in your wiſe and vigorous Exertions on the preſent urgent Conjuncture; and we beg Leave to expreſs to your Excellency our moſt firm and faithful Attachment to your Excellency's Perſon and Government; and to aſſure your Excellency of our moſt ſtrenuous Support, and zealous Co-operation in the Continuance of ſuch Meaſures as ſhall be beſt calculated for the Suppreſſion of a Syſtem of Inſurrection and Violence, which threatens to bereave his Majeſty's faithful Subjects of the Bleſſings they enjoy under our excellent Conſtitution; and which menaces the entire Subverſion of all public Security and private Happineſs.

DIS-

DISSENTIENT.

Proteſt, 1. BECAUSE the great and powerful Effect produced from the Bounties, which the ſaid Act takes away is clearly proved by the Returns of the Imports and Exports of Corn, &c. from the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-one, to the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety; from which it appears, that in the firſt ten Years of the ſaid Period, the Imports of Corn and Flour into this Kindom, greatly exceeded its Exports, that in the next fourteen Years, the Exports exceeded the Imports by a Sum of upwards of four hundred thouſand Pounds, and in the laſt five Years of the ſaid Period, the Encreaſe of Agriculture had been ſo rapid, as to have exceeded the Imports in their Value by a Sum of upwards of two Millions Sterling. I therefore conceive, that the ſubſtituting a new Bounty, in the ſtead of thoſe Bounties which have operated ſo extenſively to the Advantage of this Kingdom, is a very dangerous Experiment, and inconſiſtent with that Wiſdom, which ought to direct the Determination of Parliament.

2. Becauſe the preſent Circumſtances of this Kingdom make it peculiarly dangerous to try ſuch Experiment, as the great Fall in the Price of every Species of Grain, and the enormous Price at which Cattle of all Sorts are now ſold, hold out to the Farmer a conſiderable Inducement to convert his Lands which he has hitherto applied to Agriculture into Paſturage.

3. Becauſe the Bounty given by the Bill cannot be Co-extenſive with the Bounties in the ſtead of which it is ſubſtituted.

4. Becauſe it is enacted by the ſaid Act, that ſo ſoon as the Paymaſter and Inſpectors and Examiners, ſhall deliver upon Oath to the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Revenue, an Account of the Amount of Fees received by them in three Years ending the twenty-fifth of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, by virtue of the Acts therein named, and alſo the Expenſes of executing the ſaid Offices reſpectively, during ſaid Time, and the ſaid Commiſſioners or any four or more of them ſhall certify their Examination into, and Approbation of ſuch Account, and ſhall ſtate the yearly Average of the ſaid Fees, deducting the yearly Average of the ſaid Expenſes during the ſaid Time, they the ſaid Paymaſter, Inſpectors and Examiners, ſhall be entitled to receive, and ſhall receive during their reſpective Lives, a Sum equal to the Amount of ſuch yearly Average, after ſuch Deduction. Now it appears to us, that the Act which granted the ſaid Coaſt Bounties, was an experimental Law, and was at the Time that the ſaid Officers were appointed, within ſeven Years of its Expiration. That it is required by the ſaid Act, that the Inſpector ſhall attend from ſeven in the Morning until four in the Afternoon in Winter, and from ſix in the Morning till nine in the Afternoon in Summer, and that he ſhall inſpect and weigh all ſuch Corn and Grain brought Coaſt-ways on board the Ship bringing in the ſame, for which Trouble he is to receive one Penny for each Barrel ſo weighed or inſpected by him. That it appears from the Returns laid before this Houſe of the Sum received by the ſaid Inſpector, on Account of the ſaid Fee for two Years ending at Lady-day one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, that the Number of Barrels inſpected by him amounted to eight hundred and eighty thouſand two hundred and ſeventy-three, that however juſt it may be, that a moderate Compenſation ſhould be made to ſuch Officer for his Loſſes occaſioned by the Determination of his temporary Office, we cannot find any Principle to juſtify his Claim upon the Public, after all the Duties of his Office have ceaſed, to a Sum equal to that which he was entitled to, for the Execution of an Office requiring ſuch a conſtant Attendance, and ſuch ſevere and laborious Duties.

5. Becauſe the Mode of aſcertaining the Amount of the Annuity to be given to ſuch Inſpector, is exceptionable in the Extreme, as it holds out a Temptation to Perjury, in as much as the Amount of the Expenſes incurred in executing the ſaid Office reſts entirely within his Knowledge.

6. Becauſe it appears from the Returns laid before this Houſe, that the ſaid Inſpector has a Salary of two hundred Pounds a Year, and that the Fees received by him in two Years ending at the twenty-fifth of March, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, did amount to three thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty-ſeven Pounds ſixteen Shillings and one Penny, and that the Expenſes of executing the ſaid Office incurred in the Year ending at Lady-day, one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, amounted to the Sum of two hundred and ſixty-nine Pounds four Shillings and ſeven Pence, from which we may collect, that the Annuity for Life to this petty Officer of the Revenue as a Compenſation for his Loſs of Fees ariſing from his temporary Office, will, excluſive of the ſaid Salary, amount to a Sum of about one thouſand five hundred and ſixty-four Pounds, which Sum exceeds the Salary of the firſt Commiſſioner of his Majeſty's Revenue.

7. Becauſe we conceive that ſuch of the Officers in the Bill named, as have been appointed under ſaid temporary and experimental Law, have not, after that the Duties of their Offices ſhall have ceaſed, any juſt Claim upon the Public, to Annuity for Life, equal to the Amount of the Profits of ſuch temporary Offices.

8 Becauſe we conceive that at a Time when pecuniary Diſtreſs is univerſally felt, when the Neceſſities of the Public have required new Taxes to be impoſed to an Amount hitherto unknown, and when the public Mind is much agitated, it becomes neceſſary that the ſtricteſt Economy ſhould be obſerved. Under theſe Impreſſions we wiſhed to reſcue Adminiſtration from the general Outcry, which we fear will be occaſioned from ſuch an extravagant Miſapplication of the public Money. We fear that it will be ſaid with too much Truth by the People, that thoſe Taxes (the Preſſure of which they feel) have been diverted from thoſe Purpoſes for which they have been raiſed, and have been applied to the Support of a Number of Revenue Officers in Affluence and Idleneſs, who have not any Duty to perform for the Public.

9. Becauſe the ſaid Bill was hurried thro' the Houſe in a moſt improper Manner, departing from the ancient, eſtabliſhed Mode of Proceeding, and although it met with much Oppoſition both upon the ſecond reading, and in the Committee, in which it was declared, that Amendments were intended to be made to the Bill upon the third reading. Yet it went through the Committee, was reported, read a third Time, and paſſed upon the ſame Day. Which Proceedings appear the more unjuſtifiable from the Thinneſs of the Houſe, which upon a Diviſion concerning the third reading of the ſaid Bill, appeared to have conſiſted of fourteen Members only.

10. Becauſe that however juſtifiable it may be in Caſes of Emergency to depart from the eſtabliſhed Forms of Proceeding, yet in this Caſe, no Reaſon was ſuggeſted, which could juſtify ſuch Departure, neither did it appear that any Inconvenience whatſoever could ariſe to the Public from poſtponing the third reading of the ſaid Bill to the Monday following.

The Lord Chancellor from the Lords Committtees, appointed to examine the Matters of the ſealed up Papers received from the Commons the fourth Inſtant, made the following Report, viz.

My Lords,

Report from Secret Committee.

THE Lords Committees appointed to examine the Matters of the ſealed up Papers received from the Houſe of Commons the fourth Inſtant, and to report the ſame as they ſhould appear to them to the Houſe, having carefully examined the Papers referred to them, and compared the ſaid Papers with the Report made by the Secret Committee of the Houſe of Commons, and having received and inveſtigated ſuch further Evidence as they thought in Prudence they were called upon to examine, have come to an unanimous Reſolution immediately to report to your Lordſhips, that they are fully ſatisfied and convinced from the Evidence laid before them, that a traiterous and alarming Conſpiracy has been formed, and that ſundry Acts have been done in purſuance thereof, by certain affiliated Societies and Perſons in different Parts of this Kingdom, calling themſelves United Iriſhmen, for the Subverſion of the eſtabliſhed Laws and Conſtitution, and the Introduction of a Syſtem of Anarchy, Plunder and Confuſion, ſimilar to that which has fatally prevailed in France.

Your Committee think it neceſſary further to report to your Lordſhips, that it has appeared diſtinctly to them, that ſuch a Syſtem was the firſt and fundamental Object of theſe Societies at their original Inſtitution in the Summer of the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-one, and that the Attainment of what are called Parliamentary Reform and Catholick Emancipation, were and continue, to be held out by them merely as a Pretence for their Aſſociations, and with a View to ſeduce Perſons, who were not apprized of their traiterous Deſigns, to unite with them.

It has appeared to your Committee, that theſe Aſſociations have gradually multiplied, and are now extended in a very alarming Degree, that their Members are bound to each other by Oaths of Secrecy, and appear to be firmly united in a general Compact to ſubvert the Monarchy, and to eſtabliſh a Republican Government in Ireland. To effect this Object, it has appeared clearly to your Committee, that Meaſures have been adopted by them, and are ſtill continued, for procuring Arms and Ammunition to be diſtributed amongſt the Accomplices in this Conſpiracy, for effectuating by open Force their Purpoſes, and particularly that Pikes in very conſiderable Numbers have been procured by them.—And it has appeared clearly, that they look to Force only; for that, they have unequivocally avowed their Hoſtility to the Parliament, and to all Members of whom it is compoſed without Diſtinction or Exception.—It has further appeared to your Committee, that the Leaders and Directors of theſe Aſſociations are now, and have been for ſome Time paſt, anxiouſly engaged in uniting with them a Claſs of Men who had formerly diſturbed the Peace

Peace of this Country, by Acts of Outrage, Robbery and Murder, under the Appellation of Defenders, and your Committee have Reaſon to apprehend that in a certain Degree they have ſucceeded.

Your Committee having carefully examined the Report made by the Secret Committee of the Houſe of Commons which your Lordſhips have referred to them, find that it is fully ſupported by the Evidence which has been inveſtigated by your Committee, and therefore they have forborn to enter into the Detail contained in the ſaid Report, which otherwiſe they ſhould have thought it neceſſary to lay before your Lordſhips; but they beg Leave to refer your Lordſhips to the ſaid Report, which will be found to contain Facts of a moſt intereſting and important Nature, and deſerving your Lordſhips moſt ſerious Conſideration; and in Addition to the Facts contained in the ſaid Report, your Committee think it neceſſary to ſtate to your Lordſhips, that it has appeared diſtinctly and unequivocally to them, that a traiterous Correſpondence and Communication, has been carried on between the Leaders and Directors of the Societies of United Iriſhmen, and the Executive Directory of the French Republic, the Period at which this Correſpondence was proved to have taken Place, has appeared to your Committee, to have been between the Month of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-five, and the Month of January one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, and the Means by which it was carried on, in that Inſtance, have been fully proved before your Committee; and it has alſo appeared to your Committee, that in the Event of Succeſs on the Part of theſe Conſpirators, it has been decided that all Perſons who from their Principles or Situations, may be deemed inimical to the Conſpiracy, ſhall be maſſacred, the firſt proſcribed Liſt it has appeared to your Committee, has been calculated by one of their Leaders at thirty thouſand Perſons.

Under Circumſtances ſo novel and alarming, your Committee ſubmit to your Lordſhips the Expediency of their being empowered to make further Enquiries, and to receive ſuch Communications as may be made to them by Order of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, or by the Committee of Secrecy appointed by the Houſe of Commons, whoſe Zeal and Aſſiduity in conſort with your Lordſhips, cannot fail, we truſt, in detecting this Scene of Iniquity, and thereby averting the Calamities in which the further Progreſs of ſuch a Conſpiracy muſt neceſſarily involve this happy and proſperous Nation.

Ordered, that the ſaid Report be taken into Conſideration To-morrow, and the Lords ſummoned. — to be taken into Conſideration,

Ordered, that the ſaid Report be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof. — Ordered to be printed,

Ordered, that a Meſſage be ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Weſtby and Mr. Walker, two of the Maſters in Chancery, with a Copy of the ſaid Report. — Copy to be ſent to Commons, and Ordered, that the Secret Committee have Leave to ſit again, and that they be empowered to make further Enquiries, and to receive ſuch Communications as may be made to them by Order of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, or by the Committee of Secrecy appointed by the Houſe of Commons. — Committee Leave to ſit again.

House in Consideration of Report

The House (according to Order) proceeded to take into Consideration the Report from the Lords Committees, appointed to examine the Matters of the sealed up Papers received from the Commons the fourth Instant,

The same was read by the Clerk;

And Consideration being had thereof.

Resolution for an Address to Lord Lieutenant.

Resolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, nemine dissentiente, that an humble Address be presented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, representing to him, that having taken into our most serious Consideration, the Communications which his Excellency has been pleased to make to us, respecting Designs against the public Peace and Safety, carried on within this Kingdom. We think it our bounden Duty at this Period, humbly to lay before his Excellency those Sentiments to which we are led by the Result of that Examination.

We have seen with the utmost Concern and Indignation, that there exists within this Kingdom a seditious and traiterous Conspiracy, entered into by a Number of Persons calling themselves United Irishmen, directed to the Subversion of the Authority of his Majesty and the Parliament, and to the utter Destruction of the established Constitution and the Government of this Kingdom, by separating it from the Crown of Great Britain, and that for the Execution of these wicked and detestable Designs, Means of open Violence are preparing, and Acts meditated leading directly to all the Horrors of Insurrection, Anarchy and Rebellion.

That with the fullest Conviction of these Designs, and of the fixed Determination of those who entertain them to make the desperate Attempt to carry them into Execution. We feel ourselves bound to repeat to his Excellency our Gratitude for the Measures which his Excellency has already taken for the Suppression of this traiterous Conspiracy, and has been graciously pleased to communicate to us.

That we have the fullest Confidence in his Excellency's Wisdom and Firmness, and rely on his immediate and vigorous Direction of the full Energy of all Powers as well Military as Civil entrusted to his Care, effectually to put down all such desperate Traitors as shall persist in their wicked and rebellious Designs.

That

That we are ſatisfied, that many Perſons have been induced by falſe Pretences and Intimidation to enter into this Conſpiracy, and we cannot but expreſs our humble Hope at the ſame Time, that the moſt deciſive Meaſures will be adopted to put down thoſe who ſhall audaciouſly continue to conſpire againſt the State; that his Excellency will adopt lenient Meaſures towards ſuch as ſhall quit theſe traiterous Combinations, and ſhew a Diſpoſition to return to their Allegiance, from which they have been ſo ſeduced.

And that we beg Leave to aſſure his Excellency, that as we are determined to defend with Reſolution and Vigour againſt our foreign Enemies, the Rights of his Majeſty's Crown, the Safety and Welfare of our Country, and the Exiſtence of good Order and civil Society, ſo we will on every Occaſion, afford to his Excellency the fulleſt Support and Aſſiſtance, in maintaining inviolate the free Conſtitution of this Kingdom, and in reſiſting the deſperate Purpoſes of thoſe who would involve their Country in all the Horrors of civil Commotion.

Committee to prepare Addreſs.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſcount Dillon, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet forthwith, in the Committee Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Viſcount Dillon reported from the Lords Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Day, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz:

To his Excellency

JOHN-JEFFRIES EARL CAMDEN,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, having taken into our moſt ſerious Conſideration the Communications which your Excellency has been pleaſed to make to us, reſpecting Deſigns againſt the public Safety carried on within this Kingdom, think it our bounden Duty at this Period, humbly to lay before your Excellency thoſe Sentiments to which we are led by the Reſult of that Examination.

We have ſeen with the utmoſt Concern and Indignation, that there exiſts within this Kingdom a ſeditious and traiterous Conſpiracy, entered into by a Number of Perſons calling themſelves United Iriſhmen, directed to the Subverſion of the Authority of his Majeſty and the Parliament, and to the utter Deſtruction of the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution and Government of this Kingdom, by ſeparating it from the Crown of Great Britain, and that for the Execution of this wicked and deteſtable Deſign, Means of open Violence are preparing, and Acts meditated leading directly to all the Horrors of Inſurrection, Anarchy and Rebellion.

That with the fulleſt Conviction of theſe Deſigns, and of the fixed Determination of thoſe who entertain them, to make the deſperate Attempt to carry them into Execution. We feel ourſelves bound to repeat to your Excellency, our Gratitude for the Meaſures which your Excellency has already taken for the Suppreſſion of this traiterous Conſpiracy, and have been graciouſly pleaſed to communicate to us. We have the fulleſt Confidence in your Excellency's Wiſdom and Firmneſs, and rely on your immediate and vigorous Direction of the full Energy of all the Powers, as well Military as Civil, entruſted to your Care, effectually to put down all ſuch deſperate Traitors as ſhall perſiſt in their wicked and rebellious Deſigns. We are ſatisfied that many Perſons have been induced by falſe Pretences and Intimidation to enter into this Conſpiracy; and we cannot but expreſs our humble Hope, at the ſame Time, that the moſt deciſive Meaſures are adopted to put down thoſe who ſhall audaciouſly continue to conſpire againſt the State, that your Excellency will adopt lenient Meaſures towards ſuch as ſhall quit theſe traiterous Combinations, and ſhew a Diſpoſition to return to their Allegiance, from which they have been ſo ſeduced.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, that as we are determined to defend with Reſolution and Vigour againſt our Foreign Enemies, the Rights of his Majeſty's Crown, the Safety and Welfare of our Country, and the Exiſtence of good Order and civil Society, ſo we will on every Occaſion, afford to your Excellency the fulleſt Support and Aſſiſtance, in maintaining inviolate the free Conſtitution of this Kingdom, and in reſiſting the deſperate Purpoſes of thoſe who would involve their Country in all the Horrors of civil Commotion.

20. An Act to amend an Act paſſed in the twenty-ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for improving and repairing the Turnpike Road leading from the City of Dublin to Kilcullen-Bridge in the County of Kildare, and to the twenty-one Mile Stone, Weſtward of the ſaid Bridge.

To theſe Bills the Deputy Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz:

"Le Roy le veult."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I HAVE the Satisfaction of being at length enabled to relieve you from your laborious Attendance in Parliament, and am commanded by his Majeſty to expreſs the juſt Senſe he entertains of that firm Temper and vigorous Determination, which you have uniformly manifeſted in ſupporting his Majeſty's Government, and protecting our happy Conſtitution from the Attempts of every foreign and domeſtic Enemy.

I have much Pleaſure in announcing to you, that the Britiſh Parliament has paſſed Acts for aboliſhing the Bounty on Sail Cloth exported to Ireland, and for prohibiting the Importation of Cambrick from all Countries except this Kingdom.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I am to thank you in his Majeſty's Name for your Unanimity in voting the extraordinary Supplies, which the Public Exigencies demanded.

However unprecedented thoſe Supplies have been in Extent, and however difficult they may have been rendered from the State of public Credit, you have wiſely attended to the ſuperior Conſideration of national Safety. Such an Exertion is the ſureſt Proof that you are truly ſenſible of the invaluable Bleſſings, which we are contending to preſerve, and that the beſt Means of effecting an honorable Peace, and of reſtoring all the Comforts of Tranquility, are by diſplaying at once your Determination and your Power, and by convincing your Enemies of the Extent of your Reſources, as well as of the Steadineſs of your Courage.

The ready Aſſiſtance which has been received from the Siſter Kingdom, in facilitating the Loan of the Year, whilſt it is a ſure Demonſtration of her friendly Cordiality, cannot fail to ſhew how inſeparable are the mutual Intereſts of the two Kingdoms, and how neceſſary their Connection is, for their mutual Proſperity.

Your Humanity in directing your Attention to the preſent Diſtreſs among the Manufacturers, does not leſs command my Approbation than your Prudence in the Mode of conveying Relief by increaſing the Means of their Employment.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Powers with which you entruſted me by the Suſpenſion of the Habeas Corpus Act, have enabled me to bring to light, and to diſconcert the formidable and ſecret Conſpiracy which had been formed for the total Overthrow of your Eſtabliſhments, the Deſtruction of Property, and the Diſſolution of Government. This Conſpiracy has been ſo fully unfolded by your Wiſdom, that it can no longer ſpread itſelf under the inſiduous Pretence which it had artfully aſſumed of improving the Conſtitution. In the Meaſures whether of Vigilance or of Coercion, which you have recommended for its Extinction, I ſhall not relax. It will be my Study to temper the neceſſary Acts of Severity and Rigour, by conciliatory Offers of Clemency and Pardon, to exhort the infatuated and deluded to abandon their Deceivers, and to ſummon the guilty to Repentance, but at the ſame Time, it is, and will be my fixed Purpoſe, to proceed with Vigour againſt thoſe who regardleſs of every Warning and Admonition ſhall continue their deſperate Efforts to involve this flouriſhing Country in all the Horrors of Inſurrection and Invaſion, of Bloodſhed and of Anarchy.

I have already the Satisfaction to acquaint you that great Numbers, who had been unfortunately ſeduced, have returned to a Senſe of Duty, and been admitted to his Majeſty's Clemency, and I truſt that by Perſeverance and Energy, every Veſtige of Diſaffection will be effaced, and univerſally give way to the Return of that Spirit of Loyalty, which has ſo long been the diſtinguiſhing Characteriſtick of this Kingdom.

I cannot omit to congratulate you on the unimpaired Luſtre of that Spirit which ſo conſpicuouſly ſhone forth when the Enemy's Fleet appeared on our Coaſts; nor can I too often repeat my full Senſe of your Wiſdom in the Eſtabliſhment of Diſtrict Corps. I have the moſt ſatisfactory Accounts of their Improvement in Diſcipline, as well as of their Exertions in quelling and preventing Inſurrection, and I have myſelf witneſſed the unexampled Exertions, good Conduct, and military Appearance of the Corps of the Metropolis, whoſe unceaſing and unwearied Vigilance, at a moſt important Criſis, checked every Attempt to produce Confuſion by Riot and Tumult, and at the ſame Time that it deſtroyed the Hopes of our Enemies, reſtored Confidence to the Country in general.

Your judicious Augmentation of Pay to his Majeſty's Regular and Militia Forces, which muſt render their Situation ſo highly comfortable, is at once a ſeaſonable and honorable Acknowledgment of their Steadineſs and Loyalty. The traiterous Efforts which have been made to entice them from their Allegiance, have had a fatal Effect in a few lamentable Examples. I truſt, however, they have excited in the Minds of others ſo timely a Repentance, and in the Reſt, ſuch Indignation and Abhorrence, that no future Danger can be apprehended.

Your wiſe Inſtitution of a Sinking Fund, in the midſt of financial Difficulties cannot be too much applauded, and will prevent any ruinous Depreciation of funded Stock; and being eſtabliſhed before the national Debt has accumulated to any oppreſſive Magnitude, will tend to prevent its becoming dangerous. A Meaſure ſo truly calculated for preſerving the Reſources of the State, and ſupporting public Credit, muſt ſecure to you the Gratitude of an enlightened People.

His Majeſty is exerting every proper Effort to produce a ſpeedy and ſecure Peace. It will be our Duty to aſſiſt thoſe Efforts, by convincing our Enemies, from the State of our Preparation, and the Unanimity of our Spirit, that they can hope for no Advantage by prolonging the Calamities of War.

Wherever your Abilities, your Influence and Exertions can be moſt advantageouſly employed on your Return to your ſeveral Counties, I am confident they will be moſt conſpicuouſly diſplayed. A conſtant Intercourſe with your immediate Neighbourhoods, muſt give you the Opportunity of affording to the People both Aſſiſtance and Example, of reclaiming thereby the deluded and ill-diſpoſed, and confirming the well-affected in their Fidelity and Allegiance. A forward Spirit of Loyalty, which, in moſt

Parts

Parts of the Kingdom, has ſucceſsfully checked the Progreſs of Treaſon, will be ſtrengthened and diffuſed by your Preſence and Exertions. It will be my Ambition to ſecond your Activity and Zeal, and to co-operate with your Efforts for reſtoring the Tranquility and Proſperity of the Kingdom.

We have a common and ſacred Cauſe to defend, the Independence and Conſtitution of Great Britain and Ireland, from which both Kingdoms have derived innumerable Bleſſings under his Majeſty's auſpicious Reign. They were purchaſed by the deareſt Blood of your Anceſtors, in a Criſis not leſs formidable than the preſent. I truſt we ſhall not fail to imitate their great Example, and that we ſhall be enabled by ſimilar Courage, and continued Firmneſs, to tranſmit to our Poſterity inviolate, that invaluable Inheritance which their Valour reſcued, and their Perſeverance preſerved.

After which the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Parliament prorogued.

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Thurſday the 10th Day of Auguſt next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thurſday the 10th Day of Auguſt next.
